Our Jewish Work

L. C. EVANS, President,Southwestern Union Conference

Jesus said, "Salvation is of the Jews." When we think of the contribution this great people has made to civilization through their relationship with the things of God, what a tragedy their eyes seem blinded to the true Messiah. However, there is evidence throughout the world that scores of Jewish people, both old and young, are turning to Jesus and accepting Him as their personal Saviour.

In New York City, while working in that field, we had the privilege of helping to organize the first all-Jewish Seventh-day Adventist church in the United States. God is pouring out His Spirit upon all flesh and today there is one Seventh-day Adventist to approximately every 2,000 people in the world.

In speaking of the advancement of the message of the remnant church, the servant of the Lord says of the Jewish people: "In the closing proclamation of the gospel, when special work is to be done for classes of people hitherto neglected, God expects His messengers to take particular interest in the Jewish people whom they find in all parts of the earth." A.A., P. 381.

Surely the hour is long overdue for a real advance to be made in behalf of the Jewish people. Sabbath, March 21, is the day when an earnest appeal will be made in all of our churches for the Israelite Magazine. We expect that our people will double and treble anything they have ever done before because of present-day conditions in the light of Bible prophecy. Surely things are rapidly coming into line for the climax of all things earthly. As we pray earnestly, "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?" the Lord will speak to our hearts and we will have the conviction that nothing short of "our best" is good enough for God in any and all phases of His work. May His richest blessing be yours as you respond to this urgent and important appeal.

Much Land Yet To Be Possessed

by G. R. NASH,

Sabbath School Department, General Conference

"There remaineth yet very much land to be possessed." This appeal, found in Joshua 13:1, was spoken to Joshua approximately forty years after Israel had come out of Egypt. They had driven their enemies out of some parts of the promised land and there they had settled down to enjoy temporary blessings, not worrying about going forward to possess all the land, according to the instruction of the Lord. Strong tribes that should have been taken in the conquest by Israel were still inhabiting the surrounding country. God's call to His people had been to go in and possess ALL the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, and the Jebusites. They were to leave none of it unconquered. Their failure to carry out God's plan in this matter contributed in a large measure to their apostasy and final rejection by the Lord.

Today God has called this people to do a great task. "To every nation, kindred, tongue and people," is the command of the Lord and Saviour. Although more than a century has passed since we began our task, it is far from being accomplished. God has blessed our labors and has given us a degree of success. We delight in telling of the rapid growth of our work, but "there remaineth yet very much land to be possessed."

"The work of Seventh-day Adventists is being carried on in nearly all of the principal countries of the world, and in many of the smaller geographical and political divisions. It is generally considered that a country or political division has been entered by Seventh-day Adventist interests when regular medical, educational, or other mission activities are being conducted among the people of that particular area, or where there is in the territory one or more groups of persons connected in an organized way with the denomination, such as in Sabbath school or in church fellowship. A new field is not considered as entered when only itinerant preaching or colporteur work has been done, or when there are only a few scattered believers." Statistical Report for 1962, p. 27.

Much Land Yet to Be Possessed

A great work has been done. We have entered 189 countries, representing 98.23% of the world population (which is approximately three billion). We are publishing literature in 228 languages and doing oral work in 700 additional languages. Nevertheless, I am sure all will agree that there is "much land yet to be possessed." It is true that we have entered 189 countries, but some of them have barely been touched with our fingertips as far as the gospel is concerned. There are still 34 countries that have not been entered. God's command is: "Go forward; add new territory; enter new territory . . . and give the last message of warning to the world." Evangelism, p. 61.

Jesus can never take us home to glory until we have completed our task — which includes the conquest of the unconquered areas of earth. Never in our history have Sabbath school members faced a greater challenge than today, yet the lethargy manifested by many members toward the uncompleted task and the unentered territories is astonishing. Thousands upon thousands ought to be sacrificing, working, and giving of their means and of their time that the work might go forward on these frontiers. This message was started through sacrifice. It will be finished through sacrifice. Where are those who are willing to make a covenant with God through sacrifice — to do something unusual for Him and give unparalleled support to the cause in response to this special appeal?

"Eternity stretches before us. The curtain is about to be lifted. What are we thinking of, that we cling to our selfish love of ease, while all around us souls are perishing? Have our hearts become utterly callous? Can we not see and understand that we have a work to do in behalf of others? . . . Is it in vain that God has given you a knowledge of His will? Is it in vain that He has sent you warning after warning of the nearness of the end? Do you believe the declarations of His word concerning what is coming upon the world? Do you believe that God's judgments are hanging over the inhabitants of the earth? How, then, can you sit at ease, careless and indifferent?" Testimonies, vol. 9, pp. 26, 27.

The coming of Jesus and the close of probation must be very near, and there are millions of human beings still in heathen darkness, upon whom the light of God's message has never shone. What shall we do about trying to reach them during this year? Jesus has warned us that "the night cometh when no man can work." Very soon our opportunities to save men will be forever past.

We are sure there are many — yes, perhaps very many — of our Sabbath school members in different countries who could and would be willing to double their offerings during this coming year. Several million dollars beyond any previous year's income are urgently needed to meet the needs of our expanding world program.

Not only in North America but in many of our other home-base divisions, God's people are unusually prosperous. Remember that the Bible rule for giving offerings is "as God hath prospered" you (I Cor. 16:2). Since 1930 our Sabbath school offerings per capita in North America have increased just 1.7 times, while out tithe per capita has increased 4¼ times. The same picture is more or less true in other sections of the world field. I ask the question: "Are we really giving 'as God hath prospered'?" God has dealt liberally with us. Shall we not do something extraordinary for God and show our deep gratitude for His blessings by reaching out a helping hand to those who are still in darkness? Then the work can be finished, and we can ever be with our Lord.

The year 1964 should be marked by our greatest efforts to reach the nations of earth and finish the work of God.

TITHING

"But while He pronounces a blessing upon those who bring in their tithes, He pronounces a curse upon those who withhold them. Very recently I have had direct light from the Lord upon this question, that many Seventh-day Adventists were robbing God in tithes and offerings, and it was plainly revealed to me that Malachi has stated the case as it really is. Then how dare any man even think in his heart that a suggestion to withhold the tithes and offerings is from the Lord?" Testimonies to Ministers, p. 60.

Elder Schwindt at Lawton

At the time of this writing, the Lawton meeting is in its third week. Elder F. F. Schwindt and Brother R. E. Barrett are leading out in that meeting, and according to reports, they are working toward a strong baptism shortly. The meetings were off to a rather slow start, we are told, but they soon enough gathered strength.

Elder Schwindt's forty-two years of evangelistic experience are having a telling effect on the entire meeting, and many decisions are being obtained in the homes of those visited. Much personal work is being done, with upwards of 43 Bible studies given each week. Sabbath attendances have reached capacity.

Pray that Lawton will be greatly strengthened by these meetings.

W. A. DESSAIN,
President.

A Question You Must Answer

How long has it been since you — Y O U — led a soul to Christ? What are we doing about the "many all around us"? The responsibility becomes personal. "There are multitudes who will never be reached by the gospel unless it is carried to them." These words were penned by Mrs. E. G. White. There is a rewarding way of providing a faith for the

"many all around us."

I am thinking of the Bible correspondence School way. Hundreds of people have been baptized as the result of the Voice of Prophecy and the Faith for Today Bible correspondence schools. We have just learned that 1,500 were baptized in 1963 as a result of just the Faith for Today program.

How can we accelerate our program of evangelism in Oklahoma in 1964? Here is one way:

THREE APPLICATIONS PER MEMBER PER WEEK FOR EIGHT WEEKS. This is the challenge we face. What would happen if every Seventh-day Adventist in Oklahoma accepted this as a personal goal? We would see more than 90,000 applications pour into the Voice of Prophecy and Faith for Today post office boxes in two months. In Oklahoma they are waiting, waiting. They are longing and looking for God, thirsting for a faith in a seemingly faithless world.

Let us look squarely at the question — Will less than "three applications per member per week for eight weeks" be my "dead level best"?

Let us heed the summons personally in the solemn certainty that "... house-to-house labor, searching for souls, hunting for the lost sheep, is the most essential work that can be done." Evangelism, p. 431.

These students from Ozark Academy at Gentry, Arkansas, had charge of the eleven o'clock service at the Muskogee church on a recent Sabbath. Left to right: Roland Schnelder, Enid, Oklahoma, special music; Jim Crew, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, the sermon; Richard Parker, Shreveport, Louisiana, announcements and offering; Don Ross, Siloam Springs, Arkansas, pianist. Wesley Stable, Siloam Springs, Arkansas, (not pictured) accompanied the students to Muskogee. The church very much appreciated their services.

Dorcas Welfare ladies ready to load 36 layettes and $1,000 worth of new clothes on the Oklahoma Conference Disaster Relief Van.

To Clothe the Needy and Comfort the Afflicted

Our Oklahoma Disaster Relief Van was brought into existence over five years ago by the Oklahoma Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Since that time, several tons of clothing have been distributed to hundreds of people in the six disaster areas where our van was in service.

To clothe the needy, to comfort the afflicted, and to point the weary and sin-sick soul to Jesus is the mission and the privilege of every child of God. This welfare ministry has brought great pleasure and spiritual uplift to hundreds of our church members in Oklahoma who have taken part in this Good Samaritan work.

The accompanying picture shows our six Federation presidents and other Dorcas Welfare workers just before loading $1,000 worth of new clothes on our Disaster Relief Van. Thirty-six layettes, averaging $12 each, were also put on the van. These layettes were provided by the Dorcas Societies in the Oklahoma Conference.

This is the time when our people are fulfilling Psalm 110:3, "Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power." Our reward may not come to us in clothing, or money, or food, but "that which he hath given will he pay him again." Proverbs 19:17.

Those who have shared their blessings with the poor and needy will continue to do so at every opportunity. Those who have not been doing this will surely want to during 1964 and until Jesus comes.

Barron Team Completes Cleburne Campaign

January 11 - February 2 marked the first evangelistic effort conducted by the Barron-Turner-Dill team since Elder Barron's recovery and return to active evangelistic work. It was a privilege to have this fine team conduct an effort in Cleburne in the auditorium which was placed in a good location off Highway 67 east.

Six hundred-fifty people attended the opening night. Even though eleven inches of snow fell the first week and the temperature went down to almost zero, meetings continued every night with excellent attendance.

Attendance increased until as many as 970 came out on the second Sabbath afternoon.

Four calls were extended and 121 dear people came forward - some for re consecration - many for baptism. On February 1, Elders Leon Strickland and J. L. Ray baptized 45 who united with the Keene, Cleburne, and Hillsboro churches.

Associated with Elders Barron,

Turner, and Dill were their wives. Also assisting in the meetings were Pastor Mike Petricko from Mineral Wells, Harold Miler from Denison, Elder Brooks Findley, Elder Leon Strickland from Keene, and J. L. Ray of Cleburne.

Mrs. Gladys Nix and LaVon Ray helped with the music. A number of our local members worked hard to make the meetings a success.

We praise God for the success of this effort and for our new members.

tain number of years. Who would like to make the first offer? Watch for more cost details to follow.

Think what a cost of paint, a replaced broken door or window would do for the public image of our church name. As we would want our homes, why not the church property, too? Ask your pastor to plan for a spring rejuvenation and plan to help him achieve this with your strength and funds.

ANSWER TO MEDITATION BOX, Question No. 10: "Withholding the tithe—holding back a part, is regarded by God as serious a sin as the sin of Ananias and Sapphira. . . . When a pledge is made to the cause, it is a vow made to God and should be sacredly kept. In the sight of God it is no better than sacrilege to appropriate to our own use that which has been once pledged to advance His sacred work." T. Vol. 4, pp. 469, 470.

Let Them Make Me A Sanctuary

James O. McMurray, local church elder, stands beside a fruitful persimmon tree in his home back yard to rejoice over the fruits of the San Angelo, Texas, church members' efforts shown in the church building below. In his sixteen years of leadership of this faithful group, joy is paramount in the fruition of this sanctuary at 110 East 18th St.

This red-bricked, one-story chapel was completed October, 1963, seven months after construction started. R. A. Jenkins, district pastor, together with the finesse of his wife, led the congregation to "mount the wall" and not retract till all was enclosed.

October 19, 1963, will long linger in the memory of Brother McMurray as he stood behind the pulpit for the first sermon delivered in the new edifice entitled, "A Book From Heaven." Certainly a new chapter in Texico's history has begun by this labor and sacrifice of love.

"Our prayer is that every service will be conducted reverently to honor God, the heavenly Father, which Jesus came to make known to every honest soul," the very words of Brother McMurray, is the heart's desire of the Texico Conference family.

OBITUARIES

FRANKLIN, Mrs. Blanche Radcliff, was born December 31, 1878, at Palestine, Texas, and died January 1, 1964, at Santa Anna, Texas. She was married to Joel N. Franklin on June 15, 1896, and to this union were born six children, two of whom preceded her in death. Mr. Franklin passed away in October, 1961.

The Franklins, along with other Seventh-day Adventists, established a church school at Madge, Texas, and became charter members of the Seventh-day Adventist church there. Between 1896 and 1911 they traveled almost yearly by covered wagon to central Texas to attend camp meetings. When their children finished the elementary school, they moved to Keene where they made their home for the next fifty years.

Mrs. Franklin is survived by a brother, John M. Radcliff of Glen Rose and Houston, Texas; three daughters: Mrs. Irma Joe Darnaby of Fort Worth, Texas; Mrs. Ida Stewart of Midland, Texas; and Mrs. Dottie E. Parker of Alamosa, Colorado; and one son: J. C. Franklin of Keene, Texas. Eleven grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren as well as many other relatives and friends who mourn her passing. The funeral service was conducted by Elder M. D. Hannah and interment was in the Keene cemetery.

—M. D. Hannah.

FIEDLER, Alvin William, September 2, 1922 - December 17, 1963. The workers and constituency of the Texico Conference were greatly saddened by the tragic death of our beloved brother and fellow-worker. Elder Fiedler was killed instantly when his car went out of control in Albuquerque as he was taking a group of students to their classes at Sandia View Academy.

Our brother began his work in the Lord's vineyard as a teacher in 1948, and was ordained to the ministry in June of 1951. He will long be remembered for his faithful work as a teacher, pastor, and evangelist. Resting in the Sunset Memorial Cemetery at Albuquerque, New Mexico, he awaits the call of the Master.

He will be cherished in the memory of his wife, Mrs. Lucile Fiedler; his two daughters: Dianna and Beverly Fiedler;

SOUTHWESTERN UNION COLLEGE

The complete Voice of Prophecy quartet, Del Delker, contralto soloist, and Brad Braley, accompanist, will join Elder Richards in the daily services.

Chapel services will be held in the Evans Hall Auditorium in the morning for college students and in the

BULLETIN

We have just received word that February Smoke Signals has gone over the 1,000,000 mark in circulation and is well on the way toward 1,500,000, perhaps 2,000,000. Entitled "So You Want to Quit!" this issue likely will eclipse all denominational publication circulation records.

Already hundreds of requests for help in quitting smoking have been received following the Surgeon General's report on smoking and health. This Smoke Signals, co-authored by Elman Folkenberg and J. Wayne McFarland of Five-Day Plan fame, tells smokers how to quit smoking permanently.
