Ingathering and Welfare Work Combined by Roswell, New Mexico, Members

E. E. JOHNSON, Director of Lay Activities,
Texico Conference.

Sister Emma Head of Roswell, New Mexico, really loves Ingathering. She has been doing this work for several years and she thought she wasn't going to get the privilege of going out this year. At camp meeting time, Sister Head was in very poor health. She told her pastor, Elder Sam Elie, that if something didn't happen soon, she didn't see how she would feel well enough to go out this year. So she requested special prayer from the prayer committee. The Lord heard her prayer and she has raised so far this year nearly $800.

Mrs. Head doesn't always get cash donations from her solicitation. This year as she worked through Hondo Valley, she gathered in two pickups and one station wagon full of apples. Again this year, Mrs. Head and some of the other fine ladies from the Roswell church planned a Thanksgiving dinner for unfortunate people of the city. Whenever a merchant said he couldn't give cash, Sister Head asked him if he didn't want to help with their Thanksgiving dinner. Nearly everyone was more than happy to oblige.

One man who operated a creamery said he couldn't afford to give cash, but he did donate 30 half-gallons of milk, 25 one-pound cans of cottage cheese, and 15 frozen pumpkin pies. Two bakeries donated 50 loaves of bread each. Several grocery stores gave food.

A wholesale house gave a case of green beans for this Thanksgiving dinner. Sister Head needed another case of vegetables so because she appreciated this man's gift, she went back to him and offered to buy a case of another kind of vegetable. He replied, "I'm sorry I can't sell you any vegetables, for we are a wholesaler and aren't allowed to. But I do have another case of green beans just like I gave you, and if you like, I'll just give those to you."

Sister Head went down to see the owner of a cafe building that had gone out of business to see if he would rent the building to them for their Thanksgiving dinner. He donated that to the church free of charge.

The Roswell ladies served approximately 150 people a delicious Thanksgiving dinner, and they had enough food left over to feed another hundred. They have this food in a deep freeze waiting to be fed to more unfortunate people at Christmas time.

"This is the fast I have chosen, . . . to deal thy bread to the hungry." This indeed is Dorcas work of the highest order.

Good News! Great News!

During GO Emphasis Week in January the subscription price for GO for 1966 has been reduced from $2.25 to $2.00.

This will include the special General Conference June issue of GO, which will be a 68-page issue. By subscribing for GO NOW you will get the equivalent of 13 issues for LESS THAN THE ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTION PRICE.

You should see the wonderful stories planned for 1966 GO! Any issue will be worth far more than the year's subscription price. Think of it! The laymen's journal for a year for LESS THAN THE COST OF HALF A TANK OF GASOLINE! What inspiration and spiritual pep and power in every issue of GO! Don't miss it!

Fill in the coupon supplied you, and hand it to your church missionary secretary or rush it to your book and Bible house. We want to see 1966 become the laymen's year of greater soul winning.

ADLAI ALBERT ESTEB.

"Listen," Now a Monthly (Continued from page 1)

During the year 1965 Listen has been publishing the Listen News, a twice-per-month newspaper. Will this be continued?

Indeed! The newspaper is becoming a part of Listen itself, incorporated as a vital and regular feature in the magazine, yet retaining the quality of a newspaper. As it has all during 1965, Listen News will combine with its current news coverage, its teen-age features, its inspiration to help smokers and drinkers, its rib-tickling cartoons, its latest pictures and reports from the world of science and medicine.

Listen with the Listen News was $2.50 per year. The new Listen price, on the monthly basis, will be only $3.00 to the public, and to Seventh-day Adventists, the unbelievable price of only $1.50 for twelve issues.

transfer of the Seventh-day Adventist church services from the confines of a restaurant to the fellowship hall of the new church building. Although it will be several months before the sanctuary is completed, all the members sensed that this was a step in the right direction and marked a new day for a church which had met in temporary quarters since organization over two years ago.

The desire to establish a light in a dark county motivated liberal giving and hard work, which under God's blessing, has made possible the advancement of this church building to the present point. When completed the sanctuary will seat over 200 and will be finished in a manner to well represent the Seventh-day Adventist Church in this community.

Watch for further reports from this church as its light grows brighter.

T. J. MOSTERT, Jr., District Pastor.

The New Year Can Be a Joyous Occasion

Christ's followers, of all people, should look forward gladly to the new year before us as a new opportunity, radiant with promise. Has not the Lord we serve and love promised to go with us through every experience before us? It can be like a child walking fearlessly with his hand in his father's, not fearing what lies on before, and confident everything will be all right.

All of us can walk more prayerfully than ever we did. That is always in order, and applies to every forward-looking Christian. And we can live closer to God's Book, making it the guide of our life and that lamp to our feet and light to our path. We can resolve to be better church members than ever we were, kind and exemplary, and upholding the hands of the hard-pressed leaders. We can purpose to be better lights in our community than we have been, doing more missionary work and letting our light shine. And best of all, we can determine by God's grace to follow the Lord more closely in our daily lives so that we will reflect our Lord in our contacts, attitudes, and daily influence.

Why not start the year right by purchasing and following the morning watch devotional book with its stimulating readings for day by day perusal? It is Christ Is Our Victory, by Dr. Murdoch. Such a program will give your life direction and purpose as you enter 1966 greatly assuring it as a joyful occasion.

W. A. DESSAIN, President.

"A Little Child Shall Lead Them"

The kindergarten division of the Oklahoma City Sabbath school has never promoted the Investment fund before. But during the year 1965, the leader, Mrs. Max Tauscher, and the assistant leader, Mrs. Dorothy Moore, have really worked with the children on their Investment projects.

The children were enthusiastic, and looked forward to being present every Sabbath with their "bee money" for Investment. The goal device was a flannel board on which was a beehive. For each 25c brought in for Investment, a bee was placed on the board.

Some of the children brought money they had saved by doing without candy, gum, ice cream, and soda pop. One raised and sold cucumbers. Others helped with the house work, or picked up toys. Also, food labels were saved. Mrs. Tauscher made and sold carrot cup cakes. The boys and girls really planned and worked for their Investment money, and the total raised amounted to $242.95.

Another item of interest in the kindergarten division is that three of the girls learned their memory verses for an entire quarter. They are Becky Shannonhouse, Pam Truitt, and DeAnn Chrispens.

News Items

City Temple Week of Prayer

The City Temple of Dallas gave special study to the spiritual needs of the church for the week of prayer and selected Elder C. S. Myles of the Tulsa, Oklahoma, district as guest speaker.

First, the church divided into three smaller groups for prayer and the Review and Herald readings. At a given time we reassembled in the main auditorium for the nightly messages by Pastor Myles. Because of the emphasis placed on the week of prayer, a large portion of the membership was faithful in nightly attendance.

Elder Myles spoke daily to the academy, and visited in the homes of many of the church members. This was an outstanding week of prayer, we believe it served to fortify the minds of the membership to face perilous times to come.

W. C. JONES, Pastor, City Temple.

Tyler Literature Distribution

It is a regular thing every Sabbath morning, for Jerome Kendall of the Tyler church to make his rounds to all of his literature racks.

For a number of years now Brother "Romie," as most folks call him, Kendall has had a real burden for those of the world to know the truth of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. He has placed several reading racks in washaterias and other places. Brother Kendall delights in seeing people reading our beautiful magazines. "The amazing thing," stated Brother Kendall, "is that every Sabbath when I make my rounds before church, all of these racks are empty. I just can't seem to keep enough literature on hand."

If any of the RECORD readers have back issues of These Times, Listen, Youth's Instructor, or Little Friend,

Funds Secured for Hospital Equipment

Over $2,500 has been raised at Hays Memorial Hospital, San Marcos, to purchase new equipment for medical treatment and rehabilitation of cardiac patients.

Participation in the fund-raising program included the Ladies' Auxiliary, who gave $800, the county medical society and local business men. The local papers and radio station gave publicity to help make the project a success. Bob Scott, administrator, announced that more than enough was now on hand to purchase a Defibrillator, Cardioscope, and a Pace Maker.

The place of the hospital in the community of San Marcos is indicated by the front cover of the new San Marcos telephone directory which pictures the hospital. ALTUS HAYES,

On the Go with Texico!

► During the Lubbock Church School week of prayer conducted by Wilbur A. Burton, two decisions for Christ were made.

► The Barron-Turner Evangelistic Team is finishing a series of meetings in San Angelo with Pastor R. E. Cash. The work of laymen like Brother James McMurray has resulted in a good attendance each night. The meetings are being conducted in an air tent located by the side of the large civic auditorium in San Angelo. We are anxiously awaiting news of a good baptism there.

► At the same time, meetings are being conducted in Carlsbad by Elder L. E. Tucker, Texas Conference revivalist, and Elder S. J. Elie, the Carlsbad pastor. The spirit and attendance have been running very good. These two districts are helping to put Texico on the go!

WHAT IS IT — NO. 1?

The Blessings of Family Tithing

Pictured on page six is the family of Mrs. A. W. Fiedler who have found the joy and blessings of family tithing. Every bit of earned income is carefully studied to see that the Lord's tenth is reserved for Him. If you would interrogate the Fiedlers to determine the specific blessings they have received, they would say that most tithers would be surprised at:

1. the amount of money they have for the Lord's work.
2. the deepening of their spiritual life through paying of tithe.
3. the ease of meeting their obligations with the nine-tenths they have left.
4. the ease in going from one-tenth to larger giving.

5. the preparation it gives to wise and faithful stewardship over the nine-tenths that remain.
6. most people will be surprised at themselves for not adopting the plan sooner.
7. the peculiar joy that comes in counting the tithe sacred unto the Lord.

Isn't it time to review our ledgers as the year ends, to square up with God?

BARBARA HAND, Editorial Assistant,

New Children's Books

Animal stories delight any child, but particularly delightful are two animal books just published by Pacific Press — Billy Bison and Cats Are for Keeps.

Sabbath school leaders, school teachers, parents, or indulgent grandparents, all will find Billy Bison remarkable for its ability to both entertain and instruct. Interwoven with facts about the history of the American bison is the irresistible story of a baby albino buffalo, who eventually becomes leader of his great herd. He grows up on the plains of the Midwest amid the flowers and wildlife of sunny summer and the ice and blizzard of hard winter. Written and illustrated by Joe Maniscalco, drawings of buffalo and other animals as they lived before man advanced across the Great Plains enliven the pages.

The special charm of Cats Are for Keeps is its rich story line loaded with amusing anecdotes about a little girl and her pet kittens. Each of the book's nine chapters is an exciting episode, setting an example of kindness toward pets and revealing what fun pets can be. The author is Muriel Curtis Thompson. Nineteen full-page drawings by Howard Larkin illustrate the book.

These books sell for only $3.25 each. Or you can purchase them with two other children's books, My Bible Friends, Book 7, and Wonder Tales of the Bible, Book 3. These are the Primary Missionary Volunteer Book Club selections for 1966 — a $14.20 value for a club price of just $10.10.

Order all these new books today from your local conference book and Bible house or through your church missionary secretary.
