"Home and School"

S. A. Ruskier

Two very important factors entering into the right training of boys and girls are the influences of the home and the influences of the school. Seventh-day Adventists believe firmly in the fact that any Christianity worth while will make itself felt first of all in our own homes. We can not over-estimate the importance of every Seventhday Adventist home being a real Christian home. The first training which the children receive is in the home, and the first teachers molding and influencing the life of the child are its parents.

The mother in a very special way carries the great responsibility of doing the first real teaching that any child comes under the influence of. As Seventh-day Adventists we do not operate church schools as a substitute for home training. is no substitute for home training. We operate our church schools to supplement the training which the child receives in its Christian home. Not very many children will go astray who have been under the influence of consistent Christian parents in the home, followed by the influence of a system of Christian education enjoyed by the child in the church school, the academy, and the college.

In order to be of still further assistance to our homes and our church schools in child training. the denomination is providing very helpful material in the form of our journal, Home and School. The contents of this timely journal will be found to be of inestimable value to fathers and mothers in the home, as well as to teachers in our church Home and School should enjoy a much wider circulation in our union that it is now having. Why not become acquainted with this important help in child training provided by the General Conference, by obtaining a liberal supply of the special issue of Home and School known as the 'Gather the Children Edition" at only five cents a copy? This journal should enjoy a wide circulation. In addition to circulating hundreds and thousands of copies of this special edition of Home and School in our union, may we not ask our fathers and mothers to give very special consideration to the matter of being regular subscribers for this journal. We believe that the Home and School, if carefully read by our parents, will greatly strengthen them in their efforts to train their children in a way pleasing to God. After all, it is the home that is the citadel of Christian training and Christian culture, strength, and development. It is within the sacred precincts of the home that the first and perhaps the most important lessons of life are learned by the boys and girls God has blessed the home with.

If, as a people, we can under God's blessings do very thorough work in training our boys and girls in real, genuinely Christian homes and in efficient church schools, we shall be successful in taking a large number of our children with us to our heavenly home.

"THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY"

Outside of the Bible every Seventh-day Adventist should prize the writings of the Spirit of prophecy above every other form of literature. These volumes should be loved and studied, as they contain instructions that the God of heaven has sent to us for these perilous times in which we live.

God, in His great mercy and infinite love, has given us the precious instructions that these priceless volumes contain. To neglect them is to do so at the peril of our souls. The result of neglect of truth is the same as rejection. To fail to appreciate and to obtain the light that God has given us, leaves us in the dark. One who is in the dark knoweth not whither he goeth. Therefore if we appreciate eternal life, we should avail ourselves of all the light God has given us to escape the pitfalls of the enemy of our souls.

The times are perilous because of the darkness that covers the earth, and the gross darkness, the people. The perils are the outgrowth of neglected light. One of the great perils to you and to me s that we neglect the very thing God has given for our salvation. Therefore we should prize the instructions he has given us and put forth our best efforts to avail ourselves of their blessings.

In order to help everyone who desires them to obtain the invaluable works of the Spirit of prophecy, a discount of 25 per cent is being made in their price for the summer months. These volumes can be purchased on the installment plan. You can start paying now, and they will be delivered to you as soon as the full amount is paid. Therefore let me exhort you, brethren and sisters, to make a real sacrifice, if necessary, to get these invaluable books. You can get them in cloth binding for $9.00 for the complete set, or $12.00 in leather if you desire them in this binding.

STRIKES AND RIOTS REVEAL CAPITAL AND LABOR CONFLICT

New York, N. Y. — "600 Radicals Wield Night Sticks on Patrolmen on Guard at City Welfare Office."

Toledo, Ohio.—"Two Slain, Score Injured as National Guard Fires on Toledo Strike Rioters." Minneapolis, Minn.—"35,000 Join Strike; Riot in Minneapolis."

These headlines from the New York Times indicate how the newspapers are bristling with current news on the labor conflict. Every day the American people are reading about what is going on in the warfare between capital and labor. They should be reading about what the warfare between capital and labor means in relation to the second coming of Christ.

Present Truth, No. 54, with its leading article, entitled, "The World-Wide Cry for Bread," should be scattered by the thousand everywhere.

People will read it now.

Bulk prices: 100 copies, $.75. 1000 copies, $4.75. Order from your Book and Bible House now, wh le interest is keen.

A SPECIAL OFFERING

Realizing the importance of building up the educational work in this conference so that our boys and girls may receive the Christian education that the Lord designs they should have, the conference committee voted that special promotion be given to offerings for elementary schools, so that there will be enough in the treasury to care for the summer school expense of our teachers, and also to purchase some much needed equipment for our schools. Teachers need the summer school to keep up in their work and be really successful. You cannot have a better school than the teacher.

Sabbath, June 23, has been set apart for the taking of this offering. We hope every church in this conference will take an offering on that day for the elementary schools. Please endeavor to raise in your church an amount equal to ten cents for each member. If this were done, it would be a wonderful help; and you would be making possible the holding of our boys and girls in the message, and the training of the children for the Master's service.

To the Treasurers: All of the loose collection in the offerings on the day set aside for promotion of the elementary school work, should be sent to the conference to be used for this purpose.

R. I. Keate, L. A. Butterfield.

CONFERENCE NEWS

The largest and best camp meeting ever held in Meridian came to its close on Saturday night, June 9. The Lord came very near to us, and the universal testimony given was that it was a grand meeting. There was a considerable number more in attendance this year than in any previous year in this place.

As we advised, where possible, all to be baptized in their home churches rather than at camp meeting.

there were only two baptized.

There was a sermon broadcast over the radic each day from one-thirty to two p. m. On Sundays these programs were broadcast at six p. m. In addition to this, through most of the camp meeting there was another half hour musical program at six to six-thirty p. m. daily.

Each day there was about a column in the daily newspaper of Meridian regarding the meetings and most of the time this had double column head lines, beginning on the front page of the paper

There was a good outside attendance at the night services, and we feel that there was a deep and lasting impression made on the community in favor of the truth.

The colored camp meeting was held in Meridian in the neighborhood of the colored church during this same time. They had a much better attendance than they had the previous two years when the camp meetings were held in Meridian. Eight people from this city were baptized at the close of the meeting. These were primarily additional fruitage of the effort which Elder Curtis held in this city

During the camp meeting there was held a committee meeting, at which time the plans for the summer efforts were settled. Elder L. A. Butterfield is to hold a tabernacle effort in Vicksburg. Brother A. D. McKee and Miss Lemon will be associated with him. Elder Walter Walker will hold a tent effort in Vicksburg. We are expecting H. E. McClure and wife, and at least one other, to be associated with him in the effort there.

The conference has given a call to Elder B. H. Shaw, the Bible teacher at Collegedale, to connect with this field as pastor of the Pensacola church; and a call has been placed for Elder R. J. Sype, who is now in charge of the work at Nassau, Bahama Islands, to connect with this conference as home missionary and Sabbath school secretary.

Brother C. E. Botimer is going to hold a selfsupporting effort at Graham, Alabama. Wolfe will continue his aggressive work in Birmingham. Elder Shuler is to have his first baptismal service soon, and about the time this article comes out, we expect to organize a new church in Montgomery, Alabama. Elder Shuler will continue his work in Montgomery, and Elder White and Elder Counsell will be with him.

Elder Buhalts has been asked to locate at Quitman and look after the work at Quitman and Basic City and the surrounding country. He is planning to launch into an effort at the old Cedar Creek church, which is just a few miles out of Quitman. Elder Rubendall, who did such excellent work in newspaper reporting at camp meeting, will carry on aggressive pastoral work in Mobile.

Elder J. S. Green will pitch his tent in Birmingham and will have Brother O. B. Hall and wife, Sister Trula Wade, and Sister Ella Johnson associated with him. Elder Green has set his goal for a hundred souls, and he and the church there are earnestly praying to reach this mark.

Elder Charles Curtis will hold an effort in the church at Vicksburg. William G. Mills and wife and Sister Simpson will be associated with him. Elder Thomas Fountain will carry on aggressive evangelistic work in the church at Mobile. Elder N. B. King is being asked to look after a district including Yazoo City, Greenville, Greenwood, and Clarksdale. Brother Ewing, though he is at to carry on an effort at Okolona, Mississippi, his home town.

to Columbia, Mississippi, where he will follow up an interest which he was working with some time ago. There is now a small group of professed believers at that place, and we hope this will develop into a regular church organization.

We shall probably have a greater number of evangelistic efforts in progress this summer than ever before. We solicit the most earnest prayers of every believer for the success of these efforts.

NEWS FROM MONTGOMERY, ALA.

The workers in the union effort at Montgomery are glad to send ou people throughout the Southern Union the greetings of over 100 new Sabbath keepers in this city. We have already started a new Sabbath school here of about 130 members. On a recent night after the sermon on "The Mark of the Beast," 96 persons came forward or signed cards on a definite call to henceforth keep the true Sabbath.

Since that time we have sounded the call to come out of Babylon, and 75 persons have signed cards, indicating their decision to join the Seventh-day Adventist church and take their stand with God's remnant people. Of course not all of these people are ready for bap ism, and some may never go through to the full acceptance of every point of the message; but they have registered their decision to come out and take their stand with God's remnant people. We believe in doing a thorough work; hence we shall baptize these applicants for membership only as we have evidence that they have harmonized with every point of the message. Our first baptism is to be held on Sabbath, June 16.

Seven different ministers in the city have preached from their pulpits against the keeping of the Sabbath and the teachings of Seventh-day Ad-The leading minister of the city, on a recent Sunday, preached against the keeping of the Sabbath and broadcast his sermon over the radio. We reviewed him the following Wednesday night before a full house at the tabernacle. Another minister has preached a series of three sermons against the Sabbath, and we have reviewed him twice. The minister in charge of one of the other tabernacles here has preached a series of six sermons against the various truths we have presented at our tabernacle. And the minister in charge of the other tabernacle announced over the radio Sunday that on Monday night he would preach on Seventh-day Adventism Exposed.

Both of these tabernacles had fairly large audiences until we put up our tabernacle, but many of their hearers have ceased attending their tabernacle services and have become regular hearers at our tabernacle, and many of them have accepted home for a rest on account of his health, is planning the message of truth. This has stirred these other two tabernacles into bitter opposition against our Brother Holloway is returning teachings. The pastor of the finest church building in the city, which is located only two blocks from us, recently asked the members of his church to remain for a special meeting at the close of his morning sermon, at which time he asked them not to attend any of our meetings. But it is good to know that the truth is winning its way into the hearts of the honest in spite of all this opposition.

We have been praying for 100 souls from this effort, and we believe that by continuing the work in a strong way, there will be a church established in this city of 100 members. We solicit the prayers of our people that God will give great victory to the truth.

J. L. Shuler.

CAMP MEETING PROSPECTS

At this writing our workers and helpers are finishing camp meeting preparations. Never before have we had things so nicely arranged. Elders Mitchell, Baum, and Schleifer are making special efforts to have things in the best of order for the opening of camp. Already almost all of our tents have been spoken for, and many will secure rooms, as in other years. Almost every family tent is under the shade of large oak trees. This year the large pavilion is shaded on every side with large trees. The dining tent, book, reception, medical, and young people's tents are also all shaded. Never before have I seen a camp ground so blessed with shade trees.

Our colored camp ground is also much better arranged than in other years. This year it will be a real camp meeting, with dwelling tents and other tents. Elders Osterman, Boyd and Winston are working hard to have everything in readiness by Friday night. The meetings in the large tent began Sunday night with a good attendance.

gan Sunday night with a good attendance.

Reports from the field indicate that we shall have a much larger attendance at both of our camp meetings than any time before. In a few days now our people will be coming in by train, bus, and auto; and in some instances churches have arranged to send large truck loads to the convention. We are confident that the Lord has blessed our efforts, and the people are responding to the many appeals to attend this year's convention. May there be a united prayer of all believers that the Lord will manifest Himself in a very special way at the time of our coming together.

A. S. Booth.

CAROLINA NEWS NOTES

Brother Atherly reports that our student colporteurs have done very excellent work in taking orders for large books in the past week. He says that they have averaged from eighty to ninety dollars each. Last week-end Elder Booth visited the following churches in South Carolina in the interest of the work: Sumter, Orangeburg, Darlington, Florence, Marion, and the two Charleston churches.

FOREST LAKE ACADEMY NOTES

The offices in the basement of the boys' dormitory are being rearranged in an effort to increase the efficiency of the office force. Instead of two offices, there will be three in the future. The intermediate grades will be moved to a new location in order to give place to the business office.

Mr. and Mrs. McClure were away over the weekend, visiting the Sarasota and Bradenton churches and attending to other Academy business. They report an enthusiastic interest in the approaching Youth's Congress as well as the Academy.

Miss Ninaj is recovering from an operation at the Florida Sanitarium. She plans soon to begin her work for the summer at the University of Florida.

Mr. Donald Short has been awarded the scholarship to Southern Junior College. He is now working in the College Press.

Miss Irma Osteen writes from Jacksonville that she has begun her work with the Watchman Magazine. The Academy family will look forward to her reports from week to week.

FLORIDA NEWS NOTES

News received from Brother Barnhardt today states that the student colporteurs at work in Tallahassee are of good courage and are meeting with success. We wish Robert Wieland, Robert Kepkey, and James Chambers much success in their endeavors to earn scholorships and in carrying the printed page to those who do not know the truth.

Attention! You need sell only 67 Watchman to earn the $4.00 necessary to attend the Youth's Congress to be held at Forest Lake Academy, July 4 to 7. Every young person in the Florida Conference should plan now to attend this great youth's gathering; and if the finances are lacking, remember that "Where there is a will, there is a way." You need to be here! Let the Watchman pay your way.

Elder Strachan made a brief visit to the office on Tuesday, the 12th, on his way to Miami to help Elder Bookhart get started with his summer effort.

Don't fail to take advantage of the special offer of 25 per cent discount on the "Testimonies to the Church" and the "Conflict of the Ages" series in sets. Place your order today!

Good news has just been received by the Book and Bible House from the Pacific Press. The new Health journal is being offered to our people at a very special rate this summer-15 months for $1.50. If you were unable to take advantage of the first special introductory offer, and have for any reason failed to arrange for the service that Health will render in your home each month, you will surely hail this announcement with joy. The young people of the Orlando and Sanitarium churches enjoyed a very pleasant picnic at Rock Springs on the 12th.

News has come to the office of two funerals which Elder Crisler conducted in Jacksonville recently. One was the brother of Sisters J. T. Gilbert and S. J. Holt of the Jacksonville church, who met his tragic death in West Palm Beach recently and was taken to Jacksonville for interment. other was the son of Sister M. VanSlyke, Marette VanSlyke, who died following a serious operation. Our sympathy is extended to those who are bereaved of their loved ones in so sudden a manner.

BAPTISM AT MIAMI

On Sunday night, May 13, four precious souls put on their Lord by baptism in the Second Miami church. Showers of rain kept many from attending the service that evening, yet a good crowd was present to hear the discourse on "A New Creature." On Sunday evening, June 10, two more were led into the watery grave of baptism.

The church building is now seated with new pews; the floors have been freshly stained and varnished, and the walls put in good condition. The people have a mind to work. J. A. Bookhart.

Brother R. H. Pierson, our new home missionary and Sabbath school secretary, is spending a f.w days in the office before leaving on an extended trip throughout the conference.

Brother James is leaving the office in a few days to visit some of the schools.

We are glad to have Brother and Sister Gallagher as visitors in the office recently. They have just come from a trip to Florida, and are now on their way to their field of abor.

Brother Deyo writes that he will spend a few days in the northern part of our conference, but will be in the office the latter part of the week.

We are happy to receive word that Miss Martin is improving steadily from her operation and expects to be back to work in a week or so.

Elder Lysinger made a trip to the northern end of our conference, visiting some of the small churches and isolated bel evers.

Brother F. W. Harvey stopped at the office on his way to Columbus, where he will hold an effort. Brother Thomas Hall will assist him in his work.

The conference truck left the office this morning with a tent outfit for Elder N. B. Smith, who will hold an effort in Rome for the colored people.

Do not forget the special offer on the Review and Herald. All those who desire to take advantage of this special rate should get their subscription in immediately.

Brother Lowell Byers writes in that he has started several new colporteurs in and around Tifton. Brother Byers is assisting Brother Deyo in the colporteur work this summer.

CIRCULATING OUR MAGAZINES

Not so long ago I visited our churches in Columbus, Georgia, in the interest of larger missionary service in 1934, than in 1933. I especially stressed the great profit to be had spiritually and financially, by engaging systematically in our literature ministry, and was much pleased with the visible spirit of eagerness to carry on in this endeavor, that was manifested by the members of the groups present. After the service with our white congregation, the church leader told me that on the preceding night three of the ladies of his congregation had spent part of the evening on the main business street of the city selling the Watchman Magazine, and that in the short time hey were there, the entire stock of 75 papers was sold. The people seemed to appreciate what they were getting, as was evidenced by the fact that the ladies had no difficulty in disposing of their stock. Indeed, had there been a larger supply of the periodicals, these too might have been sold.

One of our lay brethren, a teacher in the city high school in Savannah, took a supply of the Watchman down town with him on a Saturday night not so long ago, and standing very close to one place all the while he remained at the work, disposed of nearly 40 copies. This brother reported that he enjoyed the work, and his experience is a demonstration of the fact that our men can sell the Watchman

In Johnson City, another of our brethren reports that he went out selling the Watchman for the purpose of raising sufficient funds to enable him to secure his quota of the Signs. He enjoyed success and found people so interested in his work, that one lady paid him the price of three copies for only one. The Watchman sells because it has the message for today.

In Atlanta, one of our sisters, a busy housewife who is burdened with the everyday cares of the home, devotes some time in the evenings to the sale of the Watchman. In this way she disposes of 400 or more each month.

Our believers at Bristol have fallen on the plan for help in raising funds with which to construct a much needed house of worsh p. We feel confident that the Spirit of the Lord working with them and through the columns of the Watchman, will be preparing additional souls to join with them as they worship in the house soon to be completed and dedicated to His name.

Parents are many times perplexed by the problem of how to pay the church school teacher. If these fathers and mothers, in our cities and towns, would but catch the vision of the Watchman ministry, much of their troubles would disappear. Johnny and Mary can sell the Watchman.

Some good folk in the Sabbath school would very willingly take part in the Investment plan if they knew what to do to raise money for this particular missionary enterprise. Where better could the work of the Investment fund express itself than through the sale of the Watchman?

Occasionally some one tells me that he fails to attend the services of the church because he has no offering to bring. Brethren, this is a serious mistake! Our Lord wants you. Give Him yourself—your heart, your mind, your life. Has He not asked you to have a share in placing the truth, in the form of the printed page, into the hand of some perishing soul? If you feel that He has, try selling the Watchman.

Start right now. Send your order for 10 copies in to the Book and Bible House. This will be your investment of forty cents, and in return you will receive one full dollar, an increase of more than one hundred per cent. Try it. Pray earnestly for the blessing of the Lord to attend you, and go forth and labor diligently.

R. G. Strickland.

CAMP MEETINGS AT MEMPHIS

The Memphis white camp meeting opened with an excellent attendance, which has continued up to this writing. A number of churches in the southwestern section of our conference are well represented. The local members in the vicinity of the church have very cordially opened their homes to the visitors, and have done all they can to make their stay a very pleasant one.

The meeting for our colored members is being held in their church building on Mississippi Blvd.,

which they have recently remodeled.

Friday evening marked the opening service at the white church, at which time Elder Anderson, our new president, delivered the address. This was only the beginning of a feast of good things at both the white and colored meetings. In addition to the local conference workers, the following were present from the General and Union Conferences: Elder F. C. Gilbert, Elder W. R. French, Elder S. A. Ruskjer, Elder R. G. Strickland, Brother C. G. Ortner, Elder H. F. Kirk, and Elder B. H. Shaw of Southern Junior College. Elder J. G. Thomas and Miss Anna Knight represented the colored department.

At a stirring consecration service on Sabbath, the entire congregation, with few exceptions, surrendered anew to the Lord and dedicated themselves to the finishing of the work. The spacious church building could hardly accommodate the Sabbath attendance.

Book sales have been good throughout the meetings, several items being sold out before all were supplied. Over 100 copies of Elder Ruskjer's booklet, "The Real Christ," were sold and delivered in about five minutes at the book sale Sunday afternoon.

These meetings are to be followed by the camp meeting at Kavanaugh Park near Louisville for the white, and meetings in the Chestnut St. church at Louisville for the colored, both beginning Wednesday night, June 13.

I SHALL SEARCH

When all of the wise and the prudent have said what they have to say,

And out of the law and the prophets have taken the thunders away,

And out of the Book of Beginnings have taken the wonders away,—

I shall search for a new religion, with a pillar of fire by night,

And a Red Sea cleft through the middle, and an ark, and a white dove's flight.

I shall find me a Garden of Eden, with a serpent scorning the sod,

And a girl, wide-eyed with wonder, and a man in the image of God!

And the flaming sword of an angel, and the flaming word of God!

I shall look for a new religion that can overthrow proud Baal,

With a manna white as the hoarfrost, and a Jonah saved by a whale.

When the grand old tale of creation is told in the form of germs,

And the evening and the morning look forth on the trail of worms,

And the burning words of the prophets are reduced to their lowest terms,—

I shall need a new religion, all fire and mystery, Too big for a brain like mine to hold, or the eyes of the wise to see.

When the mists of doubt shall settle round the steps of the Nazarene;

When the little lost lamb shall cry in vain, and the pitiful Magdalene;

And out of the old, old story shall vanish John three sixteen, —

Totals

I shall look for another Saviour; and to whom shall I go,—to whom?

Who can show me another Calvary, and another empty tomb?

But what if from babes and sucklings is rendered the final Word

To the wise of earth, and the subtle, who reason away my Lord?

What if the blood of the martyrs cries out to a risen

Ah, then I will search the Scriptures! On my knees I will search and see How the glorious Light of the ages is the Light of life for me!

SUMMER SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Ruth Newton and Mr. Clay Millard have joined our Summer School since our report last week

Prof. M. E. Cady spent several days at College-dale about the time Summer School was starting. He occupied the time several mornings at the chapel hour, also the Round Table hour on several occasions. On Sabbath he spoke on Christian education, basing his remarks on Rom. 3: 1, 2. He contrasted the worldly, classic education with the educational system established by the Jewish people under divine guidance, and quoted modern educators who are coming to recognize the superiority of this system.

On Sunday afternoon Professor Cady met with the church school teachers attending Summer School, and made a record of each voice with the apparatus he carries with him. These records were made the basis of criticisms and suggestions for improving the voice, and these suggestions were received with much appreciation on the part of those concerned.

COLLEGEDALE NEWS NOTES

Quite a number of young people have joined the ranks of summer workers since the close of school last month. We note the following newcomers: Bill Allen, Birmingham, Ala.; Blanche Black, Asheville, N. C.; Elbert Babson, Wilmington, N. C.; Jay B. Clymer, Graysville, Tenn.; Irvin Crabtree, Prichard, Ala.; Jones Douglass, Orlando, Fla.; Wesley Douglas, Savannah, Ga.; Dennis Freeman, Albany, Ga.; Howard Johnson, Louisville, Ky.; Pierce Lysinger, Atlanta, Ga.; Charles Ottinger, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Will H. Rogers, Jr., Ocala, Fla.; Donald Short, New Smyrna, Fla.; Edna Nix, Reeves, Ga.; Emory Bowen, Orlando, Fla.; Billie Johnston, Princeton, W. Va. Mr. Everett Calhoun has recently connected with the broom shop as foreman. Quite a number of our old students are also employed at the school for the summer, so we have a very considerable school family during vacation.

At the recent election of officers for the summer vacation, Prof. J. C. Haussler was chosen as superintendent of the Collegedale Sabbath school, with Mr. Menton Medford as assistant; Miss Ercel Bradley, secretary, with Miss Verlie Reiber as assistant; Miss Ruth Kneeland, chorister; Miss Gladys Leitner, pianist.

Prof. D. C. Ludington was chosen as leader of the Y. P. M. V. society; E. Lewell Smith and Joseph Dobbs, assistant leaders; Miss Evelyn Reiber, secretary; Mr. Joe Cruise, assistant ssecretary; Mr. Carl Jacobs, chorister; Miss Lois Mae Clark, pianist.

Last week Tuesday was chosen for the annual outing for the print shop workers and some of their friends. The day was spent at a resort near Chattanooga where means are afforded for various wholesome recreations. They report a very pleasant and enjoyable time, a welcome change from the daily routine of work.

Mr. Bruce Benjamin is spending several weeks at home, on vacation from the College of Medical Evangelists at Loma Linda, Calif. He plans to return to the college the latter part of this month.

The value of time is beyond computation. Christ regarded every moment as precious, and it is thus that we should regard it. Life is too short to be trifled away. We have but a few days of probation in which to prepare for eternity. We have no time to waste, no time to devote to selfish pleasure, no time for the indulgence of sin.—"Christ's Object Lessons," p. 342.

"We can never rest content
With the heights attained;
Life would be but poorly spent
Were no new points gained.
Onward, then, with zeal untiring,
Love for truth our spirits firing,
Ever reaching, aye aspiring Higher yet and on!"

Abiding in Christ means a constant receiving of His spirit, a life of unreserved surrender to His service.—E. G. White.
