"Precious" Instruction

W. A. Spicer

That is the word a Chinese sister used in telling of what the writings of the Spirit of prophecy had been to her. We were in the province of Shansi, a newly entered field, far north in China. When I rode across the level plain by bus, a day's journey, in a dust storm that darkened the day almost as night, and piled up the fine earth particles like snowdrifts, so the driver had now and then to shovel a way through or detour, I wondered how those villagers could exist. But out of these towns and villages the believers are coming at the call of the message.

At the general meeting in Taiyuanfu, a group of village women were chattering outside of the room occupied by five of us workers. "What are those Chinese sisters talking about?" I asked A. A. Esteb, who speaks fluent Chinese. He listened. "Well, now, just listen here," he said. "That sister is saying, 'What precious instruction comes to us in the writings of the Spirit of prophecy.' " Portions of the "Testimonies" and various books by Sister White are being brought out as the China Mission is able. How those new believers feast upon a new volume printed in those characters so strange to us! The Spirit of prophecy speaks to their hearts in living voice, even as does the Bible. "Precious instruction" said this village woman to another. "She talks just like one of our sisters at home," said Brother Esteb. And I thought, Would that these writings were speaking this "precious" instruction in every Seventh-day Adventist family in the homeland.

There is a supply of help and precious blessing in these writings that every believer needs. May these volumes enter every home.

CALENDAR REFORM AGAIN

Two very interesting articles on calendar revision are to appear in the Signs of August 7 and August 14. "I thought that the proposed change in a calendar for the world is now a dead issue," you may say. "Didn't the League of Nations settle that?"

It is true that the form of calendar there discussed has been abandoned. But it is also true that a very influential group—"The World Calendar Association, Inc." with headquarters in New York City—is carrying on a strong, organized, educational movement in favor of another plan, which is quite as destructive of the present order of days in the week as any that has been proposed. Through a regular quarterly magazine and other literature, the leaders of thought and action are being reached and influenced, and in due time it is expected that the plan will come to the League of Nations again.

The two articles to appear in the Signs are by Anton J. Wilson, and outline a reform calendar that would not disarrange the days of the week.

In view of the widespread interest in this question and the various angles to it, the Signs editors, are enthusiastic in announcing as very much worthwhile the two articles by Mr. Wilson.

A REMARKABLE INCREASE

The circulation of Life and Health has doubled since the beginning of the year. From all over the United States and Canada have come expressions of appreciation for the improved appearance of Life and Health, and with these letters of congratulation have come orders that testify to the sincerity of these compliments.

The July issue has been accorded a reception that leaves no doubt as to the enthusiasm of the magazine workers throughout the country for this number. Soon after the first copies were sent out, orders came in by the thousands. One day's mail brought the largest number of bulk orders ever received in one day so far as anyone connected with the office can remember.

There is a reason for this renewed enthusiasm for Life and Health. Colporteurs find orders for books are taken more readily in combination with Life and Health. Single-copy workers find sales resistance reduced to a minimum when they can offer an attractive magazine for only ten cents. Profits of 35 to 50 cents an hour for beginners are not uncommon. Send to your Book and Bible House for 25 copies of Life and Health. The sale of these will provide capita for more extensive work.

The prospectus is only 75 cents. Yearly subscriptions are $1.00, and the agent's discount is 50 per cent. Begin now to drive the "entering wedge" for the entrance of other truths of the third angel's message. Life and Health, Takoma Park, Washington, D. C.

ALABAMA-MISSISSIPPI ACADEMY

Calendars for the Alabama-Mississippi Academy are now ready for distribution. All who are interested should write to the school at Gilberttown, Ala.

Many applications have come in already for the next term, and we urge that all who expect to attend get their applications in as early as possible.

Prospects are bright for the coming school year. The crops on the school farm look very good. We are now canning tomatoes, peaches and other fruits and vegetables. Emil Tetz.

FIRST MONTGOMERY CHURCH

The new First Montgomery church was organized on Sabbath, June 30. This church is the result of the effort which Elder J. L. Shuler and his company of workers are holding in Montgomery.

The first fruits of this effort were baptized on Sabbath, June 16. This company of thirty-two, ten others who belong to the Conference church or elsewhere, five of the workers who are to remain there, and those who were ready for baptism, were invited to join as charter members of this new church. As there were twenty-eight in the baptismal class that are expecting to be baptized on Sabbath, July 7, this will make a total of seventy-five members that we expect the new church will have.

There is still an excellent interest, and we confidently expect that many more will be added before this effort is over.

This company of workers has been composed of Elder J. L. Shuler and wife, Mrs. Mattie Lucas, the union conference Bible worker, Elder W. W. White and wife, Elder I. V. Counsell and wife, and Brother H. E. McClure and wife. All these will continue to labor in Montgomery except Brother H. E. McClure and wife. They have gone to Vicksburg, where they will join Brother L. A. Butterfield in a tabernacle effort at that place.

The workers had been looking around to see what desirable property might be available to them for a church home. They had their eyes on a good looking, well located hospital building that was not being used. They thought that perhaps it could be purchased at a price within their reach. When they were ready for it they were planning to try to get it.

About a week before the organization of the church they discerned that men were at work on the building, remodeling it into an apartment house. They got busy immediately to see if it were yet obtainable.

Elder W. W. White made the owner an offer of $1500. He agreed to accept $2000 if the contractors would agree to release their contracts. This they agreed to do for $300. The owner agreed to pay one third of this.

As this was to be a cash consideration and had to be acted upon immediately, Elder White phoned me on Friday. Sunday Brother Castle and I went to Montgomery to counsel with the brethren there about the matter. The conference held in trust $1422.50 for a church building in Montgomery, but this was not in a shape that we could put our hands on it immediately. We felt that this was a rare opportunity and should not be let slip.

We decided to ask the union conference for a short time loan to handle this purchase, as well as to ask for their counsel. We did this by wire. We promptly got their approval, and they very promptly and graciously granted the loan. The building has now been purchased, and this morning, Monday, July 2, an architect is at work, drawing the plans for remodelling the building, and a number of believers and friends are at work on the building

CAROLINA NEWS NOTES

Elders A. S. Booth and R. F. Woods have been in Florida for the past few days, attending the Youth's Congress. Elder Booth plans to stop at Collegedale to attend a board meeting before returning to the office.

Elder J. G. Mitchell's first week of meetings in Charlotte hold a record attendance. On Sunday night many chairs had to be placed outside the tent to accommodate the overflow.

Elder S. M. Schleifer starts his meetings in Raleigh Sunday night, July 15. This will be the second meeting started in the Carolina conference within the last two weeks. The conference truck is kept busy hauling the equipment to the locations where efforts will be started in the near future.

A baptismal class is being organized in the Charlotte church by Elder Mitchell.

COLPORTEUR NEWS NOTES

Brother Atherly, our field secretary, visits the office occasionally when he has a little time between trips afield. He is now spending a little time in Goldsboro, where he is assisting several of our new student colporteurs.

The report comes from Brother Menton Waldron, who is canvassing in Darlington, that he came in contact with a Baptist minister who has had a "Bible Readings for the Home Circle" for 14 years. The minister was very friendly to Brother Waldron and gave him a fine recommendation to the members of his church.

Brother Rumpfelt reports from Balfour, N. C., that recently he met a lady who had read some of our literature and from it had endeavored to live a Christian life for two years, all the while praying for more light. She was very happy to get in touch with our people.

Brother G. L. Daniels, who is assisting Brother Atherly in the colored colporteur department, is now in the field, recruiting new workers. He reports that several young ladies in Wilmington are planning on selling magazines during the summer months.

The magazine workers of the Carolinas are very proud of the fact that their sales for the month of June show an increase of 122 per cent, making their total 220 percent. Miss Sadie Chappell, the magazine leader, reports that the girls are anxious to make the percentage swell even more next month.

Brother Ollie Sumter holds the highest sales record in the colporteur work for the month of June, that of $429. Miss Christine Rutledge leads the score in the magazine department with a total of $42.90.

HIGH STATION OF THE LITERATURE MINISTRY

The fiercest warfare that has ever been waged between right and wrong is now on in the world. The enemy is exceeding angry because he knows his time is very limited. It is not simply past experience or profession that is called for now. Loyal service, above all other things, is needed. Victory is assured, and every true soldier is guaranteed a crown of eternal life. Sacrifice and service is the test of our willingness to receive it.

"Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice." Psa. 50: 5.

"All who would be sons and daughters of God must prove themselves coworkers with God and Christ and the heavenly angels. This is the test for every soul."—"Christ's Object Lessons," p. 283.

The printed page and the sword of the Spirit are to be the weapons of our warfare.

"The world is to receive the light of truth through an evangelizing ministry of the Word in our books and periodicals. Our publications are to show that the end of all things is at hand."—"Testimonies," Vol. 9, p. 61.

Where so much is at stake, the reward so great, and the final victory is sure, can we afford not to be as willing to render as faithful service and make as great sacrifices as the subjects of earthly kingdoms? There should be thousands of our people out with the printed page in the colporteur ministry and the distribution of tracts and periodicals, who are now doing scarcely anything to advance the cause of present truth. Let us be up and doing while mercy lingers.

L. K. Dickson.

SOUL WINNING RESPONSIBILITY OF CHURCH BOARDS

Not least in importance is the duty of the church board to faithfully and carefully plan and direct the missionary activities of the church. Just as the conference executive committee directs the evangelistic work of the conference, so the church board must direct the soul winning activities of the membership.

The reason that some churches go on year after year without a net gain in membership, is because the elder does not follow the General Conference recommendation to call the church board meeting at least once a month and plan for the missionary work of the church. The missionary leader of the church is elected to carry out the plans laid by the church board for missionary work.

In my travels about the conference, I find a real need in some of our churches along this line. The elder or leader is held responsible for such neglect. Let us be "good and faithful servants" in fostering this most important work of the church.

A literature effort should be carried on continually by every church, whether there is a minister there or not. "Papers and books are the Lord's means of keeping the message for this time continually before the people. In enlightening and confirming souls in the truth, the publications will do a far greater work than can be accomplished by the ministry of the word alone."—"Testimonies," Vol. 6, p. 315.

Louis K. Dickson.

FLORIDA NEWS NOTES

We are glad to learn that Elder J. A. Leland and his wife are back from their recent visit to the Pacific Coast, and that they are recovering nicely from their recent auto accident, which nearly cost them their lives. En route from the coast a few weeks ago, their car left the road and rolled down a 25-foot embankment, knocking Sister Leland unconscious and inflicting upon them both several painful wounds. We rejoice with them in God's providential care.

Elder H. M. Kelley is now preparing the tent for his effort in Chattahoochee and River Junction. The few believers now living in that locality are enthusiastically entering into the distribution of literature in preparation for the meetings. Brother Barnhardt and three student colporteurs will labor in the same vicinity with the sale of our truth-filled books. Pray for this effort and others now in progress.

Good reports are coming from Elders Webster and Reavis, who are holding a hall effort in St. Petersburg.

A laymen's tent meeting is about to open up in Miami. We trust this will prove a great success.

Elder Klose reports some good cottage meetings in DeLand. He is now planning for a hall effort there, if a suitable location can be found.

Elder Pryor is now beginning his colored tent effort in Tampa. We are looking for good results there.

Elder Strachan in New Smyrna and Elder Bookhart in Miami are both holding open-air meetings. These are simply canvas walls stretched around an empty lot, enclosing seats and platforms well-lighted and comfortable. A good attendance has already been reported from Miami.

The Youth's Congress brought a great blessing to our young people in Florida. The attendance mounted to nearly 1500, and the time to close came all too soon. The messages of General and Union Conference leaders were greatly appreciated. Florida invited the youth of the Southern Union back again. We were proud to be hosts to such stalwart and consecrated army.

FLORIDA SANITARIUM "MASTER COMRADES" INVESTED

The Florida Sanitarium Young People's M. V. Society, under the direction of Miss Waynace Vinnard and Dr. C. W. Lynn, sponsored a class in "Master Comrade" work, which was invested on Friday of the Youth's Congress at Forest Lake Academy.

The young people had much pleasure in working out the requirements of the progressive classes, especially the nature honors, which took them on camp-craft trips, hikes, astronomical adventures, insect and bird pursuits, and flower and tree study.

In addition to seven "Companions" and twenty-five "Friends," sixteen "Master Comrades" were invested from the Sanitarium and Orlando young people's societies, and three from other places, including: Lois Bain, Hazel E. Baker, Mrs. L. J. Black, Nellie Ferree, Alice Maye Hall, Ilene Hall, Lucile Hall, Pauline Hall, Bessie Parker, Mrs. A. W. Peterson, Wava Rogers, Dr. C. W. Lynn, Mrs. C. W. Lynn, Waynace Vinnard, Verda Wade, Mrs. Ralph Woerner, of Orlando; Mrs. Peavy of Tampa, Florida; Miss Fields of Louisville, Ky.; and one from Nashville, Tenn.

As a surprise to the audience, at the conclusion of the presentation of pins to the class, Elder C. Lester Bond, who was officiating, called forward Elders S. A. Ruskjer of Chattanooga, A. W. Peterson of Washington, D. C., and G. R. Nash of the Malamulo Mission in Africa, and presented them with pins and honor tokens which they had earned.

ATTENTION, PLEASE

Because of the exchange situation in foreign countries since the cheapening of the American dollar, our foreign mission work is just now the nearest to that point of sending missionaries home that it has been at any time since the depression came upon us.

Never in our denominational history was the emergency greater. We cannot too strongly urge that everyone give a liberal midsummer offering on July 21.

One individual has already sent in his midsummer offering of $200. May the Lord impress every one to make a liberal offering on July 21.

H. E. Lysinger.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Of late we have been receiving checks and money orders made out to "Home Missionary and Sabbath School Department," H. E. Schneider, and H. E. Lysinger. We would appreciate it very much if those who are sending in checks and money orders to the conference would make them out either to the Georgia-Cumberland Conference or to the Georgia-Cumberland Book and Bible House. We thank you.

H. E. Schneider.

GEORGIA-CUMBERLAND NEWS NOTES

We were glad to see Elder Strickland in the office for a few minutes. He is leaving for Chattanooga and then will be back next week to move his household goods.

We are glad to see such a large colporteur report for this week, and we hope that you will take time to look it over. The Lord has blessed us this year with good success thus far. Soon our colporteurs will be making their deliveries, and we hope that you will remember these workers in your prayers.

Brother Pierson writes in that he is very busy in visiting the churches, and we are receiving a fine response in our effort to get the Review in every home. If you have not taken advantage of the special offer, keep in mind that you should have your money in the office not later than the 16th of July.

Brother Deyo is expected in the office in a day or so. He will leave immediately to help some of the colporteurs in their deliveries.

The conference truck passed through Atlanta recently on the way to Bristol, where it will meet Elder Scoggins, who is locating there.

Elder Smith writes from Rome that a large number attended the service Sabbath in his tent.

We are hearing encouraging reports from our evangelistic efforts, and we are looking for a large harvest of souls this summer.

Brother James has left the office for a trip to Chattanooga, Collegedale, Postell, and the churches in that vicinity.

Elder Lysinger is making a trip to Rome to visit the effort there, then on to Collegedale to attend union committee meeting, and from there on to Knoxville to visit the effort being held by Elder Westermeyer.

"O may I be strong and brave today,
And may I be kind and true,

And greet all men in a gracious way,
With frank good cheer in the things I say,
And love in the things I do."

KENTUCKY-TENNESSEE NEWS NOTES

Those who attended the Youth's Congress in Florida are just beginning to return at this writing. Seven auto loads went from Nashville alone. They are bringing back reports of a pleasant trip and a wonderful meeting.

Elder L. A. Butterfield was in Nashville recently, visiting his father on his way home from the Youth's Congress.

Our colporteurs are sending in some excellent reports, and we rejoice with them that the message is being carried in this way to so many homes. Brother William Reed, selling "Hope of the Race," has averaged $95 in orders a week for the past four weeks. Brother George Finley sends in another fine report of $113.50 in orders and $42.25 in deliveries for one week's work. Brother J. O. Fenner, who has had former experience in the colporteur work, has joined our forces, working in eastern Kentucky. His first week's work of 24 hours brought $84.50 in orders. We are also glad to have Brother I. O. Wallace begin work in the colporteur ministry in our field. Brother Smith, our field secretary, recently took a little time to put in his Big Week canvassing, which he has not been able to do earlier. On account of his work, he put in only 22 hours during the week canvassing, and took orders amounting to $110 and sold one book for cash. There is still plenty of territory and many homes waiting for the truth to be brought to them by those who should be in this work. If you feel impressed, write to the office at once.

Good news has come to the office during the past week in regard to the opening of several of our tent efforts. From Memphis Elder Lenheim writes that the effort there opened Sunday night, July 1, with the tent full. Dr. P. A. Webber is assisting Elder Lenheim, giving fifteen-minute talks several nights a week on health subjects. Special meetings for the children are being held every Wednesday afternoon, while the question box is playing an important part in creating an interest in the various subjects.

Brother A. L. Dickerson was in Nashville last week, securing a few additional supplies for his tent, which he is pitching at Dickson, Tenn., where he is following Elder Garrett's meetings with a tent effort.

The tent effort at Nashville, conducted by Elder W. E. Lanier, opened Sunday night, the 8th, also with a full tent. As is usual, the opening lecture was based on "The Certainty of God's Word," or "The Bible the Foundation of All Truth." Brother F. E. Robert, the artist from the Southern Publishing Assn., created much interest by sketching a large Bible while the lecture was in progress. The local church members and workers at the publishing house are cooperating heartily with the music and in other ways.

The following is typical of the experiences our colporteurs are constantly sending in. It is from Brother Louis B. Reynolds: "Friday, while canvassing in the country, I was directed to the home of an old woman who 'studied the Bible all the time.' I found her and her husband just resting at the noon hour. After canvassing them, I was showered with questions, among which was, 'We keep the wrong day for Sabbath, don't we?' I told them yes, and asked for their source of enlightenment. The lady went into the house to bring out a book, but she couldn't find it. I imagined it to be a copy of 'Our Times.' After a clear-cut explanation on that point as I could give, the old man said that he would begin tomorrow (Sabbath) keeping the Sabbath of the commandment. As I walked down through the cornfield with him, a gleam of light seemed to shine from heaven as I shook his hand in farewell, telling him I would pray for him."

When we come to ask mercy and blessing from God we should have a spirit of love and forgiveness in our own hearts. How can we pray, 'Forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors,' and yet indulge an unforgiving spirit? If we expect our own prayer to be heard, we must forgive others in the same manner, and to the same extent, as we hope to be forgiven.—"Steps to Christ," p. 101.

Even one wrong trait of character, one sinful desire cherished, will eventually neutralize all the power of the gospel. * * * Those who would rather die than perform a wrong act are the only ones who will be found faithful.—"Test.," Vol., 5 p. 53.

"This is true greatness: to serve unnoticed and to work unseen."

Obituaries

Payne—Bessie Edith Warner was born in Fennville, Michigan, Sept. 4, 1874, and died in Miami, Fla., June 3, 1934. Oct. 10, 1907, she was united in marriage to Arthur W. Payne, and to this union there were born two sons, Donald and Lawrence. Brother Payne preceded his companion in death some three years ago. Sister Payne was brought up in the truth and was faithful unto death. She is survived by her two boys, two brothers, and two sisters, as well as a host of friends. We laid our sister away, looking forward with confidence that she will come forth in the first resurrection. A. B. Russell.

Atlantic Union Gleaner, please copy.

Sheldt—Mrs. Elva Sheldt was born July 16, 1893, and died at the Madison Sanitarium, Sabbath, June 23. She accepted the truth in 1919, and was a loyal member until the day of her death. For several years she has been soliciting for the paper published for the blind, as well as for the needy blind.

She leaves to mourn her death, her husband, A. P. Sheldt; her daughter, Samone Hadad; three brothers, and one sister. Words of comfort were spoken in the Highland Park church, Chattanooga, and she was laid to rest in the White Oak Cemetery. May God's Spirit comfort the family. V. B. Watts.

Thacker—Mrs. Carrie Tippit Thacker was born in Bolinger County, Missouri, April 18, 1898. In 1924, James Tippit, her husband, died. She fell asleep in Jesus on May 10, 1934, leaving to mourn their loss, three children and a sister, Mrs. Hughey and family. Sister Tippit had been a member of the Adventist Church since 1925. She was laid to rest in the Forest Lawn Cemetery to await the call of the Life giver. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer.

Paul E. Scoggins.

Gilliard—Isaiah Gilliard was born February 15, 1886, in Bounnon, S. C., and died April 6, 1934, at the age of 48. At a very early age he united with the African Methodist Episcopal church. He was married to Mary Bess, to which union one son was born. Brother Gilliard was one of the charter members of the Wilson church. In 1915, under the labors of Elder G. E. Peters, he accepted the present truth, and was faithful to his death. He was the local elder of the church for a number of years.

Last fall, he went to Baltimore in search of work and to put his boy in the academy there. His health began to fail shortly after, and he was compelled to return home. He died with the assurance that he would be awakened in the first resurrection. He leaves to mourn a loving wife and son, besides other relatives and friends. Words of comfort were by the writer from Job. 19: 25, 26. F. A. Osterman.

Braswell—Mrs. Josephine Braswell was born in Wilson County, October 22, 1886, and died March 7, 1934. She was sick for a number of years. She was an active worker in the Wilson church in spite of her physical condition. She was first converted to the Baptist faith. In 1923 she heard the message during the effort of Elder J. S. Green and embraced the light of present truth. She died in the hope of seeing her Saviour when He comes the second time. She leaves to mourn, a husband, two adopted children, five brothers, two sisters, and other relatives and friends. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer. F. A. Osterman.

COLLEGEDALE NEWS NOTES

Prof. John E. Weaver, our new educational secretary for the union conference, was a visitor at Collegedale for several days this past week, having arrived in our field to assume the duties of his office. He made frequent visits to our Summer School, and occupied the time at the chapel hour one morning.

Quite a representative meeting of the College Board was held at Collegedale on Thursday of last week. We go to press while this meeting is still in session, so must defer any items of interest in the actions taken and plans laid.

The weekly Sabbath afternoon visits to the County Home near Silverdale, are being continued this summer. A program of vocal and instrumental music is rendered at each visit, to both the white and colored inmates of the home, who greatly appreciate these visits, the music, and the brief spiritual talks.

The Collegedale church members are finding encouraging openings for missionary work this summer. Two of our young men are interested in carrying on meetings in a brush arbor a few miles south of Collegedale. Openings for Bible studies are being found in Ooltewah, and the several families there have started a midweek prayer meeting. The little Sabbath school in the Maple Grove neighborhood is still flourishing, and is visited each week by some of our Collegedale members. Another young man in that neighborhood has recently taken his stand for the truth. He has had considerable experience in holding public meetings in the work of the church of which he was a member, so gives good promise of becoming a valuable worker in our cause of present truth.

Two recent arrivals at Collegedale are Mr. Harold Sammer and Mr. Lawrence Payne, both from Florida. They are here with further school work in prospect.

The College cannery has been a busy place of late, and large quantities of canned fruits and vegetables are the result of the earnest work put forth. Refreshing showers of rain of late are keeping things growing, so that the crop prospects are encouraging.

EDUCATION

Mark Hopkins sat on one end of a log,

And a farm boy sat on the other.

Mark Hopkins came as a pedagogue

And taught as an elder brother.

I don't care what Mark Hopkins taught—

If his Latin was small and his Greek was naught,

For the farmer's boy he thought, thought he,

All through the lecture time and quiz,

"The kind of man I mean to be,

Is the kind of man Mark Hopkins is!"

Philosophy, language, medicine, law

Are peacock feathers to deck the daw,

If the boys who come from your splendid schools

Are well trained sharpers or flippant fools.

You may brag of your age and your ivied walls,

Your great endowments, your noble halls,

And all your modern features,

Your vast curriculum's scope and reach

And the multifarious things you teach—

But how about the teachers?

Are they men who will stand in a father's place,

Who are paid, best paid, by the ardent face

When boyhood gives, as boyhood can,

Its love and faith to a fine, true man?

No printed page nor spoken plea

May teach young hearts what men should be;

Not all the books on all the shelves,

But what the teachers are themselves.

For education is, making men.

So it is now, so was it, when

Mark Hopkins sat on one end of a log

And a farm boy sat on the other.

—Arthur Guiterman.

The church needs the fresh, living experience of members who have habitual communion with God. Dry, stale testimonies and prayers, without the manifestation of Christ in them, are no help to the people.—"Test.," Vol. 6, p. 64.
