The Carolina Presidency

S. A. Ruskjer

We know that the unexpected death of Elder A. S. Booth, the president of the Carolina Conference, has brought real sorrow to his thousands of friends throughout the Southern Union Conference as well as elsewhere.

Elder Booth was one of the most earnest, hard-working, Christian gentlemen with whom it has ever been our privilege to be associated. It can truly be said of him that he died right in the harness. Even though he knew he was suffering from heart disturbances, he was so anxious to get his part of the Harvest Ingathering work done that he continued at that work even while a very sick man. Doing Harvest Ingathering work on the streets of Asheville, he was found by the doctor even while running a high temperature. A careful examination of Elder Booth by the physicians proved clearly that the only thing that could possibly save his life would be an immediate appendectomy. The operation was performed on Tuesday evening, the doctors removing a very much enlarged appendix, which had already burst previous to the operation. Elder Booth appeared to rally in a very satisfactory manner following the operation, but thirty hours later he fell peacefully asleep in Jesus. His heart had proved unequal to the heavy strain brought about by so much poison in his system. Details concerning the funeral service will be found elsewhere in this issue of the Tidings.

Truly a real man of God in Israel has fallen at his post of duty. We shall long remember Elder Booth's big-hearted, sympathetic, and kind dealings with his fellow workers and believers. We are so thankful to know that the work which Elder Booth loved so well and gave his life to in such unselfish service will soon be finished, and we shall have the privilege of meeting him in Eden restored.

Immediately upon the death of Elder Booth, steps were taken to fill the vacancy in the presidency of the Carolina Conference. The Carolina Conference has been greatly prospered of God. A little over two years ago, when the reorganization was effected in our union, the Carolina Conference had a membership of 1600. This membership has already grown till the 2200 mark has been passed.

General, union, and local conference committees united in study and counsel, being very desirous that the strongest man possible should step into the leadership of the Carolina Conference. After prayerful and earnest study, there was a unanimous conviction on the part of all that Elder J. L. Shuler, the union evangelist, should be asked to connect with the Carolina Conference as its new president. Elder Shuler has very kindly consented to respond to this request, though he regrets leaving his evangelistic work at Montgomery, Alabama.

In coming to the Carolina Conference as its new president, Elder Shuler is not coming as a stranger, for he is already well known and very much respected by hundreds of the members of the Carolina Conference. Elder Shuler has raised up a number of the churches of the Carolina Conference, and we know that all of the brethren throughout the conference will unite in giving Elder Shuler a hearty welcome as he takes up the heavy responsibilities that must fall upon the shoulders of conference presidents in these days of perplexity and yet days of wonderful growth in God's cause.

While we regret very much to lose Elder Shuler as union conference evangelist, still we are very glad to welcome him to join the family of conference presidents of the Southern Union; and we go forward in confidence, believing that the blessing of God will rest upon the Carolina Conference in increasing measure as we near the end of time and the finishing of God's cause. The leaders in God's cause of today, as well as the workers, are carrying heavy responsibilities that are a tremendous tax upon their physical powers; and we ask our dear church members to remember these burden bearers in prayer constantly. It is only as we all cooperate with the Spirit of God and with one another that we can expect God to quickly finish His work. Let each of us faithfully do our part to help make the burdens of others lighter, that the work may move forward rapidly, so that soon Jesus may come to take His children home.

A RALLY CALL TO ALL COLORED BELIEVERS

There never was a time in the history of our work that the call to rally in the Harvest Ingathering campaign was as urgent as the present. There never was a time when the church needed the full support of each member as at the present. We are really in the midst of the perils of the last days. Famines, droughts, strikes, riots, mob violence, suicides and war clouds tell us plainly that the Spirit of God is gradually but surely being withdrawn from the earth. Our time to labor is short; the work will soon be done. And if you are going to have a hand in the finishing, now is the time to answer the call. We are urging each worker and each member to do their very best in this Harvest Ingathering campaign. The need is appalling. Souls in heathen lands are calling for the light that God has given us. Will you not answer this call by bringing in at least ten dollars? I am urging all of our colored believers in the Southern Union to demonstrate our loyalty to the third angel's message in this crisis hour. We are depending upon you.

Yours in the Master's service, John G. Thomas.

CAROLINA NEWS NOTES

Six persons who had been in attendance at the tent effort, responded to Elder J. G. Mitchell's first call to join the church. Quite a few more have expressed the desire to be baptized who were not present at the time of the call.

Elder C. S. Baum closed his effort at Charleston, S. C., Saturday night, Sept. 8. He reports that a goodly number have taken their stand for the truth.

Tent equipment is being sent to Elder W. L. Adkins at Glen Alpine. Elder Adkins has received so many calls for an effort there that it is felt that a series of meetings will bring forth much fruit in that locality.

More good reports have been coming in from the churches relative to the Harvest Ingathering campaign. The small group at Greensboro, N. C., spent only four hours at work and raised $30 of their $50 goal. Mrs. J. G. Pike, of the Greensboro company, was among the first in the conference to place her name on the $12 Honor Roll.

The deliveries of the colporteurs show no signs of slacking up. Messages come in daily telling of good success, and ordering more books. A complete list of the deliveries will be shown when the last colporteur finishes.

Mr. E. D. Sumter leads the sales report for the month of August with a total of $663.38. Mr. L. D. Buck follows with $368.85. There were seven of the colporteurs who went well over the $200 mark. Miss Sadie Chappell leads the magazine score, with the Misses Essie Mae Chappell and Christine Rutledge running close seconds.

DEATH OF ELDER A. S. BOOTH

Arthur Samuel Booth was born February 14, 1877, and died September 6, 1934, following a very brief illness and an operation for appendicitis. Elder Booth accepted the third angel's message in Los Angeles, California, and attended San Fernando Academy, graduating from the ministerial course and entering the work immediately.

Collegedale, Tenn. U. S. A.
 F. W. FIELD

Fifty cents a year
 Editor

Entered as second class matter, July 26, 1929, at the post office at Collegedale, Tennessee, under the act of March 3, 1879.

Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917. Authorized on July 26, 1929.

At the age of 22 he met Miss Katherine D. Sable, and they were united in marriage, Sister Booth standing by his side throughout his life of ministry and service to the cause of God.

Laboring as an evangelist, the Lord blessed the work of our brother, and he became a very successful soul-winner. Called by the Chesapeake Conference to labor, Elder and Sister Booth located in Baltimore, Md., where they held several series of meetings. At the death of Elder Miller, Brother Booth was called to the presidency of the Chesapeake Conference, which position he filled for about five years.

Following this, Elder and Sister Booth labored in Georgia, where he served as president for four years. The Florida Conference then asked him to accept the leadership of the work there, and for nearly eight years our brother worked untiringly for the success of the cause in that field. A year ago the first of last April, Elder Booth accepted the presidency of the Carolina Conference, where he labored so faithfully and unselfishly until the very day of his death.

Stricken while he was leading out in the Harvest Ingathering, Elder Booth was loath to leave the work to submit to an operation until it proved too late. His last concern and thoughts were for the carrying on of the cause, and he fell asleep in Jesus after he had committed all to God's care.

He leaves his widow, one brother, three sisters, and a band of loyal workers and friends to mourn his loss. He sleeps, awaiting the call of God at the first resurrection.

The funeral was held in the Asheville, N. C., church. Words of comfort were spoken by Elder S. A. Ruskjer. Elders H. E. Lysinger, R. I. Keate, and V. G. Anderson assisted in the service. Elders W. L. Killen, C. S. Baum, W. L. Adkins, H. S. Sheldon, U. Bender and J. G. Mitchell acted as pallbearers. Prof. E. C. Waller, Prof. A. A. Jaspersen, C. F. Graves, F. R. Boggs, C. G. Ortner, and Dr. J. F. Brownsberger acted as honorary pallbearers. Interment was made in the Greenhill Cemetery, West Asheville. J. G. Mitchell.

REGIONAL MEETING

Sabbath, Sept. 8, the Jackson church was filled to overflowing, for the members there had invited the members of the churches at Meridian, Florence, and Vicksburg to join them in a union meeting.

The day started off with Sabbath school, beginning promptly at 9:30. Elder A. T. King, a missionary on furlough from the West Indies, gave the mission story, painting a graphic word picture of conditions in far-away lands, which should appeal most strongly to us.

Elder S. A. Ruskjer, president, and Brother C. G.

Ortner, sec.-treas. of the Southern Union Conference, were present for Sabbath school. They, with Elder Keate, president of the Ala.-Miss. Conference, came in by chartered plane on Friday afternoon. After Elder Ruskjer had accepted the invitation to be present at this meeting a very sudden emergency arose, which made it impossible to keep the appointment by traveling in the ordinary manner. Elder A. S. Booth, president of the Carolina Conference, had died suddenly, and these three brethren were due in Asheville, N. C., at noon Sunday to attend the funeral. Their plane left early Sunday morning, the writer accompanying them as far as Meridian.

Elder Ruskjer spoke at the eleven o'clock hour, impressively calling our minds into channels of solemn thought concerning the times, our needs, and our responsibilities.

The noon hour was quietly spent in partaking of the good dinner provided and served by the sisters of the Jackson church.

In the afternoon Elder Keate gave a very timely message on the meaning of the present hour. This was followed by an inspirational talk by Elder R. J. Sype, our new home missionary and S. S. secretary. Brother and Sister Sype, with their two children, just arrived a few days ago from the Bahamas.

As the sun was sinking, the congregation joined in singing, "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love." They then separated, refreshed in spirit, and encouraged by the thought that the day is about here when Is. 51:11 is to be fulfilled.

Just a word concerning the plane, a companion plane to the famous "Spirit of St. Louis;" it is owned and was piloted by Eddie Stork, of Chattanooga. So far as we know, this is the first Seventh-day Adventist to land a plane at the airports of Jackson and Meridian, and we rejoice at this another evidence that the Lord is using this modern and speedy method of helping to carry forward His work.

ALABAMA-MISSISSIPPI NEWS NOTES

It now appears that our first Harvest Ingathering bulletin will present a figure raised of more than $1,000 to apply on our goal of $10,000. We rejoice at the activity which is being manifested on the part of so many.

Nearly all of the singing bands in operation are using the new leaflet for their work. Not using the regular paper leaves the field free for house-to-house solicitation by the day time solicitors.

Watch for the bulletin which will tell the story of what you are doing. We urge everyone to make possible the carrying forward of our world-wide mission program for one minute or more. One minute requires $10.64. A suitable button will be presented to everyone who qualifies as a "Minute Man."

Several letters have come to us from persons who are inquiring for some place where they may move into our territory and enter into self-supporting missionary service. Our unentered counties present a wide field for such endeavors.

The Ala.-Miss. Conference Academy at Gilbertown opened its doors a few days ago under its new organization, and encouraging reports come to us concerning the outlook.

Do not fail to order the new book, entitled: "God's Greatest Gift," which is the help for the Sabbath school lessons for the fourth quarter. The price is 25 cents. Its author is Elder S. A. Wellman, of the Sabbath School Department of the General Conference.

FLORIDA NEWS NOTES

Elder Russell writes from Miami that he expects twenty-five or thirty to be baptized from the layman's effort conducted there this summer. A new baptistry has recently been installed in the church, and the members are of good courage.

Elder Leland had an interesting experience in his tent meetings in Tampa. One night a Baptist minister came to the meeting, bringing his choir; and they gave some excellent help in the service. The interest seems to be growing.

Brother H. D. Singleton, who has been working for some time to build up the colored work in Belle Glade, tells of a recent providential escape from death or injury from lightning. He and several others were in their new church building when the corner of the building was struck by lightning. It did considerable damage to the building, and the volt passed very close to those inside; but no one was hurt, and the building was not set on fire. They felt they were spared through the special blessing and help of the heavenly watchers.

Elder Prior closed his tent meeting in Tampa on the 9th. He plans to continue work with interested ones, and a little later to start an effort in Ft. Myers.

H. D. Dobbin, who is teaching the colored church school in St. Petersburg and caring for the interest in that church, has gone to Huntsville, Ala., to move his furniture, and he and Sister Dobbins plan to connect permanently with the work in Florida. We are glad to have these workers with us.

The interest in the tent effort in Leesburg is increasing, and there are good prospects for a harvest of souls there. Elder St. John is continuing to devote what time he can from his work in Orlando to the finishing up of this effort, which Elder Dudley carried forward until it became necessary for him to go to the Sanitarium for a time.

The new Sabbath school lesson help for next quarter is now ready, and stock is here at the Book and Bible House. This helpful booklet by Elder S. E. Wellman entitled "God's Greatest Gift," will be enjoyed by all. Price only 25 cents postpaid.

Elder and Mrs. Locken and Mrs. Wickman were recent callers at the office.

Mr. Ware of St. Cloud visited the office Monday, September 10.

Have you seen the new 1935 Morning Watch Calendar? The journeyings of Christian pilgrims is the theme of this attractive calendar. Only 5 cents; de luxe edition, 15 cents.

The Lakeland Y. P. M. V. society has ordered a supply of "Good News" (a series of 28 tracts) for systematic distribution. The leader of the society reports a fine interest as a direct result of literature distribution and Bible studies.

Mr. A. M. Barnhardt, field secretary, is enjoying a visit with friends and relatives in Vermont for a short time.

The New Smyrna church had a pleasant outing on Coronado Beach recently. All joined heartily in the activities and picnic lunch.

The student colporteurs have returned to S. J. C. Many others take up the work where they left off, thus placing the truth in the homes of the people.

FOREST LAKE ACADEMY NOTES

The 1934-'35 term opened September 4, with the largest enrollment in the history of the school. The total number is 119, as compared with 85 at this time last year. About 100 students are enrolled in the Academic department with the remainder in the seventh and eighth grades.

The faculty for the new school year is as follows: Principal, W. E. McClure; preceptor and instructor in the seventh and eighth grades, L. J. Larson; preceptress, and teacher of Spanish, Miss Hope Hayton; matron, Mrs. Lyndon Skinner; English, Mrs. L. J. Larson; science and mathematics, Mr. Walter Rembold; printing and bookkeeping, Mr. R. K. McAllister; piano, Mrs. W. E. McClure.

The new industries are proving a decided asset to the Academy. Temporarily the students employed in the Sanitarium laundry are being transported to and from the laundry until the new building is constructed. The dairy is unable to supply the demands made upon it. Additional cows have been arranged for, and this will mean the supplying additional help.

The officers for the Sabbath school and young people's department are as follows: Superintendent of the Sabbath school, Mr. J. L. Larson; assistants, Eunice Magoon and Frederick Freeman; secretaries, Mable Robertson and Virginia Guthrie; Lorita Bird, Pianist; Irma Osteen, superintendent of the primary department. Young people's officers are as follows: leader, Mr. R. K. McAllister; assistants, J. D. Irwin and Anna May Thompson; secretaries, Grace Thomson and Doris Baessler; Martin Bird, chorister; Flora Lester, pianist.

MINUTE MEMBER CLUB

There is a great deal of interest around the conference in our Minute Member Club. We are listing the names of those who join this week. There are a large number of church members who have already raised $10 in their Harvest Ingathering, and we are sure that they will want to raise this extra sixty-four cents to carry the work in foreign fields for one minute.

New members this week: Dr. J. R. Mitchell, Elder W. G. Kneeland, L. E. Hamilton, V. R. Bottomley, Mrs. H. E. Schneider, Elder W. H. Westermeyer, Mrs. B. M. Bee, Mrs. Mike Lawson, Ruth Walker, Mrs. Ira England, Mrs. F. H. Thomas, Mrs. Murphy, R. L. Williams, Mrs. E. C. Early, Mrs. Alice Ware, Miss Wintzie Hall, F. W. Harvey, Mrs. H. H. Hardin, Mrs. Ella Duncan, W. E. Bailey, James Clark.

The club goal is $1000. Members, 47.

H. E. Schneider.

GEORGIA-CUMBERLAND NEWS NOTES

Brother James is at present in Johnson City, helping the school there get started. He will spend a few weeks in that end of the conference, checking over the schools.

Brother Deyo writes that he will be out in the field until the close of the month, helping the colporteurs with their deliveries.

Elder Lysinger is back in the office for a few days. He spoke to the Atlanta No. 2 church on Sabbath.

We were glad to have Elder R. G. Strickland with us on Sabbath; he spoke to the Atlanta No. 1 church.

Harvest Ingathering is getting a good start in most of our churches. Brother Pierson is at present in Waycross, helping the church there. Brother Perkins is there with him.

Elder Chapman is now in Fitzgerald, helping the church there with the Ingathering.

Elder Wilkins took down his tent Monday morning. He reports 22 ready for baptism. This will make a nice church of between 40 and 50 in Albany.

Elder Storey visited the Macon No. 2 church on Sabbath with Brother J. E. Reed, who will be located there in the colporteur work and will look after the church on Sabbath.

We appreciate word from the conference members in regard to Harvest Ingathering. We hope that every conference believer will feel his responsibility in this campaign.

KENTUCKY-TENNESSEE NEWS NOTES

Elder Garrett is at present on an extended trip through Kentucky. He will visit several churches in the interest of Harvest Ingathering, and expects to spend Sabbath, the 15th, with the church at Covington.

Elder Anderson spent the Sabbath with the Madison church, and reports that they are well started in the Harvest Ingathering, having reported over $300 on Sabbath. The singing bands had raised $25 during the week. Madison is planning on going far beyond what was raised last year.

We were glad to have Elder L. E. Christman, associate secretary of the General Conference Home Missionary Department, in our field a few days last week. He visited the churches at Lawrenceburg, Madison and Nashville. He urged our people to support the mission program for at least one minute. It takes just $10.64 to carry on our whole program for one minute. Many responded to this appeal.

There were 525 new members taken into the churches of the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference during the last eighteen months by baptism and profession of faith. The brethren are binding off their summer efforts, and we are looking forward to other good baptisms in the near future. Continue to pray for the success of these workers.

We are glad to welcome to Nashville Elder J. B. Nelson, the new manager of the circulation department of the Southern Publishing Assn. Elder Nelson and his family are making their home at Dr. Harris' apartments. Elder Nelson spent many years in Mexico as leader of the colporteur work, and comes to the publishing house from the Texas Conference.

One of the interesting features of the effort being held at Fulton, Ky., is a Bible study contest which Brother Gober is conducting each Sunday. This is of special interest to the young people. Bible questions are mimeographed and passed out. The answers are turned in and graded. The attendance at the effort is continuing large, and the interest strong.

The Book and Bible House has received its supply of Sabbath School Quarterlies for the fourth quarter, which are entitled "God's Greatest Gift." An unusually interesting lesson help has been prepared for the coming quarter's lessons by Elder S. A. Wellman, also entitled "God's Greatest Gift." We do not know when we have read a more interesting lesson help than this. Picking it up one evening, we practically read it through before laying it down. The price is only 25 cents. We urge all of our Sabbath school and isolated members to secure their supply of both quarterlies and lesson helps as early as possible.

With the Harvest Ingathering campaign in full swing, the conference is looking to each church treasurer for cooperation and assistance in furnishing up-to-date reports of funds on hand. Each member can assist by turning in all funds received during the week at such time as may be appointed.

"Words to Writers" is the title of an attractive thirty-two page booklet now on sale at our Bible House. This is a reprint from a series of articles recently run in the Review and Herald, and will be of much value to those interested in writing. The material was written by Miss Mabel Hinkhouse, a writer and proofreader at the Southern Publishing Ass'n. Besides the thirty-two pages of practical instruction to all writers, there is a four-page supplement especially for Seventh-day Adventist writers. The price is very reasonable—only 15 cents a copy.

The Memphis church has a missionary society called the "Willing Workers," with a membership of 15, and they are true to their name. They have the following good work to their credit since last September: $13.89 furnished a student for carfare, so that she would not have to continue walking five miles each way to school; $18.50 for coal for the needy; $11.50 to keep another student in school; $15.32 for food for two elderly sisters; $50 toward the church school teachers' salaries; $5 for a new rug for the rostrum; $2.08 for chair covers to make the tent more attractive for the evangelistic meeting; $4 train fare for a student to college; approximately 300 garments were given away, and 250 cans of food. At Christmas time they distributed 20 baskets of food valued at $2.50 each. Each church could accomplish much through an active missionary society.

HALE—WOODS

On Monday evening, August 6, Mr. Daniel Hale of Nashville, Tenn., and Miss Jeannette Woods of Charlotte, North Carolina, were united in marriage at the home of Elder W. E. Lanier, pastor of the Nashville church. Mr. and Mrs. Hale will make their home in Nashville, where they have many friends who wish them much happiness.

WELLMAN-HASTY

On Friday, September 10, Miss Allie Hasty of Bascom, Florida, and Mr. Clarence D. Wellman of Fountain Head, Tenn., were united in marriage at the home of Elder and Mrs. V. G. Anderson at Nashville, Tenn. A few near friends and relatives were present for the occasion; the young couple left immediately for Fountain Head, Tenn., where Brother Wellman is employed as teacher and accountant. Both of these young people are quite well known in the Southern Union, both having attended the Graysville Academy a number of years. We wish them God's richest blessing as they travel life's highway together.

Obituaries

Johnson—Beulah Johnson was born in old Campbell County, Georgia, August 19, 1905, and died at the home of her mother at Red Oak, Georgia, August 11, 1934. She attended the schools near her for early education and later attended the Flat Rock Academy, near Douglasville, Georgia, from which she graduated in 1922. Five years later she completed a course at Southern Junior College. Following her graduation, she taught church school in Florida for two years; and after two additional years of teaching in the primary grades of the Atlanta Junior Academy, she was called to connect with Southern Junior College as teacher. Here she continued in faithful service until illness forced her to retire. Her pure life of unselfish service was an inspiration to us all, and her influence is still a saving factor in the lives of the children.

Funeral services were conducted from the First Seventh-day Adventist church at Atlanta, Monday afternoon, August 13, with a large crowd of sorrowing loved ones and friends present, and she was laid to rest in the little cemetery at Union City, Georgia, to await the call of the Life-giver. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer; Brother W. H. Lyons assisted in the service. J. Russell Mitchell.

Little—Mrs. Tom Little, nee Marian Brooke, was born in Alpharetta, Georgia, January 23, 1894, and died August 3, 1934, in the White Memorial Hospital, Los Angeles, after a three-day illness resulting from cerebral apoplexy. During her last affliction Mrs. Little had every attention of medical science and also special spiritual intercession by the ordained ministry; but the Lord did not see fit to intervene in answer to our prayers, and the last enemy gained a temporary victory. Although our hearts are sorely grieved, we are confident that our Father is infinitely wise and merciful, and that He will raise up our beloved at the resurrection of His own.

Mrs. Little was a devoted member of the Atlanta Seventh-day Adventist church. She was for a number of years in denominational employ, first in the Sabbath school department of the General Conference, and later in the Carolina and Cumberland Conferences. Subsequently she taught in Southern Junior College, Emmanuel Missionary College, and Walla Walla College. For the past five years she had been teaching in Girls' High School of Atlanta.

Aside from the writer, immediate relatives surviving are the mother, Mrs. J. P. Brooke, of Alpharetta, Georgia; brothers, Howell Brooke and Dr. Carter Brooke, of Canton, Georgia, and John Brooke, of Atlanta; sisters, Mrs. B. F. Summerour, of Norcross, Georgia, and Miss Maude Brooke, of the Washington Sanitarium.

Funeral services in charge of Dr. John R. Mitchell, of Atlanta, were at the Brooke homestead in Alpharetta. Burial was in the family plot at the local cemetery.

Tom Little.

Draper—Mrs. Ollie Draper was born in Sullivan County, Tenn., May 17, 1899, and fell asleep in Jesus July 23, 1934. She was united in marriage to Mr. Foy Draper April 17, 1917, and to this union were born three children, two boys and one girl. Brother and Sister Draper attended our meetings last summer and accepted the truth, and together with their boys were baptized at the close of the meetings. Sister Draper was a faithful worker in the church, and her sudden death was a shock to all. We are confident she will come forth in the first resurrection. The services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Elder Paul Scoggins. H. F. Taylor.

Fuller—Thomas Homer Fuller was born in Talbot County, Georgia, April 19, 1846, and passed away in Orlando, Florida, March 11, 1934, aged 87 years. He was married to Annie Elizabeth Burton, January 4, 1887, in LaFayette, Alabama. To this union were born seven children, three girls and four boys; Mary Eugenia, now Mrs. Henry Stevenson of Birmingham; Lavinia of Orlando, Florida; Susie Emma, who died at the age of nine; Homer Burton; Percy McDonald, who died in the service of his country as an aviator; Benjamin Franklin; and Raymond Purcell. Their father became a Methodist at an early age, and in 1918 became a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, to which he remained loyal and devoted till his death. He was laid to rest in that sure and certain hope of the first resurrection. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer. Paul E. Scoggins.

COLLEGEDALE NEWS NOTES

On Sabbath, September 8, the first Sabbath of the school year, the usual services were held. President Klooster, assisted by Elder T. R. Huxtable, had charge of the vesper service, which was held at the sunset hour on Friday evening. After an earnest talk by the president, the time was given to the usual testimony service, in which a large number took part.

As the Sabbath school was not yet organized into classes, the services were conducted in one large class. Miss Ruby Dell McGee gave the missions talk, Prof. R. W. Woods presented the review of the last lesson, and Elder F. W. Field conducted the study of the current lesson.

At the regular church service, Elder H. E. Snide spoke, taking Matt. 1:21 as his text. He showed that the name Jesus in the New Testament is the same as Joshua in the Old Testament. With this fact as a starting point, he drew many practical lessons from the life and times of Joshua, who was, in some respects, a type of Jesus the Messiah.

Prof. D. C. Ludington had charge of the young people's meeting in the afternoon. Several speakers appeared on the carefully prepared program. Mr. Lewell Smith gave a brief Bible reading on the second advent, and spoke of the many opportunities we have at Collegedale for holding Bible studies with interested persons. Miss Verlie Reiber spoke of the plans for conducting progressive class work for "Friends," "Companions," "Comrades," etc. Mr. Robert Kepkey gave a brief account of some of the activities of our Y. P. M. V. members during the past school year.

At eight o'clock on Saturday evening, the customary faculty reception was held in the chapel. Here everybody had the privilege of meeting everybody else—just the beginning of acquaintances that are to continue throughout the school year. Following are the parts on the brief program which followed:

piano solo, Mrs. Mildred West; selection by the Men's Glee Club; an address of welcome by President Klooster; vocal solo, Prof. J. C. Haussler; violin solo by Prof. D. R. Edwards.

Since our last report, three more College students have enrolled, and three more in the Preparatory department. This raises our entire enrollment to 209. The enrollment in the church school grades is also somewhat increased.

Now that our school program is well organized, attention is being given to Harvest Ingathering plans. Bands are being formed and goals assigned. We go to press too early to report any actual effort, but the work of street soliciting in Chattanooga will have begun by the time these notes are read if our plans don't fail. Our community church members are joining heartily in these plans, and the rural territory will be canvassed soon, as farm and garden crops mature. And all working together we expect to reach our goal.

Brother W. H. Allen, for several years connected with our print shop, has recently removed with his family to Takoma Park, Md., where he will connect with the print shop at Washington Missionary College. At the same time, Mr. Lynn Artress, another of our print shop workers, went to Takoma Park with school work at W. M. C. in mind.

GLORY AND JOY

The glory of life is dying—
Dying to self and sin,
Free from our pride and folly,
And Jesus enthroned within.

The joy of life is giving—
Giving our all to the Lord,
Rendering loving service;
Oh, what a rich reward.

Glory and joy more abundant
Will be ours in a brighter day;
But God hath given a foretaste,
As we trudge the upward way.
Weldon Taylor Hammond.

The Lord desires us to obtain all the education possible, with the object in view of imparting our knowledge to others.—"Christ's Object Lessons," page 333.
