Our Next Youth's Congress

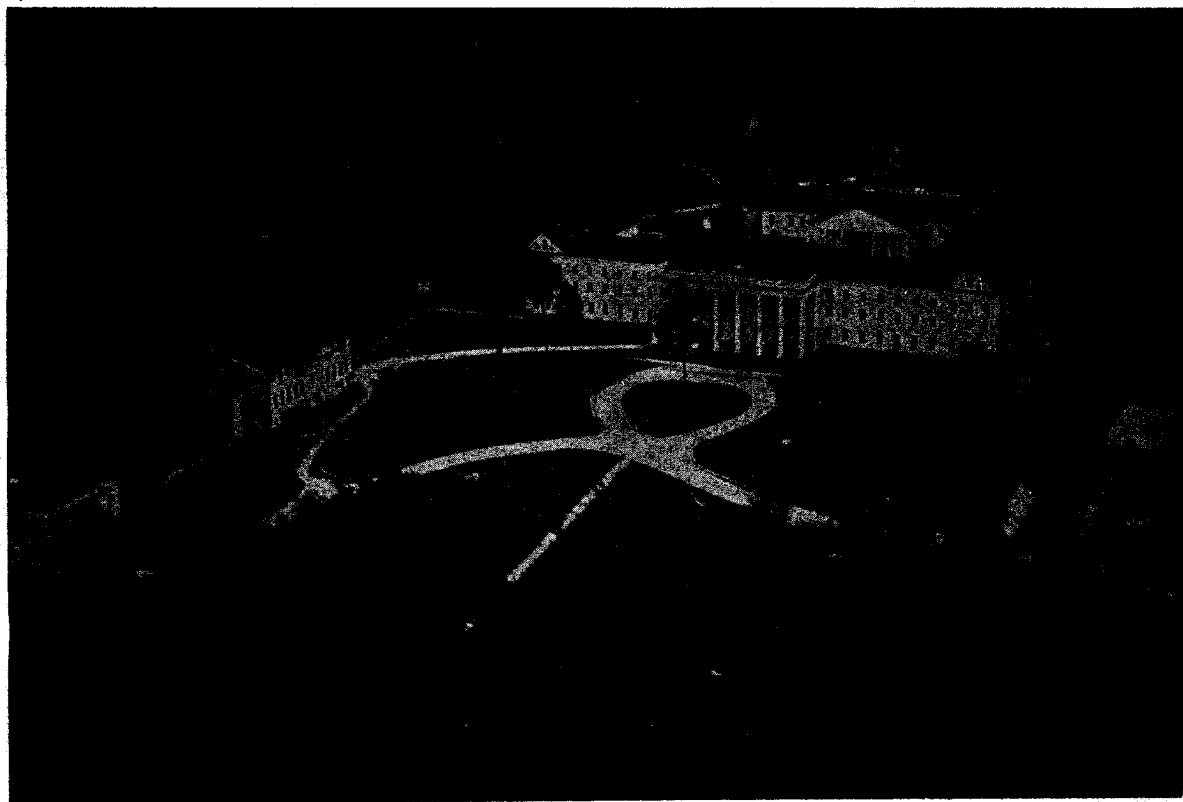

S. A. Ruskjer

After spending several weeks in negotiations with the proper authorities, we have at last completed arrangements whereby our next Youth's Congress will be held July 4-8, 1935, at one of the most beautiful spots in the mountain section of North Carolina.

Below will be seen a photograph of the buildings in which we have arranged to hold our next Youth's Congress. Details of the arrangements will be given from time to time by Professor Weaver, our Southern Union Conference Young People's Missionary Volunteer secretary.

It is our purpose in this article simply to announce definite arrangements, and when the Youth's Congress will be held, thus enabling our young people to begin immediately to plan to be present. We are arranging for very comfortable rooms, and the vegetarian meals will be served in the dining room, said to be able to seat one thousand at one sitting. The cost for four nights' lodging and twelve meals, through special arrangements, is being held down to five dollars per individual.

We feel that we have been very fortunate in being able to complete arrangements for holding the Youth's Congress in such an ideal place. The congress will be held at Blue Ridge, about two and a half miles from Black Mountain, North Carolina. Black Mountain is on a cement highway, about fifteen miles from Asheville. These attractive buildings are situated in a spot where nature is at her best. The elevation is such that the temperature is always ten degrees cooler than in Asheville.

Plan now, dear young people, to make this the biggest and the best Youth's Congress ever held in our union. Many details will be brought to you through the columns of the Tidings later.

FIRE AT GILBERTOWN ACADEMY

On Jan. 7, at 1:15 p. m., flames were discovered leaping from the roof of the dormitory building of the Ala.-Miss. Academy at Gilbertown, Alabama. Evidently the fire started from defective electric wiring.

Brother S. O. Rogers, founder and original owner of the school, was the first to see the fire from his nearby mill, and with his characteristic energy and indomitable perseverance, was the last one to cease his efforts to save the building, and continued working until finally he fainted from exhaustion and from the effects of the heat and smoke.

The students were in the schoolroom in another building at the time the fire started. Some of them lost all of their personal effects. Some of the equipment was saved, also some of the canned fruit. No one was injured, excepting for a few minor burns. The faculty and students have expressed their thankfulness for the protecting hand of God over them.

Principal Emil Tetz informs us that a fine spirit of sympathy and cooperation is being manifested by all of the people of the community. And if it had not been for their help, other buildings would have been destroyed.

In the face of perplexity and hindrances, plans are being laid to continue the school throughout the year, and every student has expressed a desire to remain.

 Burton Castle.

ALABAMA-MISSISSIPPI NEWS

On Friday, January 4, Elder Keate left for the Hatley church, where he spent the week-end. Sabbath morning he spoke to the believers there, and on Saturday night they held a meeting, which some people of the neighborhood attended. Sunday morning he spent some time counseling with them about problems concerning the church building and the work there. Sabbath afternoon he visited old Brother Bellinger, who is confined to his bed. Though he has not been expected to live, he seemed to be improved at the time of Elder Keate's visit.

On Elder Keate's return trip he stopped at Aberdeen and visited a family by the name of Anderson, who are believers in the Sabbath. He stopped to see Brother Williams, who lives about three miles in the country from Aberdeen; and from there stopped to visit Brother and Sister Scales at Brookville, and spent the night with Sister Adams at Macon. Then he returned to Meridian.

By the time this is read the colored church officers' convention and the teachers' institute will be in the past. We will give a report on these gatherings at a later date.

"Our warfare is aggressive. Tremendous issues are before us, yea, right upon us. Let our prayers ascend to God that the four angels may still hold the four winds, that they may not blow to injure or destroy until the last warning has been given to the world. Then let us work in harmony with our prayers. Let nothing lessen the force of the truth for this time. The present truth is to be our burden. The third angel's message must do its work of separating from the churches a people who will take their stand on the platform of eternal truth."

When the Lord sees His people restricting their imaginary wants, practising self-denial, not in a mournful, regretful spirit, as Lot's wife left Sodom, but joyfully for Christ's sake, then the work will go forward with power.—"Testimonies," Vol. 6, p. 104.

THE WORK IN WILMINGTON

Through the cooperation of the members of the Wilmington congregation, I am glad to report that their Ingathering goal was quickly reached, and funds raised for the necessary repairs on the church building. There was also a small remaining debt of something like $200; and since the response to our solicitation in Wilmington was so generous, it was decided that another effort be made in December in connection with the Week of Prayer to entirely clear the church of debt.

The writer was privileged to work with some of the members in accomplishing this; and in addition to the Week of Prayer studies, an evangelistic sermon was preached each evening during the week of December 8-15. Quarterly service and business meetings were also held during my visit, as this congregation has been without a pastor for nearly two years, and there were several important matters that required immediate attention. We are glad to report that the spirit of courage and faith has taken possession of the congregation.

There seems to be a fine evangelistic spirit in Wilmington just now, as quite an interest has been stirred up, and it is hoped that the conference committee can arrange for a strong effort to be conducted in Wilmington in the spring or early summer. We are very grateful for the assistance that can be given occasionally to the Wilmington church by Dr. and Mrs. John H. Kendall, who will be in Wilmington during the time of Dr. Kendall's internship at the James Walker Memorial Hospital. We are glad that Dr. Kendall is definitely planning on locating for private practice somewhere in our conference, and we hope that the splendid impression that he is making upon the hospital board of management will make it possible for others of our young doctors to interne in this busy institution.

We are glad to report that the colored congregation in Wilmington is pressing forward in their church endeavors with faith and zeal. We are hoping to see a larger work developed by both congregations during the coming year. R. F. Woods.

CAROLINA NEWS NOTES

As this material goes to press, we are in the midst of the Carolina Conference institute. There are about twenty-five colporteurs present, and some excellent meetings have been conducted. Elder C. E. Weaks, of the General Conference, held the opening meeting on Friday evening, January 4, and Dr. M. E. Olsen conducted the Wednesday night meeting. Elder H. F. Kirk and Brother G. A.

Huse assisted with the meetings; Elder Shuler will conduct the devotional hour on Friday, January 11, and the Sabbath morning service at the Charlotte church the next day.

Elder R. F. Woods reports a very profitable meeting with the Union, South Carolina, church last Sabbath.

Elder J. G. Mitchell conducted the quarterly services at the Albemarle church on Sabbath, January 12.

FROM CHATTAHOOCHEE AND VICINITY

A very encouraging report has just come from Brother J. M. Cox, in charge of the work in River Junction, Chattahoochee, and adjacent territory, to the effect that a number of new believers have now begun to keep the Sabbath besides those who took their stand at the time of the tent effort. In spite of determined opposition by the preachers of other denominations, Brother Cox expects ten or twelve more will soon join the company in Chattahoochee. A class in "How to Give Bible Studies" has been organized, and these lay members are to be led out into some of the smaller communities for soul-winning efforts. Another encouraging omen in the work in this district is the fact that since starting the effort there last summer, four or five young people have been sent down to Forest Lake Academy, and more are considering entering. This is an admirable way to save these young lives for the cause of God. We believe every worker should seek to turn the youth toward our schools as soon as they have found the truth. L. K. Dickson.

OUR GOAL, $15,000

Now that the holiday season is over, the inventories have been taken, and the tourist season starts in real earnest, this is the time for every Adventist in Florida to be up and doing. In the book, "Gospel Workers," page 195, we read:

"God's servants are to stand as minute men, ready for service at a moment's notice. My brother, from hour to hour opportunities to serve God will open before you. These constantly come and go. Be ever ready to make the most of them."

Florida now has a list of about 120 who have joined the Minute Men's Club. Who will be the next to join us? The General Conference is desirous of having the names of all who have raised $10.64 and over. We hope to have a large list to send in from Florida. However, there are many who should not rest satisfied with $10.64. If last year you raised $20, set your goal for $25 or $30. If you have raised $30, set your goal for $50.

Elder Dickson and Brother Bowen called on five business men in Orlando today, January 8, and received $40 from them. One man who gave only $1 last year, gave $10 this year. If people of Florida are willing to give more this year, we should each personally aim to raise more this year. Churches that have raised an average of $7 per capita should not rest satisfied until they have raised $10, or $10.64 per capita.

We are setting our faces to have $15,000 by the end of February.

J. C. Klose.

RESULTS OF THE LOCKHART MEETING

The effort in the Baptist church at Lockhart, Florida, came to a beautiful climax December 29 to January 5, when 21 souls were buried with the Lord in baptism, one being from the Winter Garden church. Five whole families have come into the truth. Already some have entered the Lord's work as colporteurs and magazine workers. There are still others that we expect to baptize in the near future.

We believe that this work here near Orlando is an ideal example of what the various phases of home missionary work, followed by the preaching of the word under the blessing of God, can accomplish.

J. C. Klose.

FLORIDA NEWS NOTES

The evangelistic effort in Orlando Municipal Auditorium opened Sunday night, January 6, with good attendance of both the townspeople and members of our own churches. Many providential opportunities are opening up for giving these services wide publicity, and we anticipate a growing interest as the services continue. Each Sunday night the services will be held in the Municipal Auditorium; and on Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday nights they will be held in the Memorial Junior High School Auditorium. With Elder M. H. St. John are associated Elder and Mrs. J. D. Reavis, and Miss Helen Gruenke. The strong cooperation of Elder Ashton, pastor of the Sanitarium church, and of our conference headquarters workers, is greatly appreciated, as is the help of the large churches surrounding Orlando. We very much appreciate the good help which the Orlando and Forest Lake choirs gave in connection with the opening service in the Auditorium. We trust we shall have their help continually in these services.

Elder St. John and Elder and Mrs. Dickson are joining in a radio broadcast every Sunday afternoon at 1:30 over station WDBO with a wave length of 580 kilocycles. The broadcasting company is giving us unusually low rates, and at the same time donating quite a large number of radio announcements regarding the meetings during the week. We bespeak the prayers of God's people in behalf of these workers in this effort.

A colored church officers' convention will be held in the Orlando No. 2 church on Parramore street, Orlando, beginning 8:30 Friday morning, January 18, and continuing until the 20th. Very important topics will be presented for the consideration of this group of officers. We are expecting the pleasure of having Elders O. Montgomery of the General Conference; S. A. Ruskjer, R. G. Strickland, and J. G. Thomas, from the Southern Union Conference, beside our departmental leaders and local colored ministers.

We are very happy to have with us for a time Elder H. S. Prenier, head of the Bible department at South Lancaster, Mass., who has been spending a few days at the Sanitarium, and who will be with us a number of weeks, locating in Ft. Lauderdale for the present. We are hopeful Elder Prenier cannot only be of help to our church in Ft. Lauderdale, but that he may have the privilege of visiting a number of other churches while in our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. Atteberry, of Huntsville, Alabama, were recent callers at the conference office.

Elder Vixie, returning to his mission field in Africa, visited the office family last week. His message to the Orlando church and spicy mission talks have been an inspiration to all.

The Sanitarium church were privileged to have Elder O. Montgomery take the Sabbath service, January 5. The Orlando church is looking forward to Sabbath, the 12th, when he will address that church.

Elder N. S. Ashton visited our believers in Plant City last Sabbath.

Elder Kelley has just returned from Chattahoochee, where he baptized eight believers as a result of his effort held there recently. Brother J. M. Cox has done faithful work among the people there, and we trust many more will be baptized as the result of the work there.

Attention Missionary Volunteers! In choosing the Reading Course books for 1935, the greatest of care has been exercised; every book is inspiring and interesting. Secure your books early.

SPARKS FROM A WORKER'S ANVIL

About one year and six months ago I was asked to come to Miami and take up the work here. I found that I must shoulder a very heavy responsibility,—a debt of over $700, and only a very few members to shoulder the responsibility of such debt at the time. We set to work with prayer and zeal and the strength of our great Leader, whom we trusted to bring us out.

Our church school and all other expenses have been kept up, while we cut down our standing debts to about $200. Surely we can say with David, "Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power." There have been added to the church during this time, 20 members, 16 by baptism and 4 by letter.

THE COLPORTEUR INSTITUTE

The colporteur institute came to a close Monday, January 7. It was a gathering of spirit-filled men and women. Not a word of complaint was heard; getting close to the Lord was the aim. A goal was set for souls, and not for dollars.

The good talks from Elder Weaks, Elder Ruskjer, Elder Kirk, Brother Huse, and Elder Lysinger, were meat in due season.

We greatly appreciated the favors shown the colporteurs by both the Atlanta churches.

As a band of colporteurs, fifty in number, we are determined to do a greater work for the Lord in 1935 than in 1934.

A. E. Deyo.

GEORGIA-CUMBERLAND NEWS NOTES

The past week has been a busy one for Georgia-Cumberland. Brother Deyo has just completed a most successful colporteur's institute, with over fifty members in attendance. Prospects are encouraging for 1935 in the book work, with such an army of enthusiastic men and women pledged to its service.

A colored church officers' convention was held in Atlanta over the week-end of January 4-6. A live interest was manifested, and we are counting on our colored work to show a marked improvement during the coming year.

Brother Pierson has planned a series of week-end Sabbath school conventions for the immediate future. The first two places on his list at which conventions will be held are Johnson City, Tenn., and Knoxville, Tennessee.

Brother Taylor just recently went on a scouting trip to south Georgia in search of a suitable place to hold his next effort. He reports that Valdosta, Georgia, offers encouraging prospects.

Brother James reports the close of a very successful teachers' institute just recently held at Colledge, Tennessee. Approximately twenty-five teachers were in attendance.

KENTUCKY-TENNESSEE NEWS NOTES

Mrs. B. F. Kneeland of Covington writes that their Sabbath school is sponsoring the Home Department in a strong way, with thirty members already signed up, and several more to visit. The Thirteenth Sabbath offering from Covington was $80. She states: "We had an inspiring program. Following this, we took the Harvest Ingathering report, and went over the top. We are starting out the new year with strong determination."

Brother Sharp of Kentucky sends in $10.64, which places him on the Harvest Ingathering Minute Member list; he states that $5 of this was received from the mayor of his home town, and $1 from another individual. He says: "They put themselves on my list about six years ago, and said that when they wished to be dropped out they would let me know. They pay without being solicited. There were others who gave to me, because of the assurance from leaders that the money is used for the purposes for which it was solicited."

Those who are in need of low-priced, high-class literature for missionary work will be glad to know that back numbers of the Watchman Magazine can be secured at an astonishingly low price. 1932 copies can be had at 1 cent per copy; 1933 for one and one-half cents, and 1934 copies for 2 cents each. For only one dollar you can secure 100 copies of 1932 issues, or 50 copies for the year just closed. Send your orders at once to the Book and Bible House.

This is the third week in succession that we have been able to mention an excellent list of missionary periodicals being sent to donors of the Harvest Ingathering fund, or others, by some of our members. This week it is 26 subscriptions to Present Truth being sent by Brother Lukat of Mayfield, Ky. Surely this is one of the best methods of missionary work that can be followed. Let us remember that the Watchman is making a special offer of 60 cents per subscription for a year, where five or more subscriptions are sent in at one time. These may all go to different addresses. All orders should be sent to the Book and Bible House.

This week we are glad to welcome a new colporteur, Brother Nelson Groshall of the Madison school, who is devoting part of each day, as well as all day Thursday and Friday of each week, to placing our literature in the hands of people in a large community located near the school, known as Old Hickory. The cooperation of students and faculty of the Madison school in our colporteur work is sincerely appreciated.

OFFICERS' CONVENTION FOR THE COLORED CHURCHES

A very profitable officers' convention was held in our church at Twelfth Avenue and Harding St., in Nashville, Jan. 4 to 6. The convention began promptly at 7:30 Friday evening. Elder V. G. Anderson, our conference president, and Elder J. G. Thomas, secretary of the Colored Department in our union, led out in the discussions.

After a very interesting Sabbath school session Sabbath morning, we listened to an inspiring sermon at the eleven o'clock hour by Elder Anderson. At 2: 30 p. m. the delegates reassembled, and discussions of practical problems were continued. Beside our local conference officers, we were very fortunate in having with us Elders Ruskjer and Strickland, and Prof. J. E. Weaver, who gave very good counsel and helpful instruction.

The churches were represented by the following delegations:

Lexington No. 2: Elder Murphy, pastor, George McGhee, Mrs. A. B. Saulter, Mrs. E. B. Stewart.

Memphis No. 2: G. W. Merriman, A. Sloan, C. Lee, Mrs. L. Sloan, Mrs. G. Doss, A. Branch, S. Nicholas, E. McCray, Mrs. G. W. Merriman.

Paducah No. 2: L. M. Van Dyke and A. P. Nicholas.

Louisville No. 2: J. W. Jones, Ivory Jordan, Mable Riggs, John Elmore, Lillian Parks, Maggie Hopper, E. S. Jordan, G. L. Dixon, Edessa Dixon, James Roberts, George Slaughter.

A unanimous vote of appreciation was expressed by the delegation to the pastor, Elder F. S. Keitts, and members of the Nashville No. 2 church for their hospitality in entertaining the guests, and to the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference, for making it possible for the delegates to receive such valuable and inspiring instruction through the church officers' convention.

J. W. Jones.

AN INGATHERING RECORD

I have turned in to date $25.18 Harvest Ingathering, sufficient to place Mrs. Howell and me in the "Minute Member Club."

I am not an Edgar Guest,
But I strive to do my best;
And I find, just like the rest,
If I'm going to meet the test,
I must refuse to be depressed.
So farewell, old man Depression;
A stronger will is in possession;
What matters it what you may do?
I've set my stakes; I'm going through!

Clifford G. Howell,
Daylight, Tenn.

THE NARCOTIC EVIL EXPOSED

Early in December the Federal Government put on a drive against narcotics, making a special effort to apprehend those engaged in this nefarious traffic. Within a few days more than 800 were reported in the toils of the law, some of whom headed organizations to supply and peddle these drugs. A strong effort is being made to break the narcotic ring, which is insidiously and persistently working to increase the number of drug addicts in the United States.

Until you read "Battling the Wolves of Society," you may not be aware that the use of "dope" is fastening its tenacious hold on men and women and young boys and girls to a most alarming extent. As you follow the author in his delineation of the drug evil, you will shudder as you come to realize how easy it might be for your boy or your girl to become trapped into this almost unbreakable habit, which destroys both body and soul.

This book can be obtained from your Book and Bible House for only 25 cents, postpaid. Write for rates on quantities. Now is a good time to sell this book exposing the "dope" business.

A RECORD IN MAGAZINE CIRCULATION

The printing order of 110,000 January Life and Health was probably the largest ever placed for a regular edition of any of our monthly magazines. At the time this is written (December 24) less than 10,000 copies remain on hand, with every prospect indicating there will not be enough to complete the month's business.

The average net paid circulation of Life and Health for the past six months was 74,047. The subscription list now stands at 31,068, which is equal to the entire monthly circulation at the beginning of 1934.

Obituaries

Wallace—The Hilltop, Ky. church has suffered a great loss in the death of Brother Marvin Wallace, who passed away December 29. Brother Wallace accepted present truth about eighteen months ago during a ten-day series of meetings conducted in his home town by Elders Kneeland and Garrett. Since that time, he has been a very faithful church member and active worker for Christ. Although he suffered much during a long illness, yet his courage was good to the last, and he fell asleep in full assurance of a part in the first resurrection. Funeral services were conducted by Brother Jeff Hickman at Brother Wallace's request, and he was laid to rest in the Hilltop cemetery.
C. O. Franz.

Cleveland—Mrs. Frances E. Cleveland, aged 83, member of the Spartanburg, South Carolina, church, died November 27, 1934, and was laid to rest in the beautiful Oakwood cemetery beside her husband, John Cleveland, who preceded her in death about fifteen years ago. She awaits the coming of the Life-giver in the first resurrection. Words of comfort and hope were spoken from the Scriptures by the writer.
R. F. Woods.

Scruggs—Mr. M. B. Scruggs, aged 79, died at his home in Chesnee, South Carolina. He was a member of the Spartanburg, South Carolina, church for a number of years. The funeral services were held at the New Pleasant Baptist church, with the ministers of all five local churches participating in the services, as Brother Scruggs was a highly respected citizen in his community. He was zealous in all missionary and evangelistic endeavors and was always interested in assisting community efforts. After the other ministers and others had borne their testimony in behalf of his godly life, the concluding remarks and words of comfort were spoken from the Scriptures by the writer.
R. F. Woods.

DeGraw—Mrs. Anna M. DeGraw was born near Ypsilanti, Mich., May 19, 1845, and passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. D. King, Graysville, Tenn., Dec 21, 1934, aged 89 years. Soon after her marriage to John L.

DeGraw, she and her husband were converted and united with the Seventh-day Adventist church at Alma, Michigan. She was always ready to answer the call of need, sickness and suffering. She herself suffered 25 years of invalidism. Almost her last words were an expression of trust, and of her peace with God. Elder V. B. Watts and K. R. Haughey officiated at the funeral service.

Van Voorhis—James O. Van Voorhis was born at Russel-vania, Ohio, Aug. 3, 1859; died Jan. 4, 1935, at Graysville, Tenn. Most of his life was spent in Ohio, but in 1927 he moved to Graysville. Early in life he joined the Seventh-day Adventist church and remained a faithful member until death.
Funeral services were held at Graysville Sunday, Jan. 6, and he was laid to rest awaiting the call of the Life-giver.
Service was conducted by Elders K. R. Haughey and C. A.
Schutt.

COLLEGEDALE NEWS NOTES

Following the recent church school teachers' institute, Prof. C. A. Russell remained at Collegedale over the week-end, and spoke at the forenoon Sabbath service. He took for his text the question Pilate asked at the trial of Jesus, "What is truth?" This he made the basis of a strong discourse on true education founded on the word God, in contrast with the falsities of evolution and "science falsely so called."

In our church announcements on Sabbath, January 5, special mention was made of the Harvest Ingathering work done by the children of the church school during the recent campaign. The children in Miss Hinton's room, grades one, two, and three, raised $30.03. Miss Maxwell's children, grades four, five, and six, raised $92.36. And those in Mrs. Taylor's room, grades seven and eight, raised $70.21. This makes a total of $192.60. The following children each received five dollars or more, and thus became Jubilee Members: Bonnie Snide, Marian Benjamin, Jaunita Artress, Betty Jean Phelps, Lois Pierce, Grace Virginia Maxwell, Betty Jane Halvorsen, Lucia Lee, Kenneth Ray, George Virley Fuller, Kenneth Boynton, Valda Hickman, June Snide, Virginia Thomas, and Glenn Starkey. In addition to these, three children reached the $10.64 goal, and so became Minute Members: Betty Aiken, Marjorie Benjamin, and Fritts Thomas. A number of these children are from Chattanooga, and come out to school on the bus; during the Ingathering these united with our Collegedale children in gathering funds for missions. We believe that this is excellent training for the children.

Following the holiday vacation, school was resumed on Monday, January 7, with a good attendance. By vote of the faculty, the semester examinations were postponed for one week on account of the extra days added to our vacation because of the "flu" epidemic. But it was not found expedient to lengthen the school year to make up this loss; students and teachers will have to make good this loss by extra diligence and application.

At the recent election of officers to serve for the remainder of the school year, the following were chosen.

Sabbath school officers: Miss Ruby Dell McGee, superintendent; Lowell Byers and Kenneth Crofoot, assistants; Miss Martyn Ingram, secretary; Miss Vivian Boyd, assistant secretary; chorister, Frederick Webster; pianist, Miss Vera Lester; kindergarten leader, Mrs. S. A. Ruskjer,; assistant, Mrs. R. Olmstead; intermediate leader, Mrs. T. R. Huxtable; assistant, Mrs. Lola Collins; junior leader, Mrs. Wm. Kirstein; assistant, Mrs. Lettie Collins.

Y. P. M. V. officers: Everett Calhoun, leader; Robert Kepkey and Albert Smith, assistant leaders; Miss Mildred Bradley, secretary; Donald Short, chorister; Miss Gladys Leitner, pianist.

Only a few changes were made in the regular church officers. Several of our young people were chosen to serve as junior deacons and deaconesses.

Mrs. Tena R. Rice and her son Raymond, from Glendale, Calif., have recently come to Collegedale, that Raymond may attend school here. We welcome them to S. J. C.

TEACHER'S MEMORY GEM

Would you a scholar attempt to teach,
Study his habits, nature, speech;
Make him tell you all he can.
From this knowledge form your plan;
Begin with that which he does know.
Tell him little, and tell that slow;
Use words that he will know and feel;
Review, call back, draw out at will;
Consult his tastes, help him to climb,
And keep him working all the time;
Be firm, be gentle, love is strong;
Look to Jesus, you'll not go wrong.

—Selected.

Heaven is to begin on this earth. When the Lord's people are filled with meekness and tenderness, they will realize that His banner over them is love, and His fruit will be sweet to their taste. They will make a heaven below in which to prepare for heaven above.—"Testimonies," Vol. 7, p. 131.
