The Week of Sacrifice Offering Sabbath, November Twenty-eight

J. K. Jones

The recent Fall Council held at Fort Worth, Texas, was, in several ways, the most important ever held by our people. A deep spiritual atmosphere prevailed at all of the sessions, for all present seemed to sense the seriousness of the times in which we live. There is nothing in this old world that is solid except this third angel's message. Our one big business as Seventh-day Adventists, is to get behind this advent message, every one of us, and push it through speedily to a triumphant finish. Everything else we do is of secondary importance to this. The Lord will not come until this gospel has penetrated into every nation and island of earth in such a way that the inhabitants understand it well enough to make an intelligent decision either for or against it. Surely there is much work to be done in these lands before they will be ready to make this decision.

While the world is in turmoil, it is nevertheless a time when doors of opportunity are being opened everywhere for our missionaries to enter. Elder McElhany, the General Conference president, stated that if we today were to put off present appropriations to the mission fields where our work is now established, that we have calls enough from unentered fields to use up every dollar of the money we are now spending in the entered fields. The need now as never before is for means to carry the message into new centers. The General Conference funds are greatly reduced, in fact too low for a safe working basis.

On Sabbath, November 28, a call is to be sounded in every church in America for a real self-denial offering to raise the necessary funds to enable the brethren to properly push the message in the dark lands of earth. Coming at the Thanksgiving time of the year, it should lead us to examine our hearts to see just how much we love this truth, and how much we are willing to give for its progress.

If each one of us between now and November 28 will definitely plan to make a real sacrifice offering, it can be done. Those of us who earn a weekly salary can give the week's wage to this offering. It is recommended that all conference and institutional workers do this and that we urge our brethren and sisters in the churches who earn a wage, to join the workers in giving a week's salary. Many of our people will gladly do this, I am sure. Those not earning a wage can give some definite lump sum, or if on the farm, sell something and turn the proceeds into this offering. It should be a genuine sacrifice, and if it is, the Lord will bless each one who takes part. I appeal to our brethren of means to give liberally to our foreign mission work at this time. There are some who can give in a large way and surely the money will do more good now than if given later when it will not be worth as much as it is now. If you cannot give as much as you desire to when the offering is taken in your church, Sabbath, November 28, you can make up the rest of your offering during December.

Please pray about this matter, sacrifice for it, and plan definitely to make a liberal offering for our foreign missionary work November twenty-eighth in order to quickly finish the work abroad.

SPECIAL REQUEST FOR PRAYER

There is at Hendersonville, N. C., a boy about 18 years of age, named Arthur Baroudi, whose father and mother belong to a Seventh-day Adventist church at North Creek, N. Y. The parents are godly people and the boy, Arthur, is one of the most spiritual boys I have known. This boy has been afflicted for 45 days and has grown weak from not caring to eat. It seems like a satanic power is trying to destroy him. He cannot live many days longer unless God heals him. His parents are heart-broken

NOTICE TO SOUTHERN UNION BENEVOLENT SOCIETY MEMBERS (Colored)

This is to inform the members of the Southern Union Benevolent Society that Mrs. M. C. Strachan of Huntsville, Alabama, died June 9, and Mrs. Elsie Frazier of Savannah, Georgia, passed away July 3. Both of these members having been in good and regular standing with the Society received burial benefits in harmony with the rules of the Society.

Both of these burials are included in one assessment since the membership is large enough at this time to cover these two items of expense with one assessment. Notice of an assessment was mailed to each member as of the latest address on file.

Please let each member mail his assessment at once. The Southern Union Conference office should be notified of any changes of address on the part of the members of this Society.

ALABAMA-MISSISSIPPI NEWS NOTES

Sabbath, October 31, the Montgomery church was dedicated. This is one of the finest structures that we have in the conference. It will seat about 500 people. The auditorium, the church school room, and a large kindergarten room were all beautifully finished. The auditorium was decorated with flowers, and the members were all happy as they assembled on this special occasion. Elder W. W. White of Nashville, who assisted Elder Shuler in the Montgomery effort and had so much to do with the remodeling of the building, preached on Friday night on the "Signs of the Times." Sabbath morning Elder J. K. Jones, the Union Conference president, delivered the dedicatory sermon, and Elder Keate offered the dedicatory prayer. In the afternoon service a half hour was devoted to a program of special music, following which Elder J. G. Mitchell delivered his farewell address. Following this Elder C. F. Graves was ordained to the gospel ministry. In this special service Elder Jones offered the ordination prayer, Elder S. A. Weisman, the General Conference assistant Sabbath school secretary, gave the charge, and Elder Keate welcomed Brother Graves into the ministry. One thing that saddened the occasion was the death of one of the members. One of the sisters who had had a serious fall was present at the Friday night service, but Sabbath morning the announcement was made that she was dead. Her funeral service was conducted by Elder W. W. White on Sunday morning. Elder White spoke again on Sunday night.

At the eleven o'clock hour on Sabbath Elder M. R. Garrett was introduced to the congregation as their new pastor. Elder Mitchell left Montgomery early Sunday morning for Boston, Massachusetts, which is to be his new field of labor. He is to be the pastor of the Temple church in Boston.

Elder L. A. Butterfield recently received three more new members into the church at Ellisville. This makes a total of 24 who have been added as the result of his work this summer.

Elder J. S. Green baptized thirty on Sabbath, October 17, into the Birmingham colored church. He has twenty-six more in his baptismal class and hopes that many of these will yet be added.

Elder T. M. Fountain has been visiting churches in the interest of Harvest Ingathering, and has reported Montgomery No. 2 and Pensacola No. 2 over the top.

We are happy over the total raised during this past week in Harvest Ingathering. At the time of this writing $1138.75 has been reported this week, and at this moment we are looking for a good report in from one of our churches in addition to this. This pushes our total up to $8,966.37. If we continue to raise as much each week for the next few weeks we could have our goal by the end of November. We ought to remember that when it comes into December it will be much harder to raise money so we ought to bend every energy to get our goal in the next few weeks. Will you not do your best to help us reach the mark?

Our statistical reports show that 116 were added to our churches during the third quarter of this year. We ought to thank the Lord for this and redouble our efforts in our soul-winning endeavors.

Begin to plan now for the Week of Sacrifice. Let's make this the largest offering of this kind that this conference has had.

Our colporteur report for the month of October shows a total of books delivered of $5461.10. We are happy over the excellent deliveries that our colporteurs are having. Brother J. D. Norris delivered during the month $1385. Brother T. Hilderbrandt delivered $1287 worth of books that month. A number of others had excellent deliveries.

I was very happy to learn, on my return from the Fall Council at Fort Worth, that up to October 24, Carolina had $9627.55 Harvest Ingathering. This puts us within $1400 of our conference goal of $11,000. There was on October 24 the amount of $1402.09 due on the unreached Harvest Ingathering goals from those churches who have not gone over the top. If we had all that was due on these unreached goals, we would have just a little over $11,000.

Unfortunately, some of our churches will not be able to make their full goal. Brother Rittenhouse reports that in Charleston the city authorities have stopped all of our Harvest Ingathering work. They have stopped the singing bands and all solicitation from house to house. This will mean a loss of around $100 in Charleston, and it means we must do that much more somewhere else. This shows us what is coming and teaches us the importance of doing everything we can now while the door of opportunity is open. We figure that we will need an overflow of from $400 to $500 during November on the churches that have already gone over in order to make sure that we have the conference goal with some overflow.

This means that every church must endeavor to make its full Harvest Ingathering goal this year, and that those churches that have already reached their goals should keep on working for an overflow. The need is tremendous. Conditions in the world indicate that whatever we are going to do for God's work we must do quickly. It would be a wonderful thing, in view of the tremendous needs at this time and the nearness of the end if Carolina could run the Harvest Ingathering up to $12,000. Will you not help us to do this?

We are going to call for two more reports so that we can send out two bulletins during November. We would like to have a report from each church on its total Harvest Ingathering on November 14, and November 28. We are sending two postal cards to our church treasurers to use, reporting the total Harvest Ingathering funds on November 14 and 28.

We surely appreciate the way our people have worked in this Harvest Ingathering campaign, and let us all pray and work that we may, if possible, run the total up to $12,000. J. L. Shuler.

CAROLINA NEWS NOTES

Elder J. K. Jones, our Union President, spoke at the Raleigh white and colored churches Sabbath, November 7, and then went on with Elder Shuler to Winston-Salem to counsel with the brethren there about a new church building.

Elder Shuler, after having been away from the office two weeks, attending the Fall Council at Fort Worth, Texas, was in the office only two days and left again on a two weeks trip among the churches in North Carolina.

Elder J. G. Mitchell made a short stop with friends in Charlotte, en route to Boston, Mass., where he is to take up the duties of pastor of the Boston Temple.

We welcome three white churches and three colored churches to our Honor Roll of churches "over the top" this week. They are as follows: Greenville, Old Fort, Farmville, High Point, New Bern, and Sumter. Who'll be the next?

The total Ingathering raised by the Carolina Conference to the end of October was $10,196.57.

WEEK OF SACRIFICE NOVEMBER 21-28

My soul was deeply stirred as I attended the Fall Council this year and heard the many appeals that came to us from the mission fields. Truly, the harvest is ripe but the laborers are few. Providential doors are opening in various parts of the world-field and our brethren are unable to answer the calls because of the lack of funds. God has abundantly blessed His work in every part of the harvest field but how much more could be accomplished if we had the means to press into new fields. It is a sad thing to sit in the council sessions or committee meetings and hear brethren from the far corners of the world present their earnest appeals for help and have to turn them away empty handed.

We have a wonderful opportunity at the present time in our Harvest Ingathering work to help answer some of these calls that are coming to us. We are glad to know that many of our churches are making good progress in their Ingathering work, and we rejoice as the reports come in from week to week. I trust each church will put forth every possible effort to reach its full goal in a short period of time.

The Week of Sacrifice will be November 21-28 and I am earnestly appealing to all of our churches and members to plan now for a liberal Week of Sacrifice Offering. It is requested that we give the equivalent of one week's salary to the cause of missions this year. We are asking our workers and lay members to cooperate in this request just as far as possible. If there was ever a time when we should be sacrificing for the benefit of God's work that time is now. Let us really make this a week of sacrifice and give to the extent that we feel we have sacrificed something for the cause of God.

We are very anxious that every member in the Florida Conference has some material part in the Week of Sacrifice this year. The money received during this special week will be passed on to the work in mission fields and our brethren are counting strongly on a large and liberal offering from the Florida Conference.

I trust that all the leaders in our churches will lay this matter heavily upon the hearts of our dear people and urge them to make every possible sacrifice during this special week. One dollar given to the cause of God now will be worth more than $10 at a later time. World conditions tell us that the work of God is drawing rapidly to a close and if we are going to enter into a covenant by sacrifice with God, now is the time to do it. L. E. Lenheim.

OCALA TENT MEETING

Five weeks of our tent effort which began here in Ocala, September 6, are now in the past. These weeks have been most pleasant with the hearty cooperation of the loyal members here, and the help of ideal weather conditions. But we are not through. Over 50 names have been turned in for literature, and several of these seem very interested in the stirring topics presented. One lady recently said soberly: "I am greatly concerned about the Sabbath question." Our prospects for several additions to our growing church membership here are most encouraging indeed.

Ocala is blessed with a commodious church building and church school, although not quite finished. The electric fixtures have recently been installed, although the lights have been in from the first. The second floor and pews are next, and then the joyful dedicatory service. These will soon come. The Ocala people have for their motto: "PAY AS WE GO."

Miss Richardson is teaching the church school of 14 pupils. Sister Lucile Smith is assisting in the tent effort. A dozen or more Bible readings are given every week in the homes of the interested ones who attend the meetings. Let us all pray that the closing sermons will result in many taking their stand for the truth.

REACHING A THOUSAND

A few days ago while in the Harvest Ingathering work I met a lawyer of considerable prominence in North Florida. From his conversation I learned that he was a man of strong Christian principles, rarely seen in these times. He is a tithe payer, and from his tithe account he gave a good donation to our mission work. He seemed greatly interested in the work of Seventh-day Adventists. Soon this lawyer plans to run for an office that will represent a large part of the State of Florida at our national Capitol.

Shortly after meeting this man Brother Cox and I spent nearly an hour giving a Bible study to a government official in the State capitol in Tallahassee. This man was genuinely interested in the Bible as taught by Seventh-day Adventists. He has been coming out to some of the meetings held by Brother Cox.

Now what is our duty to such public officials as these? And how should we reach the many hundreds of such men in Florida? They are thinking men, men whose thoughts and whose work would be influenced by reading our truth-filled magazine, The Watchman.

We have in our office an up-to-date list of 1000 legislators, attorneys, educators, judges, editors, and public libraries that would reach thousands of others. Regarding the work for such men, Sister White says: "The enemy moves upon his servants to promise measures that would greatly impede the work of God; but statesmen who fear the Lord are influenced by holy angels to oppose such propositions with unanswerable arguments. . . . When the final warning shall be given, it will arrest the attention of these leading men . . . and some of them will accept it and will stand with the people of God through the time of trouble."

Are there not many of our Adventist believers in Florida that would like to take a definite responsibility in this matter to a hundred names, to fifty, ten, or even five?

WEEK OF SACRIFICE

Never in the history of our work has the need for funds been greater. In order to maintain the present standing of our work in the world field, the General Conference voted at the recent Fall Council to take from their reserves more funds than were ever voted before with the exception of the year 1930. With the reserve funds already drained to the danger point as a result of the past years of depression, we face the fact that our foreign mission reserve fund is now in a more serious condition than at any previous date.

A most earnest appeal has been made to each conference worker to give his full week's salary as a sacrifice offering and our workers gladly sacrifice for the salvation of precious souls. Now, we extend this same appeal to every loyal lay-member, asking that you join our workers in the giving of one week's income as a sacrifice offering. Where this cannot be done an offering of any amount will be greatly appreciated.

We believe that on November 28 the greatest Week of Sacrifice Offering in the history of Georgia-Cumberland should be given by all the workers, church officers, and lay-members of all our churches. Let every one prepare now for a cheerful and liberal contribution.

H. E. Lysinger.

NOTICE

All teachers of Georgia-Cumberland will meet at Collegedale Thursday, November 12, for institute work. Every teacher is urgently requested to be present. I have just completed an inspection of every school in the conference and a full report will be printed later.

The Bible Study League

P. O. BOX 4929, ATLANTA, GA.

Just a few months ago we sent out a questionnaire for follow-up. The report received was not so favorable but we were told to continue sending literature. This was done. This morning a letter came from the person stating she intended to keep next Sabbath. Which illustrates that we cannot always tell on first contact just how individuals will ultimately come out.

Sabbath, December 5, will be Bible Study League day. We wish that every member might have a part in the matter of League finance. We hope that on that day each member will contribute something to the support of this endeavor. We are hoping that each one will plan to contribute one dollar. Some may do more than this; others may give less, but let us all plan to do something. If you have pledged to support the league, the amount you give will count on your pledge. Let us start planning now for the offering.

BAPTISM AT PUDUCAH

Immediately following the Sabbath school and Missionary services on Sabbath, October 10, we found our way down to a little stream of water. Although the day was cool and rainy, five precious souls were buried with their Lord in baptism. Two others joined the church on profession of faith. There were three others who had cast their lot with us, but sad to say, two of these fell asleep. The third moved away before the baptism took place. We trust that when Christ calls His own, these along with the many others will again be united with us.

Following the baptism, we again gathered at the church and extended the right hand of fellowship to the new believers. A communion service followed. We were very happy to have Elder F. S. Keitts of Louisville with us to perform both of these ceremonies.

L. R. Hastings.

KENTUCKY-TENNESSEE NEWS NOTES

We welcome another new colporteur to our field in the person of Brother W. B. Mills. Brother Mills has already spent several weeks placing our literature in the hands of his customers in northeastern Kentucky and writes, "I find that I am going to like this work very well. Each day as I go out, I am able to do something new for the people. I feel that I have found my life work, and I am enjoying it very much."

The Ingathering bulletin, dated November 4, shows another succession of gains all along the line. The Covington church with Elder All as pastor has nearly reached the $1000 mark. The Bowling Green church with Brother E. C. Banks in charge lacks only $34 of having reached its full goal, and we feel sure that this will soon be gained. The Cynthiana Kentucky, church has reported Ingathering work done, so now every church in the conference with the exception of two have done something in this campaign, and we feel sure that these two will soon be listed also. It is true that some rainy weather has interfered slightly with the Ingathering work, but if we look at this in the same light as the colporteur does, we will find that rainy weather is a help rather than a hindrance, for when it rains the people stay in and it is easier to contact them than when they are busy about their regular occupations.

Elder Anderson, our conference president, spoke in the Nashville church Sabbath, October 31, giving an interesting report of Fall Council recently held in Fort Worth, Texas. He was happy to see in response to his call for faithfulness in the coming Week of Sacrifice practically a unanimous show of hands assuring us that Nashville is going to sacrifice until it is really felt. God blesses the cheerful giver, and the cheerful giver is the one who gives until it hurts.

Interesting colporteur reports are being received each week from Brother Fred Meister and Brother Noble. Brother Meister reports having made a 90 per cent delivery a week ago and that he and Brother Noble are planning on deliveries every two weeks from now until Christmas. Now is the time for our people and especially our sisters to devote the afternoons to the colporteur work in the sale of the Holiday Sets. Be sure to write the Book and Bible House if you are interested in the sale of these sets which sell to the public for $2.50, giving a liberal commission to the colporteur, thus providing means for personal use or Sabbath school, Week of Sacrifice, or other funds.

Sister J. Inibenat of Paris, Tennessee, while canvassing with the Holiday Set found ten individuals ready for Bible studies, and she is visiting these interested people now regularly.

Please turn to the advertisement section and read the note in regard to the little girl who is seeking a home. The state has offered to give this child a home until she is twenty-one, but we are anxious to keep her with our people.

WEDDING BELLS

Cruze-Cole—Brother John E. Cruze was united in marriage to Sister Virginia Ennis Cole on the afternoon of October 6, 1936, in Orlando, Florida, Elder L. T. Crisler officiating.

Brother Cruze has been connected with the Florida Sanitarium for many years as night watchman.

The bride's home is in Raleigh, North Carolina. Several of her relatives were present from North Carolina, Jacksonville, and Miami to witness the ceremony conducted at Elder Crisler's home. In the evening a delightful reception was held by the children of the groom. May heaven's choicest blessings be the portion of Brother and Sister Cruze.

Essex-Brown—On Tuesday night, October 20, Miss Dicksie Brown of Birmingham, Alabama, and Mr. Charles Richard Essex of Battle Creek, Michigan, were united in marriage at the home of the bride in Central Park, Birmingham, Elder W. E. Lanier officiating. Brother and Sister Essex will make their home in Battle Creek.

COLLEGEDALE NEWS NOTES

At the Friday evening Vesper Hour, in response to Elder Alfred W. Peterson's call for youth to surrender their wills to the will of God, a continuous season of testimony answered, "Thy will be done in me."

Professor Peterson spoke again at the Sabbath service contrasting the small beginning of the advent movement with the rapid progress of the present day. The times upon which we have come are full of meaning to us, indeed. Just as the movements in the world are fast, so the final movements in this message will be rapid ones. Whenever there has come a need in the world, God has always met the emergency. God is sending a special call to the youth of today, to be strong for Him and gain the victory over the world and the things that pertain to the world. No young person ever rises higher than the level of his thinking. In closing Professor Peterson quoted Garibaldi's appeal to his men.

"Fortune, who betrays us today, will smile on us tomorrow. I am going out from Rome. Let those who wish to continue the war against the stranger come with me. I offer neither pay nor quarters nor provision. I offer hunger, thirst, forced marches, battles and death. Let him who loves his country with his heart and not with his lips only, follow me."

He then declared, "I bring to you, young people, this morning, the challenge of this message. Will you accept it?"

Professor Eric Jones, President of the Atlantic Union College, South Lancaster, Mass., was a welcome visitor at Collegedale last Sabbath. He was returning home from the recent Fall Council session.

Miss Annette Barrow was glad to welcome several visitors for the week-end: her mother, Mrs. J. R. Barrow, sister, Marguerite, Mr. Donald Moon, and Mr. Claudius Ray. Mr. Ross Stromberg and Elwin Artress also came to see former school mates here.

Lucille Taylor enjoyed having her father and mother, Elder and Mrs. H. J. Taylor, and little brother and sister, here for a visit last Sabbath.

Other visitors last week were: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pierce, visiting their daughter, Evelyn; Elder and Mrs. John G. Mitchell, Mary Joe, and Elder Mitchell's mother, Mrs. Flora Mitchell. They brought Ruth back to school after an absence of a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Boynton were also here from Madison.

From Fall Council Miss Ruth Conard stopped by to visit with Dean Christman, an old friend.

Last Sunday Sarah Cordell's three sisters, her brother-in-law, and Miss Harriet Newman came by to spend a few hours with her here.

Mrs. G. N. Fuller enjoyed a short visit from her aunt, Miss Mabel West of the St. Helena Sanitarium.

We are glad to report that Miss Lorreta Spathe and Mrs. Leslie Pitton are recovering nicely after their recent appendectomies.

Very vividly the life of David Livingston was presented in pictures last Saturday night in the chapel auditorium. It was crowded with youth, filled with eager anticipation, and all were glad for such an educational entertainment as this proved to be.
