ITEMS OF INTEREST AND PROGRESS FROM THE FLORIDA SANITARIUM AND HOSPITAL

J. K. Jones,

President, Southern Union Conference

IT HAS been suggested that as Chairman of the Board, I write for the TIDINGS a report of the work of the Florida Sanitarium and Hospital, located in the beautiful city of Orlando, Florida. I think it is safe to say that this Sanitarium, which is a Southern Union Conference institution, has one of the finest locations of any of our Seventh-day Adventist Sanitariums in North America. The beautiful palms, and the lake on which it fronts, make it a very attractive and desirable place for an institution that seeks to restore health and strength to those in need of rest and medical treatment.

This past winter, the institution was crowded to capacity with a waiting list part of the time. Only recently a very fine modern hospital building has been completed. This building is modern in every way, and greatly adds to the efficiency of the institution. It cost about $50,000, and the interesting part of this is that it is all paid for. About $10,000 of this was raised from patients and friends of the institution, in a solicitation campaign by the workers in the Sanitarium.

A number of new concrete sidewalks have recently been added to the growing list of improvements. Perhaps we can safely say that with the new hospital and equipment costing approximately $50,000, and the new men's hydrotherapy building and equipment of about $18,000, together with a doctor's cottage and other improvements in the past three years, at least $75,000 to $80,000 have been spent to make the Sanitarium up-to-date in every way. Still other improvements are contemplated in the near future.

The Sanitarium provides an outlet for the milk and cream supplied by the Forest Lake Academy dairy, and also through the sending of its linen to the Academy for washing and ironing, furnishes work for a considerable number of students who work in the Academy laundry. The Academy does this work at a fair price worked out between the two institutions, thus one helps the other.

Doctor C. J. Larsen, who is the Medical Director of the Sanitarium, is a splendid physician and surgeon. Brother R. G. Eowen is the Business Manager, and is doing his best to keep the institution up to a high point of efficiency in the matter of improvements, repairs, etc.

A recent Board meeting was held at the Sanitarium, which was attended not only by the full board, but by Doctor H. M. Walton, Medical Secretary of the General Conference, Miss Burnett, head of the General Conference Department of Nursing, and Elder O. O. Montgomery, who resides in Orlando. Plans were laid that we trust will mean continued progress for the institution in the days to come. Elder H. S. Premier, a man of long experience as a teacher of Bible in our schools, is the Bible teacher and chaplain, and is rendering splendid service. Splendid consideration is given to our Seventh-day Adventist church members, and we invite those who are sick to favorably consider our own institution, the Florida Sanitarium and Hospital, when you find it necessary to go away from home for medical care.

HAVE YOU FOUND YOUR PLACE?

H. E. Lysinger

President, Carolina Conference

JESUS SAYS 'Go work today in My vineyard. Get away from the places where you are not needed. Plant the standard of truth in towns and cities that have not heard the message. Prepare the way for My coming. Those in the highways and hedges are to hear the call."—Testimonies, Vol. 8, p. 216.

Vineyard work is religious work. To work in God's vineyard means to engage in some line of work for the salvation of souls. It is possible to be a hardworking person, and yet still be an idler in the market place as far as God is concerned. Some of you who read these lines may be very busy persons, "busy here, and there" (1 Kings 20:40), but the important question for each of us to ask ourselves is, "Have I found my place in God's service?"

How often we have heard the statement quoted that says, "Not more surely is there a special place prepared for us in the heavenly mansions than is the special place designated on earth where we are to work for God."—Christ's Object Lessons, p. 329. Yet when confronted with the question as to whether we are sure that we have found our place or not, some of us hesitate to answer in the affirmative. Even though we acknowledge that the "fields are white, already to harvest," we still confess that we have not found a definite place in the work of God.

To be an idler in the market place at this late hour is a most dangerous position to be in. God sends the message to every one of us. "Wake up, wake up, my brethren and sisters, and enter the fields of America that have never been worked. . . 'Haste thee, flee for thy life,' is the call to be given to those dwelling in sin. We must be terribly in earnest."—Testimonies, Vol. 8, p. 36. Yes, my Christian friends, we should be "terribly in earnest" and if we are, we surely will find a place in God's vineyard of service, and find it quick.

To each soul among His remnant people, God repeats the call, "Wake up! Wake up! You have a work to do, and your sun is fast hastening to its setting. Your powers are becoming enfeebled; but all there is of you, every particle of your ability belongs to God, and should be used earnestly and disinterestedly in His Service. Work while the sun still lingers in the heavens, for the night cometh when no man can work"—Testimonies, Vol. 2, p. 429.

Brethren and sisters, there is a definite place for each of you in God's service. A place for the part time, and whole time worker. If in doubt as to what you should do, pray earnestly that God will lead you in the avenue of service that you can best fill. Personally, I shall be glad to come and pray with anyone who desires to find his place in God's service of soul-winning.

NEWS NOTES

Pine Forest Academy is planning to enlarge its facilities to care for the needs of young people of academic standing. Write to the principal, G. H. Hochstetter, Chunky, Mississippi, for further information concerning scholastic standings, rates, etc. Sunday, May 18, was a high day for the academy students when they participated in their annual school picnic. Five little girls in the community have been faithfully instructed through the year by their teacher, Mrs. Mamie C. Norrell, who has been asked to remain with the school this coming year and continue her work in the community and also teach piano at the academy.

Elder C. F. Graves and Brother C. J. Ashlock had an attendance of 291 at their opening night. As soon as the school session is out in Dothan they expect an increased attendance. Brother Ashlock is having good success in securing radio time to announce his effort. Those in that territory who would like to listen to the radio program can tune in on station WAGF, Dothan, Alabama, 1400 Kilocycles, every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 1:45 P. M. Both Elder Graves and Brother Ashlock feel that the Lord is richly blessing this effort. Let us remember these brethren in our prayers.

Elder M. R. Garrett began his tent effort in Gulfport, Mississippi, Sunday night, May 25, with an attendance of nearly 400. Brother Melville Seitz, a graduate of one of our colleges, has just joined Elder Garrett and is assisting with the music phase of the program. Mrs. Walleker is acting as Bible worker. A very interesting radio program of song was given just one hour before the meeting. A large number indicated as a result of the announcement over the radio that they became interested in attending.

A well planned program was given by the church school boys and girls of the Meridian No. 1 church Tuesday evening, May 13. Brother J. M. Jansen presented the diploma to the graduate, Tresa Johnson, who plans to enter Pine Forest Academy in the fall. Five Friends, and six Companions were invested by the conference Missionary Volunteer secretary, and six Master Comrades in the audience renewed their pledges of loyalty during the consecration prayer.

An IMPORTANT date is coming—June 22-29. Eight golden days for eight silver dollars. All juniors between the ages of ten and sixteen are invited to Oak Mountain Park, Alabama, where real good times are being planned. Don't miss it—JUNIOR CAMP. Send in your application blank today and let us reserve your place in the camp. Already enrollment blanks are being received and many inquiries about the camp, and YOURS should be next.

Brother Lindsey has begun another effort in the city of Dothan. As a result of his first effort he has twenty-one people definitely interested in the truth and a number are keeping the Sabbath. He is now holding another effort in another section of the city, and we trust that the Lord will richly bless Brother Lindsey as he conducts his meetings.

TITHE CORNER

GOD'S REMEDY: "Our Redeemer, who knew man's danger in regard to covetousness, has provided a safeguard against this dreadful evil. He has arranged the plan of salvation so that it begins and ends in benevolence . . . Constant, self-denying benevolence is God's remedy for the cankering sins of selfishness and covetousness. He has ordained that giving should become a habit, that it may counteract the dangerous and deceitful sin of covetousness. Continual giving starves covetousness to death."—"Testimonies," Vol. 3, p. 548.

REMEMBER THE DATE—JUNE 22-29. ENROLL TODAY—DON'T DELAY! JUNIOR CAMP.

We are asking again that you remember to send the names and addresses of any young men called to training camps that we may keep in touch with them through our ministers in whose districts the camps are located, and also by mail from this office. This is important.

Word has just been received from Brother Keith that on the opening night of his effort they had an attendance of 200. They feel that they are reaching a very good class of people. A large number are attending these meetings regularly, and this of course is always a good indication of real interest.

Word has just been received from Brother J. F. Street that it was necessary for him to move his tent. The owners sold the lot which necessitated this move. In just one day the tent was erected again and no meetings were lost. He says that his attendance is keeping up very well.

Mrs. R. F. Chastain and Miss Russum Miller have been invited by the Birmingham church and school board to be the church school teachers this coming school term.

Miss Annie Lowe will remain in Pensacola, and Mrs. W. H. Westermeyer has been invited to teach the Meridian church school again.

Miss Lucille Hoskins has been re-elected by the Florence, Mississippi, church to teach their school again for the third consecutive year.

PRESS DAY

Our slogan is still "A Quarter Each Quarter for Forest Lake Academy," however, on June 14 the flags will be out all over the nation. It is to be a special day in the churches in Florida, for then we plan to raise money for a new high-speed press at the Academy.

Forest Lake Academy is out of debt. The Florida Conference, its churches and Academy, have rolled away nearly twenty thousand dollars worth of obligations in a little over three years. Why not show your approval of our program by placing at least a dollar in the offering on June 14. It will be a very substantial way of assuring us that you approve of our past, present and future financial slogan or policy, "Pay as you go or don't go." All agree that we have just closed the most successful year in the history of Forest Lake Academy. We sincerely thank our Maker for His mercies and blessings and ask all our church members to pray that Forest Lake Academy shall fill the need in the lives of our young people that God intended it to fill when He established it here in the Florida Conference.

Remember the date—June 14. Remember the place,—your own church. The amount you and your Saviour should decide.

A STRANGE BUT TRUE ELIXIR

I once read a weird tale of a professor who brewed a strange elixir, and when some drops of the mysterious fluid fell upon a stunted plant that was about to die the plant sprung into a new and luxuriant life.

The word of Christ is like that strange elixir, for it has the power to revive a drooping heart, to lift up a fallen soul, and to bring back a lost and broken life.

Somehow it is quite noticeable that those of us who are constant readers and firm believers in literature, both for ourselves and others, find the trail toward eternity with less obstruction. At this very time, your Book and Bible House has accepted the challenge to find just the literature for the time. That is why we have made arrangements for you to secure that most satisfying set of "Conflict of the Ages" books at wholesale costs. If you do not have every one of these five inspired volumes, won't you write us for added information concerning the divided payment plan?

"CONFLICT" BOOKS SOLD TO DATE

We are pleased that hundreds of our Florida members recognize the great need in these times to familiarize themselves with the truths found in these five volumes.

NEWS NOTES

A letter from Sister Kuester, speaking in reference to the Punta Gorda Dorcas Society, quotes from one of the members of that church: "I don't know what we ever did without the Dorcas Society. It's the most wonderful part of the church." Yes, that is true. Many of our good sisters have caught the vision and are doing a very commendable work through the Dorcas Society.

Monday, May 12, which was Hospital Day, the Orlando Medical Cadet corps put on a demonstration of litter drill in front of the Sanitarium. The Orlando "Sunday Sentinel-Star" carried a picture of a litter squad and short write-up about the corps.

Wednesday night, May 7, one Sunbeam, seven Friends and two Companions were invested in West Palm Beach, and Sabbath, May 10, six Friends and two Companions were invested at St. Petersburg. Professor Gaitens officiated at both ceremonies.

Elder M.E. Chapman recently baptized three candidates as further result of Brother Lemon's effort at Bartow, and two at the Sanitarium lake, the result of a Christian home and our church school.

Medical Cadets will be interested in the M.C.C. Officers Training Camp to be held at Reading, Penn., August 17 to 31. For further information write to Professor Gaitens, Box 1313, Orlando, Fla.

St. Petersburg Sabbath school is out to make Thirteenth Sabbath, June 28, a Dollar Day. They are advocating the sale of little twenty-five-cent books to help in this. Good idea, don't you think?

Elder M. E. Chapman spent the past week end with the West Palm Beach district, and will be the speaker at the Miami church next Sabbath.

The West Coast area are already making big plans for their Federation meeting which will be held in Tampa, July 17.

Summer school at Southern Junior College begins June 16, and at Oakwood Junior College June 18.

FLORIDA SANITARIUM NEWS NOTES

Work on the original hospital building, which was moved in January and located at the north end of the new unit, is rapidly going forward to completion. The exterior is being modernized, with parapet walls extending up to the same height as the new building, and covered on the outside with stucco and paint so that when finished it will conform in appearance to the rest of the hospital. The convenient ambulance entrance is located in the space where the two units join and a permanent connection of concrete block walls will bring the two sections into one unit. It is expected that this work will be completed within the next month, ready for permanent use.

A recent improvement in the new hospital building that is very much appreciated is an application on the ceiling of the second floor corridor of quietone sound-deadening board. This greatly reduces the transmission of sounds through that part of the building, and it is planned to make a similar application in first floor hall as soon as funds are available.

The cement sidewalk to the dormitories has now been completed. This has been done in stages, the last stage being the stretch from the medical directors' cottage to Eastwin. The students and all others living on that end of the campus are appreciating this improvement very much.

National Hospital Day, May 12, was observed by open house, conducted tours throughout the institution showing visitors the improvements that have been made during the past year, particularly in the new hospital. The Orlando Medical Cadet Corps, who have been using the sanitarium recreational hall for their semi-weekly meetings, conducted litter drills and other demonstrations on the sanitarium lawn, and special music was furnished by the W. P. A. band.

Dr. C. J. Larsen, medical director, and Mrs. Larsen, left Wednesday morning, May 21, to attend the General Conference in San Francisco. Elder Premier, chaplain, and his wife, left several days before by auto. Brother and Sister Herman Ray, Brother and Sister H. H. Evans, and others with them, started out Sunday morning May 25. These absentees, with others who have gone on vacations, have quite noticeably reduced our force of workers.

Mrs. Irene Burnham, who for several years has been filling the position of instructor of nurses, recently left to accept a position in Temple, Texas. To fill this vacancy a call has been extended to Miss Violet Dybdahl of Pacific Union College.

The lobby, parlor, and sun parlor have recently received a new coat of paint which greatly improves their appearance.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM THE BOOK AND BIBLE HOUSE

ITEM I. We have entered a crucial hour. People everywhere are asking the question, "What do these things mean?" This affords a marvelous opportunity for colporteur work. During the period in and around the first World War, the colporteurs sold as high as $10,000 a year. We believe these records are about to be surpassed. The big books, such as "Bible Readings" and "Great Controversy," are now being sold everywhere. Big records are being made right in our field. Young ladies here in Atlanta are doing very well selling the twenty-five cent books in sets of six and it is not unusual for individuals to sell one hundred magazines a day. Perhaps the above suggestions are God's call to you.

ITEM II. Convening the twenty-sixth of this month in San Francisco is the most momentous General Conference in the history of this movement. It will be reported through the Review and Herald. We hope you are a subscriber. If you are not, you may procure the General Conference bulletins for one dollar. Perhaps you have a friend for whom you can subscribe. Better still, if you are not receiving the blessings of the Review and Herald, subscribe for the whole year at two dollars fifty cents. In this hour of world confusion, it will stabilize your life.

ITEM III. The denomination has recently put out a new hymnal. It is without question the most beautiful to be found anywhere. We hope you will order one for yourself and that you will urge the church to which you belong to do likewise. On all books ordered before June 30 we will, if so requested, stamp the name of the church or individual in gold free of charge. Thereafter, all gold stamping will cost thirty-five cents a line.

ITEM IV. We have on hand several thousand books called "Jonah and the Whale" and "Mammon and Mars." We will send both of these postpaid to any address in the United States for ten cents per set. We wish hundreds of our members might see fit to send in a dollar and ten names. We will furnish the envelope, address, and pay the postage on these books. If you wish to mail them yourself, we will mail them to you at six cents per set of two books. "Jonah and the Whale" deals with the last days of Ninevah, the territory about to become a world battlefield. "Mammon and Mars" has to do with the relationship of money and war. We hope you will see fit to order a large number of them. It pays to mail these books.

On Friday, May 9, Morgan Blake, an editorial writer of the Atlanta Journal wrote up the book, "The Blackout of Civilization and Beyond," by Elder Carlyle B. Haynes.

Thanking you for reading this letter and wishing you God's blessing in the finishing of the work before the final crisis breaks upon us, I am.

Sincerely yours,
R. E. Crawford

I have wished to teach a single lesson true alike to all men—the lesson of the saving of time.

Doctor Russell B. James, who spent the past year as resident physician at the Madison Hospital and Sanitarium, is soon to re-open the Dixie Hospital, at Richard City, Tennessee. He will also open an office at South Pittsburg, which is a mile distant from the Hospital. South Pittsburg is on U. S. Highway No. 72, about thirty miles west of Chattanooga. Doctor James feels that there are good prospects for him in that community. We believe there is a small number of believers and an interest not far from there and that Doctor James will be glad to help them. We are very glad to welcome Doctor James to our field.

LEACH JUNIOR ACADEMY

Leach Junior Academy held its first graduation exercises on the week end of May 17. On Sabbath afternoon a large investiture was held in the Leach church, when sixty-six young people were invested as members of the various progressive classes. Nine church members became Master Comrades on this occasion. This is an unusual experience for the Leach church, and we feel it is a marvelous accomplishment on the part of the young people there. As far as we know this is the largest investiture service ever held in one of the local conference churches in this field. We look forward to the day when other young people will follow the example of those who have gone before and expect to see another large class invested next year. On Sunday evening the Junior Academy gave its closing program and graduated two young ladies from the tenth grade and one young lady from the eighth grade. The program was unusually fine and represented well the thorough work done by Brother and Sister Irad Levering throughout the school year. This faithful young couple will return to this school next year and continue to build on the firm foundation already laid. Professor Libby made a few remarks at the close of the program, pointing these young people forward to a continuation of their Christian education and a preparation for service as well as citizenship in the life to come. Never before have we seen a church so packed with people as on this occasion. Approximately one hundred persons were standing outside the church, trying to hear and see what was going on inside. The interior of the church was packed and the aisles were filled to overflowing. Leach Junior Academy has a bright future and the church itself a real field of endeavor in a community that is definitely interested in the teachings of Seventh-day Adventists.

MISSIONARY VOLUNTEERS

The young people of west Tennessee gathered at Jackson on Sabbath, April 26, for the organization of Associated Missionary Volunteer societies for their section of the field. The Jackson tabernacle, recently constructed and as yet not completed in the interior, was barely large enough to house the large audience gathered for the day's services. The ushers had to bring seats in several times during the day to accommodate the visiting young people gathered for the occasion. Brother Donald F. Haynes was in charge of the Sabbath school, and young people representing different churches in the area carried out the program. Professor C. A. Russell of the Southern Union Conference Missionary Volunteer Department conducted the morning service. The speakers made earnest appeals for consecration in view of the trend of world events. Sharon—Mrs. Cora Sharon was born in 1860 at Lewiston, Wisc., and died near the Pisgah Institute at Asheville, N. C., April 15, 1941 at the home of her daughter, Sister Jessie Potter. Her life was indeed beautiful and filled with unselfish acts. She had memorized many texts and chapters of the Bible and just before passing was often heard singing many of the wonderful advent hymns. She passed with the assurance of forgiveness of sin and hope in the soon return of Jesus. The services were conducted by the writer, assisted by Elder Clark of Asheville and Elder Olson of Pisgah. E. Wheeler—John W. Wheeler was born in Canada, September 13, 1876. He moved to the United States in 1896, and was married in South Dakota, September, 1903. In 1908 he accepted the advent message, and in 1910 moved to Nicholasville, Kentucky. He was a member of the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference committee for five years and was local elder of the Lexington church until the day of his death, March 12, 1941, at the age of sixty-five. Brother Wheeler leaves his widow, four children, and three sisters in Canada, to mourn his death.

Brother Wheeler loved, lived and taught the truth. He was the truth's most liberal supporter in finances; he had found the pearl of great price and cheerfully gave his all that he might be its proud possessor. He was truly a Christian gentleman, a prince among men, a great man in Israel. John E. All

Jones—Emma Camille Jones was born in Lebanon, Tennessee, April 28, 1882, and died in Nashville, Tennessee, March 24, 1941, at nearly fifty-nine years of age. Sister Jones joined the Seventh-day Adventist church in the year 1907 at Madison, Tennessee, and she passed to her rest with a bright hope for the future. She leaves behind a husband, J. T. Jones, Sr., two sons, Carl and Pete Jones of Nashville, Tennessee; four daughters, Mrs. J. T. Weed of Memphis, Tennessee; Mrs. D. D. Newton of Bolivia, Tennessee; Mrs. R. M. Wade and Mrs. D. Ezell of Nashville, Tennessee.

The funeral message was based on Psalms 17:15. The service was marked by the presence of the Holy Spirit, as well as by unusual evidence of the deep, strong family ties that were broken by the death of this dear wife and mother. Interment was in the Adventist burial ground at Bordeaux. B. H. Shaw every young person present responded heartily to these appeals. In the afternoon Mrs. Grace Green of the Teachers' Training Department of Southern Junior College made an appeal in behalf of Christian education, whereupon thirty young people turned in their names as being interested in our college. Elder L. A. Butterfield, pastor of the Memphis church, spoke on denominational standards for Seventh-day Adventist youth, which talk was followed by an interesting question box. Mrs. Jessie M. Heslip, Miss Jean Meyer, Elder L. A. Butterfield, and Brethren Clyde O. Franz, D. F. Haynes, and R. H. Libby participated in the question box by answering the questions asked by the young people. The day was amply provided with a variety of excellent music, special numbers being given by the Memphis and Leach churches. Brother and Sister Haynes sang for the young people, as did Elder Butterfield and Professor Libby, in the form of duets. Mr. Frank Ashby was elected president of the west Tennessee Association; Mr. Irad Levering was elected vice-president; and Mrs. Fred Wood was elected secretary-treasurer. These young people represented the Memphis, Leach, and Trezevant churches respectively. The group laid plans for the next meeting of the association to be held in Memphis on Sabbath, July 26. These association meetings are proving a source of real inspiration to our young people, as is indicated by the large attendance and earnest attitude demonstrated in the spirit and interest of those in attendance. We are looking forward to the organization of two more such associations in our field and hope to climax these association meetings with a youth's congress for the whole conference.

NEWS NOTES

Fountain Head Academy held its graduation services over the week-end of May 24. Professor Libby gave the baccalaureate sermon; and Dr. P. P. Claxton, in charge of the Peay Normal school, gave the commencement address. This is the second academy graduation for this school, and this year four young people completed their work and we trust will pass on to further training for the work of God. Professor Ralph Martin is leading out in a strong way in this institution, and bright days appear to be ahead.

Pewee Valley Academy graduation services were held over the week-end of May

17. Elder H. J. Welch, Bible teacher and dean of Madison College, preached the baccalaureate sermon. Mr. Clyde O. Franz of the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference gave the commencement address. Pewee Valley is looking forward to a strong school year under the leadership of its new principal, Elder R. U. Garrett, and with new faculty members to assist him in continuing to increase the ever-growing strength of this institution. Professor E. J. Beardsley, who has served faithfully for several years as principal, has been selected as secretary-treasurer of the Pewee Valley institution, but will continue to serve as a faculty member and teacher on the Academy staff.

The Educational Department of the Kentucky-Tennessee Conference announces the following individuals as winners of the fifty-dollar scholarships to Southern Junior College: Franklin Ray of Fountain Head Academy, Dominick Cianciolo of Memphis Junior Academy, and Donald P. Woodali of Pewee Valley Academy.

We believe the membership in the field will be interested to know who among our conference workers are in attendance at General Conference session in San Francisco. They are as follows: Elders C. V. Anderson, L. A. Butterfield, J. C. Klose, H. E. McClure, B. H. Shaw, R. M. Whitsett, and T. M. Fountain, and Brother H. D. Colburn.

Elder Butterfield writes the following good news from Memphis: "On May 3 we baptized four, and on May 10 we baptized five, or a total of nine this month in the Memphis Church, for which we thank God."

SABBATH SCHOOL SECRETARIES,
NOTICE: Order you quarterlies as soon as possible, for we have them already. See that the members of your Sabbath school have them on time. Especially, don't forget the children; quarterlies, memory verse cards, color books, and so on, prepared for them are a profitable investment to help mold good character. VOICE OF S. P. A.

It would be a pleasure to place in your hands the slender, Bible paper edition of "Messages to Young people" in its rich, limp binding and share with you our delight at its new beauty. But "Messages to Young People" is more than a beautiful book. It is a storehouse of spiritual treasure as we were forcibly reminded recently by a letter from the Signs Publishing Company in Warburton, Australia. Commenting on their order for 1300 "Messages" signatures, the letter said:

"A few days ago we sent you a cable requesting you to ship immediately supplies of 'Messages to Young People,' stock, and some other lines. You may be interested to know that our Missionary Volunteer Department of the Union Conference and the officers generally, place such a high value on this book that they have asked us to obtain a good stock from you to bind up and distribute through this field at a low figure, thus making it available to all of our young folks. We regard it as the best volume we could possibly place in the hands of our young people, as a safeguard against present tendencies towards loose life."

From this conviction which we wholeheartedly share, grew our determination to make it possible for every young person to have a copy. If you are not acquainted with the new maroon bindings in paper, cloth and keratol and the special prices at which they are now being offered, write to your Book and Bible House secretary today for one of the illustrated circulars describing "Messages to Young People" as well as "Fundamentals of Christian Education" in matching bindings and "Selections from the Testimonies."

From January 1 to May 19 when the last check-up was made, orders had been received for 4,788 of these Spirit of prophecy volumes in spite of the fact that congested factory conditions have made it impossible up to this time to supply all the new bindings. However we are happy to announce that we are now able to supply all bindings, and we anticipate that during the next few months thousands of you will take this opportunity to own these invaluable books.
