40,000 Junior Youth Deserve Leadership

By L. A. SKINNER

SUMMER vacation! Forty thousand Seventh-day Adventist boys and girls can hardly wait. Not that they don't like school, but rather they enjoy the release from routine. Many parents ask, "What shall I plan to keep them profitably busy?" Or the children say, "Mother, what can I do?" The church has a magnificent opportunity to make the summer count for Christ in the lives of these future members.

Wide-awake church officers will seize this opportunity to provide a church-centered activity program during vacation months. Supervised excursions, helpful hobby clubs, hikes, and M. V. class achievement supply the need admirably. Add to this the M. V. summer training camp experience and attendance at camp meeting, and the summer will end with the boys and girls saying, "I've had a wonderful vacation."

Nature activities can be pursued with enthusiasm in summer. Why not form a nature club? Write the Associated Nature Clubs of America, an S.D.A. organization at College Place, Washington, for information and guidance. Subscribe to the Naturalist, a journal of real value devoted to nature. It is $1.00 per year and is issued by the Associated Nature Clubs of America, College Place, Washington.

Vacation Bible Schools is one method of church interest in junior youth. Week-end camps result in much good when properly planned and guided. Explore the benefits of the official M. V. uniform for all leaders and members. Do something. Let us not miss this opportunity to bind the youth more securely to Christ and the church.

Correspond with your local M. V. secretaries regarding additional plans for summer activity.

Will Books Win a Soul?

WHEN Colporteur Jose Maria Barboza began canvassing, he asked his companion: "Do you think these books we are selling will ever win a soul to the truth?"

One of the books was purchased by a Methodist, who did not appreciate it and therefore gave it to a friend. Nor did this friend like the book, so he gave it to another. This third party began reading the book, "This Decisive Hour," and started to talk to his friends regarding the contents of it, and they likewise became very interested. They came to his home, and the book was read aloud to a large number of friends, and they formed themselves into a group that was fully convinced of the truths.

The Adventists knew nothing of this interested and convinced group. Another religious body found them and, as usual, said: "We are the true church of God." These new believers rejoiced. But, as they soon noticed that the group did not keep the Sabbath, they asked regarding this. The religious leaders tried to refute the Sabbath truth, but the new believers returned to their book and found it clearly given with Scripture authority. Sunday keeping pastors of great renown were called, and they tried in vain to convince this group to abandon the Sabbath question. Finally, the ministers became angry and said to them: "You are Sabbath-keepers and are being taught by the Adventists." But the new believers knew nothing of the Adventists, nor did the Adventists know anything of this group.

Finally, news of this new group of Sabbath-keepers reached one of our Adventist ministers, who immediately went to the far-flung mountain range to visit them. He found one of the new believers, and he immediately ran and rounded up the group, saying: "Come quickly, a pastor has arrived who keeps the seventh day holy like we do."

As a result of the book, the studies, and meetings held by the pastor, twenty-five precious souls were baptized. Just think, twenty-five souls won by a book that gave the light of truth, sold by a colporteur who asked: "Will books that I sell win a soul to Christ?"

Among the Schools

By H. C. KLEMENT

Chattanooga—Here we have a fine two-teacher school under the direction of Miss Minnie Goble and Mrs. H. W. Walker. Secondary work is offered. Facilities have been greatly enlarged, and there has been a real increase in enrollment. Prospects for the future are bright.

Altamont—This school is being operated in a new building which was constructed last summer. When many hands united their efforts, this building was constructed in just a few days. Mrs. John Malone is the teacher.

Jackson—Miss Lucille Hoskins is the teacher here. Since my last visit to the school, it is to be noted that some fine facilities have been added such as new maps, a set of encyclopedias, a new globe. All of these teaching aids help in making a school more efficient.

Vicksburg — This school is under the efficient direction of Miss Doris Bethea. A fine spirit of cooperation was noted here as well as in the other schools visited.

New buildings, where needed, better and more equipment and teaching facilities all help in the desired efficient operation of a school. The vision of boards, patrons, and members is appreciated.

Openings for Country Living

The Commission on Rural Living is preparing another listing of properties, homes, farms, jobs, and business opportunities in rural locations for circulation among Adventists who live in cities and who are interested. Again we ask that any of our brethren knowing of anything of this nature in their vicinity send the information at once, addressing it to: C. B. Haynes, 6840 Eastern Avenue, Washington 12, D.C.

God's Ten Rules

How do you teach the Ten Commandments to your child? Too often parents say, "It's hard to make the meaning of God's Law clear to our children."

"God's Ten Rules," by Ethel M. Neff, is a positive answer to the problem of character education. The author draws upon her own childhood experiences, and the lessons she has taught her own son. "God's Ten Rules" explains the Ten Commandments in a simple, interesting, practical manner which even tiny boys and girls can understand.

Parents will find this a MUST in their children's library.

"God's Ten Rules" will be on display at the bookstand on the campground. It retails for $1.50 but will carry the usual camp meeting discount.

Film Rental Library

The World-Wide Bible Pictures, a division of the Pacific Union Conference, offers a fine Film Rental Library service to our churches, schools, sanitariums, and our church members generally. A new up-to-date Film Rental Catalogue is coming off the press in a few days, and we are inviting you to send for one of these catalogues. We shall be happy to help you arrange a program of interesting motion picture films. The rates are reasonable. It will be our pleasure to help you plan programs for the young people's societies, Home and School meetings, or evangelistic services.

Music at Camp Meeting

One of the choicest blessings of the camp meeting season is found in the opportunity of joining our voices together as a great congregation in song. "As a part of religious service, singing is as much an act of worship as is prayer." Education, page 168. Let us come to the camp meeting prepared to take full advantage of the musical phase of the gathering.

It is our earnest purpose to have the best talent among us to present special selections. We solicit the help of every member of our churches in reaching the objective. There are two ways in which you may be able to assist us. First, If you play an instrument, we invite you to bring it with you to camp, along with your sacred numbers of music. We may not be calling for all of these, but we would like to have as many as possible on hand to present as needed.

Second, we would like to have those who know of friends who sing or play well to come to us with this information. For example, if you know of someone in your home church who habitually sings solos, we would be glad to have you give us the name and other information that will be useful to us as soon as possible after you reach the grounds.

We shall look for you on the camp grounds with your voices tuned to join with us in singing the praises of Him Who has so richly loved and blessed us since last we met together.

VICTOR W. COLLINS,
Chairman, Music Committee

Let's Go to Camp Meeting

Virtually the entire world is confronted with uncertainty, fear, and confusion. The dark clouds of war cover the international scene. Because of the serious international situation, our Seventh-day Adventist people should attend the annual camp meeting to seek a deeper, more certain experience. We must now learn to live by faith alone, and we need to meet together to gain strength with which to meet the enemy.

"A former justice of the United States Supreme Court, at the sunset of his career, enriched by the finest qualities of mind and soul, recently said, as he looked out over the world, 'I begin gravely to doubt the existence of a moral government on this seemingly abandoned planet.' When such reflections are heard from such a man, is it not time for us to gather together upon every possible occasion to seek the preparation necessary that God may make Himself manifest in power upon us?"

The workers of the Alabama-Mississippi Conference will have everything in readiness for the camp meeting season. Dear believer, we await your arrival in Meridian to attend this important convocation of God's saints. Men of God with long years of spiritual devotion will be here ready to help you in your spiritual advance toward heaven. You cannot afford to allow any petty excuses to keep you from this annual gathering of the people of God.

On Tithing

I have been a tither for twelve years,—becoming one shortly after becoming a Christian in 1936. God has always provided for us, sometimes only a day at a time, but He has always been faithful and has never let us down.

My tithe now is about the same amount my income was when we began to tithe. If we are faithful about the percentage, He will be faithful about the increase and blessings. I believe that stewardship of money and gifts begins over and above the tithe. The tithe, first fruits, belongs to God, and we are not givers until that is paid; we are robbers if we don't pay it. After the tithe is paid, then we get into the bracket of gifts, and I believe we are held accountable as stewards as to how we use the remaining nine-tenths of our income. In making appeals for tithers, I often close with the question in Luke 16:12: "And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?"

Bible School Student

News Notes

★ During the year 1947 there were 256 persons baptized into the churches of the Alabama-Mississippi Conference. It is important whenever members are baptized that the church clerk make certain to record the names of those received into the church. All baptisms should be reported as additions to the church membership list and included in the quarterly report the clerk sends to the conference.

★ About forty young people were baptized as a result of the Youth Fellowship Week in the churches in the Alabama - Mississippi Conference. These young people are the church of tomorrow who will finish the task for God.

★ Most of the conference workers returned to their churches May 8 to 15, after working to prepare the campground for the coming camp meeting, May 20 to 29. Excellent progress is being made, and all will be in readiness for the first meeting on Thursday night, May 20, at 8:00 o'clock.

★ The remnant church of God is a missionary-minded organization carrying the gospel for a witness to all the world. This is evidenced by the fact that 545 missionaries—sailed—for foreign fields of service in the year 1947. Already the number of foreign missionaries is eighty-three for the first three months of 1948.

★ The first of the quarterly color issues of the Review is being mailed to 106,000 Adventist homes in North America. The beautiful picture of Christ with outstretched hands on the front cover will appeal to every Adventist. Four times each year this special color issue will be sent to all Adventists, the cost being met by the local and General Conference. Read every word of this special issue of the Review.

★ Elder Meade MacGuire of the General Conference will preach the morning sermon at the Meridian camp meeting on Sabbath, May 22.

★ Elder V. G. Anderson of Atlanta will preach the afternoon sermon and conduct the ordination service on Sabbath, May 22, at three o'clock.

★ A grand Temperance Rally will convene in the large new 50x90 auditorium tent at the Meridian camp meeting on Saturday night, May 22. Elder J. A. Buckwalter of the General Conference will be the speaker.

★ Elder W. P. Bradley of the General Conference will preach the sermon on Sunday night, May 23, at the Meridian camp meeting.

★ President Kenneth A. Wright of Southern Missionary College will speak at the eleven o'clock hour on Sunday morning at the Meridian camp ground.

★ Elder C. H. Lauda will be the preacher on Sabbath, May 22, in the young people's tent at both the morning and afternoon meetings.

★ Elder C. E. Wittschiede of Collegedale, Tennessee, will preach in the youth's tent at both the morning and afternoon meetings on May 25. Professor Wittschiede will preach in the large pavilion at 8:00 P. M., May 26.

★ All the conference regular colporteurs will assemble on the rostrum of the large pavilion with Elder B. E. Wagner and Brethren J. T. Welch and J. T. Mason for a great colporteur rally meeting at 1:30 P. M., Sunday, May 23.

★ Elder Stanley C. Harris, editor of Our Times, will give his outstanding sermon, "What to Do With Doubt and Fear," on Friday night, May 28. At the final night meeting on May 29 Elder Harris will show his unusual pictures illustrating his sermon titled, "The End of the World."

★ Sabbath, May 29, at the Meridian camp meeting will be a great day with Elder W.P. Bradley of the General Conference taking the morning service. We are expecting two missionaries, namely Elder T. H. Terry from India and Elder Arthur Mazart from China. These missionaries will bring very interesting stories from India and China.

★ Professor M. E. Moore, with his young men's quartet from Highland Academy, will be at the Meridian camp meeting from May 27 to 29.

★ On May 28 and 29 at the Meridian camp meeting medical hour, Dr. Donald Hartwell and Miss Maureen Maxwell of Orlando, Florida, will be the speakers.

★ Brother R. O. Baker will have charge of the soyburger stand at the Meridian camp meeting. Many camp visitors will enjoy the tasty health foods that will be featured in one end of the new camp store tent.

★ The telephone service is now available at the Meridian campground. Any person wishing to call the campground may telephone number 5511.

★ Miss Ruth Johnson will serve as camp meeting nurse. Doctors W. G. Plinke and Herbert McClure will speak to the campers on May 22 and 23. Dr. Donald Hartwell will speak at the medical hour on May 28 and 29.

A Camp Meeting Message to You from Your Book and Bible House

It would be wonderful if every member of the Carolina Conference constituency could be present to enjoy the many wonderful things in store for those who attend camp meeting at Blue Ridge from May 25 to 30. It will bring great spiritual blessing to hear the stirring messages from those who come to us from the General Conference, representing as they do the great Advent movement in all the world.

Then there will be the early morning devotional services, when God, through His Holy Spirit, draws very near to His waiting people. There will also be meetings of special interest conducted for the benefit of the various age groups. Of great importance among the many blessings of such a meeting will be the association with old friends and the fellowship of brothers and sisters of like precious faith. We hope you have made definite plans to be there with us and to enjoy the thrills of this gathering of God's people.

If you have, you will enjoy visiting often the attractive and complete display of books and Bibles arranged in the lobby of Lee Hall. We have made special effort to provide for your convenience the most complete selection of our own literature, including the latest books available from our presses. During the encampment all literature will be offered to our people at special discounts. All trade books will be reduced ten per cent. The Spirit of prophecy volumes in sets of six or more books will be reduced fifteen per cent; Bibles, fifteen per cent, and subscription publications fifty per cent. This will be your one opportunity during the year, dear friends, to secure a nice Bible for yourself or for a friend and to obtain a wide selection of literature for your library at a very substantial saving.

If you are unable to attend camp meeting, you'll be pleased to learn that from May 25 to June 25 your Book and Bible House can come to your door with exactly the same discount on one or all of the items offered at Blue Ridge—and with no postage charge to you. If you do not have a copy of our latest catalogue of publications, drop us a card today, and one will be mailed to you immediately. And remember, all orders received in our office from May 25 to June 25 will receive camp meeting discounts and our prompt attention.

An Excellent Ingathering Achievement

Of the fifty-five churches and companies in the Florida Conference fifty-two of them have reached the Minute-Man goal and many of them went far beyond, their overflows totaling more than $2,400. Perhaps by the time this article is published the three churches having small deficits on their goals will have achieved victory also. Few conferences among the fifty in the North American Division succeed in leading 100 per cent of their churches on to Minute-Man victory.

Many of our faithful members raised outstandingly large sums in this campaign, and we are pleased to list their names and their churches with the amounts raised by each one, as follows:

Palmetto Church—Mr. R. E. Holt, $262.62; Mrs. Asa Pillsbury, $210.48; Mrs. Carrie Watson, $254.60; Mrs. John Kline, $180.00.

Central Orlando Church — Mrs. Sara Gaskin, $324.00; Mrs. E. P. Woodruff, $350.00; Mr. O. G. Fairchild, $200.00; Mrs. O. G. Fairchild, $200.00; Mrs. C. L. BeLue, $188.50; Mrs. H. C. Lilley, $200.00.

St. Cloud Church — Mrs. Kathryn Ware, $224.75.

Lake Worth Church — Mrs. Ada Slocum, $198.25; Mrs. Carrie Zill, $225.00.

throughout the conference asking for the names of all individuals whose receipts were upwards of $180, representing at least ten minutes of mission support. The above names are the only ones furnished us so far, and it is quite possible there are other individuals whose receipts reached or exceeded $180. Special ribbon awards have been furnished by the General Conference Home Missionary Department, and it is our expectation to present these ribbons during the latter part of the Florida camp meeting. We trust that all the persons whose names appear above, and others yet to be reported to us, will be present at the Ingathering Victory Service the last week end of camp meeting.

We praise the Lord that Florida's churches have been so earnest and faithful, and for the large number who have persevered beyond the call of duty during this Ingathering Campaign.

At this writing Florida stands third in per capita among the conferences in the North American Division.

Tipping or Tithing?

There are two ways of giving to God. One is by "tipping" and the other is the Biblical way of tithing. The word "tip" means the bestowal of a small gratuity. It is the meager expression of an infinitesimal appreciation. It carries with it the idea of a condescending remembrance to a servant who has done something nice for us.

Tithing, on the other hand, means "the tenth of anything." It is a custom as old as the devotion of the human heart, as laudable as the highest graces of the individual soul, and as binding upon the recipients of God's mercy as any law of reciprocity upon those who have been helped by others.

As we ponder over the above statements from "The Baptist Messenger" there comes to mind a statement taken from the Spirit of prophecy:

"If all the tithes of our people flowed into the treasury of the Lord as they should, such blessings would be received that gifts and offerings for sacred purposes would be multiplied tenfold, and thus the channel between God and men would be kept open!" — Testimonies, Volume IV, page 474.

Is it possible that some of us are losing out materially, mentally, and spiritually by being "tippers" instead of "tithers"? W. F. MILLER

Reorganization of the Dorcas Federation in the Knoxville Area

Sunday, April 25, was a high day for the Crossville, Knoxville, Greeneville, and Bristol districts when all of Which way are you going? It is easy to drift. If we ever get into the kingdom, it will be because we have fought a good fight. Are you fighting and overcoming? The victory is sure but you must fight it out. More people will be lost because of an apathetic neglect of the study of the Scriptures than because of their rejection. All of us want to be saved, but many will not be because of neglect on their part.

One Hundred and Fifty Pennies

"Our condemnation in the judgment will not result from the fact that we have been in error, but from the fact that we have neglected heaven-sent opportunities for learning what is truth." Desire of Ages, page 490. Would you not like to invest a few pennies for your own soul's salvation? One hundred and fifty will be enough this time. As one that must give account, we want to urge you to study the Sabbath school lesson help entitled "The Book of Hebrews" by Elder M. L. Andreason. the districts were represented at the Knoxville church for the reorganization of the Dorcas Federation in that area.

Elder R. H. Wentland, secretary of the Home Missionary and Sabbath School Departments of the Southern Union, was present and brought to the group a fine inspirational talk. Reports were heard from the different societies who were represented, and the organization of the Dorcas Federation was carried out with the writer acting as chairman.

The following individuals were elected as officers: president, Mrs. G. A. Johnson, Morristown, Tennessee; vice-president, Mrs. Henry Haynes, Knoxville church for the reorganizer, Mrs. B. W. Lighthall, Harriman, Tennessee; and assistant secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ina Brown, Crossville, Tennessee.

There is some unfinished business that will need to be taken care of at the next meeting of the Federation, such as choosing a name and adopting a constitution. We believe that the organization of the Federation in this area will be a strengthening influence to the Dorcas activities there.

More Than Ever Before

We are happy to report that at the close of the week of May 8, 1948, the Georgia-Cumberland Conference had brought in in the Ingathering program MORE THAN EVER BEFORE.

The total amount raised in the Ingathering in 1947 was $50,572.21, and at the end of the week of May 8, 1948, we have reported in $52,274.13. We feel confident that as the Ingathering program is completed throughout our conference and some districts and churches that have not finished yet that we will have achieved a ten per cent increase over what was raised a year ago. Certainly this is a splendid gain, and I know every member of our conference will be happy for the share he has had in making the Ingathering such a success this year.

There may be some individual members who have not as yet participated in the Ingathering program. We would like to urge each of you to have a part and share the blessing of this work. We should ever be conscious of the fact that the Lord's business in the earth must be on the increase; and so again we should feel happy for the way the Lord is blessing in the Ingathering this year in helping us to raise MORE THAN EVER BEFORE.

Other activities and programs must not take the place of the Ingathering, and may we enter loyally into the program in the future as we have in the one just passed. I would like to express my appreciation for the way the entire constituency has responded to the Ingathering program this year.

M. V.'s at Work

Eleven "Friends" were invested in Bowling Green's first investiture. The service was all built around the requirements for the Friend class, and the beautifully decorated platform was the blue and white that suggested the Friends' loyalty and purity: The center of the back of the platform was conspicuous with a large blue circle upon which each Friend placed a letter of "M. V. Friend" as he gave a part of the Junior Law. Mrs. Davis, who was recently baptized, and Elder Davidson are surely rejoicing over the fine group of juniors in their church and are to be congratulated for the leadership they are giving the boys and girls of their church. The church board is also planning on having a church school in the near future.

Mrs. Coppock, the teacher at Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, was suddenly stricken with serious illness about a week before the investiture in that church, but the service was conducted by Miss East, the substitute teacher, and was a splendid tribute to mothers. Eight Busy Bees, one Sunbeam, four Helping Hands, one Friend, and three Companions were invested. This lively group of juniors have surely blossomed this year. E. J. BARNES

I think that the letter speaks for itself. YES, the Twentieth Century is bringing men and women to a closer walk with their Saviour.

We also have a report from Brother Atteberry of the Pewee Valley district. There are two large prisons in his district, one for men and one for women. In the prison for men are a number of men who have finished the course, one of whom had us send the lessons to his family. Now through a contact that Brother Atteberry had at the women's prison we have received several more requests for the lessons, and there will be more the next time he visits the prison. Surely the Lord is using the Twentieth Century Bible School to help finish the work.

May 9 and 10 were both Academy Days at Highland, at which time thirty-five prospective students visited the campus, representing six churches. The chapel speakers on Monday were Elders W. E. Strickland, H. C. Klement, and M. E. Moore. Many of the visiting students plan to return to Highland for school work in September.

The music department, directed by Miss Laurie MacPherson, presented a recital of vocal and instrumental music to a very appreciative audience on Sunday evening, May 9.

A hay ride with a campfire and stories and songs on the shores of Willow Lake made Saturday evening complete for the English II Progressive Club.

The chapel speech on Friday was interpreted into French, German, and Spanish. Mr. Monzano, Spanish teacher, sang a solo in the language of Spain.

South Atlantic Conference Session

Notice is hereby given that the First session of the South Atlantic Conference of Seventh-day Adventists will be held at Jacksonville, Florida, on Thursday, May 27, 1948. The first meeting is called for 7:30 P. M. This session is called for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing term, and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the session. Each church in the conference is entitled to one delegate for the organization, and one additional delegate for each ten members or major fraction thereof.

News Notes

★ Elders F. B. Slater and B. H. Ewing are making a trip through the conference visiting several churches in the interest of the Message Magazine. They began at Clarksdale, Mississippi, and will end up in Montgomery, Alabama.

★ Elder H. R. Murphy was away a day from the office this week attending a board meeting of the Southern Publishing Association.

★ Elder V. Lindsay was away recently conducting baptismal services for Brother Richard C. Brown at Columbus, Mississippi. Four were baptized as a result of the month's revival service held in the church by Pastor Brown.

After services they journeyed to West Point, Mississippi, to look over some church property on which a church is to be built.

Camp Meeting

Now is the time to be seriously planning to come to camp meeting. You will certainly enjoy the blessings which will come to you if you attend. A number of interesting speakers will be present at the meeting. Order blanks have been mailed out to all the churches.

In these days of world unrest and all of the other evils which surround us it is time that the people of God come aside for awhile and obtain the rich blessings which come during camp meeting time.

You will be thrilled with the wonderful reports which will be given by the various departments of the conference showing what great things God hath wrought during the first two years of our organization.

"They That Be Teachers"

The library of the Southern Publishing Association is looking for a copy of the book, "They That Be Teachers," by Mary Hunter Moore. If you have a copy to spare, let us know, stating price.

MARY H. MOORE

The Journey's End

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Revelation 14:13

WATSON:—Sarah Elizabeth Watson was born in Natchez, Mississippi, on December 6, 1867. She began to observe the Sabbath in 1898 and united with the Mississippi Mission, being baptized by Elder O. W. Lowry in 1909. She was a pillar of the faith and with Mrs. Ethel Warren pioneered the work in Mississippi. She died in the Pine Forest Sanitarium on April 20. Interment was in Doloroso, Mississippi, where she was laid to rest beside her husband Benjamin Watson. Elder Victor W. Collins, her pastor, joined with the writer in the funeral services. Words of comfort were spoken to the large group of neighbors from Revelation 14:13.

H. J. CAPMAN

STUEBE:—Mrs. Mary Steube was born in Breslau, Germany, February 13, 1861, and died in Foley, Alabama, on April 17, 1948, at the age of 87 years. For the past thirty years Sister Steube had been a faithful member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and faithfully lived the truth until death claimed her. Her body was laid to rest in the Pine Rest Cemetery in Foley, Alabama, to await the call of the Life-Giver. Words of comfort were spoken to the bereaved by the writer.

W. L. MAZART

WEAVER:—Mrs. Bessie Elizabeth Weaver, sixty-three, passed to her rest at Johnson City, Tennessee, on March 22, 1948. Sister Weaver was a faithful member of the church and, although she was lame, walked about four miles each Sabbath to and from the bus to attend our services. We laid her to rest with bright hopes of seeing her rise and, with the redeemed, ascend to the city of God.
