Let's Get Acquainted With the Paris Congress Delegates

THE Southern Union youth are to be well represented at the coming Paris Youth's Congress. Official delegates have been chosen from our three colleges and one from the union at large.

Southern youth will be anticipating the return of these delegates for they will bring to our union thrilling reports of God's work in lands afar. Let's get acquainted with these fine Christian young people.

Juanita Carithers, of Miami, Florida, was unanimously chosen by the union committee to repre-

Juanita Carithers sent the Southern Union as its delegate. Miss Carithers writes, "I am very grateful for this wonderful prvilege and I pray that I will prove worthy of the confidence that has been invested in me. God being my helper I will endeavor to bring inspiration to the youth of this field.

Miami has been the home of Miss Carithers as long as she can remember. At present she is employed as a dental assistant, but she is not too busy to give her untiring efforts to the Missionary Volunteer society in the Miami church. For the past three years she has been leader of the Missionary Volunteers and has been very active in carrying out large missionary projects.

Next we'll swing to Southern Missionary College. Wallace Welch, a junior theological student, has been chosen by this college as its delegate. His nomination was confirmed in the Missionary Volunteer meeting on SabBy L. M. NELSON, M. V. Secretary bath, February 17. Mr. Welch already has given strong leadership in the work of the Missionary Volunteers, serving as assistant Missionary Volunteer leader of the college and assuming organizing a n d carrying out all missionary band activities. He writes, "My life work is to be that of a minister. I think I would enjoy foreign mission service. My parents are now missionaries in the Gold Coast, West Africa."

Madison College is also happy to present a delegate to the Paris Youth's Congress. They have wisely selected

Aline Wallis who has been most active in Missionary Volunteer activities on the campus. She is a member of the student-teacher council, a prayer band leader, and at present the Missionary Volunteer secretary. She writes, "Before coming to Madison I worked as a secretary to the assistant sales manager of the Pan-Am Southern Corporation. I have been an Adventist for three years, and I doubt that I would ever have resigned from such a good position had I not felt the need for a Christian education in order to prepare myself for a place in the Lord's work. My ambition is to become a medical secretary and serve in one of the Lord's institutions, and, if He indicates, in one of the mission fields.'

Oakwood College is proud indeed to have chosen Calvin B. Rock as its delegate to this great Congress. He is a junior theological student. He writes, "Upon graduation I hope to enter into evangelistic work. An item of interest in this connection is that I will be the fourth generation of Seventh-day Adventist preachers in my family. My Calvin B. Rock great grandfather, my grandfather, and an uncle all have answered the call to preach the three angels' messages."

Mr. Rock's ambitions are well proven by the interest he has taken in the Missionary Volunteer work. Already he has served as a junior pastor and has directed a children's hour, which is a regular Sabbath activity. Like all good Missionary Volunteer members, he has taken an active part in the temperance work, recently winning a $50 prize in an oratorical contest. You will find him busy almost every Sabbath speaking in youth pro-grams. God has given him twelve souls who have embraced this message as a result of his labors.

There they are-four fine Christian youth. The Southern Union is proud to send these young people as delegates to this great congress of youth who will be coming from all over Europe. We are confident that they will uphold the standards of this message as they travel abroad. We know they will bring an inspiration to the youth of other lands, instilling within their hearts the fond hope of a soon-coming Saviour.

We will anxiously wait for the day when they return to thrill our hearts with glorious stories of victories won by God's youth in lands where freedom is seldom known and opportunities are few.

Let us pray for these delegates that God will give them a safe trip to and from what will prove to be the greatest Youth Congress ever held outside of the United States.

1,400 LABOR UNIONS

Fourteen hundred local labor unions in the United States and Canada have agreed to exert no pressure on Seventhday Adventists to become union members, to cancel the union membership of those already members, and exercise no employment discrimination against them because they are not union members.

Among the unions so agreeing are those of carpenters, street and electric railway employees, laundry workers, building service, teamsters, trucksters, hotel and restaurant employees, automobile workers, steel workers, shoe workers, woodworkers, fur and leather workers, clothing workers, packinghouse workers, bridge structural and ornamental iron workers, plumbers and steamfitters, hod carriers, electrical workers, culinary workers, upholsterers, and hosiery workers.

Has the time not come for all our church members, in view of the instruction which the Lord has given us, to take a firm stand on this important matter?

What is the instruction from the Lord? It is this:

"Those who claim to be the children of God are in no case to bind up with the labor unions that are formed or that shall be formed. This the Lord forbids."—Country Living, page 12.

Perhaps your labor union will agree to do what there 1,400 have already done. Whether it does or not, the prohibition the Lord has made should be observed. Would you not like to explore the possibility and learn the procedures?

If so, request information of and describe your situation to the Council on Industrial Relations, General Conference Office, 6840 Eastern Avenue, Washington 12, D. C.

Medical Cadet Training Camp

BY CARLYLE B. HAYNES

The time is very close now for the Medical Cadet Officers and Recruit Training Camp in Grand Ledge, Michigan. It is quite likely that this will be the last opportunity to remind you of the importance of this camp.

In roundabout ways I learn that a number of individuals plan to attend this camp who have not yet registered. If such individuals do not register at once they are going to be disappointed when they get to the camp to find that no provision has been made to care for their needs. Provision is being made only for those whom we know will be present. Food supplies are being purchased on that basis; organization, officers, training equipment, and working arrangements are being made on that basis. If you do not register, and register now, you will find no room, no bed, no food, and no provision made for your attendance. You should register at once and let the proper individual know that you will be present at the camp.

It begins to seem certain that this camp will be the largest of its kind the denomination has ever held. Its importance is beyond estimate. It will be for both those who are going to give instruction in Medical Cadet training in colleges and academies and other places, and also to prepare prospective inductees for medical service in the Army. No other camps of this nature will be held at any early time. This may be the last chance that some will have to get this training. It is worth making any sacrifice to get if you are headed for the Army.

As has been made plain, the total expense of the camp is $28. This will include your registration fee of $1.00 and the books, tuition, board, room, and insignia for the uniform. It does not include the uniform.

You will need to bring your bedding, including pillows, and your towels, wash cloths, and change of clothing.

and an application blank.

You should come with the uniform. This consists of trousers and shirt of khaki or sun tan, such as can be purchased at J. C. Penney's, Sears Roebuck, or Army stores. The trousers should not have cuffs. Overseas caps should match the shirt and trousers and may be obtained at any Army store. There should be no braid or piping on the cap.

A thorough and fully rounded course in first aid and other medical subjects will be given at this camp. The routine of Army life, the drills and formations, will be thorough and comprehensive.

Registration should be made in local and union conferences with the War Service Commission representative in that territory. If you do not know who this is, send your registration addressed to your conference office with notation: Attention of War Service Commission Representative.

And, if you plan to attend, REG-ISTER NOW.

A LIFE SKETCH OF ELLEN G. WHITE

Seventh-day Adventists believe that God gave to Ellen G. White the gift of the Spirit of prophecy and that the giving of this gift was in fulfillment of the words of John in Revelation 12:17 and 19:10. She received many visions and revelations. Through the long years of her life she played a most important part in molding the policies and guiding the spiritual life of the Advent Movement. The question naturally arises: What manner of person was she, and what was her state in vision? Beginning with the issue of June 7 there will appear in the Review and Herald a series of articles by the editor that seeks to answer these questions.

If you are not now a subscriber, why not order immediately? Just give to your church missionary secretary $4.75 for a year's subscription and state that you wish your subscription to begin with the first issue in June. In the twelve months that follow you will receive a grand total of more than 1,300 pages of worthwhile reading-excellent articles on the spiritual life, on the care of the home, special messages for youth, stories for children, reports from the mission field, and other topics. The Review, our church paper, should be in every home.

A Good-Neighbor Policy

By W. A. HIGGINS, Publishing Secretary, Southern Union Conference

We hear about the good - neighbor policy among nations, but God wants everyone of His children to be a good neighbor in his community. "These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbor." — Zechariah 8:16.

One of the easiest, most effective ways of presenting

W. A. Higgins the truth is in the form of literature. The month of June is to be a special month in the circulation of These Times and the Message magazines.

This is your opportunity to take these periodicals to your neighbors. Explain that there is a special campaign during the month to get better acquainted with your neighbors and you want them to have this fine journal that tells the meaning of these troubled times, Ten magazines cost you $1.25. You place your order through your church missionary secretary. The magazines will sell for 25 cents each. Keep the profit, or turn it in to some offering or special project if you desire. But make a special effort to see that your neighbors, milkman, the men at the stores where you deal all have an opportunity to receive a copy of one of these publications. If you can't sell them, give them away, but Use Magazines in June. PRACTICE THE GOOD-NEIGHBOR POLICY.

Southern Missionary College

"The School of Standards" Kenneth A. Wright, President

COLLEGEDALE YOUNG PEOPLE ARE ACTIVE FOR CHRIST

The majority of the students at Southern Missionary College and Collegedale Academy are engaged in some activity which gives them an opportunity to proclaim the Advent message. Some work among their fellow students while others contact non-Adventists.

It must be admitted that the Adventist student of today is pressed for time. He must keep up with his classes. He is a student in an accredited institution which represents high scholastic standards. With almost 100 per cent participation in the work program which is maintained by the college, it is easy to see that the students expend an enormous amount of time and energy in this field alone. But in spite of the overwhelming responsibilities shouldered by the average student the Missionary Volunteer leaders inspire these busy young people to engage in organized missionary activities.

The Collegedale Missionary Volunteer society maintains several missionary bands. One of these, the jail band, each week visits those behind the bars at the Chattanooga County Jail. Over sixty persons in the jail have been signed up for the Twentieth Century Bible Course. Regular services are carried on for the patients of the tuberculosis sanatorium at Pine Breeze. A band regularly visits the Silverdale Home for the Aged. A large number of homes have been contacted by the members of the literature band. The Master Guide work is also progressing.

Fred Veltman and Elbert Goodner have been the Missionary Volunteer leaders this school year and with their fellow officers have carried on a wonderfully effective Share-Your-Faith program.

ON BECOMING A WOMAN

This was written for young women on the threshold of physical maturity, especially for the girl in her teens. Dr. Shryock analyzes those physical and emotional factors that are common in the experience of a girl approaching womanhood. His years of kindly counsel to youth, added to his scientific training, enable him to speak with undisputed authority in the matters with which he deals. He shows how her happiness can be increased by a wholesome attitude toward boys, and upholds a definite spiritual idealism as the basis of emotional control and a charming personality. How to make and keep friends, how to maintain social poise, and how to make religion the key to contentment and true Christian culture are all a part of intelligent planning for the modern teen-age girl. · It is for every girl aspiring to happiness and a noble influence. Price $2.00.

ON BECOMING A MAN

This book, by Dr. Harold Shryock, was written for young men on the threshold of physical maturity, especially for the boy in his teens. The thrill of well-being and the excitement of planning his life make him eager to try his new-found powers. At this period life seems sometimes to get rather complicated and he needs a sympathetic guide and counselor. Dr. Shryock has endeavored to fill this need. He shows how happiness depends upon a boy's right relationship to girls, and that the basis of emotional control is in his spiritual idealism. How to make and keep friends, how to handle money, and how to make religion serve in solving his problems are all a part of Dr. Shryock's approach to the building of a wholesome personality. A book for every youth aspiring to noble manhood and worthy achievement. Price, $2.00.

"MY PROGRAM KIT" and "GO"

Inquiries keep coming to our Book and Bible Houses regarding the unexpired Gazette subscriptions. Two new periodicals are coming out to replace the Church Officers' Gazette. My Program Kit will contain the Missionary Volunteer material and Go will feature the home missionary items. If you are now receiving the Gazette and your subscription expires, for instance, at the close of 1951, you will begin to receive the two periodicals-My Pro-gram Kit and Go-when the Gazette goes out of print. The last issue of the Gazette will be June, and thereafter the two periodicals will be published in its place and you will receive them for the remainder of your subscription.

New subscriptions should be placed for the periodical that fits your particular need---M. V. Program Kit for Missionary Volunteer workers at $1.25 a year and Go for home missionary and Dorcas workers at $1.00 a year.

WELCOME TO ELDER L. D. PRATT

A short time ago Elder L. O. Coon, who had labored in the Florida Conference for a number of years, acnounce to the field that Elder L. D. Pratt has been called to the pastorate of the Jacksonville church and is cepted a call to become pastor of the Boston Temple church. We are very happy to an-

Elder L. D. Pratt ville church at already in his new field of labor.

Elder Pratt has entered upon his work in an enthusiastic way and we believe our members in Jacksonville will rally to his leadership. Elder Pratt has also been asked to serve as a member of the conference committee.

Elder Pratt has labored for a number of years in the Alabama-Mississippi Conference as home missionary and Sabbath school secretary. Previous to that he labored in the Georgia-Cumberland and New York Conferences.

We welcome Elder Pratt and his family to the Florida Conference.

THIRTEENTH SABBATH

Because the Thirteenth Sabbath comes during our camp meeting, bringing in irregularity as far as the local schools are concerned, we are suggesting that the Thirteenth Sabbath program be held on June 16 and that the offering be received that day. We trust that the officers of the local schools will give strong promotion to the Thirteenth Sabbath. Comparing the offering for the Thirteenth Sabbath of the first quarter with that received the same quarter of last year, we find that forty-three Sabbath schools gave more for the same offering than the previous year. We are very grateful for this strong leadership.

The Thirteenth Sabbath overflow for this quarter is to go for the erection of a hospital in Paraguay. Elder W. E. Murray, president of the South American Division, gives us the following information which helps us to know what our gifts will accomplish. "$37.00 will buy a thousand bricks; $75.00 will furnish a thousand roof titles; a bag of cement will cost $3.75; and $6.00 will buy a hundred pounds of lime. If you give $63.00, you will furnish a patient's bed. $2.50 will pay a carpenter or a bricklayer for one day's work. You may buy a door and frame, with the hardware necessary for its installation, for the new Paraguay hospital by giving only $35.00. A window and frame will cost about the same amount."

The need is great for a medical institution. One little boy became ill. There were no pharmacies in which to buy medicines where he lived, no doctors nor nurses. The father placed the boy on the back of his only mule and went in search of help. Even though they traveled miles up and down the bare hills they could find no one to give medical assistance. As a last resort, they secured the services of the witch doctor. This witch doctor asked that the boy be taken from the mule and placed on the hard ground. Then he called for his servant and gave him a large leather belt and asked that he beat the boy. After this severe treatment the father was told to take the boy home.

Antonio, being worse the next morning, was brought back to the witch doctor. This time the servant was commanded to beat the boy with a long branch from a thorn tree. The blood ran freely from the wounds while the boy screamed. "Surely, the evil spirits are now driven out," said the witch doctor. "You may take him back home."

The next day Antonio was still no better and so the father brought him back to the witch doctor. This time the servant was commanded to hold a big, black rooster by the legs and beat the boy on his face, head, back, and legs. The servant did this until the rooster was dead. In fact, there was nothing left to the rooster save its legs in the servants hands. But the boy, too, had stopped crying. Looking closer they saw that he was dead.

This true experience, coming from Elder S. Schmidt, Sabbath school secretary of the South American Division, serves to impress us with a great need for medical work in that country. Had there been a medical institution, no doubt, Antonio would not have had to endure this unmerciful treatment.

Thank you for giving liberally to this project. S. S. WILL,

Sabbath School Secretary

ACTIVITIES IN FLORIDA CHURCHES

Sabbath, May 19, was indeed a high day for the believers in Kissimmee. On this day, not only was the church organized but the church building was also dedicated at the same service. A more complete report of our work in Kissimmee, and the church building, will appear in an early issue of the TIDINGS.

We are happy to report that a new church building has been started at Daytona Beach. For many years our people at Daytona Beach have looked to the time when they would have a new church. The new church is to be a choice lot located on Halifax Avenue.

We are happy to report the following baptisms for the month of April: Elder George Carter, seven; Elder R. Davidson, six; Elder W. Hatch, seven; Elder W. Mazart, two; Elder L. Pratt, one; Elder W. Rea, three; Elder W. O. Reynolds, three; Elder R. B. Thurmon, two; and Brother R. Hamm, one.

It also looks like May is going to be a splendid month for baptisms. Sabbath, May 19, Brother Henry Carubba reports that he baptized sixteen. No doubt there will be more as a result of the meetings still in progress in Ft. Pierce.

On Sabbath, May 19, Elder W. Mazart, Elder H. V. Reed, and Elder D. P. Herbert, of the Orlando area, baptized twenty-three. We are very happy to report that a number of new believers are beginning to attend the church services, and no doubt before long others will be taking their stand. Another baptism is planned in Orlando for Sabbath, June 3. The meetings continue to be well attended. On Sunday night, April 20, Elder R. H. Nightingale spoke on "The Mark of the Beast."

Elder Walter Rea writes from Ft. Myers that he has fifteen in the baptismal class, with others sure to join. He is planning a baptism for Sabbath, May 27.

Plans are progressing for camp meeting, and we are happy to report that we are going to have some very fine help at our meeting which will be held from June 21 to July 1. Not only will we have a number of speakers from the General Conference and the union conference, but we are happy to report that Elder Phillip Knox, astronomer evangelist, has accepted our invitation and will be present to preach at six of the evening services. I am sure that all of our people will be greatly inspired by his illustrated messages.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Within a short time now another camp meeting session will convene. We have some new books to offer, some of them for which you have been waiting a long time. We anticipate the largest circulation of our literature this year that we have ever had at a camp meeting. We plan for more display space this year and look forward to seeing all who attend our coming camp meeting session.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GIFTS

For many years our believers at Dalton, Georgia, have looked forward to the time when they might have a church home in that city.

Immediately following our arrival in the Georgia-Cumberland Conference, we started soliciting money for this project and, as you will remember, last year the conference committee made possible the taking of an offering in all the churches of our territory to assist with this work.

Our group at Dalton is small and few of them were able to give much cash. They had a great deal of faith, however, and were willing to help in any way they could. A number of the brethren, not only at Dalton, but from other churches in the district, donated time and labor, and some men not of our faith were also kind enough to help us without charge. We poured the foundation on November 3 and week by week saw some progress, although it has been a long and hard task and many times the elements were against us. However, the Lord has blessed our efforts. Very little material has been bought at regular prices, and most of it has been obtained at a great saving. We paid little for labor, but took advantage of the days when our members were able to help. Soon we will have completed a beautiful church, modern in every detail. Adjoining a nice brick school building with an apartment above, the church will contain, in addition to the auditorium, a mothers' room, secretary's room, projector room, pastor's study, baptistry, Sabbath school rooms, and sanitary facilities.

We greatly appreciate the kindness of our members throughout the conference in contributing more than $700 toward our project at the time of the special church building offering last year. It gave us courage to know that you were interested in helping us realize our goal, and we feel sure that your assistance will be just as much appreciated by the group at Johnson City, Tennessee, which is to receive your contributions on May 26 of this vear.

Again we thank you for your generosity and invite you to worship with us as you travel on Highway 41. The church address is 800 West Crawford E. E. KUNGEL, Pastor Street.

TROPHY HOUR

On the last Sabbath of the Georgia-Cumberland camp meeting we are again going to have a trophy-hour service. During this time we will have soul-winning experiences from our evangelists and we will want them to present some of their trophies. We desire that all who have been baptized since the 1950 camp meeting shall be present and sit toward the front of the tabernacle so they can respond easily when called upon.

Please remember this request and plan to be at the camp meeting from beginning to end.

GEORGIA-CUMBERLAND CONFERENCE HEADS THE LIST

In the April "Secretaries' Exchange," the official bulletin of the American Temperance Society, the Georgia-Cumberland Conference stood first in American Temperance society memberships.

We are happy for the fine response of the membership throughout the conference in the membership drive that has been made, and even though we head the list, we have actually only achieved about 25 per cent of our suggestive goal.

In addition to standing first in membership, we stood fourth as a conference in Listen sponsorship clubs. This includes the entire North American division. However, we stand first in the Southern Union in Listen sponsorship goals, for we achieved 41.85 per cent of our goal thus far.

We want to express our appreciation to the colporteurs of our field for mak-ing this possible. The issues of temperance are vital today, and we urge all of you to continue this strong support of the American Temperance Society program by taking advantage of every opportunity that is brought to you to promote it in every way possible. Thank you again for the splendid WARD A. SCRIVEN, response.

CAMP MEETING, 1951

Camp meeting time, June 14 to 23, is nearly here, and from all indications we shall have the largest attendance and the best meeting we have ever held.

Visiting ministers from the General and union conferences, as well as our local ministers, will bring good cheer and stirring messages every day of the encampment.

An unusually strong and welldirected program is being arranged for all the children, beginning with the cradle roll and continuing in the kindergarten, primary, junior, and youth's divisions. A feast of good things is in store for all the children.

We want to greet many of our Sabbath school members in the great Sabbath school. We urge that you be present and plan to bring an unusual gift. As the Lord impresses you, won't you give liberally? There should be many large offerings.

The Dorcas building and the departmental displays will be an interesting place this year. I urge you to send in your reservation immediately, for this will be a highlight in your Christian experience that you cannot afford to miss.

★ Brother C. M. Wolff, who first went to Madisonville, Kentucky, as a colporteur-intern two years ago and who has been helping with the work there ever since, has requested a leave of absence that he may take work at the Theological Seminary and take advantage of his G. I. benefits. We have appreciated Brother Wolff's work and wish him much success as he and his family go to Washington.

★ Elder A. M. Karolyi, leader of the Dickson, Tennessee, district, has accepted a call to labor in the Florida Conference. Elder and Mrs. Karolyi and Ronnie will be leaving Dickson about May 25. We shall miss them in Kentucky-Tennessee.

★ If at times the singing band may become discouraged, just listen to what happened to the Bordeaux, Tennessee, group. Three solicitors went out one evening with a loud speaker equipment, and at one house the lady, who is a nurse, said that she would send in an offering. Two or three weeks went by and then Brother C. W. Higgins, conference treasurer, received a check for $20.00 forwarded from the General Conference. It had been sent in by this nurse as a result of the singing band contact.

★ When this reaches the field camp meeting will be only a few days away. Dr. F. O. Rittenhouse, executive dean, will be with us for the entire encampment to represent Southern Missionary College. President K. A. Wright will be present for the last week end.

 \star Two more have been baptized at Belcher, Kentucky, where Brother Jack Griffith is the district leader.

HOSPITAL COURTESY STAFF ORGANIZED

On the evening of May 17 the Fountain Head Hospital had as its guests the doctors and their wives from Portland and Gallatin, Tennessee. They were entertained in the Highland Academy cafeteria, where a program of music and readings was given during the banquet dinner. Later in the evening the doctors present, together with W. E. Strickland, C. W. Higgins, and A. L. Lynd, organized a courtesy staff.

The members of the hospital board who were present feel that this is a step well taken, because these doctors will have a definite interest in the hospital and will support it even more than they have in the past. In the very near future we hope to see a new wing added to the hospital so that we shall be able to take care of more patients.

IT PAYS!

Slowly the sun sank below the treerimmed horizon. The breezes whispered more softly as the shadows crept stealthily over the campus of Highland Academy.

Listen! Under the shady solitude of the apple trees, wafted like a breath of music from heaven, come the strains,

"Wonderful, wonderful Jesus, Oh, how my soul loves Thee, Wonderful, wonderful Jesus, Fairer than all art Thou to me."

The visitors at the sanitarium are attracted by the singing and the words of the chorus, and in that beautiful setting are touched by its call to their hearts.

As I watch I see the students kneel in prayer on a carpet of green grass, with the leafy canopy of the trees above them. I reverently kneel, too, as the words of their prayers reach my ears: "Father in Heaven, we thank Thee tonight for Thy love to us. We thank Thee for allowing us to attend this Christian school. We thank Thee, Jesus, for the sacrifices of our parents who have made this year possible. Bless them and care for them, Father, and keep them safely with Thee. Bless us and help us to make good use of our opportunities and draw us ever nearer Thee, for we pray in Jesus name. Amen." Unmindful of the roaring and glaring attractions of the outside world, the students of Highland Academy, your boys and girls and ours, rise from their knees and quietly seek the quietude of their rooms to prepare for tomorrow's lessons. Not just tomorrow's lessons in geometry and history, but tomorrow's lessons of life, as revealed to them as they pray and meditate on the things of God.

Dear parents, it is worth all that you have sacrificed. A Christian education pays rich dividends both in this world and in the eternity which is just before us. May God help us, as parents, to sense its value and to continue to make it possible for our young people to enjoy the haven of a Christian school where they may study in a Christ-like atmosphere protected from the roaring, rushing world of sin and vanity.

RECENT YOUTH RALLY

"Christ in Us" was the theme of the Youth Rally held at the Meharry Boulevard S.D.A. Church on May 11 and 12. The rally was the second one sponsored by the Nashville chapter of the Master Guides. This organization seeks to stimulate and inspire the youth of this area to continue their interest in the progressive class work. Pastor C. R. Graham and Elder E. F. Carter united their efforts with those of the congregations in making this a successful meeting. Friday night Pastor Graham called us to reconsecrate our services to Christ as youth did in other times of crisis. On Sabbath morning President F. L. Peterson, of Oakwood College, told us "What Christ in Us" would cause us to do. Our home life, our contacts with neighbors and friends would attract others, vitalizing our entire life's experience.

The Sabbath afternoon discussions continued with our theme, "Christ in Us." Besides music contributed by our own groups, we were favored with numbers by a male quartet from Oakwood College. We enjoyed a wonderful social Saturday night planned by the Master Guides of the city.

DORCAS FEDERATION

The Dorcas federation of the Nashville, Tennessee, area met on May 5 at the Meharry Boulevard S. D. A. Church. The various societies present gave reports concerning their work. A very interesting discussion was conducted in which Elder R. H. Wentland, Mrs. Emma Jordan, and Mrs. M. Crowder led out. Special plans were laid for Dorcas Tag Day and also for a good display at camp meeting.

SHARE YOUR FAITH THROUGH THE BIBLE SCHOOL

It has been my privilege to see the results of the Bible schools from several different angles, and I am becoming more convinced every day that it is a plan ordained by heaven for the winning of souls.

For a number of years I saw the Bible school from the angle of a district worker's wife. Then I could see how difficult it was for a busy pastor, evangelist, and district leader to find time to visit the many names that were regularly sent out from the conference office. Along with the many other duties these visits were often neglected until when the contact was made the interest was gone.

Then, for several months, it was my privilege to see the inside workings of the Twentieth Century Bible School in Meridian. It was a real thrill to read the sincere letters and appeals for spiritual help that would come to my desk each day, and then follow each student through as he studied his lessons week by week. When a letter would come telling of an answer to our prayers or that an individual had taken his stand for the truths he had learned, it was a cause for real rejoicing among the entire office family.

For the past few weeks as Bible instructor in the Birmingham church I have had the supreme pleasure of actually contacting some of these students right in their homes. Last week I visited the home of a Voice of Prophecy student. When I introduced myself, she was so happy to invite me into her home and said, "Oh! that is my church." She has promised to attend church as soon as she is able. Another day, I drove a number of miles from Birmingham to visit a Twentieth Century contact. This fine lady has completed two courses and wants to take the third. After introducing myself, she brought me her two certificates that I had signed, and said, "I'm so proud of these that I keep them right here on my table so I can show them to everyone." She is already keeping the Sabbath, and she and her fourteen-year-old son were at church on Sabbath morning. She has been an active worker in the Baptist church but has left it and is planning to be baptized at the first opportunity. Her husband has been a deacon in the church, but he too is studying.

On Sabbath afternoon I took some of the church members with me to visit a student about thirty miles away. We found a fine young woman and her two small boys at home. This lady is very anxious for us to have Bible studies in her home so she can invite in her neighbors to study the Bible too. We have arranged for the Missionary Volunteer society to hold a series of lay meetings in her home on Sunday afternoons.

If you are looking for a way to "Share Your Faith," why not get in touch with your district leader and volunteer to help him contact some of the Bible School interests? Or get a supply of Twentieth Century or Voice of Prophecy cards from your home missionary leader and begin to visit systematically every home in your community. It will be a blessing to you as well as to those you contact.

JUST FOR THE JUNIORS

Now that school is out we are all thinking about camp meeting and the thrilling time we will have there. For weeks we have been planning a good program just for the junior boys and girls.

Several missionaries will be with us to tell us some wonderful mission stories. Then there will be game periods—ball, swimming, and hiking. Every day will bring something interesting and different.

If you can play a musical in:trument, bring it with you. The juniors will be helping in the musical program in some of the other departments as well as providing music in their own meetings.

This is a special invitation from Mrs. Cardey, Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards, and me to all junior boys and girls to come to camp meeting. We'll be looking for you.

OUR GREATEST NEED

As you read this article today, the Carolina camp meeting will be in session, and we will be either nearing or in the holy Sabbath hours of the evening of June 1 or the day of June 2. We are sorry that you were not able to attend our camp meeting this year. We have remembered you in prayer and we trust that you have been richly blessed as you have meditated on the things of God. How we wish all of our believers could have gathered together in this special spiritual visit. The Lord has been very close to us, and how wonderful it would have been if all of us together could have enjoyed the full blessings that God has for us.

Today I am thinking of our greatest need. What is it? Is it houses or lands or wealth? What is it that we need just now more than anything else in the world?

My friend, today my greatest needtoday your greatest need-today our greatest need is a revival of true godliness. For this we should pray and work and strive, for this we should plead most earnestly in prayer. We must cast away the things of this world, the desires and hopes for things here, and we must determine to look to Christ and follow Him all the way.

Remember, "It is by loving Him, copying Him, depending wholly upon Him, that you are to be transformed into His likeness."—Steps to Christ, page 75.

Let us take our Bibles and learn of Him. Let us spend much time in prayer, and thus become one with Him. Remember, our words, our thoughts, our actions are to be brought into captivity to Him.

Oh, how anxious I am for all of us to have this greatest of all needs—a revival of true godliness. Shall we not one and all pray for it and expect it and have it now? How true are the words from the inspired pen, "When we submit ourselves to Christ, the heart is united with His heart, the will is merged in His will, the mind be comes one with His mind, the thoughts are brought into captivity to Him; we live His life."—Christ's Object Lessons, page 319.

Have you truly surrendered all to God? Have you laid all on the altar of sacrifice? Remember, "You cannot be blessed, and have peace and sweet rest, until all on the altar is laid." You say you are weak—take God in this thrilling promise, "By prayer, by the study of His word, by faith in His abiding presence, the weakest of human beings may live in contact with the living Christ, and He will hold them by a hand that will never let go."—Ministry of Healing, page 182.

We have important days ahead of us in advancing the truth to all of North and South Carolina, and this calls for a complete consecration. This calls for a great evangelistic movement. This calls for you, my friend, to give your heart unreservedly to God for the finishing of His work. Today he calls for you to speak and live the truth to your neighbors, to your friends, to your associates, and to others.

May God bless you; may His Holy Spirit lead us all into a closer walk with Him and in possessing this greatest of all needs—God-likeness.

THE JOURNEY'S END

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Revelation 14:13.

GIBSON:--Sophia C. Huchel Gibson was born in Prussia on July 8, 1859, and came to this country at an early age. She became the wife of Elder Thomas D. Gibson, December 4, 1883, in Allegheny, Pennsylvania. They labored in several parts of the United States, including several years in Florida as district pastor. She worked in the Florida Sanitarium some years ago and was taken there a couple of weeks before her death, April 21, 1951. She was active in the Daytona Beach church until recently. She leaves to mourn a daughter, two granddaughters, a grandson, and many friends. M. J. JACKSON

JOHNSON:-Loyd D. Johnson was born in Lee County, Virginia, on January 26, 1890, and was laid to rest to await the call of the Lifegiver on March 23, 1951, at the age of sixty-one. Mr. Johnson was united in marriage to Miss Lizzie Maness on May 26, 1912, and since their marriage they have been blessed with eight children. Soon after their marriage he entered the barber trade and moved to Union, South Carolina, in 1919, barbering in that city until about a year before his death. He earned for himself the name of "Deacon" because of his diligent study of the Bible and his interest in talking to others about the Book he loved. He was baptized and joined the Seventh-day Adventist church in Union, South Carolina, of which his wife and daughter were already members, on October 21, 1950. He now peacefully sleeps in Jesus. Left to mourn are his wife, Mrs. Lizzie Maness-Johnson; five sons-J. D., Gilbert, Robert, and L. D., Jr., all of Miami, Florida, and Albert of Rocky Mount, North Carolina; two daughters-Mrs. Lowell Ledbetter of Hendersonville, North Carolina, and Mrs. Boyd Garner of Union, South Carolina. Each member of this family is a child of God and is looking forward to the time when all can be united together again in the earth made new.

"I Will Save Thy Children"

By V. G. ANDERSON, President, Southern Union Conference

W^E are grateful for the hundreds of faithful young people in the Southern Union who from childhood have loved this have loved this message and remained true to its principles.

But our hearts are always cheered as we learn of those who have fallen by the way and who later h a v e responded to th e Spirit of God, in

W. P. Lockwood answer to the prayers of devoted parents, and returned to God. A recent letter from Elder W. P. Lockwood, pastor of the Lexington, Kentucky, church is cause for rejoicing. We share a part of it with you:

"On Sabbath, April 14, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Fuller were baptized in the Lexington church. It was one Sabbath last November that I noticed a visitor slip into the rear seat of the church. During the class period I went back to make her feel at home. After our greetings she told me that she had been attending another church in the city but recently had been convinced that Saturday is the true Sabbath and she had decided to keep it.

"That afternoon I went to visit her and also met her husband. I learned that in his youth he had been a Seventh-day Adventist but like some of our others, had lost his way and joined the marines. Then he married this fine young lady who had been a Baptist.

"They had just moved to Lexington and he was employed as a locksmith in one of the stores. She immediately looked up the Baptist church and gave her heart to the Lord in one of their revivals. When she began to study her Bible in earnest her husband remembered his childhood faith and began to study with her. With the help of his mother, who supplied them with some of our literature, Mrs. Fuller became convinced that she should keep the true Sabbath. From the time of my first visit with this young couple we studied the message together and when they had completed the Home Bible Course they expressed a desire to unite with the remnant church. They had some habits which they had to conquer, but God gave them complete victory.

"This experience has brought a real thrill to the heart of Mother Fuller of Dothan, Alabama. She has been praying for her son for many years and now God has answered these prayers."

Let us not become weary if our prayers for these loved ones are not answered immediately. The Lord will hear and will send His Spirit to soften the hearts of these wayward ones. He has promised, "I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children." Don't let your faith fail. Take courage from the experience of this young man who has now cast his lot with the people of God and is determined to be faithful to the end.

ASSURANCES OF SUCCESS IN SOUL-WINNING

"If the lay members of the church will arouse to do the work that they can do, going on a warfare at their own charges, each seeing how much he can accomplish in winning souls to Jesus, we shall see many leaving the ranks of Satan to stand under the banner of Christ. If our people will act upon the light that is given in these few words of instruction, we shall surely see of the salvation of God. Wonderful revivals will follow. Sinners will be converted, and many souls will be added to the church. When we bring our hearts into unity with Christ, and our lives into harmony with His work, the Spirit that fell on the disciples on the day of Pentecost will fall on us."-Testimonies, Volume VIII, page 246.

Lift up the message, and loud let it ring!
