Ground - breaking Ceremonies

for the

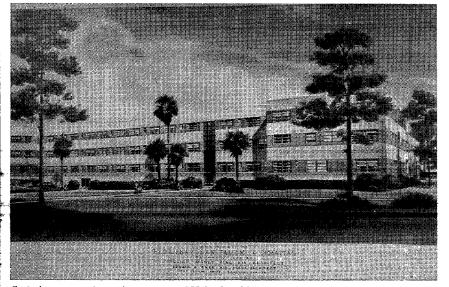

New Florida Sanitarium Building

LEIGHTON T. HALL, Administrator, Florida Sanitarium and Hospital

On July 14, 1955, ground-breaking ceremonies for the new sanitarium building, to replace the original Florida Sanitarium building which was constructed in 1908, were held. W. H. Branson, former president of the General Conference, who began his work as a gospel minister in the Florida Conference the year the Florida Sanitarium began its work, was fittingly present for the ground-breaking service. the General Conference, V. G. Anderson, president of the Southern Union, Don R. Rees, president of the Florida Conference, and Leighton T. Hall, Florida Sanitarium administrator were the men who participated in turning the sod on this occasion.

As they broke ground for the new building they were standing in front of the original sanitarium which has housed patients for the institution since 1908. Because of the ravages of time this building will be removed and at this time construction has begun on the first fifty-bed section of this new wing. Other stages of the 130-bed building will follow as the need arises and as funds are available.

Surely this is another mark of progress in the history of this institution which will soon be celebrating its fiftieth year of service in central Florida.

Mrs. Ruth N. (Frazier) Stafford, former director of nursing at the Riverside Sanitarium and Hospital, will begin her Ph.D. work this summer in nursing education. She is to study at Columbia University.

"We hope that Oakwood's pre-nursing students who graduate as R. N.'s from the various sanitariums and hospitals will shortly be able to return to Oakwood to receive an additional B.S. degree in nursing education, under Mrs. Stafford's direction," said academic head of the college, Dean O. B. Edwards, in commenting on Mrs. Stafford's program. Mrs. Stafford received her R.N. from Hinsdale Sanitarium. For sixteen years she supervised the work of nurses at Riverside. She is a graduate of Pacific Union College with a B.S. degree, and further holds an M.A. from Fisk University.

Miss Ruth E. Mosby, instructor in journalism and dean of women, is currently pursuing work on the Ph.D. degree in English at the University of Pittsburgh. She is an Oakwood graduate of 1945.

One of Oakwood's newest instructors of 1954-'55 is Mrs. Arthelia Alexander, whose husband, Herbert Alexander, teaches biology on the campus. TRUTH FOR TODAY

On Highway 13, at the north edge of Columbia, Mississippi, you will find pitched the Truth-for-Today tent in which Brethren W. D. Wampler and H. E. Armstrong are holding evangelistic service four nights a week. The attendance has been between 60 and 100 each evening, and as these brethren entered into the fourth week of meetings, 28 of those in attendance had been in attendance at every meeting.

Brother Wampler writes, "The Lord surely is leading in our meetings in Columbia. Saturday night we had 60 or more present despite rain. It was really good to see this many out with the weather so bad that evening. We had 70 or more Sunday evening. We are so pleased to see the same people coming back night after night. We will be presenting the Sabbath question in another week or so. This will be new to many. Some are already asking about the Sabbath."

ON CAMPUS

Beginning Thursday evening, July 14, the mid-summer spiritual emphasis week end began on the SMC campus. The speaker for the occasion was the union evangelist, B. L. Hassenpflug. The meetings climaxed on Sabbath morning with a stirring appeal to a new and deeper consecration which were participated in by practically the whole congregation.

On Sabbath afternoon the Missionary Volunteer society heartily seconded by the members of the church missionary society, went out on their monthly "E" day. The goal was five hundred signatures of those who would like to take the Bible correspondence course. There were at least 75 persons who took part. About seven hundred homes were visited, and over two hundred new members for the correspondence school were secured. The beautiful part of this campaign in Collegedale is that there is little fanfare, but the results will be seen in eternity. It is also a beautiful example of the cooperation of the church missionary society and the MV society.

At the same time, in the spacious auditorium of the Ridgedale School, Dodds Avenue, Chattanooga, veteran evangelist, J. L. Shuler, and an efficient corps of helpers from the Georgia-Cumberland Conference, are holding a very successful spearhead effort for the general public.

The evening of Saturday, July 16, the college lyceum course for the summer presented the Reisman trio in Harold A. Miller Hall. It was a delightful program consisting of solos, duets, and trios making use of the piano, the violin, and the cello. Those who attended report a highly entertaining and profitable hour spent with these musicians.

Laymen Win Souls

IN THE SOUTHERN UNION

The March of the South Atlantic

M. T. BATTLE, Home Missionary Secretary, South Atlantic Conference

The laymen in South Atlantic have four great objectives in their soul-winning endeavors:

M. T. Battle

1. Every member a victorious Christian.

2. Every member a witness for Christ.

3. Every church organized for service with a definite program of evange-lism.

4. Every church a training school.

With these four great goals in mind the laymen in South Atlantic are definitely on the march for God. Since our last visit on this special page for laymen, we've added 13 new projectors and 18 more commissioned laymen, to this special group of soul winners.

Interesting reports have come from various sections of the field in regard to definite goals achieved in their soul-winning endeavors. One interesting experience comes from Mrs. H. Pollock of Jacksonville, North Carolina. Sister Pollock became an Adventist a little more than 20 months ago as the result of a layman letting his light shine. Last year she came to camp meeting, and during one of our laymen's rallies she expressed her desire to see her loved ones saved. She immediately returned to her home after camp meeting and began working with her son and husband. A few months afterward her son was baptized. She continued working, letting her light shine, leaving literature and books around her home with the full message in them, and through consistent Christian living, her husband was won. One year later Sister Pollock returned to camp meeting not alone, but with her husband and son as faithful Seventhday Adventists.

Mrs. J. Walker Brown, who for many years has been one of our outstanding laymen in the Jacksonville, Florida, church, also sends in a very interesting report. She has been conducting Bible studies for the past several months and just recently two persons took their stand for Christ and have now connected themselves with the Jacksonville, Florida, church.

Another report comes from Sister B. Johnson of the Atlanta church who has two trophies to add to her list of souls won for Christ, Sister Anderson of the Columbia, South Carolina, church reports that she has been giving studies and as a result of her activities, one who was a devout Catholic has decided to take her stand for the truth. So you see, we have laymen in Florida, Georgia, North and South Carolina who all have had definite results in their soul-winning endeavors. These are just samples of the great work the laymen in South Atlantic are accomplishing for God. However, there are many interesting reports from other laymen, such as Brother Ray of Lillington, North Carolina, Sister Tate of Winston-Salem, Brother Akers and Sister Curry of Ft. Lauderdale, and scores of others. They are continuing their soul-winning endeavors with definite results.

We wish to appeal through this page to every member of the South Atlantic conference to enroll in service for God. Get a definite project and work for the salvation of souls.

I would like to call to your attention a statement that comes to my mind recorded in the Review and Herald, August 18, 1881. "Christians should arouse themselves and take up their neglected duties; for the salvation of their own souls depends upon their individual efforts." Remember, Christ calls upon us individually to extend our services. "Many have gone down to ruin who might have been saved, if their neighbors, common men and women, had put forth personal effort for them. Many are waiting to be personally addressed. In the very family, in the neighborhood, in the town where we live, there is work for us to do as missionaries for Christ. The saving and sanctifying truth cannot be shut up in the heart."—Desire of Ages, p. 141.

EVANGELISM FLASHES

★ On Sabbath, July 16, Elder Oscar L. Heinrich baptized three in the Birmingham First church. On the week end of July 16 Elder Heinrich presented, "The True Christian Sabbath," "The Missing Text," and also the trial by jury. On the night the jury trial was conducted, 35 signed the card signifying their intention of keeping the Sabbath. There is a great interest in our message throughout the whole city of Birmingham, and Elders Heinrich, Mostert, and the entire evangelistic company are spending much time in visitation.

★ Brother Halle G. Crowson reported that three were baptized in Tupelo on Sabbath, July 16. These were first interested in the truth through the School of Bible Prophecy lessons. We are very happy for the great part our union Bible school is playing in our soul-winning program here in the Alabama-Mississippi Conference.

★ On Sunday night, July 17, Elder A. L. Dickerson opened a tent effort in the town of Hammondville, Alabama. We have a number of people in the vicinity of Hammondville and Fort Payne who are interested in the message. Let us all join in praying that the Lord will bless Elder Dickerson in this effort.

★ On Thursday night, July 7, Elder

DeFuniak Springs is being stirred by the messages presented in this tent.

May conducted his first baptism in connection with the Huntsville effort. Nine were baptized. This brings to 24 the number of believers in Huntsville. The Sabbath question has already been presented in this effort and on Sabbath, July 16, we had the first meeting of our Huntsville members in the Christian Church. We understand that Elder May's second baptism was held Sabbath evening, July 24. There is a very fine interest in Huntsville. A number of additional baptismal services are scheduled and we are definitely planning to organize a church in Huntsville on Sabbath, August 27.

- ★ Brother Bert Benson, the pastor of the newest district in our conference, the Greenville district, reports that the attendance at the Sabbath meetings in Greenville has been growing steadily. A baptismal service is planned for Sabbath, August 6.
- ★ Elder H. J. Carubba and Brother W. D. Welch are putting the finishing touches on the large tabernacle which has been pitched on a very prominent lot on Government Street in Mobile and are planning to open their campaign on Sunday night, July 31.

DE FUNIAK SPRINGS EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN

One of the most successful evangelistic campaigns in our conference is being conducted in De Funiak Springs, Florida, by Elder Hugh V. Leggett and Brother Bob Ammons. The 50' x 80' tent has been pitched on a prominent lot on U.S. Highway 90, which cuts right through the heart of the city. De Funiak Springs is a city of 4,700 people. We have three church members living in the vicinity of De Funiak Springs. The attendance has been very good right from the start, and the people of the city are manifesting a great interest in the truths that are being preached from night to night.

In a letter just received from Elder Leggett, he says, "We are fighting against all the powers of the devil here. We are praying that God will give us those who are honest in heart. We have really had the rain here. Every day it has rained. We have had good crowds in spite of the weather—over 100 every night.

"Last week I visited forty people who had been to the meetings from four to twelve times. Brother Ammons is doing a fine job in his visiting. Some told me that the churches were threatening them. One or two said they could not come for fear of being put out of the church. We are letting God lead."

Even though the ministers of the city have asked their members not to attend the services, they are still flocking to the Crusade-for-Truth meetings.

Elder Leggett and Brother Ammons are not arguing with them in any way, but are simply preaching the truth in a very positive way and the people are very much impressed with the messages. One man told Elder Leggett that he had been waiting forty years to hear this truth.

Let us pray for these brethren who have entered this new territory and have found so many who are anxious to hear the truth of God.

CAROLINA EVANGELISM

All of our evangelistic teams are courageous and are moving forward in a strong way in their soul-winning activities. We are very anxious for all of our members to continue earnest prayer in behalf of the public evangelistic meetings now being held in our conference. Do remember the following teams in special prayer:

- J. N. Morgan and J. P. Priest, Salem, South Carolina.

How thankful we are for our soulwinning laymen and ministers, and how anxious we are for all of us to pray earnestly for one another in these important soul-winning projects. Let us continue to have our prayer service every noon, praying especially for our Carolina program of evangelism.

Our literature evangelists, not only our regular workers but also our students who are working here this summer, are having excellent results. We believe July will be one of our greatest months in the sale of gospel literature. Do remember our literature evangelists every morning, that they may be blessed of God, that they may have courage and may meet with favor in the homes they contact.

How wonderful it is that we have the privilege of prayer, that we can pray for one another, and that we know our heavenly Father knits us all together in His love. Let us never neglect this most wonderful privilege

INTRODUCING CAROLINA'S YOUTH LEADER AND EDUCATIONAL SUPERINTENDENT

It is a pleasure to introduce to our Carolina members Elder Wayne P. Thurber, our new young people's leader and educational superintendent. He assumes the responsibilities formerly carried by Elder Ward Scriven who accepted a call as educational superintendent of the Florida Conference.

Wayne P. Thurber To many of our members in Carolina, Elder Thurber needs no introduction, because you have met him already, as he was a prominent student at Southern Missionary College, a member of the wellknown Adelphian Male Quartet, and one of the teachers of music there at the college, and has visited our camp meetings, youth congresses, and other like gatherings.

Brother Thurber has had educational experience in the Georgia-Cumberland Conference and for the past few years has been young people's leader and educational superintendent of the Alabama-Mississippi Conference. We are sure his love for young people and his interest in Christian education will be felt as he continues his ministry in our conference.

We extend to Elder and Mrs. Thurber and their three children, Donnie, Sharon, and Kathleen, a hearty welcome to the Carolinas, and know that all of our church members, our young people, and our boys and girls will make them feel at home as they travel throughout beautiful Carolina. And we know, too, that you will all be helped spiritually as the result of their faithful ministry.

This section of Atlanta has been combined with Griffin to form a new district with Elder G. O. Adams as the pastor. We are sure Elder Adams will give strong leadership to this new district and all will learn to love him as their spiritual advisor.

We earnestly invite all to join in the evangelistic plans that have been formed and do everything possible to prepare the city of Atlanta for the meetings which are to begin soon, with Elder B. L. Hassenpflug, our Southern Union evangelist, as the speaker. This new church organization should be a real challenge to all concerned.

May we all have a deeper consecration and a closer walk with God and may we see His prospering hand over the work throughout Atlanta and the entire conference is my earnest prayer.

CALLS FOR MEANS TO BE MORE FREQUENT. "As God's work extends, calls for help will come more and more frequently. That these calls may be answered, Christians should heed the command, 'Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in Mine house.' If professing Christians would faithfully bring to God their tithes and offerings, His treasury would be full."—Acts of the Apostles, page 338.

RETURN TO GOD HIS OWN. "God blesses the work of men's hands, that they may return to Him His portion. He gives them the sunshine and the rain; He causes vegetation to flourish; He gives health, and ability to acquire means. Every blessing comes from His bountiful hand, and He desires men and women to show their gratitude by returning Him a portion in tithes and offerings."—Prophets and Kings, pages 707, 708.

★ The services being conducted in the Calhoun church by Elder A. C. We should also pray for Elder Rawson and his work in Calhoun that much good may result.

"PRAY FOR POWER AT THE NOONDAY HOUR"

LONDON CHURCH REAPS BRANCH SABBATH SCHOOL FIRST FRUITS

The London church is seeing results from the faithful work done in organizing and operating branch Sabbath schools. On Sabbath, June 4, 1955, seven took their stand with God's people. Two were from the church school, two were from the London area, and three were from the Jarvis community (Knox County) Sabbath school.

Five were buried with their Lord in baptism by Elder Teddric Mohr and two were accepted on profession of faith.

The interests continue to grow in the London area. A strong interest in Manchester, Kentucky, is attracting our attention. Elder Gerhart had 18 present at his first Bible study there. Eight good Bible school interests were present. Over in Jackson County an old Bible school interest was visited. The result was Bible studies planned, at which 20 were present for the first study. It is too early to determine the definite interest there. Three other students scattered widely over our area are quite promising.

Our greatest need is more trained laymen to lead out in these new openings. Plans are now under way to or-

STUDENT RALLEY AT HIGHLAND

A student colporteur rally was held at Highland Academy June 29 to July 3 which all but three of our student colporteurs were able to attend. The opening meeting came Wednesday night when Robert H. It was a great privilege to hear R. E. Finney Jr., editor of These Times, speak Friday night. He had just that week returned from a trip to Europe and told some of his experiences.

The message Sabbath morning was given by S. L. Clark, field representative of the Review and Herald Publishing Association.

Other speakers included Eric Ristau of the Southern Union, H. D. Lawson, principal of Highland Academy, J. M. Jansen and Howard Fisher of the

CANVAS CATHEDRAL SERVICES

On May 22 evangelistic meetings were begun in the canvas cathedral in Nashville. The workers conducting these meetings are Wm. C. Hatch, evangelist; Preston Wallace, music director; Harold Robbins, associate evangelist; and Miss Lucille Walden, Bible instructor. Mrs. Preston Wallace and Mrs. Tom Weed have helped the work by playing the organ and piano.

Brother Newell Niswonger has drawn a lovely chalk picture every Sunday night, as well as painting our very attractive screen on the platform and lettering our large sign for the front of the tent.

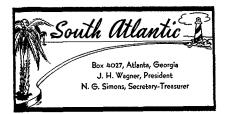

The attendance at this series of meetings has not been large, averaging about 250 to 300 on week ends and about 150 on week nights. However, the workers are kept busy visiting those who are interested, and the prospects are good for a harvest of souls.

Sixteen have already been baptized into the Nashville church in 1955, and other baptisms are planned. We have set our goal to have at least one baptism in the Nashville church each month of the year.

Say not, Good Night, but in some brighter clime bid me, Good Morning."

Kress:—Lauretta Eby Kress was born February 19, 1863 in Flint, Michigan, to Hannah Burkhart and Aaron Eby, and was united in marriage July 9, 1884, to Daniel Kress. She and her husband entered the University of Michigan Medical School together and were members of the school's first four-year class, graduating in 1894.

Their work for humanity took them to many parts of the world. They served in the United States, the British Isles, Germany, Australia, and New Zealand. After laying the foundation of our large health work in Australia they were called back to their homeland to establish a new san-itarium in Takoma Park, Washington, D. C. This was in 1907.

Their's was a fruitful and united ministry, Dr. Daniel specializing in health education and Lauretta in obstetrics. More than 5000 babies came into the world under the skillful care of this mother in Israel.

Three children were born to the Kresses. but in all they have adopted and educated eleven others. The eldest daughter, Eva, died in England in 1899 when she was 14 years of age. John, the only son, passed to his rest last December. Dr. Ora Kress-Mason, the only surviving child, resides in Murray, Kentucky.

Dr. Lauretta Kress was well known for her good works, her understanding, and her encouraging words to all, especially to the young people of the church.

In 1939 the Kresses came to Florida. They intended to retire in Orlando, but were soon called back into service at the Florida Sanitarium and Hospital. Their united service continued for over 70 years, their 70th wedding anniversary being celebrated last July.

Dr. Lauretta Kress passed to her rest at her home Tuesday morning, June 28. Left to mourn are her faithful husband, Dr. Daniel Kress; a daughter, Dr. Ora Kress-Mason of Murray, Kentucky; her sister, Mrs. Grace Moore, also of Murray, Kentucky; her treasured companions, Mr. and Mrs. Jens Nielsen, and thousands of friends and fellow workers in the gospel.

The funeral service was conducted in the Kress Memorial Church, Winter Park, Florida (named in honor of the Kresses) by Elder R. A. Anderson, secretary of the Ministerial Association; Elder W. H. Branson, former president of the General Conference, and her pastor, A. D. Burch. Our sister was laid to rest in the Woodlawn Memorial Park to await the call of the Lifegiver.

Wellman:—Cora Jeanette Snyder was born September 19, 1880, at Cropseyville, near Troy, New York. Her parents were Ezra Eugene Snyder and Margaret Elisabeth Snyder. She joined the Seventh-day Adventist church in Hillsdale, Michigan, she and her mother being the only Seventh-day Adventists in the family. During high school days she met her future husband. In the spring of 1899 he was sent by the Mission Board with his parents to Kingston, Jamaica, to teach the church school and supervise the Tract Society there. Miss Snyder joined him there and they were married in the old slave church on Text Lane on November 12, 1899. Subsequent years of service together led them to St. Thomas, St. Kitts, Trinidad and Panama in the Caribbean area; India, California, and the General Conference, Washington,

In 1949 she and her husband moved to Winter Park, Florida, where they chose to retire after fifty years of service. During the past two years her health began to fail and on April 29 Elder Wellman and his son took her to Washington, D. C., where because of physical infirmities she was placed in a nursing home so that she could receive proper care. On Saturday night, May 14, after attending the evening vesper service in a wheel chair, she was seized with a severe heart attack and fell into a coma from which she failed to recover.

She leaves behind her husband, S. A. Wellman, a daughter, Thelma Wellman, of Washington, D. C., a son, Sterrie E. Wellman, of New York City, and a host of other relatives and friends.

The funeral service was conducted in the Takoma Park church on May 17, 1955, by Elders D. E. Rebok, C. L. Torrey, C. E. Weniger, and L. R. Mansell. Interment was in the Fort Lincoln Cemetery in the District of Columbia.

LAMBERT:—Georgia Rogers Lambert, daughter of Henry Rogers and Victoria McDaniel Rogers, was born in Warren County, Tennessee, April 3, 1881, and died June 28, 1955, near Nashville, Tennessee June 28, 1955, near Nashville, Tennessee at the age of 74 years. Her childhood and youth were spent in Lincoln County, Tennessee, where her parents moved in 1886. On March 27, 1899, she was married to L. F. Lambert, and they resided in Memphis, Tennessee,

In the spring of 1910, Elder J. S. Washburn held a series of tent meetings in Memphis. There Mr. and Mrs. Lambert accepted the third angel's message and joined the Seventh-day Adventist church. She was a staunch member and a faithful worker all these years. Her sudden death laid her to rest to await the coming of her Lord, whom she so dearly loved.

She is survived by her husband, two daughters, and a son, all of Nashville, Tennessee. The children are Elsie Lillian, wife of C. A. Loftin, of the Southern Publishing Association; Gladys Victoria, wife of R. A. Curtis, of the Southern Publishing Association; and William Curtis Lambert. One sister, Mrs. Ida Spray, resides in Fayetteville, Tennessee, and one brother, L. W. Rogers, in Moulton, Alabama. She had 12 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews. Her host of friends will miss her for her love of her home and family, of flowers and nature, and her warm, cordial friendliness and spiritual devotion.

JORGENSEN:-Alfred William Jorgensen was born October 5, 1867, at Neenah, Wisconsin, and died June 14, 1955 at the Mountain Sanitarium and Hospital, Fletcher, North Carolina. He was the son of Hans C. and Elizabeth Jorgensen who came to America from Denmark and settled at Neenah prior to the birth of Alfred William. In March, 1892, he was married to Mary Emeline Cady of Poysippi, Wisconsin, who preceded him in death, August, 1954.

He leaves two sons and two daughters: Dr. Guy Cady Jorgensen, head of the chemistry department of Union College, Lincoln, Nebraska; Professor Roy Alfred Jorgensen, medical technician and science teacher at Mountain Sanitarium and Hospital and Fletcher Academy, Fletcher, North Carolina; Mrs. Vesta J. Baldwin, a teacher at Armona, California and Mrs. Iva R. Hooten, a nurse at Los Angeles, California. There are three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mr. Jorgensen followed in the steps of his father who was a loyal member of the S.D.A. church. As a youth he gave his heart to God. He loved the church and was active in its programs all through the years until age wore on him and he was compelled to leave them to younger workers.

Brother Jorgensen enjoyed all the church papers, but the Review and Herald was especially dear to him. He loved the Lord. His faith never wavered and he anchored his hope in the second coming of Christ and the resurrection.

At the funeral, words of comfort were spoken by Elder H. S. Prenier with Elder J. L. Everett, pastor of the Fletcher church, assisting. Mr. Jorgensen was laid to rest at a local cemetery near Mountain Sanitarium and Hospital.

LIVENGOOD:-Mrs. C. J. Livengood, born in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, October 24, 1892, passed to rest at her home. June 26, 1955.

Sister Livengood accepted the third angel's message eighteen years ago under the ministry of Elder R. E. Griffen. From the day that she accepted the truth she was active as a witness for her church and for her God.

Two of the surviving members of her family, Archer D. Livengood and Miss Patsy Livengood, are members of the Winston-Salem church.

Sister Livengood had been in declining health for the past two years. Following two operations she was confined to bed in her home. Knowing that death was inevitable, she very courageously planned every detail of the final service to be a testimonial of her faith in the blessed hope.

Elder I. W. Young, publishing secretary of the Carolina Conference, a close friend of the family, was assisted by the pastor in the funeral service. Sister Livengood was laid to rest in the Forsyth Memorial Cemetery to await the call of the Lifegiver.

EVANGELISM

"This happened several times and Elder R. E. Logan, the Charleston pastor, went to call on her to find out who this was who sent money to the church from so far away. He learned of the interest and studied with them as often as possible for a period of about six months.

"In August of 1954 Elder Cemer held a series of evangelistic meetings in Charleston and the Phillipses attended two of them. Mr. Phillips bought one of Elder Cemer's books of sermons, read it, and was convinced of the truth.

"Two of the Charleston laymen, Brethren Wiggins and Lynes, visited the Phillipses and showed pictures on the evil effects of tobacco. Mr. Phillips by this time had decided to serve the Lord, and he quit the tobacco habit, though he had been using tobacco for 58 years.

"Sabbath, May 21, 1955, Brother and Sister Phillips were baptized into the remnant church at Charleston by Pastor Logan, and now are rejoicing in the third angel's message. 'I am so glad that we have found the right way,' Mrs. Phillips said. 'We praise the Lord every day and love the people of our church and our pastor.

"Yes, a faithful press secretary had a part in the winning of these two souls because when the church took up a special Thirteenth Sabbath mission offering she heeded the Bible admonition, 'publish and conceal not.'

Press Secretary Helps Win Souls

V. G. Anderson, President, Southern Union Conference

The Lord has opened to us so many avenues of soul-winning services and as we fit into the place the Lord has prepared, we are bound to see souls saved for the kingdom. Leslie H. Pitton, a busy pastor in the Carolina Conference who also finds time to carry the responsibility of Public Relations secretary for the conference, sends us an interesting story of our press secretary in the Charleston, South Carolina, church who grasped the opportunities in newspaper publicity presented to her—and she now has the joy of knowing that a fine couple are members of her church because she did! Here is the story as Elder Pitton tells it:

"Saint Mark's record of what must take place before the Lord comes reads as follows: 'And the gospel must first be published among all nations.' (Mark 13:10.) The prophet Jeremiah instructed, 'Declare ye among the nations, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not.' (Jer. 50:2.) Italics

"Mrs. J. F. Holbrook, press secretary for the Charleston, S. C., church has been doing just that. The result: Two souls won to the truth.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Phillips, baptized May 21, 1955. They were found by Adventist news story in the Charleston paper.

"It was just a Thirteenth Sabbath news story mailed to all press secretaries by the Department of Public Relations, Washington, D. C., telling about the special offering to be taken in all churches about a year and a half ago. Yes, it was to be used to help build a mission boat to carry the Adventist mesage to the native people.

"Mrs. R. T. Phillips, Route 1, Walterboro, S. C., 50 miles west of Charleston, was reading the morning paper. 'What's this?' she thought, as she noticed the story about the Charleston Seventh-day Adventist church and the mission boat offering that was to be taken.

"Mrs. Phillip was impressed with the idea. Something kept saying to her, 'You have $5.00, why not send it to help?' And she did, stating in her letter to the church that she had read about it in the paper.

"You see, back in 1945 she had heard the Voice of Prophecy on the radio and enrolled in the course. She saw the light, her husband was opposed and she feared to step out. Elder Stanley Will, who was pastor of the Charleston church about seven years ago, visited her, but she did not have the courage just then to take her stand.
