SCHOOL TOPS GOAL IN YEARBOOK SUB DRIVE

ASS'N PASSES 800 MARK

Glee Club Sings in Association
Meeting; Elder French
Gives Talk

The campaign for the Book of Golden Memories for 1930 came to a triumphant close in chapel Friday, March 21, with more than 800 subscriptions.

After the customary opening by President Harold Rudolph, The Students' Association was turned over to J. Paul Laurence, the campaign manager of the Annual staff. Horton McLennan directed the student body in singing the school song, and in three minutes Miss Helena Kirkland appealed to every member of the Association to do his part.

Elder Speaks

Elder W. R. French, the first person to send in a subscription, spoke a few moments on positive business policies. After the glee club sang the "Soldiers Chorus," the cardboard clocks which were made to show the progress of the campaign quickly were turned to the 400 mark.

Newspaper Relic of 1899 War Found

"Heavy Rebel loss—
Dewey wants the 'Oregon'—
Battle at Calocan—"

These were the headlines of the Topeka Capital of Topeka, Kans., on Saturday, Feb. 24, 1899. Thomas Lupo, a resident of North Hall, was fortunate in finding a yellow and age-worn copy of this journal in the back of a picture which he dismantled for framing Thursday morning, March 20.

Among the many accounts given in this old and crumbling paper concerning the Spanish-American War is a cablegram sent to the War Department in Washington, D. C., by General Otis.

Manila, Feb. 24.—General Scandia arrived last night. Troops gained access to the outskirts of the city behind our lines yesterday morning. Many in hiding and about 1,000 entrenched themselves. Enemy routed yesterday with a loss of about 500 killed and 200 prisoners. Our loss very light. City quiet, confidence restored, business progressing.

(Signed) GENERAL OTIS.

ELDER W. E. BARR WILL SPEAK AT MT. PLEASANT

Elder W. E. Barr will be the speaker at the Mt. Pleasant church Sabbath, March 29. The topic of his sermon will be, "The Fruits of the Spirit."

Elder Barr is chaplain at the Washington Sanitarium. Before coming to Takoma Park last summer he was located in Scranton, Pa.

The Capital-Memorial Church, first Seventh-day Adventist Church in Washington, D. C.

MUSIC STUDENTS GIVE YEAR'S ONLY RECITAL

Student Orchestra Assists in Two-Hour Entertainment

Many students and visitors of W. M. C. were present at the music recital given in Columbia Hall last Saturday night by the students of the Music Department. The program began at 7:45 o'clock.

The recital—the last of the year—lasted for nearly two hours. The Student Orchestra started the music by playing three numbers. Prof. H. A. Miller played piano duets with Miss Edna Matz and Miss Mildred McClary, two of his students. Piano solos were given by the Misses Mary McIndoo, Margaret Lawry, Helen Lamond, Edna Stoneburner, Martha Callicott, Florence Carlson, Merzella Julius, Mildred McClary and Edna Matz, and Leroy Rubottom.

Miss Ruth Schifer, Miss Merzella Julius, Leslie Smith, Andrew Robbins and Horace Shaw each sang solos. The violin performers were Miss Helen Lamond, Martin Bischoff, Raymond and Donald Christman, who played duets, Miss Arlene Norton and Daniel Welebir. Two programs of this nature were given last year under the leadership of Prof. Victor Johnson. Each division of the Music Department contributed part of the program.

NEW AQUARIUM ADDED TO COLLEGE LIBRARY

The College library has installed a new aquarium in front of the main window facing the second floor of Columbia Hall.

The aquarium contains Chinese fish, black and gold fantails, two spotted fantails in many colors, tadpoles and snails. Sea vegetation helps to enhance the appearance of the container. The fish have been purchased from money collected from book fines.

A gift has been received by the library from the Prohibition Association with headquarters in Washington, D. C. The collection is composed of 43 books and 300 pamphlets. Rhetoric students have already begun to use

FAMOUS BIRD-MAN TO GIVE LYCEUM NUMBER

TO WARBLE BIRD CAROLS

The fifth Lyceum lecture of the year brings to Columbia Hall at 8 o'clock next Saturday night Charles Crawford Gorst, the man who imitates over 800 carols of more than 250 species of birds and can't tell how he does it. He is called the "Bird-man."

Such men as John Burroughs, T. Gilbert Pearson, secretary of the National Audubon Society, Frank M. Chapman, editor of "Birdlore," and William Finley, famous bird photographer, recognize Mr. Gorst as one of the leading naturalists of the country, and heartily endorse his work.

For 16 years Mr. Gorst has been entertaining and educating audiences in every state in the Union and in nearly every province of Canada with his warbling. He runs several octaves above the highest key of the piano in reproducing the notes of the humming bird. The admission charge is fifty cents.

DR. T. GREEN PRESENTS RED CROSS FLAG FOR NURSES

Dr. Thomas E. Green, director of the American National Red Cross, presented the nurses of the Washington Sanitarium and Hospital with a Red Cross flag last Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock and promised that there were no strings attached to the gift.

The Sanitarium had won the Red Cross flag for the past two years by virtue of entering the best essays written by nurses in the District of Columbia. The essay submitted by Miss Reba Williams last year kept the flag flying in the Sanitarium until Garfield Memorial Hospital won the laurels in the contest conducted this year.

Knowing the pride the Sanitarium nurses take in their flag since he has been a patient there, Dr. Green went shopping one day last week and purchased a new flag for them. Many nurses were present at the program held in the main parlor.

INSTITUTIONAL RELIEF IS BEGUN BY COLLEGE

Public Speaking Classes Give Short Chapel Talks

The Institutional Relief campaign at W. M. C. gathered new impetus yesterday morning when Public Speaking representatives of college classes and the alumni gave three-minute speeches narrating what their College has done for them and what they should do for their College.

Prof. C. E. Weniger, Public Speaking instructor, introduced the students who were to speak on "Alma Matriotism." Two students from each class and one alumnus said the same thing in nine different ways.

Miss Katherine Halstead and Max Shoup represented the Freshmen, Miss Anetta Truman and John Minesinger the Sophomores, Miss Ruth Harding and Andrew Robbins the Juniors, Miss Mary Ninaj and Walter Crandall the Seniors, and Robert Head the alumni.

PROHIBITION DISCUSSED HERE BY DR. MC BRIDE

The Sligo church enjoyed a rare opportunity on Sabbath, March 22, in hearing an address delivered by Dr. F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America who is now attending the hearing in Congress on the liquor question.

"This prohibition movement is a success because it is of God," declared (Concluded on page 2)

Life Currents Are Protected by Purity

By J. L.

My roommate has an electric cord on his desk lamp. One night, in moving the lamp, my hand brushed the cord. Nothing happened.

Two years ago in a certain city a storm severed a high power electric line. A fire truck went screaming past me. It had been called to quench the blaze sputtering at the end of that electric wire.

How terrible is a bare wire! The firemen did not even dare to loose the water stream on the blaze lest the current might follow the stream and electrocute them.

And I put my hand on an electric cord without hurt—

Protected life currents carry light-giving power. Unsheathed currents of life carry death-giving passion.

Man, woman, watch your current. Protect it. Purity is protection. A clean mind giveth a courageous heart. It is far better to give a little useful light than a lot of useless flame. It is less dangerous, too.

ANNUAL RECEPTION TO BE MAIN SOCIAL EVENT OF SCHOOL YEAR

NOVEL INVITATIONS SENT

Halcyon Club Women to Begin
Program in Central Hall
Promptly at 6:45

By Howard Johnson

The annual reception given by the Halcyon Club of South Hall for members of the Famous Fifty is scheduled to begin promptly at six forty-five this evening in Central Hall. North Hall men look forward to one of the season's most prominent social functions with eager anticipation.

Each Famous Fifty member has received a 100 per cent participating certificate which announces that the bearer is "entitled to a dividend payable in recreation and amusement at the rate of 100 per cent for each minute of net attendance."

Get Certificate

This novel announcement further states that "the company agrees to set up an adequate reserve fund to take care of the dividend requirement. The holder hereof is entitled to his first dividend as soon as he arrives."

This reception, along with the annual reception given by the Famous Fifty, is considered by all dormitory students as one of the most enjoyable experiences of school life at W. M. C. and is a favorite topic of conversation and speculation.

One of the prominent numbers on the program is an incident which will, the Halcyonites promise, capture the entire attention of every guest. The reception is limited to the members of the school homes, the faculty and their families.

At the last regular meeting of their sorority, the Halcyonites were suddenly disturbed in the midst of their regular business by the ringing of a bicycle's bell in the vestibule outside the worship room. Wayne Hill, social secretary of the Famous Fifty, entered. He was clad in a Western Union uni- (Concluded on page 3)

HOME NURSING CLASS HOLDS GRADUATION AT L'AIGLON AUDITORIUM

An unusual program was given at the L'Aiglon auditorium last Sunday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock when the combined W. M. C. and Review and Herald Bands under the leadership of Prof. Victor Johnson gave an hour's concert, and the Home Nursing class of the Mt. Pleasant church held its graduating exercises.

After the conclusion of the band concert, the Home Nursing class under the leadership of Miss Esther Bergman gave a demonstration of hydrotherapy and other home nursing treatments. Dr. A. W. Truman, director of the Washington Sanitarium and Hospital, delivered a talk on the importance of health. At the conclusion of the program the eight members of the class who had taken the twenty-week course received their diplomas.

The Sligonian Platform to make Washington Missionary College an Ideal Educational Center.

1. A Sligonian Representative of Denominational Standards.
2. Student-Faculty Co-operation.
3. A Definite Program for Additional College Equipment.

A roaming student gathers no knowledge.

Nine tenths of what we call luck is pluck plus preparation.

We notice that the person who has little time accomplishes more than his neighbor who has much.

A MESSAGE

"The ideal of Christian character is Christlikeness. There is opened before us a path of continual advancement. We have an object to reach, a standard to gain, which includes everything good and pure and noble and elevated."—Counsels to Teachers, p. 365.

"Only as the higher life is brought to view, as shown in the teachings of Christ, can any learning and instruction rightly be called higher education; and only by the aid of the Holy Spirit can this education be gained."—Id., p. 375.

"They (Christians) may enjoy such recreations as will not dissipate the mind or debase the soul, such as will not disappoint, and leave a sad after-influence to destroy self-respect or bar the way to usefulness."—Id., p. 342.

The world is waiting for the man who will sweep a floor or dig a ditch as well as he would perform an operation or preach a sermon.

CLEAN UP

The twittering of birds and the flowers peeping through the softening earth reminds us that spring is here and with it comes the time to clean up. Clean up what? Our campus, of course, Yes, and not only to clean it up, but to keep it clean. Reserve our papers and orange peels for the wastebaskets.

Remember, too, that we have just finished our spring Week of Prayer, and that we have dusted out the corners of our hearts and made them clean once more. The problem now remains to keep them clean. Aren't we all willing? Hasn't the coming spring made you feel that way?

Great men are passing away one by one. Is the oncoming generation capable of filling their places?

LOOK AHEAD

And so another week of examinations passes into the pages of the great volume of history. For nine weeks the opportunity for preparation for the great event was extended to all. Followed the harvest. What did you reap?

May the promise of another opportunity cheer the hearts of the discouraged and inspire the successful to new heights of attainment. But remember that history is prone to repeat itself, and your success depends upon what you do now, for success depends upon preparation. Do you want to succeed? Then go to it!

Take stock in yourself! Raise your standard; with untiring perseverance work to reach it and the securities of your education will show not only a balance but an asset in the final examinations.

THE TOURIST

The lectures recently given by Dr. Thomas Green at the College and Sanitarium have aroused the interest of all who heard him, in the Red Cross work. Probably every one of these individuals would like to visit his headquarters at Seventeenth and D streets northwest.

The building itself is a beautiful marble structure of Corinthian design, and it stands a memorial to the great humanitarian work which is directed from within its walls. There is a register of 50,000 trained nurses in the building, 30,000 of whom are available at a moment's notice. There are two notable paintings in the building—the celebrated canvas "The Greatest Mother in the World" in the basement, and "Thine is the Glory" on the second floor. The latter is the picture of a soldier bowing reverently before a Red Cross nurse. Hundreds of photographs of Red Cross nurses were superimposed to make each face typical of these heroic women.

The greater part of the basement is devoted to a museum of Red Cross relics and models. Miniatures depict Red Cross service given in the World War. Equipment, typical relief supplies and gifts from grateful cities also attract much attention. On the third floor, miniatures of Red Cross work in disasters such as earthquakes, floods and tornadoes are exhibited with many devices used in the organization of the Junior Red Cross.

"Potomac Park" cars of the Capital Traction Company operate one block west of the building on Eighteenth street. When taking cars from Takoma Park transfer at Fifteenth street and New York avenue.

MISS FAYDETTE SMITH ACCEPTS CONFERENCE EDUCATION POSITION

Miss Faydette Smith, a member of the Class of 1930, has just accepted a position as Educational and Missionary Volunteer Secretary of the Tennessee River Conference.

The conference headquarters are located in Nashville, Tenn. Miss Nannie May Smith, the sister of Faydette, holds the position at the present time.

Miss Smith attended Southwestern Junior College from 1916-1920. After being graduated she taught for two years in Georgia and for one year in Mississippi. She then attended Southern Junior College in Tennessee.

Miss Smith taught for two years in Alabama and served for two additional years as preceptress of the Graysville Academy in Tennessee before she came to W. M. C. This is her second year here. She holds four teaching certificates given by the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

SLIGO CHURCH HEARS PROHIBITION DIRECTOR

Dr. McBride. "If it be of God; ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God." He said that prohibition is really the solution of the liquor problem, and is succeeding as well as national laws in general.

Canada is a wet country. Dr. McBride said that the liquor there seems to be controlling the government instead of the government controlling the liquor. The sale and use of alcoholic beverages have doubled. Dr. McBride told of his visit with a guide to the stills of many "blind tigers" and to the Canadian Government store near Niagara Falls where people can order liquor in large quantities without being molested.

"Let the true citizens of the United States not turn back the wheels of progress just to let the liquor traffic get ahead; let them not put Uncle Sam in the robe of a bartender," was his closing statement.

ACADEMY GRADUATES CHOOSE CLASS COLORS

The Academic Seniors under the leadership of Harold Bricker, class president, Reba Pulver, vice president, and Hyacinth Gossard, secretary treasurer, recently chose their colors, motto, aim and class flower.

For colors, the class chose maroon and corn; for the motto, "Earnest in Purpose;" for the aim, "On to Victory;" for the class flower, the yellow tea rose.

The words to the class song have been written by Reba Pulver, and the music by Florence Carlson and Harold Bricker in collaboration.

The class has just received pennants and arm bands. Members plan to begin wearing them shortly. No additional members have been added to the class roll.

MARK SHANKO DISCUSSES SABBATH AT BIBLE CHAUTAUQUA

"The Change of the Sabbath" was presented in a sermon by Mark J. Shanko in the Capitol Heights effort, Sunday evening, March 23. It was one of the last of the subjects planned to be taken up in the series.

Mr. Shanko used numerous quotations both from Catholic and Protestant writers which show that there is no Bible command for the change of the sanctification from Saturday to Sunday.

In closing, he declared, "You who have heard these lectures are no longer in darkness concerning God's requirements in regard to the keeping of His law and the observance of His Sabbath."

A call was then made for those who believe in the doctrine of the Bible and who determined to take their stand to keep the Seventh-day as the Sabbath for the first time to raise their hands. Two responded, and the student evangelists look forward to their thorough conversion to the truth.

Special music by the Misses Emma and Ruth Schifer was sung. The nurse, Miss Alberta Hilekman, read a story illustrating the evil effects on the body by the abuse of the stomach.

EXCHANGE

Milton College Review, Milton, Wis.

Milton will lose her president on June 30. Prof. A. E. Whitford, chief executive and professor of mathematics, presented his resignation to the Board of Trustees on Feb. 12. Although the board gave him a unanimous vote of confidence and asked him to reconsider, he declined. He intends to resume classroom work, which he says is much more to his liking, after a year of study at the University of Wisconsin. President Whitford took the president's chair in 1923 after serving two years as acting president.

Milton will also lose the head of her Department of Education, Prof. J. F. Whitford. He goes east to become the head of a new consolidated school system at Bolivar, N. Y. Professor Whitford has been with Milton for seven years.

Academy Forum, Union Springs, N. Y.

Thirty-five mixed voices of Union Springs Academy joined in the singing of the cantata, "Esther," in the school chapel on Feb. 22. The presentation was made under the direction of the Academy Music Department with Miss Evelyn Wegner as leader. Miss Ruth Wilson accompanied at the piano.

The Lancastrian, South Lancaster, Mass.

The annual reception for the five winning bands in the Lancastrian campaign was given by the five losing bands, Feb. 19. Two students received $5 in gold for securing 25 or more subs. Six pillow covers were awarded to competitors receiving 15 subs, and 13 were given free subscriptions to the Lancastrian for securing seven each.

The Collegian, Walla Walla, Wash.

The Feb. 27 issue of The Collegian was published entirely by a staff of academic students. This is the third time in the history of The Collegian that the academics have performed this feat. The regular staff uses this method to locate future editors.

Miss Ruth Rexroad of Washington, D. C., visited the Misses Lena and Juanita Howell last Sunday.

COLLEGE STUDENT TO TEACH GRADE SCHOOL

Miss Emma Schifer, who has been enrolled in the music course at W. M. C. this year, will leave Sunday morning to teach in the grammar school at Harrisburg, Pa.

Due to the fact that there is no teacher to be had at that school for the remainder of the current year, Prof. J. P. Neff, minister of education in the Columbia Union Conference, requested Miss Schifer to take charge of the school for the remainder of the year.

For two years Miss Schifer taught in elementary schools. One year she taught at Fleetwood, Pa., and the other year at a school at Ravenna, Ohio. She graduated from Mount Vernon Academy and took summer school work in the Normal Department of W. M. C.

Miss Schifer's home town is Bucyrus, Ohio. She plans to return for summer school work at W. M. C. in 1930 and then continue to teach during the next school year.

EXAMINATION ELIMINATES TWELVE MEMBERS FROM CLASS

The Introductory English class, which is tutored by Miss Beatrice Levine, has been subjected to another examination on the fundamental principles of good English.

In the recent examination twelve members were eliminated from the class. They are Henry Ewald, Charles Boyts, L. Orville Cohn, M. Eugene Evans, William Guthrie, Leon Robbins, Andrew Saphiloff, Laurence Senseman, Mark Shanko, John Stevens, and the Misses Esther Griner and Ella Walde.

Seven others remain in the class to continue their regular routine. Miss Levine meets her class every Monday afternoon in Miss Thelma Wellman's room. There are very few left in the class in comparison with the large group enrolled at the beginning of the school year.

THEOLOGIAN LECTURES ON NATURE OF SOUL

Elder W. R. French was the speaker at the Mt. Pleasant church, Sabbath, March 22. His sermon, "Immortality and the Destiny of the Wicked," was a continuation of his former sermon on the nature of the soul.

Elder French took his text from John 3:16, emphasizing God's gift which makes possible for us eternal life. He pointed out that God only has immortality, and that man can obtain that eternal life only by believing on the Son of God.

The speaker stated that there are two kinds of dead people: those who are physically dead, and others who are spiritually dead.

"The wicked will not burn eternally, but they will be destroyed eternally," Elder French declared. He pointed out that it is up to each one to accept now the gift of God's Son that he might have eternal life and escape the death of the wicked.

STUDENT GLEE CLUB SINGS AT HOMES OF AGED AS SUNSHINERS

On behalf of the Sunshine Band The Students' Association glee club gave programs at the John Dickson Home last Sabbath afternoon.

Four selections, "Nature's Praise of God," "The Blind Plowman," "I've Found a Friend," and "In an Old Fashioned Town" were sung by the club.

Interspersing selections were given by Miss Grace Nicola on the violin, Horton McLennan on his musical saw and by Prof. H. A. Miller and Prof. C. E. Weniger who sang the duet, "Will There Be Light?"

COLPORTEUR PROGRAM GIVEN BY Y. P. M. V.

The challenge of the colporteur work and the call for "Trail Blazers" was made to Missionary Volunteers last Friday evening, March 21, in Columbia Hall.

The origin, early progress and spread of the Seventh-day Adventist publishing work was related by Mary Ninaj. From a humble beginning the work has steadily progressed until now twenty-five hundred colporteurs scattered throughout the world combine to spread abroad almost five million dollars' worth of this literature printed by 57 publishing houses each year.

Some of the varied experiences of colporteur work were related by Russell Krick, a student colporteur. He said that while he was canvassing he was led to study the Bible more and to seek God more often in prayer in order to obtain success in his work.

Wesley Herbert, a former missionary in Africa, pointed out that all the qualities of a good leader are developed by colporteur work.

Children to Produce Health Publication

Health! Health! Health! This is the cry which comes from the fourth grade division of the normal training school. Enthusiasm on the subject has run so high that the class has decided to print a weekly health bulletin.

The youthful journalists have chosen as their editor, John Schmidt, as their associate editor, Crystalene Huse, and as news editor, Lorne Jones. The other members of the class are reporters for the health bulletin.

Every news item dealing with the subject of health will be closely noted by the reporters. The paper will be published weekly. Advice for the improvement of the bulletin is solicited.

The Sligonian will be the pattern for the journalistic work of the new health bulletin.

GEORGE HUSE VISITS RICHMOND EXHIBITION

Mr. George A. Huse, head of the College Press, visited the exhibition of all the modern equipment used in the printing art held at Richmond, Va., last Thursday.

Four representatives of the Review and Herald Publishing Association accompanied Mr. Huse on his trip to the exhibition held for all printing establishments in the eastern part of the United States.

The most modern printing machinery was on exhibition in the Mosk, the Masonic building, where the convention was held. Mr. Huse entered an estimating contest for men engaged in printing work, but did not remain to receive the results.

ASS'N BACKS ANNUAL IN SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN

Vinston Adams with all the copy in hand for the W. M. C. yearbook, declared that the book would go to the printers this week.

William Guthrie, business manager of The Sligonian, was given a standing vote of thanks by the Association for his faithful work in financing the school paper. Mr. R. L. Walin, treasurer of the College, also commended his work in a short talk.

CAMPUS NEWS

Mrs. Gladys Manchester Walin was the soloist at a meeting of the Washington Federation of Women's Clubs at the Hotel Roosevelt Monday morning by request of the organization.

Dr. Daniel Kress will show his anti-cigarette slides in the auditorium of the Maryland Park High School of Seat Pleasant, Md., this afternoon at 1:30.

Matthias Roth is back at school after an illness of several weeks.

Philip Bulgin, of South Africa, arrived at W. M. C. last week to take premedical work. He has been a student at the Helderberg College.

Snaps Taken

The Academic Seniors took snaps for the "Book of Golden Memories" last Monday afternoon.

The profits derived from the sale of second-hand library books amount to more than sixteen dollars. The money will be used for new books of popular interest. The books to be purchased are a biography of George Washington, two biographies of famous physicians and an illustrated book on Washington, D. C.

The 200's of the library books are being reclassified. A College pennant has been placed on one of the library walls.

Dr. A. W. Truman, Elder and Mrs. F. H. Robbins, Miss Esther Bergman, Miss Helen McElmurry and Miss Dorothy Bramble held a meeting in the Scranton church on Sabbath.

Student Teaches

Miss Frederika Dietz, a member of the 1930 Professional Class, taught the classes of Mrs. Charles Coggin at the Capital-Memorial church school March 21 and 24 while Mrs. Coggin was subjected to a tonsillectomy. Miss Dietz had full charge of the school, and taught all the subjects in grades two to six.

The fifth grade, which Miss Dietz teaches at the Sligo training school, was taught by Miss Harriet Baker in her absence.

Miss Alma Edwards was home for a visit, leaving Miss Mildred Gibson to teach her classes.

Girls of South Hall announce that their kitchenette is finally ready for use. Green is the predominant color in the room.

Organize Society

A new mother's society has been organized in Takoma Park for the purpose of developing children of school age in the community.

The aim of the new organization is to so develop the undernourished child that his strenuous school work will not weaken his physical strength throughout the remainder of his life.

The College Senior Class has added another member. He is Wilton Ashton, the tenth student to join.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Parsons from Shiloh, N. J., are visiting their daughters, Edna at the College, and Flora at the Sanitarium.

The Misses Dorothy Higgins and Estelle Wood visited Miss Wood's home in Baltimore over the week end.

President Visits

Prof. H. J. Klooster, president of Southern Junior College, conducted a reunion of all students at W. M. C. who are alumni of that school, at 8 o'clock Monday evening.

Prof. A. J. Tucker of Oakwood Junior College, in Huntsville, Ala., is a guest at the College.

Among guests from New Jersey this week-end have been the father and mother and other relatives of Curtis and Russell Quackenbush.

Miss Bessie Mount, of the Educational and Missionary Volunteer Department of Shanghai, China, was a visitor at the Normal Department last Friday.

DR. T. GREEN ADDRESSES MEDICAL SEMINAR ON FIRST AID

One hundred students crowded into the North Hall worship room last Friday evening, March 21, to hear the message of Dr. Thomas Green, director of the American National Red Cross, for the members of the Medical Seminar.

Dr. Green began by recounting the history of the nursing profession. It was Florence Nightingale and her thirteen companions who went to the aid of the dying soldiers of the Crimean War who did the pioneer work in forming humanitarian organizations.

Dr. Green told how representatives at the Treaty of Geneva in 1864 were finally persuaded to draw up and sign the document which grants neutrality to medical forces on the battlefields. Shortly after this victory the American Red Cross was formed.

Dr. Green said that his organization could now have 10,000 registered nurses fully equipped on any spot in the United States in seven days.

Misses Helen Marschner, Betty Quinn and Edith Crain spent Saturday evening at the home of Miss Quinn's aunt, Mrs. Lavinia Quinn of Takoma Park.

Elder W. R. French gave a short talk Monday evening on practical Christian living to Miss Ruth Gorndt's prayer band.

Miss Annabelle Wilson left for her home in Philadelphia last Friday. Miss Wilson was called home due to the death of her grandfather.

Mrs. George Griffin entertained her husband and her father, Mr. Charles Mead from Peekskill, N. Y., over the week end. Mr. Griffin plans to enroll here as a premedical student next year.
