SENIORS PLAN TRIP TO APPLE BLOSSOM FETE

WILL MOTOR TO S. V. A.

Plans for Commencement Week
Include Addresses by Two
Faculty Members

Leaving at 10 a. m. tomorrow morning for the apple blossom festival at Winchester, Va., the College Seniors of 1930 enter the closing round of their days at W. M. C.

An Easter entertainment last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Graham, with the Misses Eunice Graham and Ruth Conard as Senior hostesses, formally opened the social activities of the class. This was the first meeting of the class for other than business purposes since its organization in February.

To Visit Festival

The class outing, which is to be held at Shenandoah Valley Academy, New Market, Va., is in response to the invitation of the preceptress, Miss Rachel Christman, and the matron, Miss Beatrice Holquist, 1929 alumni of W. M. C. On the route, the Seniors will stop off to see the apple blossom festival, a yearly celebration at Winchester.

While at Shenandoah, a tour will be made through Endless Caverns, the caverns that have made the valley a favorite tourist resort. The trip to (See page 3, col. 1)

MISSIONARY PORTRAYS CUSTOMS OF INDIANS

Elder A. H. Williams, president of the Northwest India Union Conference, showed a series of stereopticon slides on the life and customs of the inhabitants of India in Columbia Hall last Friday evening.

Elder Williams stressed the fact that millions are living in humble native dwellings, propped up from the ground and without a single convenience common to all Americans.

The pictures represented many views of the natives who venerate idols and have peculiar ideas as to the method of worship which they believe to be in harmony with the gods of their land.

At the present time there are 13 physicians working in the Northwest India Union, operating training schools in which all students are self-supporting. Here students receive the training that will enable them to carry on the gospel work which has been started by the missionaries.

ELDER H. L. SHOUP WILL ADDRESS L'AIGLON BODY

"Conversion" will be the theme of the sermon delivered by Elder H. L. Shoup at the Mt. Pleasant church at Eighteenth street and Columbia Road next Sabbath morning. Elder Shoup is a member of the teaching force of the Theological Department.

The meeting place of the Mt. Pleasant church will soon be changed from the L'Aiglon auditorium to a church in Mt. Pleasant.

TYPISTS CONTEND AT EFFICIENCY EXHIBITION

Speed Typists Compete With
"Hit and Miss" Artists

Seventeen speedy typists clicked their fastest for fifteen minutes last Saturday night in the annual typewriting contest and entertainment in Columbia Hall. And when Mrs. Olive Rubottom announced the winners, the name of Miss Eunice Graham headed the list of professionals, with that of Miss Idamae Melendy a close second. Their speeds were 82 and 80 net words per minute respectively.

The typists were grouped according to their experience. In the senior class, M. Eugene Evans came first, with Miss Anna Wilson second. In the junior class, Miss Juanita Graham won, with Miss Anetta Truman second. Novice "A" honors were taken by Miss Violet Numbers, Miss Wilma Steinman running close behind. Leroy Rubottom and Dallas Youngs were first and second in the novice "B" class.

While the judges were correcting copy, one-minute tests and rhythm (See page 3, column 1)

MRS. NORMAN WILES ADDRESSES PREMEDICS

On Friday evening, April 18, Mrs. Norman Wiles, returned missionary from the New Hebrides Islands of the South Seas, told the story of her pioneer work to the Medical Seminar in North Hall.

Mrs. Wiles explained the part which the medical work takes in opening up new mission territory. As an illustration she told how Elder Parker won the confidence of the natives by using his medical kit.

The speaker mentioned her own experience on a lone island where she and Mr. Wiles erected a small bamboo home. She said that within a week's time natives were interested by reason of their picture rolls.

In conclusion Mrs. Wiles said, "Jesus risked all for us, and now shall we not give of our best to His service?"

SLIGONIAN CELEBRATES FOURTEENTH BIRTHDAY

INTERPRETS SCHOOL LIFE

The Sligonian has passed its fourteenth birthday. With this issue it is starting on its fifteenth year of interpreting school life at W. M. C. In its present form it represents the fulfillment of the ambitions of its founders in the days when the school was smaller and means were more limited.

The Sligonian was first issued in April, 1916, as a 28-page monthly magazine under the editorship of C. Harold Lewis, son of the late C. C. Lewis, for many years principal of the Fireside Correspondence School. The following year it contained 32 pages.

Due to the expansion of the College and increased student activities, the magazine was changed to a four-page, four-column, semimonthly newspaper (See page 3, col. 3)

PROF. R. EDWARDS WEDS GRADUATE NURSE IN TAKOMA

Miss Katherine Witmer and Prof. Robert Edwards were united in marriage at the Takoma Park Seventh-day Adventist church last Thursday evening. Elder J. L. Shaw officiated in the ceremonies. Four flower girls scattered rose petals before the couple as they marched down the aisle.

An entertainment at the home of the bride's parents on Fern avenue followed the wedding. Mrs. Gladys Price Sanders, from the Western High School in Washington, D. C., a former colleague of Prof. Edwards, sang "Because." Prof. H. A. Miller sang a duet with Mrs. Sanders called, "At Dawning." Prof. Miller also sang the solo, "For You Alone."

The bride was dressed in white satin and carried a veil of tulle fastened in the form of a cap. Edith B. Athey, from the Hamlin church in Washington, played the organ during the ceremony. The former Miss Witmer was graduated from the Washington Sanitarium and Hospital.

ENGLISH WEEK ENDED IN VARIED CHAPEL ADO

Pathfinders Condemn Culprit
in Court of Good English

Reciting the shortest chapter of the Bible, Psalms 117, seventeen students and teachers of Washington Missionary College, who came here from all parts of the world, spoke in eighteen different languages and dialects to open yesterday's chapel celebration of Good English Week.

The tongues ranged from those used in Iceland to those of South Africa, and from ancient Greek to modern English. They included French, Latin, Indian, Spanish, Chinese, German, Urdu, Greek, Danish, Russian, Bengali, Norwegian, Chinyanja, Swedish, Icelandic, Zulu, Bohemian and English. The language used by each was native to the one who spoke it in almost every instance.

Academy students presented an English court scene, prepared by their English instructor, Miss Rozetta Thurston, in which "Billy Brown," a resident of Takoma Park, was charged with the "heinous crime" of using (See page 3, col. 2)

COLLEGE GLEE CLUB VISITS MOUNT VERNON

The whole community near, and student body of Mount Vernon Academy, Ohio, turned out on Monday evening to hear The Students' Association Glee Club of W. M. C. sing on their second booster trip of the year.

In addition to singing a number of well-known songs, the Glee Club presented a unique selection composed by Prof. H. A. Miller and written by Edward Barnes on the way to the academy. The selection was entitled, "Come Down to Washington."

Earlier in the evening the men made a brief appearance before an audience of 600 at the state tuberculosis sanatorium. At both places the Glee Club selections were loudly applauded.

Wise Steeds Prove Cooperation Value

By J. L.

Three years ago I watched the finest demonstration of co-operation that I have ever seen. Unfortunately, it was not between human beings, but between two dappled horses at a state fair.

Several great landowners had entered their best teams in competition. Each team was hitched in turn to a machine that measured the pound-pull exerted.

The first team started well, but instead of pulling together, each had a plan of his own. First one and then the other plunged ahead, see-sawing back and forth for minutes, wearing themselves out and not getting anywhere.

Two dappled beauties were tested next.

"All right, boys, easy now." The teamster lifted the reins, two horses settled into harness, and the machine went forward an inch—a foot—a rod!

Co-operation is teamwork, where people hitch up and pull together toward a common goal.

DUAL MUSICAL CONCERTS FEATURE NEW YORK PIANIST, CHORUS

GLEE CLUB IS TO ASSIST

Ralph Christman Will Appear
Saturday Night; College
Choral Club Sunday

By Max Shoup

The biggest event of the year 1929-30 at W. M. C. will be presented by The Students' Association in the form of a dual musical program on Saturday and Sunday evenings next. Saturday night at 8 o'clock, Ralph D. Christman, piano virtuoso of New York City, will appear in conjunction with the Association Glee Club. On Sunday night the College Chorus will present the oratorio, "The Redemption," by Gounod.

Assists Orchestras

During the past winter Mr. Christman has played ten piano concertos with symphony orchestras. At the age of nine he began his study of music under Prof. H. A. Miller, who is now instructor in piano at W. M. C. After spending six years with Prof. Miller and one summer in Combs Conservatory of Music in Philadelphia, he studied with Von Sternberg. Mr. Christman was one of the three students chosen by Von Sternberg for his student recital. Since then he has studied with Joseph Hoffman.

The results of a year's practice will be measured on Sunday night when the College Chorus will sing "The Redemption." This world famous oratorio is noted more for its power and majesty than for beauty of melody. The chorus has worked hard to bring out the proper effects.

There are 70 members in the chorus (See page 3, col. 3)

COLLEGE SENIOR OF 1930 CHOSEN FOR MOUNT VERNON POST

Miss Roberta E. Bridgeforth, member of the Senior Class of 1930, will be preceptress of Mount Vernon Academy, Ohio, after she graduates on May 11. She will also teach Library Science and Literature.

Miss Bridgeforth has studied Dean Methods for boarding schools under Dean Minnie Abray, dean of women at W. M. C. She has been monitor in South Hall for almost three years.

English has been Miss Bridgeforth's major study at W. M. C. and she minored in Bible. She has spent much time in doing practice teaching in English in the academic English classes here.

Miss Bridgeforth graduated from Shenandoah Valley Academy in 1926. She finished her work there in three years. For one semester she served as reporter for The Sligonian, and for another as religious editor. In her new position Miss Bridgeforth will have charge of 60 school home girls.

She has served as a reporter and religious editor on The Sligonian and was editor for one year of the student publication at Shenandoah Valley Academy. She was W. M. C. representative at Columbia Union camp-meetings last summer.

THE MESSAGE

"Student's must be impressed with the fact that knowledge alone may be, in the hands of the enemy of all good, a power to destroy them."—Testimonies for the Church, Vol. IV, p. 422.

"The Christian alone can make the right use of knowledge."—Id., p. 427.

"Many students have made their studies the first great object, and have neglected prayer, and from neglect of religious duties they have returned to their homes backslidden from God."—Id., p. 425.

"A student who makes God his strength, who is becoming intelligent in the knowledge of God as revealed in His Word, is laying the foundation for a thorough education."—Id., p. 425.

"If youth could see that in complying with the laws and regulations of our institutions they are only doing that which will improve their standing in society, elevate the character, ennoble the mind, and increase their happiness, they would not rebel against just rules and wholesome requirements, nor engage in creating suspicion and prejudice against these institutions."—Id., p. 434.

WELL DONE

The News Writing class has performed an unusual feat. Six thousand words written in a few days by such a small group in such a creditable way is indeed commendable. Not only has their first attempt at publishing THE SLIGONIAN been a success, but it has afforded them a valuable experience in gathering and editing news, and in organization work.

THE SLIGONIAN staff appreciates the assistance given by members of this class in publishing the former issues of our school paper this semester.

OUR CAMPAIGNS

The Students' Association of W. M. C. is engaged in an unusual debt-reducing campaign. Not only is it laboring to reduce its own debt, but at the same time it is striving to support a College Institutional Relief program.

Such a program of enormous enterprises in one short school year, when diligently fostered, would be a credit to any institution. It is easy to incur a debt. It takes untiring, perspiring work to liquidate one.

The officers of the Association are following a noble policy in their spirited leadership of the student body in these drives. They deserve our hearty support.

FOR SPEED DEMONS

Since our campus drive has been repaired, the only regret of some automobilists in these parts is that the roadway is not banked to guarantee safety at higher speeds. We almost regret that the repairs have been made.

Just because there are no red stop lights to direct campus traffic does not mean that the principle of assuring pedestrians safety is unlike that of any great thoroughfare. There, the policeman stands with club in hand to curb the lawless. Such equipment is unnecessary where the golden rule should govern every human relation.

We advocate that vehicles entering the campus by the branch roadways at Central Hall and College Hall come to a full stop before crossing the walks. The safety of school children and College men and women passing to classes demands this courtesy and necessitates driving at the reasonable rate of 15 miles per hour.

THE TOURIST

No longer will the Supreme Court of the United States be convened in the small courtroom heretofore reserved for its sessions in the Capitol building. The nine justices are very elated since the Senate provided for a new home when it placed its "O.K." on the Keyes-Elliott bill last December.

In the rotunda of the Capitol is a model of the new Supreme Court building which is to be erected east of the Capitol and north of the Library of Congress within the next three years.

The building will be bounded on the west by First street, on the east by Second street, on the north by Maryland avenue and on the south by East Capitol street. Congress has appropriated $9,740,000 for the structure. The site will take in many historic buildings including the Old Stone Capitol.

The new building will face the Capitol and its architecture will harmonize with that structure and with the office buildings of Congress. It will be four stories high above the terrace on the west front and three stories high on the east front, making a continuous roof line.

The blueprints call for four general parts for the building: a spacious courtroom, the justices' room, office rooms and an adequate library. There will also be a number of conference rooms, rooms for lawyers and rooms for general use.

The construction work is in the hands of David Lynn, chief engineer at the Capitol. The plans for the building were drawn by Cass Gilbert.

RESERVATIONS REQUESTED

The business office announces that school home rooms can be reserved for the next school year by making a $10 deposit.

If a deposit is paid by May 11 by the persons now occupying the room, they may keep their own room. After that date any one may select any room not yet reserved.

Many students will take advantage of this opportunity of selecting a room. Especially is this true in North Hall where many men prefer the new rooms on the third floor. Corner rooms are also usually favored.

Seniors Relax From Strenuous Last Lap

The Seniors just couldn't resist the temptation to be "kids" once more before commencement, so they all made themselves at home in Miss Eunice Graham's parlor on Park avenue last Sunday night. As the seniors entered, Miss Graham and Miss Ruth Conard, the hostesses, presented each young lady with a red hair ribbon and each young man with a red Buster Brown necktie.

With appetites all keyed up like any youngster's, they sat down to a supper which they ate with their best manners. The table was decorated in crimson and white, the Senior Class colors, and the centerpiece was a large Easter basket filled with chocolate fowl, rabbits and eggs. The favors were small Easter baskets.

After supper they played such "kid" games as "Birds, Beasts and Fish," "Judge" and "My Grandmother Died." Mrs. C. E. Weniger won the prize in the jelly bean hunt.

To finish the evening properly, the Seniors all tried to outdo each other telling yarns in true youngster fashion. A toothache caused the absence of one class member.

ELDER W. R. FRENCH DEFINES PRIESTHOOD

"Christ is both King and Priest," declared Elder W. R. French in his sermon at Mt. Pleasant church last Sabbath morning. In his study of the priesthood, he discussed the identity of the four beasts of Revelation.

Elder French said that we are bidden to consider the priestly work of Christ, and that we should avail ourselves of the opportunity of seeking forgiveness while we still can.

"Christ is Priest after the order of Melchizedek," Elder French further stated. "He became High Priest after His incarnation." In discussing this work of the Redeemer, he pointed out that Christ has 24 associate priests and four kings who were all redeemed from this earth and taken to heaven as the first-fruits of the resurrection.

"The ancient camp of Israel was a type of the New Jerusalem," explained Elder French. He showed a chart of the tabernacle and the tribes of Israel, and showed how four priests and their 24 associates led the people as they assisted the high priest.

ENGLISH CLUB MEMBERS JUDGE 20 GROUPED MANUSCRIPTS

Twenty manuscripts were submitted by members of the English Club for its second annual contest held on Saturday evening, April 12.

The material was divided into three general groups. The first group included all essays; the second all forms of poetry; the third group consisted of 18 lyrics.

Miss Mary Ninaj was adjudged the winner in the essay group for her manuscript entitled "Red Candles." "Spring," a sonnet written by Miss Promise Kloss, was the winner in the second group. Robert Head and Jean Wingate won in the two divisions of the lyric group with "Conceit" and "The Picture" respectively.

The manuscripts had been voted to become the property of the English Club. They are to be bound and placed in the College Library for general use. The readers for the evening were the Misses Jean Wingate and Mabel Vandermark, and Russell Krick.

SEMINAR HOLDS FINAL EVENING CLASS PERIOD

At the final meeting of the English Seminar held Wednesday evening, April 16, Prof. C. E. Weniger, the instructor, announced that he intended to confer with all the Juniors majoring in English in order to assign each to a definite thesis subject to be written during the ensuing school year. This advanced assignment will enable Juniors to begin the necessary research work during the summer vacation period.

At this last session of the seminar all Juniors were invited to attend. They heard reports on the theses written by several Seniors on the nature of the manuscripts and on the methods used in forming original work.

COLLEGE SENIORS TO VISIT S. V. ACADEMY

Shenandoah will be made by auto, and the group will return early Sunday night. Prof. and Mrs. Charles E. Weniger will accompany the Seniors.

Plans for Commencement Week are practically complete. On the opening night, Thursday, May 8, the regular class night exercise will be given in a tribute program with "Mother" as the motif. Every member of the class will be on the program.

Elder W. R. French, instructor in Missions and Greek at W. M. C., will speak at the consecration service Friday evening, May 9. The baccalaureate address will be given Sabbath morning, May 10, by Elder J. L. McElhany of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Professor to Speak
Sunday evening, May 11, is commencement night. The address will be given by Prof. Charles E. Weniger, head of the college English Department. President Hamilton is to present the diplomas and confer the degrees.

Accommodations for relatives and friends of W. M. C. students are being secured for Commencement Week. Several rooms in the College homes will be available to guests, besides rooms in the community that have been listed. A nursery for the convenience of parents with small children will be provided during the exercises of the week.

SLIGO CHURCH HEARS ELDER J. S. WASHBURN

In his sermon to the Sligo church on Sabbath, April 19, Elder J. S. Washburn, now connected with the Mt. Pleasant church, enumerated many of the experiences related to the story of moving General Conference headquarters of Seventh-day Adventists from the West to Washington, D. C.

In 1902 a delegation was sent to New York City to find a suitable place for the headquarters, but Ellen G. White sent three letters requesting leaders to locate in Washington, D. C. Elder Washburn told of the great reduction of the cost of the 50 acres which now form our campus.

One of the greatest proofs of the Spirit of Prophecy in the latter days was portrayed when the grounds previously mentioned were bought for $6,000 or exactly one tenth of the original value.

demonstrations were given. Laurence Stone, veteran of the "hunt and peck" system, competed with students of less than one year's training in an exhibition. Mr. Stone won the first test, writing a memorized sentence, but when it came to writing unfamiliar material, he was swamped.

President H. H. Hamilton presented 29 pins and medal awards and 50 certificates won by typing students this year. He also presented 25 certificates and three pins to students in the Shorthand Department.

bad English. The defendant, after a severe grilling made by the prosecuting attorney, was sentenced to two years of hard study in English sentence structure and to be "banished from the Kingdom until it be accomplished." "Predicate" and "Subject," and "Dr. Pronoun" and Mrs. Adjective" were some of the witnesses who testified against the accused.

The remainder of the chapel period was devoted to a spelling match in which two representatives from each academic and college class and the faculty participated. Miss Eunice Graham, college senior, was the winner, with Arthur Henriksen, college Junior, a close second. Some of the misspelled words were "dactyl," "ogee" and "immiscible." Miss Carje Denny collected 41 tickets for grammar errors and L. O. Coon, 10.

in December, 1925. In 1927 another column was added, and its size was increased proportionately.

With the adoption of the new Students' Association constitution at the end of the last semester of the school year of 1928-29, it took the form of a weekly newspaper with a mid-summer number to keep its readers in touch with all the news while it was still fresh. The organization of the staff was also perfected.

Since then its financial stability has been established, and it has become a member of the National Scholastic Press Association. With the efficient aid of the English Department, which has given students valuable training in news writing, its standing in the ranks of college publications has steadily been improved.

The constant aim of The Sligonian, as stated in the first issue, has been "to bind the cords of fellowship about the teachers, the undergraduates and the alumni of our College; to give the news about everybody and everything pertaining to our Alma Mater; and to bring to the light of day the brightest and best literary efforts of aspiring young authors and journalists."

TOAST-- a healthful Food!

You can serve toast every day of the week! Buttered or sprinkled with cinnamon it is delicious for breakfast. French toast or toasted sandwiches for lunch will enable you to prepare "a meal a minute."

Toast, made from white or whole wheat bread, is a recognized healthful food. When made the Electric Way—right at your table—it retains all its flavor and goodness. It comes out of your electric toaster evenly browned and with just the degree of "crunchiness" you like.

Southern Inhabitant Explores New Home

The door is ajar as with cautious peepings and mutterings he approaches. The room is empty, so drawing himself up to a full 24 inches of height, he enters. Ah! there's a shelf and some paper parcels that need attention. Nimble fingers hastily unwrap one, then another, till—hark! some one is coming. The door swings open, and a raucous voice demands, "Hey! what are you doing here?" Thump to the floor goes the wreck of a grapefruit and half a dozen eggs, and scattering footsteps beat a hasty retreat.

A naughty child, you say? No, just Tako, spider-monkey mascot of the Takoma Watch Co., in an investigative mood.

Two months ago he scrambled and swung in South American jungle trees, untamed and cantankerous. Now trust has succeeded fear, and submission, retaliation and bright eyes watch several members of a higher order of the species, while he endeavors to imitate their actions.

The young men's cooking class of W. M. C. recently received a lesson in the art of cake making. The class had unusual success. There were no failures in the making of the cakes. Miss Anna Roedel, the instructor of the class, was thrilled to see every cake come out of the oven successfully in the first attempt.

The cakes were covered with a white flaky icing which helped to further the beauty and the taste of the man-made pastry. The class plans to have a picnic lunch along the Sligo during one of the regular Sunday afternoon class periods. Another class period will be given over to the preparation of frozen desserts.

CAMPUS NEWS

William A. Bryan, a former Mt. Vernon student, spent the week-end visiting with Carl Laubach and other friends at the College. Mr. Bryan is contemplating taking the nursing course at the Sanitarium early in June.

Mrs. K. Hagen, mother of Miss Dorothy Hagen, is spending several weeks at the Sanitarium recuperating from a sudden illness. Mrs. Hagen is a resident of Pittsburgh.

Elder J. W. Westphal, of Buenos Aires, Argentina, is visiting the Washington Sanitarium and Hospital to improve his health.

Frederick Ewald is visiting his brother, Henry, at the College this week.

Install Bells

A complete set of Edwards bells is being installed throughout the buildings on the campus, replacing the old single-gong bells. The new set is composed of 24 double-gong bells which are being placed in the halls to eliminate the small buzzers formerly operated in each classroom.

Mary Glenwright, class of '22, alumna of W.M.C., is visiting her home in Takoma Park. Miss Glenwright is also a graduate of the Washington Sanitarium school of nursing. She is employed as conference nurse for Ohio.

A table, exclusively for the use of senior nurses, has been decorated in their class colors, blue and white, in the Sanitarium cafeteria.

Mourn Loss

W.M.C. joins with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Metcalfe in their grief over the death of the mother of Mrs. Metcalfe, Dr. DeCastro. Mrs. DeCastro was a patient at the Sanitarium. She died early Sunday morning. The body was sent to the home of the deceased at Erie, Penna.

Miss Beverly-June Pruette visited her aunt in Pennsgrove, N. J., for Easter day.

The Misses Dorothy Koeppen and Anna Fuchs, former W. M. C. students, visited the College last Sabbath.

The Misses Prue Halstead and Iva Fairchild sang two duets at the Easter service of a Methodist church in Washington, Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Bullock entertained her parents and sister over the week-end.

Lilies Bloom

South Hall has many fragrant lilies blooming indoors. Miss Joyce Doe received a large package of Bermuda Easter lilies from her parents last week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Hershberger, with their family, visited friends in Takoma Park and at the College last week. They were here to attend the wedding ceremony of Robert Edwards.

Miss Mildred Hare, of Philadelphia, Pa., visited friends at the College over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Miller, former students of W. M. C., visited Miss Frederika Dietz, the sister of Mrs. Miller, last week.

Elder Speaks

Elder J. L. Shaw, treasurer of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, was the speaker in chapel Friday morning. He praised the school for its rapid progress along all lines, and presented the need for workers in homelands and abroad.

Shrubs have been planted around the area of the new fish pond between Columbia Hall and South Hall. The work is being done under the supervision of Mrs. A. W. Spalding.

The Oakwood Junior College male quartet entertained Sanitarium patients on Saturday evening, at 7 o'clock, in the main parlor. At 8 o'clock they gave a program of negro spirituals at the Takoma Park church.

Misses Edith McPherson and Margaret Perkins were guests of Miss Bertha Evans Sabbath evening.

MEDICAL CENTER DRAWS MANY TO EASTER CEREMONIES

Many W. M. C. students were among the thousands who visited the Walter Reed Hospital, the army medical center of Washington, for the annual Easter sunrise service held in the garden amphitheater.

The program began at 7:30 in the morning with a concert of sacred music played by the United States Army Band under the direction of W. J. Stannard. A double quartet sang several times to the accompaniment of the band.

Prayer was offered by Dr. George B. Dean. Scripture readings were given, and the "Hallelujah Chorus" and "Hosanna" were sung by the double quartet. "The Empty Tomb," a tableau, was given while the "Hallelujah Chorus" was sung.

The Boy Scouts of America served as ushers. The program was broadcast by the National Broadcasting System.

W. M. C. STUDENT IS FOUNDER OF CHURCH

A small Seventh-day Adventist church was raised eight years ago by Miss Iris Bryne, a W. M. C. student, after she distributed tracts and gave a number of Bible readings in Phillipsburg, N. J.

While she was engaged in the colporteur work in the state of New Jersey, Miss Bryne's mother sold a book, but could find no time to deliver it. Miss Bryne made several visits to the home, and left a tract each time.

After visiting the home for several weeks, she secured permission to give Bible readings. The group which studied with Miss Bryne was baptized by Elder Schacht of the Jersey City church.
