TERMS: 25 CENTS A YEAR, IN ADVANCE.

THE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CAMP-MEETING.

TO BE HELD IN AMES, IOWA, MAY 31 TO JUNE 10, 1900.

THE annual camp-meeting of the Iowa Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists will be held at College Park, Ames, Iowa, May 31—June 10. Ames is but a few miles from the center of the State; and a beautiful shaded park, one mile west of the station, has been offered, free of charge, for the meeting. A street car line runs from the depot along the side of the grounds. Ask to be put off at the camp-grounds, and you will have no trouble. The camp-meeting begins Thursday evening, May 31, and will be preceded by a workers' meeting, beginning May 28. This short meeting before the camp-meeting is especially designed for a preparation of the laborers employed by the Conference, for the most successful spiritual labor during the camp-meeting, also to settle all financial accounts with the laborers for the past year. The Seventh-day Adventists do not depend upon special donations, collections, or assessments, for means to pay their laborers, neither do they uphold the appointing of questionable pleasure gatherings, with the raising of these necessary funds in view. As a people they accept the Bible plan, plainly laid down, both in the Old and New Testaments, of freely returning to the Lord the tithe, or tenth, of their increase. See Lev. 27:30-32; Num. 18:21; Mal. 3:8-10; Matt. 23:23; 1 Cor. 9:13, 14, etc. Add-the comfort and convenience of all who come upon the grounds. It is the custom of this people to hold the business sessions of the Conference, Missionary Department, and Sabbath-school Association, in connection with the State camp-meeting. Delegates elected by the different churches consider all questions that pertain to the different branches of the general work. These sessions are interspersed with daily sermons, Bible studies, question meetings, and other devotional meetings. For the hours appointed, see the daily program on page three.

Prominent laborers from abroad will attend this yearly gathering. Regular meetings will be held every day in the English, German, and Scandinavian languages. The entire force of ministers, licentiate, and Bible workers of the Iowa Conference, are expected to be upon the grounds during the meeting. Every precaution will be taken to keep the grounds neat, clean, and pleasant. The camp-meeting will present the appearance of a veritable cotton city, numbering about two hundred tents in all, varying in ed to this, donations and thank-offerings are gladly received.

The preparations for the camp-meeting are in the hands of committees, who will arrange every part with a view to size from the large pavilion, 80 ft. x 120 ft., down to the common family tents, which are rented for use during the meetings at reasonable rates.

The Seventh-day Adventists are a strictly temperance people, making health and temperance a part of their faith. This led in the early days of their organization to the establishing of sanitariums and health resorts, where these principles could be taught and carried out in the treatment of disease. These institutions have multiplied, until from the parent one at Battle Creek, Michigan, they have become planted in nearly every part of the world. A corps of competent nurses from the Iowa Sanitarium at Des Moines will be upon the grounds, and will give baths, massage, and other treatments, in tents especially prepared, at greatly reduced rates during the time of the meetings. Friends visiting, or those encamped upon the grounds, are especially invited to visit our Sanitarium tents.

CLARENCE SANTEE,
Pres. Iowa Conf. of S. D. Adventists.

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS.

THERE are two features in the denominational name of this people. They, in harmony with many in nearly all denominations, believe the law of God to be binding upon all in all ages, and that it is unchangeable. Hence they observe the seventh day of the week (Saturday) as the Sabbath. And the term "Adventist" signifies their faith in the near, personal advent, or appearing, of the Saviour, when he comes to this world "with all the holy angels," to reward his faithful children.

They have no faith in setting times, such as days, months, or years, for that event to occur; and a person can not be in harmony with their faith and believe in "time setting." They do believe, however, that the generation now living will not all pass away until our Saviour shall come. This denomination, though arising since 1844, now numbers about fifteen hundred organized churches, with half as many unorganized companies. Their public laborers number about fourteen hundred, in the different departments of ministerial and missionary work.

Their first sale of pamphlets and tracts was in 1854. Since that time they have sold more than ten million dollars worth of books, pamphlets, and tracts. They are printing more than forty-two different papers, besides the Conference State papers, about one-half of which are in foreign tongues. They are now printing books in thirty-five different languages. They have seven large denominational schools located in this county, one in Australia, one in South Africa, and one in Denmark. From an early date in their work the holding of camp-meetings has been established among them, not for notoriety nor display, but for the purpose of earnestly seeking God together and of forming plans for more acceptable service, and as a means of saving sinners and refreshing and strengthening those who know God. The camp-meeting at Ames is appointed with these objects in view. We cordially invite all to meet with us and enjoy this season together.

CLARENCE SANTEE.

CONDITIONS OF REDUCED RATES TO THE CAMP-MEETING.

THE usual reduction to one and one-third fare for the the round trip, on the certificate plan, has been granted by the Western Passenger Association to those attending our annual Conference and camp-meeting at Ames, May 31—June 10, on the following conditions:—

A receipt must be taken from the ticket agent for each ticket purchased for going passage. No receipt will be honored that bears date before May 31 or later than June 6. No reduction will be made where the local one-way rate is less than fifty cents. Those who will have to travel over more than one line of railway, and so cannot buy a through ticket to the place of meeting, must be sure to take a receipt for every ticket purchased, each receipt to cover only one single-trip ticket.

When the above conditions have been complied with, and one hundred or more such certificates have been presented and signed by the secretary of the meeting, and also by the joint agent for the railroads, the holders of such certificates will be returned at one-third fare, not later than three days after the close of the meeting.

C. F. STEVENS.

THERE is no fee charged for admission to any of the meetings. Come and bring your friends. Special services for the public will be held at 11 A. M., 2:30 and 7:30 P. M. Let your children come to the children's meeting at 8 A. M. and 5:30 P. M.

CITIZENS of Ames and vicinity, as well as all who come from a distance, will be welcomed, and made as comfortable as possible.

ABUNDANT pasture for teams has been secured near the grounds.

WORKERS' MEETING, May 28-31, 1900.

STATE CAMP-MEETING, Ames, Iowa, May 31-June 10.

"We will go into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool."

MAIL for the campers should be addressed to Ames, Iowa, in care of College Park.

PROMPTNESS in attending the services will contribute much to the success of the meetings.

THE street cars will transfer all from the depot or central part of the city, to the north side of the grounds.

ALL having any business to transact should call between meetings at the Office tent of the Iowa Conference.

FOR all who wish to avoid the trouble of boarding themselves, liberal hygienic meals will be furnished at a reasonable rate.

AT the reception tent visitors will be made welcome. Elderly people and tired mothers are especially invited to come in and rest.

CARE will be taken to maintain perfect order on the grounds at all hours. Promptness and regularity characterize all of the arrangements.

REGULAR services will be held at the workers' meeting. Forenoon services, 9:00-12:45; afternoon, 2:00-5:00, with intermissions. Preaching every evening. All are invited.

A SPECIAL effort will be made in behalf of the youth and children. Daily meetings will be held by competent and experienced instructors, in a tent especially provided for that purpose.

SAMPLES of the Iowa Sanitarium Bakery health foods will be on exhibit, and orders received. Sanitarium supplies, such as stomach pumps, hot water bottles, and syringes, will be for sale.

THE principal services will be held in the large pavilion pitched on the grounds. Other meetings will be held in the smaller pavilions. Good music will be a pleasing feature of all the services.

CALL at the book-stand and examine the large assortment of Bibles and religious literature. Books, pamphlets, and tracts treating upon almost every subject of religious interest, will be displayed, and periodicals given away upon application.
