Jamaica Youth's Camp A Real Success

THE FIRST YOUTH'S CAMP to be held in Jamaica got underway in Kingston August 23-30. The Boy Scout grounds on Windward Road proved a very fine site for this special occasion, and 53 young people were in attendance — 35 came from the West Jamaica Mission and 18 from the East Mission. All reported that they had a very fine time.

Elders Barclay, Butherus, Earl Parchment and a number of our other workers acted as Counsellors and carried the heavy responsibilities of the Camp.

The following testimonies from young people in attendance proved that a good time was had by all and that Youth's Camps are here in Jamaica to stay.

"It was an unmerited honour extended to me when I was invited to this special camp meeting, and what a pleasure! This branch of our wonderful organization is a very strong evidence to my mind that God is cutting His work short and finishing it in righteousness. Camp life to me is the nearest example of the perfect code of right living." - G.J.W.

"Never before in the history of our M. V. Department has there ever been such a great practical experience of Christian living as it is doing this week in camp life . . . Of course, there is a great deal of truth in this that our social, physical and spiritual lives have been improved. Thus, by God's grace we are prepared to go forward to be an ideal in God's purpose for us." M. G.

"At camp we are in the avenue for heaven. As we follow our network programme promptly we grow daily to perfection as we subtract and add the necessaries.

Every step of the way we learn a lesson . . . An annual camp would be welcome." I. T.

"I am indeed grateful for this youth's camp. This week of camping has drawn my mind closer to God especially by the things of nature. I have not seen or heard of any camp of this sort and it would be a pleasure to me to be at the next Youth's Camp." W. J.

"The lessons learnt at this Camp—prayer habit, patriotism, promptness, industry, thoughts from nature, sociability and sportsmanship—will long linger in my memory as a monument and thus I am strengthened for the future pilgrimage until I pitch my tent in the Heavenly Canaan." O. W. C.

"My week of camping has drawn me closer to God and with His help I will serve Him to the end." C. M.

"From the rising whistle at sun up until the taps whistle at about nine o'clock the camp days were filled with new experiences for all of us. We appreciated the careful planning of those in charge. All the instruction we received was beneficial and inspiring. Above all, we feel that we were drawn closer to God." J. D. P.

"I have come to the conclusion by the smooth way everything runs that this was the best time I have ever enjoyed on this planet and hope that

Meet Our Workers

We take great pleasure in presenting as our worker-for-the month Miss E. W. Parchment who is well known to the treasurers and church clerks of the East Jamaica Mission as well as many of our other VISITOR readers. Miss Parchment is the Secretary-Treasurer of the East Jamaica Mission and she has been connected with the work in Jamaica for many years where she has served most efficiently and faithfully.

Here and There Over the Union

Very recently the Island of Jamaica was graced with the presence of Elders Wickman and Lindbeck who are in charge of the Radio work and Bible School work in the General Conference and Inter-American Division respectively. During their brief stay, they were able to conduct a number of rallies in different places, and they gave some very valuable hints and suggestions that will mean much for the advancement of the 20th Century Bible School work.

The British West Indies Union in general and the Cayman Islands Mission in particular are happy to welcome Elder and Mrs. O. V. Schneider who recently arrived in the island en route to the Cayman Islands. Elder Schneider is the new director of the Cayman Islands Mission and we wish them the abundant blessing of God as they take up their new duties.

The Bahamas Junior Academy opened its doors, after the summer vacation, for over one hundred twenty-five students and pupils. Others have enrolled since the opening date, September 6, until now the three large class rooms are filled nearly to capacity. More seating will soon be necessary if still others decide to take advantage of the good things the school has to offer.

A cable just received from Pastor W. H. Waller indicates that they are en route to Nassau and will be arriving soon. After spending a couple of days in Nassau, he will continue to Jamaica to bring their furniture and other effects to their new field of labour, while Mrs. Waller will remain in Nassau and begin her work in connection with the Mission School. Elder Waller has accepted a call to serve as Pastor of the Shirley Street Church as well as to head up a nearby district in the Island of Eleuthera. A hearty welcome is extended this couple as they join the mission family in the Bahamas.

Pastor C. F. Edwards, who has served in various sections of the Bahamas Mission for the past seven years as District Pastor, has accepted a call to do similar work in the East Jamaica Mission. He, with his wife and two children will be leaving for their new field very soon. We wish them God's continued blessing in their new field.

Owen P. Jones, Pastor of the Grants Town Church, reports his church has reached and exceeded its Big Week goal. On a recent "field day" the Church nearly raised its goal through the sale of the "Big Week" Crisis books. It was a most successful endeavour and many, who had never sold a book, were present for the early morning devotion which preceded the day's work, and then went out to meet with real success. We congratulate Brother Jones and the members of the Grant's Town Church for being the first church in the Bahamas to have reached its 1948 Big Week Goal!

Mrs. Alyce Jones is giving invaluable help in the Bahamas Mission Office these days. As a result of her efficient stenographic work the entire field will be better served. Sister Jones taught several Secretarial courses at the Mission School last year.

We were very happy to welcome Brother and Sister Nebblett from the Turks and Caicos Islands back to Jamaica a few days ago. They brought good reports of the work over there. Sister Nebblett and their three children will be remaining on in Jamaica permanently while Brother Nebblett has returned to the Salt Cays Mission to carry on his work there.

Pastor Earl Parchment, Departmental Secretary of the West Jamaica Mission, accompanied Brother Nebblett back to the Salt Cays Mission where he will be holding meetings for a few weeks.

On September 19, Mr. O. S. Rugless, present Dean of Men at the West Indian Training College, was united in marriage to Miss Admah Haffenden, a former student of the College. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Rugless the abundant blessing of God.

Pastor L. Gouldbourne had an interesting week-end September 25-26 over in Hanover. At Rejoin where our layman, Brother Arthur Heron, held an effort, we organized a church with 22 members, and they have a Sabbath School of 52. They have already secured a spot where an improvised building, made of bamboo is being used for worship. These new members have also made enough benches to supply their needs and bought a new 500 candle power lantern for night meetings.

At Pondsides in the same parish Pastor Gouldbourne held an effort which was very successful. At this place we have also organized a church of 26 members. There is quite an opposition from the other churches around. They are doing all that is possible to prevent us obtaining a spot of land for the erection of a church. The members are making it a subject of prayer asking God to intervene so that the plans of the enemies might be overthrown. These believers have secured lumber and roofing for their building, hoping that the Lord will direct them to the right spot to build.

At Flower Hill a Stone-laying ceremony took place on Sunday evening. Brother W. Osborne, one of our teachers from the West Indian Training College, delivered the sermon. There was a large gathering especially from our various churches of the Hanover District. The brethren of Flower Hill instead of repairing their old building have decided to build a new church on a better site.

On Sabbath, September 25, another new Sabbath School was added to the mission at St. Toolies in Manchester. Brother S. Francis accepted the truth a few years ago by reading the book "Bible Footlights", and by his effort brought into the message his wife, his mother, two brothers, and two sisters. Not being satisfied with only his family, Brother Francis has been working for his neighbours and now as a result we have this new school of 24 members.

Pastor Lindo is anticipating a rich harvest of souls from his effort at Race Course, where the interest is very good indeed and many have already taken their stand for the Sabbath. We look forward to a strong church in this area where for some years we have had little more than the name of a church.

Teachers Enjoy Summer School At W. I. T. C.

What was perhaps the most intensive Summer School programme in the history of West Indian Training College, closed on Sunday, September 12. Teachers from our S. D. A. elementary schools and the Kingsway High School were in attendance.

From day to day, during the morning hours as well as the afternoon, the wheels of learning kept up their ceaseless turning. "This is no easy programme," one student was heard to say. The ones who taught these summer classes could have said the same thing with reasonable justification, but they didn't. All the teachers did was to keep on passing out bits of knowledge to the interested learners.

During this period the subjects taught the time will not be long until we will have another camp." V. T.

"The camp which was held on the Doncaster commons, Windward Road, Kingston, from the 23rd. to the 30th. of August, 1948 has been a great blessing to me as an individual and to all the campers." R. A.

"One of the finest and most enjoyable times I have ever had in all my life is this week which I have spent at your M. V. Youth's Camp. This camp has been to me a school. I have learnt many things which I am sure, if put in practice by God's help, will fit me for better service in the Master's vineyard and at last to be ready for transport when Jesus comes."

—C. G. C.

"Truly we can all say with the Psalmist David, 'How good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!' This camp is the only place I have ever visited that I saw no trace of evil. Surely, if the devil was not dead he must have been on vacation." R. D.

"One of the most thrilling and enjoyable recreations I have ever spent since I have been to school in Jamaica is the Youth's Camp. This is the first of its kind in Jamaica and I am proud to be one of the happy recipients. I have had the privilege of learning and participating in various activities which I shall endeavour to keep in mind in order to help other youth and juniors that they too may enjoy camp life." E. M.

These are just a few of the many testimonies that we have had and we trust that we will be able to have some more Youth's and Junior Camps in Jamaica in the future.

Publishing Departmental News

Some of our magazine star-lights of the East and West Jamaica Missions are the Misses Mavis Swaby, Pauline Deane, Ione Dunn, D. McGill, M. Pasard, Carmen Coley, Mrs. B. Bowlin, Ivy McKenzie, Sybil McCurdy, Edna Simmonds, A. Smith and Beryl Tinker. The crash of the public's atomic "No" and "not interested" cannot stop them. Their battle cry is 'On through the impasse with God and with blood, sweat and tears; we'll make a bridge with our dead bodies rather than give in.'

Hats off to Elders B. E. Hurst and W. U. Campbell for their gallant leadership and team work. In eight weeks of slugging canvassing they led their student armies in an order-taking drive of nearly £3,200 and in a delivery victory of over £1,500. Floods and cessation of estates held them up, but they hammered through their Normandy to victory. Their regular armies softened up the ground before by a delivery victory up to July of over £3,440.

Because of limitations of the human mind we often forget to say a "thank you" to those who mean so much to the work. The Publishing Department of the Union joins with their fellow-workers to say a million thanks to our loyal stenographers who silently work by our desks and typewriters to make possible the victories of the church of God. May God bless each one.

You will rejoice to know that Jamaica bought more books from the Pacific Press up to July than any other mission or conference in the Inter-American Division. During this period we also bought a fair quantity from the Stranborough Press, England. The above achievement is the result of consecrated leadership particularly by the Bible House personnel and also by the colporteurs individually and also our twenty-five sister conferences and missions of the Division. Truly even dry figures can be an inspiration.

Pre-Nursing Course Offered At W. I. T. C.

The West Indian Training College has now an enrolment of 262 for the year 1948. We are grateful for the steady continual growth of our enrolment. We are making plans to make this College even a better school in the future for our youth of the Caribbean area.

The College Board voted a few days ago to add the Pre-Nursing Course to our college curriculum, so we are inviting all the young people who plan to take the nursing course who have finished the Senior Cambridge or its equivalent to write for an application form immediately as our space is limited. Your application should come to us within the next two weeks.

The opening date of school for next year is January 4, 1949. We hope to see many new faces with us on that date.

May the Lord direct you in your plans, so that you can be with us for the opening day of school.

Change in Union Departmental Leadership

It is with sincere regret that we announce the resignation of Elder W. L. Barclay as our Union Home Missionary and Missionary Volunteer Secretary. For some months Pastor Barclay has been suffering healthwise and the doctors have recommended his return to the homeland for six months complete rest and then to assume less rigorous responsibilities.

Elder and Mrs. Barclay have rendered very fine service to the British West Indies Union for the past two years, and it is with much regret that we lose them from the field. However, our prayers will go with them that the Lord will speedily restore Brother Barclay to his health and strength once again.

We feel sure that the Advent believers throughout the British West Indies Union will be interested to learn that Pastor H. D. Colburn, President of the Bahamas Mission, has accepted the call of the Union Committee to assume Elder Barclay's responsibilities. Elder Colburn is a man of long experience and the Lord has blessed his ministry in the Bahamas Mission, so we feel sure that he will bring real strength to our departmental programme in the Union. Elder and Mrs. Colburn will be taking over their new responsibilities as early as possible.

OBITUARIES

Sister Ann Brown, a member of the Asia church, passed away on the 13th of July 1948. Her sincere Christian life was a witness to the community. She awaits the call of the Life-Giver. Funeral services were conducted by brethren E. Palmer, W. Bernard, and J. Kennedy.

Sister Rose Mertilla Campbell was ushered into eternity on the 12th of August 1948. She was baptized in 1944, married in September 1947 and passed away in 1948. The influence of her life still lives.
E. M. Bowen, Church Clerk.

Soul Winning News

Sowing the Seed Beside All Waters

Gathered by the shores of the Caribbean at Pedro in the parish of St. Elizabeth on Sunday morning September 26, was a very large crowd. The people listened eagerly yet patiently while Pastor A. R. Haig explained from God's Word some of the reasons why God's people should follow their Saviour in baptism. After the address, the baptismal ceremony was performed by the writer. At the close of this ceremony, an appeal was made and five individuals raised their hands expressing their desire to go forward in the next baptism which is scheduled for December 25. It is encouraging to know that the three baptisms that have taken place in this area came about as a result of the hard labours of the members of the Newell Seventh-day Adventist church. These brethren have worked untiringly and are now rejoicing in the fruits of their labours. It is the plan of the brethren at Pedro to erect a building in order that they can have a place of their own in which to worship God after the dictates of their consciences. Already, we have gathered a large portion of the materials for the building.

The message had been sounded in that place many years ago but seemingly, the hearts of the people were hardened. However, the seeds sown then were not entirely lost. Sister Jem Parkins who was a dweller there but who is now residing in British Honduras, heard the message preached in those days. She accepted the glad tidings and is now an ardent believer in the Third Angel's Message doing all that she possibly can for its culmination. Surely, the Lord takes care of the seed when it is sown and He will bring forth results in His own good time. Not only in Pedro have the brethren of the Newell church been labouring but as a result of the efforts that some have put forth, a Sabbath school is to be organized within the next few weeks at Burnt Savannah in St. Elizabeth.

After the baptism at Pedro, Pastor Haig and the writer hastened on to Vaughnsfield in St. James where we conducted another baptismal service. This baptism came about as a result of the labours of Pastor R. H. Pierson and members of the Vaughnsfield church.

After celebrating the ordinances of the Lord's House with the brethren at Vaughnsfield, we proceeded on to Cold Spring where a neat little church has been erected and which was dedicated on that afternoon to the honour and glory of God. The dedicatory service was conducted by Pastor Haig and the writer. Pastor Pierson who spent some time in that vicinity, manifested his personal interest in bringing about the completion and dedication of this beautiful little chapel.

It will interest our readers to know a little of how the work started in this place. In 1946, Brethren Haughton and Knott of the Vaughnsfield church started a layman's effort but they had very little results. One Sunday afternoon, Brother Haughton after preaching to the people made an appeal and asked if there was anyone who would allow him to come into his home to conduct cottage meetings (seeing that the open air meetings were not a success). He promised them that he would use their Bibles instead of his. One Mr. Barrett consented and so the brethren met at his home the following week. Consequently, Mr. Barrett accepted the truth and was baptised. The brethren, beginning to see the fruits of their labours, were encouraged and continued their work as openings in other homes were made. From there on, the message started to spread in that area and now we have quite a few members and a beautiful little building of which we are not ashamed.

Surely, our laymen have done and are doing a great work in the spreading of the Third Angel's Message. May God bless our faithful laymen and although they may not receive their full share of the reward in this life, yet they are confident for they will, in the life to come. Let us one and all labour and pray for that great occasion.

— E. E. PARCHMENT

Notice! Notice! Notice!

Our English-speaking believers with radios will be happy to hear that the new powerful radio station in Ciudad Trujillo Dominican Republic is now broadcasting the Voice of Prophecy programme in English every Sunday night at 9:00 o'clock Jamaica time.

The data on this station is as follows:

Station: H I 3 T "La Voz del Yuna"

Long Wave: 1040 Kcls.

Short Wave: H14T 49 meters or 5970 kcls.

H12T 31 " " 9735 kcls.

It will go out on 10 k. w. on two short wave bands. In other words, it will be broadcast simultaneously on three bands, two short waves and one long wave.

We would encourage all of our people with radios to listen in and tell other folks about it too.

Teachers Enjoy Summer School

were School Management, General Psychology, Spirit of Prophecy, Typewriting, Health Principles, and Shorthand. The overseas students from Haiti and Cuba contributed their bit by promoting classes in Spanish and French for those who were interested and had the time to attend. For most of the time the Senior Cambridge students kept sweating over their lessons in the various subjects for the examination which comes in December, and for which they are keenly desirous of being prepared.

Yes, the Summer School period was a busy and interesting time. We hope that our teachers might be privileged to be with us again next year.

Church Building News

History of the Blue Hills S. D. A. Church

(Read at Dedicatory Service held August 29, 1948)

According to the longest time prophecy recorded in the Bible as brought to us in the Book of Daniel 8:14, which declares: "And he said unto me, unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed," and which began to be fulfilled in the middle of the nineteenth century when was ushered in the revival of the everlasting gospel in its purity, God's Holy Spirit was poured out on many of the ministers of various churches as well as godly students of the Bible and they began to herald the soon coming of Jesus and the importance of keeping all the commandments of the Lord including the Holy Sabbath. They discovered from a study of the Bible and of Church History that for nearly four thousand years Satan deceived many Christian leaders to tamper with God's moral law.

About sixty years ago, many upon whom the Spirit of God had fallen were sent down as missionaries to the British West Indies, and the foundation was laid for a mighty work in Jamaica, Nassau, Barbados, Trinidad as well as in the French and Spanish Islands.

During the latter portion of this period, papers and books bearing this glorious message were circulated in the Turks and Caicos Islands.

A few friends from these islands wrote up to America calling for workers to teach them more of the truth of God for this time. As a result, Pastor A. R. Haig, whom we are glad to have with us today, was invited down to the Caicos Islands. But because of sickness in the family was unable to come before now. However, around 1937 Colporteur Evangelist J. A. Rahming of the Bahamas, whom we may call the modern Apostle Paul of the Turks & Caicos Islands, came to labour among us.

From house to house he witnessed for God selling to the people some of the greatest books ever written by human fingers — great because they contained the gospel of Salvation as was preached by Christ and the apostles, unmixed with the errors that crept in afterwards.

Through the instrumentality of Brother Rahming a few precious souls accepted the light and in a humble way tried to keep it from going out altogether. God heard their prayers and as a result Sister Nebblett and the writer arrived on Turks Island, June 22, 1945.

Through the good graces of Mr. C. H. James, Government School teacher, we started evangelistic meetings in the Government School tent. As a result of these meetings, mingled with prayer and tears, we organized our first baptismal class. Through the help of the Lord and the sacrifice of our brethren of like precious faith abroad, money came with which to purchase our church lot and to begin the erection of our church building.

Then followed our first baptism in February, 1946 when eleven precious souls followed their Lord and Master in the watery grave. This glorious event shall go down in history as the first baptism conducted by the Remnant Church on the Turks & Caicos Islands.

On the same day we were honoured to have with us Elder E. E. Parchment, Field Secretary of the British West Indies Union, and Elder G. M. Premier, Superintendent of the Salt Cays Mission, who led out in the organization of the first S. D. A. Church in these parts.

Shortly after this Brother Premier took up his official duties as Superintendent of the Mission with headquarters in Grand Turks.

Because there is no crisis with the Lord nor ever shall there be, the foundation of our church building was truly laid and on November 2, 1947 the stone-laying ceremony was conducted. At that time we were privileged to have with us the President of the B. W. I. Union, Pastor R. H. Pierson as well as the Secretary-Treasurer of the same Union, Pastor Clyde O. Franz.

Through the blessing of the Lord and the co-operation of the dear believers here our church building was completed at the end of 1947.

Today the angels of heaven rejoice with us and unite to sing on this momentous occasion our dedicatory Psalm. "Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Praise Him all creatures here below," and may this house become the House of Prayer for all of God's sincere people on this beautiful island of Blue Hills.

Youth's Congress

We had a very interesting Youth's Congress at the West Indian Training College, August 19—22. The young people of our Mission went back home filled with new determination to share their faith with others.

We were especially privileged to have with us Elder Theodore Lucas from the General Conference and Elder Arthur Roth from the Inter-American Division whose valuable help contributed very largely to the success of the Congress.

I have just received a letter from Elder Lucas and this is what he says in part: "Here I am back in Washington, D.C., after spending three months in the Inter-American Division, visiting sixteen countries and conducting twelve congresses.

"Among the finest congresses that we conducted was the one at Mandeville. It was a pleasure indeed to serve your young people, and I know that you are building a strong conference by taking your youth into consideration."

The slogan of our whole congress was "Share Your Faith." Everyone caught a vision as they sang it, talked it, and prayed it.

Our young people's leader, Elder Earl Parchment, is setting the example "Share Your Faith" by spending a month in the Salt Cays Mission, helping Brother Nebblett to bind off his work at Blue Hills, one of the islands of the Salt Cays Mission.

Publishing Department News

Two very enjoyable week-ends were spent in October at the West Indian Training College and Kingsway High School. A total of over forty-five students were welcomed back. The services began on a Friday evening and continued through Sabbath closing with a memorial service for Laird Cooper, a student colporteur who was assassinated in Guatemala recently, and with a soul-inspiring symposium. Publishing insignia pins were pinned to the lapels of our young men and to the bosoms of our girls. Messages of gratitude and of counsel for the graver days ahead were brought to us by Elders Franz, Crofoot, Nation, Butherus, Bull, Holgate, Walters, Campbell and Hurst. We will not soon forget this occasion.

Pastor A. R. Haig visited the Salt Cays Mission in August through September in the interest of the publishing work. He found the Premier girls, Master Richard and Miss Annie Mae Durham selling small books and magazines and Sister Sarah Williams of Blue Hills doing the same. Plans are on foot to have one or two regular full-time colporteur evangelists early in Salt Cays Mission. The publishing spark struck by Brother & Sister Nebblett and by Brother L. R. Rahming is beginning to glow in souls and in a greater demand for our literature.

Our student colporteurs both of Kingsway High School and West Indian Training College have returned with scholarships. More scholarships were earned this Summer than in any other of our history. To God be the glory. God bless our students—everyone.

Experience proves that when books may be sold without aggressive promotion magazines cannot. Ivan Benson, East Jamaica Magazine Promoter, is on fire and so is his army. Hundreds of subscriptions have rolled in this summer and thousands of Life & Health, Message, Our Times and Canadian Signs have been distributed.

Those Mothers! God Bless Them!!

Mothers in Israel, your boys and girls did splendidly. "Of whom do you speak?" enquired one of God's saints, "seeing I have no children." I mean your student colporteurs of the West Indian Training College and Kingsway High School. "Ah, yes; God bless them all — they did my part and theirs as I am a poor cripple," she concluded. Then bowing her snowy head, she prayed the prayer of all our hearts — yes, of your hearts other mothers and yours too, kind fathers and of ours.

"Dear Father Who did'st call Abel, Joseph, Daniel, Esther, Ruth and Dorcas, let Thine arm — Thy mighty arm of benediction bless the heads of Thy students. Anoint their tired brow and aching feet and rejuvenate their tired hearts. Help them everyone, to return to school some day in order that they may continue the training that will fit them for life here and for the more glorious life hereafter. Keep them unsullied from the world. Show them day by day, the wounded side of Jesus; by the eternal echoes from Mount Calvary may they be assured. And Lord of the children and youth, when the last sermon is preached and the last book and magazine sold, gather together the saved of all the earth with those won by the students and take them all to Heaven. And if my little damp and cold shelter helped them along the journey, and my crust of bread refreshed them, then remember me and all the other mothers of the youth scattered throughout the world and give us too, the Bread of Heaven and feed us till we want no more. Amen."

As we arose from our knees we heard her trembling voice — listen to its message:

"If any little love of mine, May make a hard life sweeter,

If any little care of mine, May make a friend's the fletcher.

"If any little lift of mine, May ease a toiler bending,

God give me love and care and strength;
We live for Him by lending.
God help me speak the helping word and sweeten it with singing,
And drop in some lonely vale, To set the echoes ringing."
