The Statistical Report for 1925

A REPORT SHOWING SIXTY-THREE YEARS OF PROGRESS

In the following pages will be found the sixty-third annual statistical report of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination, for the year 1925. In the case of certain organizations noted in Table 2, the figures for the former year have been inserted because of non-receipt of returns for 1925.

Extent of Work

This work is now conducted in 124 countries, by 8 Division Conferences, 60 Union organizations, comprising 139 local conferences, and 180 mission fields, operating among a population aggregating 1,800,000,000, and employing 17,469 evangelistic and institutional laborers, who are using in their work 252 languages (publications being issued in 128), and connected with the movement are 266 institutions, representing, together with conference organizations and 2,277 church buildings, a total investment (for 1924) of $44,971,881.12, and an aggregate annual income for both evangelistic and institutional work, of $33,239,073.44.

Membership

The membership of the 5,629 organized churches December 31, 1925, was 250,988, a net increase during that year of 12,331, or 5.17%. The increase for 1924 was 16,783; for 1923, 13,103; and for 1922, 10,683,—a total net increase during the quadrennial period of 52,900, or 26.71 per cent. The number baptized during 1925 was 25,047; during the quadrennial term, 93,903.

Offerings to Missions from United States and Canada

The offerings to missions from the membership in North America was $2,549,050.44, a per capita of $23.43. Not for the purpose of making an invidious comparison, but simply to state a few facts, compare these figures with those of three of the largest Protestant mission boards operating in North America in behalf of foreign mission fields, and we have the following results: Membership of the three bodies, 7,800,000; Seventh-day Adventists, 1,088,021; (ratio of 72 to 1). Mission fields operated, three bodies, 97; Seventh-day Adventists, 180. Countries in which work is conducted: Three bodies, 79; Seventh-day Adventists, 124. Languages in which work is conducted, three bodies, 166 (including duplication between the bodies); Seventh-day Adventists, 252. Missionaries sent into foreign service during 1925, three bodies, 152; Seventh-day Adventists, from North America, 128; from other countries, 47, a total of 175. Mission offerings per capita, average of three bodies, $1.25; Seventh-day Adventists, $23.43 (ratio of 1 to 19). The average contribution to foreign missions from the entire membership of the denomination during 1925 was $14.03.

Teachings of Seventh-day Adventists

Seventh-day Adventists Believe in —

One God, a personal creator, omnipotent, eternal, infinite, unchangeable, and everywhere present by His representative, the Holy Spirit.
 Jesus Christ as our example, our sacrifice, our mediator, our Redeemer.
 The Bible as the only infallible rule of faith and practice.
 Conversion as the special work of the Holy Spirit.
 The perpetuity of the law of God,—the ten commandments,—and their binding obligation upon all men.
 The observance of the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath, "according to the commandment."
 The near, visible, personal, and literal return of the Lord to this earth, yet without setting a date for that event.
 Non-conformity with the ways of the world, in its pleasures, follies, and fashions.
 Baptism by immersion.
 Prophecy as a revelation of God's purposes concerning the world.
 The support of the gospel ministry by tithes and offerings.
 The scriptures which teach that this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world; hence —
 A strong campaign in behalf of foreign missions, connecting evangelistic work with schools, publishing houses, dispensaries, etc.
 Christian temperance, including the non-use of intoxicating liquors, tobacco, tea, and coffee.
 The complete separation of church and state.
 Their goal: The advent message to all the world in this generation.

RECAPITULATION

* A change in the method of reporting the valuation of the church buildings in the European Division for the two years 1924 and 1925, is responsible for the apparent decrease shown. For 1924 the valuation of all the church buildings was included in the report; for 1925, only 29 of the 182 church buildings are included in this report, the valuation of the other 108 church buildings being included in the financial statements of conference associations. A revision of the 1924 returns in harmony with these facts, would therefore indicate a total increase in the valuation of all church buildings throughout the world for 1925 of approximately $510,097.66, and not the loss that seems apparent.

FOOTNOTES — TABLE 2, SECTION 4

(a) The system of educational work outlined by the Educational Department of the General Conference in 1906, comprising sixteen grades, or years of study, is arranged as follows: Church-schools (information concerning which will be found listed under columns 22 to 26 in Table 1), grades 1-8; intermediate schools, grades 7-10; academies, grades 9-12; colleges, grades 13-16.

(b) In compiling the returns, fractions of acres were not included.

(c) The "capacity" of schools is the number of students that may be accommodated in classes, and does not refer to dormitory or boarding accommodations provided.

(d) The grades taught by each should indicate the kind of work undertaken, as outlined in note (a).

(f) In the column indicating laboratory facilities the word "No" occurs where the schools have none; the word "Yes" is used in connection with schools having such facilities. These facilities cover lines of work in various schools as follows: Astronomy, chemistry, physics, histology, zoology.

Schools having facilities for manual training are indicated by "Yes" in corresponding column; those not having such facilities are listed with "No" opposite. These facilities range as follows: Carpentry, cooking, farming, dairying, nursing, printing, plumbing, horticulture, dressmaking, tent-making, broom-making, brick-making, etc.

(g) Column 14 shows the total number of graduates from all grades; cols. 15, 16, and 17, the number graduated from grades 12, 14, and 16, respectively.

(h) Column 18 shows the number of students (net graduates alone) entering some department of denominational work during the year.

Column 2, 1906-10 includes Treatment Rooms. For a number of years the figures in Summary 7 have included information regarding certain sanitariums and treatment rooms, and of those connected therewith which were listed in Table 2 as being under private management, but are now omitted from this report. This omission will account for the apparent decrease in the above figures.
