Members

On December 31, 1929, the membership of the 6,557 churches throughout the world was 299,555, an increase during the year of 14,262. The increase in members during 1928 was 11,229; during 1927, 12,230; and during 1926, 10,846, or a total increase during the past four years of 48,567, or 19.35 per cent.

In 1916 the membership of the entire denomination was 141,488. The gain from that time to the close of 1929 was 158,067, the per cent of increase being 111.72. In other words, during the past thirteen years since 1916, the membership of the denomination has more than doubled, or, for every 100 members in 1916 there are now 211.72. That is, the gain in membership during the past thirteen years was 16,579 more than during the preceding seventy-two years.

The number of churches, members, and baptisms, by Unions and Divisions, is indicated as follows:

Note.—Some of the figures presented herein differ from those reported at the 1930 session of the General Conference. This difference comes from the fact that some of the returns for the former report were sent early by cable from distant fields, in order to be received in time for the Conference session, but since that time the full reports in hand indicate certain changes that are necessary, and also some additional returns have been received, which are included in this report. This report is therefore final and authentic.

Column 2, 1906-10 includes Treatment Rooms.
For a number of years the figures in Summary 7 have included information regarding certain sanitariums and treatment rooms, and of those connected therewith which were listed in Table 2 as being under private management, but are now omitted from this report. This omission will account for the apparent decrease in the above figures.

Languages

In addition to the 141 languages in which publications are issued, this work is now conducted orally by denominational representatives in 253 other languages, a total of 394 languages in which this work is now being carried forward. This is an increase of 47 languages during 1929, or one new language added every 7.8 days. At the close of 1925, this work was conducted in 252 languages, so that there has been an increase of 142 languages during the past four years, or a new language added every ten days during the past four years.

Possibly that which indicates the rapid spread of this message more fully than in any other way is the manner in which representatives of this cause have come in contact with peoples speaking various languages and dialects throughout the world. Just eight years ago, at the close of 1921, representatives of this message were then in touch with peoples speaking 179 languages; at the close of 1929, 394 languages, an increase during the eight years of 215 languages, or an average of one new language added every 13.59 days during the past eight years.

A Resumé

At the close of 1929 there were 20,278 evangelistic and institutional laborers connected with denominational activities, which are now carried forward in 139 countries of the world, in 394 languages, operating under 478 conference, 307 associated, and 375 institutional organizations, having an aggregate investment of $50,281,614.54.

The membership of the 6,557 churches is 299,555, a net gain during 1929 of 14,262, or 5.00 per cent. The number of Sabbath-school members, who may be called communicants, total 358,844, or for every 100 church members there are 119.79 communicants.

The membership of the entire denomination in 1916 was 141,488, so that the gain up to the close of 1929 was 158,067, or for every 100 members in 1916, there are now 211.72; that is, the gain in membership during the past thirteen years has been 16,579 more than since this movement began up to the close of 1916.

The membership at the close of 1929 constitutes one Seventh-day Adventist church member for every 6,487 of the population of the world, while in 1912 the proportion was one member for every 18,358 of the world's population.

The number baptized in 1929 and uniting with the church was 29,371 or over 80 every day—nearly two average churches.

During 1929 the membership in North America contributed total funds for all lines of evangelistic work aggregating $8,837,788.47, an average of $75.04; the membership in all other fields contributed $3,983,403.87, an average of $21.91; making the total contributions for 1929 $12,821,192.34, an average for the membership throughout the world of $42.80, of which tithe was $22.35; foreign missions, $13.90, all other funds, $6.55.

The number of primary and mission schools operated by the denomination is 1,971, intermediate and advanced schools, 204, a total of 2,175. The total of such schools for the previous year was recorded as 1,523, thus showing a gain for the year of 652 schools.

The total enrolment of denominational schools of all grades and in all countries is 89,833, or one student for every 3.3 church members. This enrolment is high because of the many hundreds of natives taking work in mission or primary schools who are not yet members.

Sales of denominational literature during 1929 in 141 languages aggregated $4,939,917.08; since 1863, $83,757,245.40. One copy of each piece of literature would now cost $1,746.29.

Total contributions for all lines of work since the organization of this movement, $167,433,029.77, of which $123,193,636.59 (73.58 per cent) came from North America, and $44,239,393.18 (26.42 per cent) came from all other countries. Of this total amount, tithes were $94,675,256.51 (56.55 per cent); foreign missions $47,708,944.58 (28.49 per cent); and home missions $25,048,828.68 (14.96 per cent).

Total evangelistic laborers 10,051, of which there are in North America 2,761 or 27.47 per cent; and in all other countries 7,290 or 72.53 per cent.

Denominational representatives are using 394 languages and dialects in their work, an increase of 47 during 1929, or one new language added every 7.8 days; during the past four years one new language has been added every ten days; and during the past eight years one new language has been added every 13.59 days.

Total offerings to foreign missions from the membership in North America, during 1929, were $2,884,331.23, a yearly per capita of $24.49. The amount of such contributions from the membership in all the world was $4,163,357.98, an average of $13.90, which includes the native membership in all mission fields operated by the denomination.

During the past 29 years the denomination has sent out 3,435 laborers into evangelistic service in foreign mission fields, an average of one laborer sent out practically every third day. Hence while it may be said that the sun never sets on the work carried on by this denomination in the mission fields throughout the world, the same may also be said of the additional recruits on their way to service in foreign missions in all the world.

The grand total income for all lines of evangelistic work from the beginning of this movement to the close of 1929 was $167,433,029.77, one-half of which amount was given during the preceding seven years, four months, and ten days. Thus it is that practically the past seven years has witnessed an income for the extension of this movement equivalent to that received during the preceding sixty years.
