STATISTICAL REPORT

of Seventh-day Adventist Conferences, Missions, and Institutions in the World Field For the Year Ending December 31, 1980

A WORD ABOUT THIS REPORT

Territorial Changes.—In North America the Central Union and the Northern Union were combined and some of their local conferences were combined during 1980. This newly named Mid-America Union appears in this report.

The new Africa-Indian Ocean Division did not begin functioning until January 1, 1991. Its work will be fully represented in the next "Annual Statistical Report."

Omission of Data.—Two unions of the Trans-Africa Division did not report their workers in sufficient detail for the table "Denominational Workers Classified by Type of Employment, 1980" on page 5. Using their "total active workers" figure along with last year's figures, we have approximated how these workers should be classified. Any inaccuracies thus produced naturally cause inaccuracies in the world totals.

Mission Offerings.—From time to time reports of Sabbath School offerings prepared by the General Conference Sabbath School Department do not agree with figures released by the Office of Archives and Statistics. Unavoidable differences in reporting schedules and practices cause such discrepancies. In some fields where communication with the next higher organization is slow or difficult, contribution figures for this report may not coincide exactly with treasury remittance figures or with departmental reports.

New Terminology and Categories.—The North American Division has recently authorized two new categories of workers: credentialed commissioned minister and licensed commissioned minister. In this first year for these categories, we have not prepared new columns but have simply indicated the presence of the commissioned minister in a footnote (see pages 15 and 21).

As noted last year the term "elementary schools" has been changed to "primary schools," conforming to usage common in most parts of the world.

Correction.—In the 1979 "Annual Statistical Report" table "General Survey of Organizations," page 2, the "Total Organizations" figure for 1979 should have read 26,705. That line has been corrected in this year's report.

COUNTRIES AND AREAS OF THE WORLD SHOWING WHERE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST WORK IS CURRENTLY ESTABLISHED

Recognizing the need of a standard list of geographical and political divisions of the world which can be used as a basis for checking the different areas in which Seventh-day Adventist work is established, the General Conference Committee voted to use the list of countries and areas published by the United Nations. The following report is based on information given in "Statistical Papers," Series A, vol. XXXIII, no. 1, January 1, 1981.

As changes occur in political administration or boundaries of countries or areas, and such changes are recognized and published by the United Nations, this list will be revised accordingly. These changes obviously make comparisons with previous years difficult. Further, such changes do not necessarily indicate the withdrawal of established Seventh-day Adventist work from the territory affected by the change. Recognizing that the Seventh-day Adventist Church does not involve itself in political affairs, the reader should attach no special significance to the presence of certain names in this list or the absence of others.

The work of Seventh-day Adventists is being carried on in nearly all countries and areas of the world. Seventh-day Adventist work is considered to be established in a country or area of the world when one or more of the following criteria have been met: when an organized church meets regularly; when a mission station, health-care facility or school is functioning regularly; or when a regular full-time denominational worker is based in the country carrying on outreach or soulwinning activities through such units as a Sabbath school, an organized company or a language school. Seventh-day Adventist work is not considered to be established in a country or area when it is limited to a series of evangelistic meetings, literature-evangelist work not based there, scattered Sabbathkeepers, workers traveling through, or temporary service by regular workers, student missionaries or other volunteer workers.

An asterisk (*) denotes a country or area where Seventh-day Adventist work is not currently established. Anyone intimately acquainted with local situations, knowing of a correction that should be made, is invited to write the Director of Archives and Statistics, especially as new work is established.

SUMMARY

Number of countries and areas as recognized by United Nations	218
Estimated population of the world (as of January 1, 1981)	4,415,000,000
Number of countries in which work is carried on by Seventh-day Adventists	190
Number of countries where work is not established	28

NOTE.—The United Nations list no longer contains British Antarctic Territory nor French Southern and Antarctic Territories, where only a few scientists reside. An addition to the list is the Canton and Enderbury Islands; however, this area has no population so we are not counting it in the "Summary" above.
