130th Annual Statistical Report – 1992

STATISTICAL REPORT

of Seventh-day Adventist Conferences, Missions, and Institutions Throughout the World For the Year Ending December 31, 1992

A WORD ABOUT THIS REPORT

Mission to the Unreached.—Since 1990 church leaders have actively responded to the Global Mission call to reach the unreached. In three years they have established a church presence for the first time in 146 regions, each of which is home to about one million persons. Hundreds of such regions (population segments) remain to challenge the resources and ingenuity of gospel messengers. The Global Mission tables on pages 40 to 43 reveal the church's presence in all countries and areas of the world as well as its outreach and its challenge.

An interesting feature of the Global Mission table is the column entitled "Net Membership Growth Over Past Decade." In Sudan (northeast Africa), where membership was very small until recent years, the explosion of interest produced a 10-year growth of 3,434% between 1981 and 1991. Between 1982 and 1992 the growth slowed to 2,481%. Several African nations have experienced church membership growth of more than 100% since 1982.

Global Mission activity in the 15 countries of the Euro-Asia Division is depicted on the back cover. The map and legend were supplied by Charles R. Taylor of the GC's Global Mission Office.

Changes in the Number of Countries.—As Global Mission has led church leaders to focus on all inhabited regions of earth, additional areas have turned up as having no established SDA work. Examples are the Svalbard and Jan Mayen Islands (noted last year) and the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man (added this year). These latter two along with Nauru and Tokelau (South Pacific Division) appear in the list of 29 countries on page 39. Each of these 29 countries, in turn, is identified in the Global Mission table by a dot preceding the country name. The above factors have caused the number of countries in which SDA work is not established to increase even though work was established in three countries in 1992—Albania, Cambodia, and Djibouti. The United Nations list of countries and areas of the world for 1991 tallied 229; in 1992, 233. The number of countries with established SDA work in 1991 was 201; in 1992, 204.

Activities Report From Our Newest Division.—For the first time in decades a report on laymen's activities has been submitted from the territories of the former Soviet Union. The figures appear as part of the 1992 Church Ministries table on pages 4 and 5.

New Table.—A new table reporting some of the spiritual activities and ministry of women in the church appears on page 4.

New Terminology.—A new title has been given to the report of the church's use of radio and TV. See page 6 for "Broadcast and Bible School Ministries."

Food factories have become food industries.

Languages Used in Proclaiming the Word.—To determine what is and what is not a separate language and to give it a standard name has challenged this Report's editors for many years. Using People's Index, we have improved and refined the list of languages that appears on pages 44 and 45. Further accuracy may be expected in the years to come.

University Enrollment Figures.—Starting in 1989, enrollments in Andrews University graduate extension programs outside the United States are no longer reported in the total Andrews University enrollment (page 28).

COUNTRIES AND AREAS OF THE WORLD SHOWING WHERE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST WORK IS NOT CURRENTLY ESTABLISHED AS OF DECEMBER 31, 1992

This statistical table was originally developed to record the Church's response to Christ's commission to "teach all nations" (Matthew 28:19, 20) and His promise that when the gospel had been preached "for a witness unto all nations; . . . then shall the end come" (Matthew 24:14). It first appeared in 1907. In recent years it has included the entire list of countries of the world. A dot (•) in the left margin indicated those without established SDA work.

The abbreviated list below differs from tables of the past in that it gives only those countries and areas of the world where Seventh-day Adventist work is not currently established.

Seventh-day Adventist work is considered to be established in a country or area of the world when one or more of the following criteria have been met: (1) when an organized church meets regularly; (2) when a mission station, health-care facility, or school is functioning regularly; or (3) when a regular full-time denominational worker is based in the country carrying on outreach or soul-winning activities through such units as a Sabbath school, an organized company, or a language school. Seventh-day Adventist work is not considered to be established in a country or area when it is limited to a series of evangelistic meetings, literature-evangelist work not based there, scattered Sabbathkeepers, workers traveling through, or temporary service by regular workers, student missionaries, or other volunteer workers.

Number of countries in which SDA work is not established (listed above)	29
Estimated population of the world as of June 30, 1992	5,420,391,000
Estimated population of countries in which SDA work is established	5,312,969,000
Estimated population of countries in which SDA work is not established	107,422,000

NOTES

1. Number of Countries. The United Nations count of countries and areas of the world as of December 31, 1992 is 234. The increase from 230 (in 1991) to 234 is due to the changes in eastern Europe. The difference between the UN total of 234 and the 233 used above occurs because "Palestine" is occupied by Israel.

2. A standard list of countries. At the end of World War II the Church's leaders recognized the need of a standard list of geographical and political divisions of the world for the purposes of reporting growth statistically. The 1946 General Conference Session approved the list appearing in the World Almanac and The Statesmen's Yearbook. Then on August 31, 1955, this General Conference Committee voted to use the United Nations list of countries and areas of the world with the understanding that because the SDA Church does not involve itself in political affairs, the reader would attach no special significance to the presence of certain names in the list or the absence of others. The United Nations list has been used ever since. The countries shown above and in the Global Mission table on the following pages conform to the list appearing in the United Nations publication "Statistical Papers," Series A, vol. XLV, no. 1, January 1, 1993. Population figures for both tables are supplied by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

3. The Impact of Global Mission. In the 1980s the Church turned its attention more specifically to carrying the gospel not only to "every nation" but to every "kindred, and tongue, and people" (Revelation 14:6), so a new table was devised to report the Church's presence in "population segments." (See the "Global Mission" table in this "Annual Statistical Report.")

STATISTICAL REPORT FOR 1992

GLOBAL MISSION

The Church's Presence, Outreach, and Mission

Challenge of Global Mission.—Church administrators of the 1990's are turning their attention from the usual view of Adventists' world mission and focusing more specifically on reaching unreached people groups. A major document on this global mission and the appropriate methods to achieve success was voted at the 1989 Annual Council (available on request).

Monitoring Global Advance.—As a means for planning and evaluating, Global Mission specialists divided the entire world population into 5,257 population segments averaging one million persons each and are asking what the Adventist presence is, if any, in each of these segments. Information about these population segments reveals the Church's status on a world scale; beyond that, the Church's divisions and unions are responsible for the evangelization of people groups and population concentrations within these segments of one million persons.

The accompanying table presents data that monitor the Church's progress toward the preliminary goal of establishing a presence—an organized congregation—in each segment and of fostering growth where organized churches already exist.

World Data.—The first section of this table (column 1) lists the number of population segments in each union or, where appropriate, in each country within a union. The basis is the estimated world population as of mid-1989.

SDA Church Presence.—Columns 2-4 measure both the concentration of Adventists within a union (or country) and the degree to which there is an Adventist presence (a church) in each segment.

Church's Outreach.—One readily available statistic for measuring outreach is the existence of companies (new groups of believers not yet officially organized as a church). Columns 5-7 show both the growth of membership within a union (or country) and the existence of companies, which are potential new churches.

Church's Mission.—This section (column 8) reveals the task ahead: to see that all 5,257 population segments in the world have a company or a church.

Measuring Change.—Each section of the table compares the current year with the previous year.

Completeness and Accuracy.—The completeness and accuracy of this table depend upon reports received from the field. Around the world, field leaders are now identifying the boundaries of their population segments and designing evangelistic approaches for "reaching the unreached" by 2000.

Symbols Used in the Table:

- N.Av. Not available. Often used where two nations are or were combined into one field and separate data are not in hand.
- NR No report or not all fields or unions reporting.
- Countries and areas of the world in which the Church does not have established work.
- Indicates improvement, but percentage calculation is impossible because the beginning figure is zero.
- Indicates decline, but percentage calculation is impossible because the ending figure is zero.
- # One element in a comparison is N.Av. (not available).
- Indicates that a major change in territory makes comparisons invalid; or data are intentionally summarized in a total above.
- () Negative number.
- [] Data carried forward from a previous year because no report was received for 1992.

+Beginning with 1987, publishing houses were asked to report wholesale rather than retail sales. In the 1987 report, however, are some retail figures.

Per Capita after 1921 decreased because of inflated European currency values transposed to gold basis.
