STATISTICAL REPORT

of Seventh-day Adventist Conferences, Missions, and Institutions Throughout the World For the Year Ending December 31, 1993

A WORD ABOUT THIS REPORT

Mission to the World.—Since 1990 the church has placed special emphasis on "Global Mission"—reaching the unreached. The "Annual Statistical Report" has reflected this emphasis. This year, to better meet the needs of the church, we present two Global Mission tables. A full explanation of these two tables appears in the headnotes on page 39.

Data by Country.—A new feature this year is found in Global Mission Table 2—the number of ordained ministers, churches, and church membership in each country. These details are especially useful for inquirers who look at the world in terms of countries rather than by Adventist organizational territories such as divisions.

The table "Countries and Areas of the World Showing Where Seventh-day Adventist Work Is Not Currently Established" appears between the two Global Mission tables rather than separately.

Significant Change in Defining Workers.—All workers have previously been classified as either "evangelistic" or "institutional." Beginning with this "Report" the categories are "general" and "institutional." "General" applies to conference/mission employees of all types. Among these are primary school (church school) teachers, who have previously been counted as institutional workers in the first "Denominational Workers" table on page 5. Because primary schools are not defined as institutions, primary school employees must correctly be included with other conference workers as "general workers." Those who wish to make statistical comparisons over the years will need to take this change of categories into account.

Primary Schools in World Summaries.—The "Summary of Educational Institutions" on page 31 includes primary schools to give a world total of all schools but does not count them as "institutions." See also two tables on page 2—"General Survey of Organizations" and "Summary of Institutions."

Church Ministries Figures.—The Church Ministries table on page 4 lists 468,213 community services units for 1993, a figure ten times as great as for 1992. The major source of the difference is within the Euro-Africa Division, where more complete data has become available.

Other Changes.—Universities and colleges are enumerated under the title "tertiary" to correspond with the terms "primary" and "secondary" schools.

Because airplanes and medical launches are not institutions, they have been removed from tables summarizing the institutions. In the "Summary of Institutions" table on page 2 the "Clinics and Dispensaries" column no longer includes medical launches. In the "Health-Care Institutions" table on page 4 a similar change has been made, adding children's homes but removing airplanes and medical launches.

World totals of contributions for 1980-1983 have been changed because of revisions reported earlier by the Inter-American Division. See tables on pages 3, 46, and 47.

Whenever we discover a discrepancy between original data and later printed reports, we use original data. This year, as in past years, we have improved the consistency of the data in a number of tables.

GLOBAL MISSION

The Church's Presence, Outreach, and Mission

Challenge of Global Mission.—The Global Mission document voted at the 1989 Annual Council and endorsed at the 1990 General Conference Session seeks to create an awareness, in concrete measurable terms, of what the gospel commission means to the church today.

Monitoring Global Advance.—Table 1 below lists "the land that yet remaineth" (Joshua 13:1-6) in today's unentered countries and in unentered areas within countries. These major territories constitute the Global Mission objective for which the world headquarters and its division committees assume a certain responsibility.

In 1990, as a means for planning and evaluating, Global Mission specialists divided the entire world population into 5,257 "population segments" averaging one million persons each. In the majority of these the church already had a presence. Since then the church's goal has been to establish a presence—an organized church—in each previously unentered population segment. Table 1 portrays the status of these efforts.

Table 2 lists all countries and areas of the world and shows the general growth and "church planting" activity of the church. For the first time, churches, members, and ordained ministers are enumerated by country.

Under the "Global Mission Activity" heading Table 2 shows the number of counties, municipalities, tribal and language groups, or socioeconomic groups in metropolitan areas, which have been chosen by congregations, conferences or missions, or unions to reach out to the "unreached" in their respective territories. It also shows their success.

Table 2 also serves to replace a table in earlier editions of the "Annual Statistical Report" entitled "Countries and Areas of the World Showing Where Seventh-day Adventist Work Is Currently Established," where all countries and areas of the world were listed.

This year some reports from places where a conference or mission included more than one country were incomplete. An example is the five countries within the Guam-Micronesia Mission of the Far Eastern Division. In such instances, estimates have been made from the best available sources, maintaining the correct overall totals.

In other places, especially formerly unentered countries, isolated members or workers have been reported where they reside and subtracted from the figures for their countries of origin so the world totals are consistent with the main tables of this "Report." Examples are Djibouti, Somalia, Monaco, and the Channel Islands. The discrepancy of six members between this table and the main table reflects known members in Mongolia and Saudi Arabia.

The ordained ministers column excludes those who serve a multicountry field.

Definitions.—Officially what is a "country or area of the world"? For the purposes of this report, it is a political entity recognized by the United Nations. Because the SDA Church does not involve itself in political affairs, the reader should attach no special significance to the presence of certain names in the list or the absence of others. The countries shown in the accompanying Global Mission tables are as listed in the United Nations publication "Statistical Papers," Series A, vol. XLVI, no. 1, January 1, 1994. Population figures are supplied by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

"Population segments" are nonoverlapping geopolitical territories of the world, each occupied by between half a million and a million and a half persons as of mid-1989.

"Entering" a population segment or smaller target area is accomplished with the establishment of an officially organized company or church.

"Presence" means the existence within the territory of an organized church.

"Established work" exists in a country or area of the world when one or more of the following criteria have been met: (1) when an organized church meets regularly; (2) when a mission station, health-care facility, or school is functioning regularly; or (3) when a regular full-time denominational worker is based in the country carrying on outreach or soul-winning activities through such units as a Sabbath school, an organized company, or a language school. Seventh-day Adventist work is not considered to be established in a country or area when it is limited to a series of evangelistic meetings, literature-evangelist work not based there, scattered Sabbathkeepers, workers traveling through, or temporary service by regular workers, student missionaries, or other volunteer workers. In Table 1 the countries where the church does not have established work are identified with a bullet (•).

"Number of Countries." The United Nations count of countries and areas of the world as of December 31, 1993 is 236. The increase from 234 (in 1992) to 236 is due to the addition of Eritrea in Africa and of the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia in Europe. In previous "Annual Statistical Reports" Palestine has not been included, although listed by the United Nations, because it lacked territory; it is now included as one of the 236.

Symbols Used in These Tables:

- Countries and areas of the world in which the Church does not have established work.
- + Improvement, but percentage calculation is impossible because the beginning figure is zero.
- Decline, but percentage calculation is impossible because the ending figure is zero.
- Y Negative number.
- Y "Yes" for countries of less than one population segment, to show an affirmative entry in a column.
