STATISTICAL REPORT

of Seventh-day Adventist Conferences, Missions, and Institutions Throughout the World for the Year Ending December 31, 1996

A WORD ABOUT THIS REPORT

Church Moves Forward.—The results of evangelists, pastors, and active laypersons in bringing new souls to Christ are seen in the statistical report for 1996. A total of 719,679 were baptized or accepted on profession of faith during 1996, bringing the total membership to 9,296,127. We thank our God and Creator for these evidences of His Spirit.

Continued Changes.—Last year we introduced the Annual Statistical Report in a newly sized format. The changes in this report are more subtle but more numerous. Early in 1996, we met with the various General Conference departmental directors in an effort to ascertain ways to make the statistical report more relevant and accurate. The result was a number of recommendations, many of which are incorporated in this report:

- The columns reporting the number of primary schools and their enrollment for each local field have been removed from the table of "General Statistics by Divisions" (pages 8-31) and added as Part 4 to the section of educational statistics (see page 35) as totals for each union.
- Another change involving the educational statistics is the separation of the worker training institutions from the secondary schools. The consequence of these changes is that the statistics for educational institutions are now in four parts—"Tertiary Institutions," "Worker Training Institutions," "Secondary Schools," and "Primary Schools."
- The summary statistics of "Bible School Enrollments" and "Bible School Graduates" have been moved from the former "Broadcast and Bible School Ministries" table to the "Sabbath School/Personal Ministries" table (pages 6 and 7). This change reflects the fact that it is the responsibility of the Sabbath School/Personal Ministries Department to oversee the work of the Bible Schools. The statistics of radio and television stations are still found in the "Broadcast Ministries" table (page 7).
- The summary statistics for "Children's Ministries" (page 5) have been expanded beyond the Vacation Bible Schools' statistics previously reported to include additional statistics reflecting the impact of this department.
- Concurrently, the historical report of "Vacation Bible Schools" is no longer a part of the statistical report. There had been questions regarding the validity of the data previously reported, and the Children's Ministries Department is developing ways to report this information more accurately for the future. The historical information is available in the 1995 Annual Statistical Report.

- The report of the "Healthcare Institutions" (beginning on page 37) has been adjusted, with the deletion of several columns of employee information and the addition of the column "SDA Employees."
- An adjustment was also made on the report of the "Publishing Houses" (page 42), with the result that now only one column is utilized for the employee count.
- While the number of credentialed and licensed literature evangelists is no longer listed on the historical table of Publishing Department Information (page 7), this information is still available from the table of "General Statistics by Divisions" (pages 8-31) and the table of historical data (page 53).
- The Ingathering totals reported on pages 54 and 55, which had been incomplete for a number of years, have now been verified from 1908 to the present. This was a task undertaken by Assistant Treasurer John Stephenson and completed prior to his recent retirement. We are grateful for his efforts in providing this historical information.

Thanks Due Many Others.—It is also appropriate at this point to thank the many others, too numerous to name, who make this report possible. We think of the clerks, secretaries, and treasurers of the local churches around the world, making their monthly and quarterly reports to the appropriate office of the local field; of the diligent workers in secretariats and treasuries in these local fields; of those in the union and division offices; of the workers in the departmental and institutional offices at all levels of the church organization; and of the staff in the General Conference Office of Archives and Statistics. We wish we could find a way to personally acknowledge the contribution of each person. Because that is impossible, please accept this expression of gratitude on behalf of all those who utilize this valuable reference.

GLOBAL MISSION

The Church's Presence, Outreach, and Mission

Challenge of Global Mission.—The Global Mission document voted at the 1989 Annual Council and endorsed at the 1990 General Conference Session seeks to create an awareness, in concrete measurable terms, of what the gospel commission means to the church today.

Monitoring Global Advance.—Table 1 below lists major unentered regions of the world according to conferences or missions rather than by countries. It is based on a challenge of Global Mission: to place a church among each one million of earth's population. To locate regions where the ratio of churches to population is less than 1:1,000,000, we have used the 1997 SDA Yearbook to find those conferences or missions with low church-to-population ratios. For example, in the Sahel Union Mission of the Africa-Indian Ocean Division the Burkina Faso Mission has a population of 10.6 million but only three churches. Therefore, on average, each church serves a population of 3.5 million people!

This view of the global challenge shows in which conferences or missions the great challenges lie in relation to "population segments" where there is no Adventist church. (For a definition of "population segments" see "Definitions" in the next column.)

This year an additional column is provided to show the "Population Estimate (Millions) Per Church 1990" for comparison. The basis for these entries is the 1991 SDA Yearbook. In some cases the 1996 ratio is larger than the 1990 ratio. This may be due to a population that is growing more rapidly than the church or to official revisions in population estimates, rather than to a loss of churches. In some cases the fields that existed in 1990 no longer exist by the same name or territory so a direct comparison is impossible. In other cases growth of churches has lowered the ratio below 1.0. These are included to show the progress that has been made.

The number of churches is taken from this edition of the Annual Statistical Report; population statistics are for mid-1996 and are provided by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

Some countries with a population of one million or more yet with little or no Adventist organizational structure are shown in parentheses.

Table 2 lists all countries and areas of the world and shows the general growth and "church planting" activity of the church, including the number of churches, members, and ordained ministers for each country.

Under the "Global Mission Activity Since 1990" heading, Table 2 shows the number of countries, municipalities, tribal and language groups, or socioeconomic groups in metropolitan areas, which have been chosen since 1990 by congregations, conferences or missions, or unions to reach out to the "unreached" in their respective territories. It also shows their success since 1990.

Table 2 also replaces a table in earlier editions of the Annual Statistical Report entitled "Countries and Areas of the World Showing Where Seventh-day Adventist Work is Currently Established," where all countries and areas of the world were listed.

Although isolated Sabbath keepers or Adventists from other countries are known to reside in some countries where there is no organized church, the data here corresponds to official reports from the divisions or attached union. An exception is the 13 members in Mongolia, who are not shown in the main table (pages 8 - 31).

The "Ordained Ministers" column excludes those who serve in administrative positions at the union and division levels.

Definitions.—Officially, what is a "country or area of the world"? For the purposes of this report, it is a political entity recognized by the United Nations. Because the SDA Church does not involve itself in political affairs, the reader should attach no special significance to the presence of certain names in the list or the absence of others. The countries shown in the accompanying Global Mission tables are as listed in the United Nations publication "Statistical Papers," Series A, Vol. XLIX, No. 1, January 1, 1997. An exception is Taiwan, which is considered by the United Nations to be a part of China. Population figures are supplied by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

"Population segments" are non-overlapping geopolitical territories of the world, each occupied by between half a million and a million and a half persons as of mid-1989.

"Target" is any unentered territory smaller than a population segment that may be selected as a target for the establishment of church work. This area may be a state, province, municipality, city, county, district, borough, parish, as well as any ethnic or linguistic group in such a territory.

"Entering" a population segment or smaller target area is accomplished with the establishment of an officially organized company or church.

"Presence" means the existence within the territory of an organized church.

"Established work" exists in a country or area of the world when one or more of the following criteria have been met: (1) when an organized church meets regularly; (2) when a mission station, healthcare facility, or school is functioning regularly; or (3) when a regular full-time denominational worker is based in the country carrying on outreach or soul-winning activities through such units as a Sabbath school, an organized company, or a language school. Seventh-day Adventist work is not considered to be established in a country or area when it is limited to a series of evangelistic meetings, literature-evangelist work not based there, scattered Sabbath keepers, workers traveling through, or temporary service by regular workers, student missionaries, or other volunteer workers. The countries where the church does not have established work are listed in a half-page table on page 46.

"Number of Countries." The United Nations count of countries and areas of the world as of December 31, 1996 is 230. The decrease from 233 (in 1995) to 230 is due to the deletion of three small island groups: British Indian Ocean Territory, Christmas Island (Australia), and Cocos (Keeling) Islands.

Symbols Used in These Tables:

+ Improvement, but percentage calculation is impossible because the beginning figure is zero.
