STATISTICAL REPORT

of Seventh-day Adventist Conferences, Missions, and Institutions Throughout the World for the Year Ending December 31, 1997

A WORD ABOUT THIS REPORT

Church Accessions Reach New Levels.—Additions to the church by baptism and profession of faith surpassed the 700,000 mark for the second consecutive year and reached a record total of 744,798. The increase brought church membership to 9,702,834 at the end of 1997. Organized churches surpassed 43,000 and represent an increase of over 1,000 congregations. Over 39,000 companies reflect additional worldwide advances. Total tithe and offerings increased more than $129 million over 1996. Additional evidence of growth is seen within the pages that follow.

Adjustments Improve Membership Records.—Throughout this report we see evidence of dynamic growth on one hand and careful attention to more accurate records on the other. The auditing of church record books, to assure that the number of members reported is an accurate reflection of the names listed on church rolls, has clearly affected the reports of a number of missions/conferences. In addition to the new "Adjustments" column that reflects church membership audits and certain miscellaneous modifications to membership totals, church membership transfers (letters received and granted) and deaths are now included within the report. These additional columns provide a complete rationale for the total church membership figures given.

Local Giving Grows.—After two years at $115.42 per capita, the amount of tithe returned has slid almost $2.00 to $113.73. Intradivision and local church funds, however, have increased significantly, bringing total dollar giving worldwide to a new high of $1.5 billion in 1997.

Territorial Changes Affect Tables.—The statistical tables reflect territorial adjustments made in 1997. On January 1, 1997, the territory of the Asia-Pacific Division was divided and designated as the Northern Asia-Pacific and the Southern Asia-Pacific Divisions. Also in 1997 China and Mongolia became part of the Northern Asia-Pacific Division territory. Any year-to-year comparisons must take these changes into account.

More Complete Reporting.—The statistical report for 1997 evidences far fewer blank spaces than previous reports. This is especially reflected in the "Tithe and Offerings" columns. A number of division treasurers have submitted reports that thus enable a more complete understanding of church giving patterns.

Other New Features.—In addition to the innovations already mentioned, the current statistical report includes the following:

- The new "International Deployment of Personnel" table on page 5 provides detailed information about the mission thrust of the church.
- Statistical information about denominational workers is now more easily accessed and is available on pages 34 through 46.
- This report is unique in that it is the largest statistical report since the Annual Statistical Report was issued as a separate publication in 1906.

Statistics within this report were compiled by Sylvia Ytreberg

GLOBAL MISSION
The Church's Presence, Outreach, and Mission

Challenge of Global Mission.—The Global Mission document voted at the 1989 Annual Council and endorsed at the 1990 General Conference Session seeks to create an awareness, in concrete measurable terms, of what the gospel commission means to the church today.

Monitoring Global Advance.—Table 1 below lists major unentered regions of the world according to conferences or missions rather than by countries. It is based on a challenge of Global Mission: to place a church among each one million of earth's population. To locate regions where the ratio of churches to population is less than 1:1,000,000, we have used the 1998 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook to find those conferences or missions with low church-to-population ratios. For example, in the Sahel Union Mission of the Africa-Indian Ocean Division the Burkina Faso Mission has a population of 10.9 million but only three churches. Therefore, on average, each church serves a population of 3.6 million people!

This view of the global challenge shows in which conferences or missions the great challenges lie in relation to the Adventist "presence." (For a definition of "presence" see "Definitions" in the next column.)

A column is provided to show the "Population Estimate (Millions) Per Church 1990" for comparison. The basis for these entries is the 1991 Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook. In some cases the 1997 ratio is larger than the 1990 ratio. This may be due to a population that is growing more rapidly than the church or to official revisions in population estimates, rather than to a loss of churches. In some cases the fields that existed in 1990 no longer exist by the same name or territory so a direct comparison is impossible. In other cases growth of churches has lowered the ratio below 1.0. These are being eliminated year by year as church growth occurs.

The number of churches is taken from this edition of the Annual Statistical Report; population statistics are for mid-1997 and are provided by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

Some countries with a population of one million or more yet with little or no Seventh-day Adventist organizational structure are shown in parentheses.

Table 2 lists all countries and areas of the world and shows the general growth and church planting activity of the church, including the number of churches, members, and ordained ministers for each country.

Although isolated Sabbath keepers or Seventh-day Adventists from other countries are known to reside in some countries where there is no organized church, the data here corresponds to official reports from the divisions or attached union.

The "Ordained Ministers" column excludes those who serve in administrative positions at the union and division levels.

Definitions.—Officially, what is a "country or area of the world"? For the purposes of this report, it is a political entity recognized by the United Nations. Because the Seventh-day Adventist Church does not involve itself in political affairs, the reader should attach no special significance to the presence of certain names in the list or the absence of others. The countries shown in the accompanying Global Mission tables are as listed in the United Nations publication "Statistical Papers," Series A Vol. L, No. 1, January 1, 1998. An exception is Taiwan, which is considered by the United Nations to be a part of China. Population figures are supplied by the Population Reference Bureau of Washington, DC.

"Presence" means the existence within the territory of an organized church.

"Established work" exists in a country or area of the world when one or more of the following criteria have been met: (1) when an organized church meets regularly; (2) when a mission station, healthcare facility, or school is functioning regularly; or (3) when a regular full-time denominational worker is based in the country carrying on outreach or soul-winning activities through such units as a Sabbath school, an organized company, or a language school. Seventh-day Adventist work is not considered to be established in a country or area when it is limited to a series of evangelistic meetings, literature-evangelist work not based there, scattered Sabbath keepers, workers traveling through, or temporary service by regular workers, student missionaries, or other volunteer workers. The countries where the church does not have established work are listed in a half-page table on page 62.

"Number of Countries." The United Nations count of countries and areas of the world as of December 31, 1997 is 230.

Symbols Used in These Tables:

\+ Improvement, but percentage calculation is impossible because the beginning figure is zero.

( ) Negative number.
