True and Loyal Every Day

C. P. Bollman

The fields are white to harvest,
And laborers are few;
Lord, send forth many reapers,
Devoted men and true.

Send forth the threefold message
By press and pulpit too;
Raise up in every quarter
More reapers tried and true.

And give Thou grace to labor
As Christ our Lord would do;
That every missionary
May ever be most true.

And while the fields are whitening,
And reapers toil and pray,
May we who man the home base
Be loyal every day.

OUTLINE OF COURSES IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

At the Educational Council held at St. Helena, Cal., June 4-14, 1915, it was recommended that the work of our intermediate schools, academies, and colleges be organized upon a semester (half year) basis, each semester to be subdivided into three periods of six weeks each. It was also recommended that the credits given in these schools be reckoned upon a unit basis, one unit representing a study pursued 36 weeks with five recitations a week, forty-five minutes in length, or its equivalent; that college credits be given on the semester-hour basis, a semester-hour representing a study pursued one sixty-minute hour a week for eighteen weeks. In planning the combination of books for the Ministerial Reading Course for 1926, the Ministerial Association of the General Conference has chosen from the great mass of available religious literature three titles which will be most appropriate and helpful to Seventh-day Adventist ministers.

Work of the Ministry, by W. H. Griffith Thomas, D. D. An analytical exposition of the essentials of successful gospel ministry, arranged in three parts: (1) The Man, (2) The Work, (3) The Man and His Work. The author was a devout man of God, whose faith in the inspiration and authenticity of the Bible was very pronounced.

Person of Christ (The), by Philip Schaff, D. D. This book is built about the greatest Figure that ever strode across the pages of history. Its purpose is to bring the reader into a deeper fellowship with Christ as a person and to inspire a greater adoration and confidence in the all-sufficiency of His salvation. His divine Sonship as well as human relationship, together with the many excellencies of His wonderful character constitute the burden of the writer.

The Epistle to the Galatians, by G. G. Findlay, D. D. A commentary on the Epistle which may be correctly termed the great bulwark against the corrupting and perverting influence of the error of righteousness by works,—an error which has persistently sought to overthrow the historic faith of Christianity.

Steps to Christ, by Mrs. E. G. White, has been chosen as the fourth number of this course. Doubtless all our ministers have this little volume in their libraries, and are acquainted with the treasures it contains.

Auxiliary Ministerial Reading Course, 1926

Selected for the benefit of those whose church burdens must be carried as a side-line, the following list of books will be especially appropriate:

- Pastoral Epistles of Paul
- How to Live the Victorious Life
- I Cried; He Answered
- Real Holy Spirit (by the author of "Real Prayer")

All the above books are handled by our publishing houses in the regular way. Orders should be placed with your local office.
Is a real asset to you when you’re buying a tent.

It means that you’re getting more than you’re paying for.

For the price you pay covers the cost of materials, the cost of making and a reasonable profit. You do not pay one cent for the fifty-five years of skill and integrity built into that tent “between the lines.”

A GREAT BOOK
With a Great Message

By M. Ellsworth Olsen

A book that should be in every Seventh-day Adventist home, because it contains the history of the work of Seventh-day Adventists from their beginning, more than eighty years ago, down to the present time. One cannot read this book without realizing that God has been leading His people in the giving of a great message to all the world in this generation. The developments and growth of our work are traced very carefully in this country, also its extension throughout all the world. The many illustrations which have been gathered for the book will be an astonishment and a delight to the reader, as they depict not only the historical places and early pioneers, but many of the leaders of the denomination today, with illustrations of all kinds. There are 768 pages.

All orders should be sent through your local office.
