Preface

A directory of the conferences, mission fields and institutions connected with the Seventh-day Adventist denomination is given in the following pages. Administrative and workers' lists have been furnished by the organizations concerned. In cases where current reports were not received, previous official and personnel rolls have been retained or adjusted to the best information available. The data appearing below is summarized largely from the 1941 Statistical Report, the one last issued at this date.

The number of churches and the church membership in each of the conferences in North America are those reported at the end of 1942. In fields outside of North America the church and membership statistics at the close of 1941 have been used except in a few instances where the organizations themselves have reported later figures. Populations of conferences in North America are based on the 1940 census reports; and population figures for other fields have been furnished largely from the different Division or Union offices. To avoid duplications, all Bible Instructors, formerly known as Bible Workers, have been listed only under their own group heading in the conferences, even though some of them may not yet have been granted Bible Instructors credentials. Church School teachers holding missionary credentials are given in the educational section under the Licensed Missionary group. Other Church School teachers are listed separately.

The Seventh-day Adventist denomination was organized May 21, 1863, with a constituency of 125 churches and 3,500 members. The work was largely confined to North America until the year 1874, when the first missionary, Elder J. N. Andrews, was sent to Switzerland. Gradually other countries were entered. In 1886 a minister went to Russia, the first non-Protestant country in which this work was started. The schooner "Pitcairn" was launched in San Francisco Bay on July 28, 1890, and was soon prepared to carry groups of missionaries to various Pacific islands. In 1894 Seventh-day Adventist workers first entered a heathen land, opening a mission in Matabeleland, South Africa. South America was entered the same year, and Japan in 1896.

Since 1901 to the close of 1941, 4,774 missionaries have been sent out for mission service in various lands, occupying all of the larger countries of the world and many of the islands of the sea. At the close of 1941, Seventh-day Adventists were conducting work in 413 countries, islands, and island groups. Twenty-eight thousand three hundred thirty-five evangelistic and institutional workers were using in their work 810 languages and modes of speech.

The membership of the 9,105 Seventh-day Adventist churches throughout the world in 1941 was 520,644. There were 69 union conferences and missions, 137 local conferences, 193 regularly organized mission fields, and 535 institutions. Of the 28,335 laborers, 10,131 were in North America, and 18,204 in other countries.

The funds in tithes and offerings contributed in 1941 by Seventh-day Adventists were the largest ever raised by the denomination during any one year. The amount of $16,205,388.19 was a per capita contribution of $31.13 for every member in the world field. In North America alone the per capita giving in tithes and offerings was $61.80.

The Statistical Report showed that there were 83 Seventh-day Adventist publishing houses and branches, whose book and periodical retail sales in 1941 were $4,275,853.68. These publishing houses employed 1,262 workers in producing this literature, and 3,106 more were engaged in its distribution. Seventh-day Adventist literature has been printed in 200 languages, and there were 329 periodicals issued.

The enrollment in the 14,543 Sabbath schools was 646,192, and the annual Sabbath school contributions were $1,931,726.26. Sanitariums, hospitals, and treatment rooms, to the number of 163, engaged in the care of the sick, with 6,281 physicians, nurses, and other attendants, who treated 783,465 patients during 1941.

There were 2,871 elementary schools, and 260 secondary and advanced schools, with 5,726 teachers employed, and an enrollment of 119,960 pupils. At the close of the 1941-42 school year 1,304 students entered some line of denominational work.

The property value of all organizations and institutions connected with the Seventh-day Adventist denomination, including churches, at the close of 1941, was $66,776,612.19.

The total amount of funds in tithes and offerings contributed since the organization of the Seventh-day Adventist General Conference in 1863 to the close of 1941 was $310,027,428.28. Literature sales for the same period were registered as $130,797,308.69.
Seventh-day Adventists hold certain fundamental beliefs, the principal features of which, together with a portion of the scriptural references upon which they are based, may be summarized as follows:

1. That the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, contain an all-sufficient revelation of His will to men, and are the only unerring rule of faith and practice. 2 Tim. 3:15-17.

2. That the Godhead, or Trinity, consists of the Eternal Father, a personal, spiritual Being, omnipotent, omnipresent, omniscient, infinite in wisdom and love; the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Eternal Father, through whom all things were created and through whom the salvation of the redeemed hosts will be accomplished; the Holy Spirit, the third person of the Godhead, the great regenerating power in the work of redemption. Matt. 28:19.

3. That Jesus Christ is very God, being of the same nature and essence as the Eternal Father. While retaining His divine nature He took upon Himself the nature of the human family, lived on the earth as a man, exemplified in His life as our Example the principles of righteousness, attested His relationship to God by many mighty miracles, died for our sins on the cross, was raised from the dead, and ascended to the Father, where He ever lives to make intercession for us. John 1:1, 14; Heb. 2:9-18; 8:1, 2; 4:14-16; 7:25.

4. That every person in order to obtain salvation must experience the new birth; that this comprises an entire transformation of life and character by the recreative power of God through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. John 3:16; Matt. 18:3; Acts 2:37-39.

5. That baptism is an ordinance of the Christian church and should follow repentance and forgiveness of sins. By its observance faith is shown in the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ. That the proper form of baptism is by immersion. Rom. 6:1-6; Acts 16:30-33.

6. That the will of God as it relates to moral conduct is comprehended in His law of ten commandments; that these are great moral, unchangeable precepts, binding upon all men, in every age. Ex. 20:1-17.

7. That the fourth commandment of this unchangeable law requires the observance of the seventh day Sabbath. This holy institution is at the same time a memorial of creation and a sign of sanctification, a sign of the believer's rest from his own works of sin, and his entrance into the rest of soul which Jesus promises to those who come to Him. Gen. 2:1-3; Ex. 20:8-11; 31:12-17; Heb. 4:1-10.

8. That the law of ten commandments points out sin, the penalty of which is death. The law cannot save the transgressor from his sin, nor impart power to keep him from sinning. In infinite love and mercy, God provides a way whereby this may be done. He furnishes a substitute, even Christ the Righteous One, to die in man's stead, making "Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him." 2 Cor. 5:21. That one is justified, not by obedience to the law, but by the grace that is in Christ Jesus. By accepting Christ, man is reconciled to God, justified by His blood for the sins of the past, and saved from the power of sin by his indwelling life. Thus the gospel becomes "the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth." Rom. 1:16. This experience is wrought by the divine agency of the Holy Spirit, who convines of sin and leads to the Sin-Bearer, inducting the believer into the new covenant relationship, where the law of God is written on his heart, and through the enabling power of the indwelling Christ, his life is brought into conformity to the divine precepts. The honor and merit of this wonderful transformation belong wholly to Christ. 1 John 2:1-2; 3:4; Rom. 5:20; 5:8-10; 7:7; Eph. 2:8-10; 3:17; Gal. 2:20; Heb. 8:8-12.
9. That God "only hath immortality." 1 Tim. 6:15. Mortal man possesses a nature inherently sinful and dying. Eternal life is the gift of God through faith in Christ. Rom. 6:23. "He that hath the Son hath life." 1 John 5:12. Immortality is bestowed upon the righteous at the second coming of Christ, when the righteous dead are raised from the grave and the living righteous translated to meet the Lord. Then it is that those accounted faithful "put on immortality." 1 Cor. 15:51-55.

10. That the condition of man in death is one of unconsciousness. That all men, good and evil alike, remain in the grave from death to the resurrection. Eccl. 9:5, 6; Ps. 146:3, 4; John 5:28, 29.

11. That there shall be a resurrection both of the just and of the unjust. The resurrection of the just will take place at the second coming of Christ; the resurrection of the unjust will take place a thousand years later, at the close of the millennium. John 5:28, 29; 1 Thess. 4:13-18; Rev. 20:5-10.

12. That the finally impenitent, including Satan, the author of sin, will, by the fires of the last day, be reduced to a state of non-existence, becoming as though they had not been, thus purging God's universe of sin and sinners. Rom. 6:23; Mal. 4:1-8; Rev. 20:9, 10; Obadiah 16.

13. That no prophetic period is given in the Bible to reach to the second advent, but that the longest one, the 2300 days of Dan. 8:14, terminated in 1844, and brought us to an event called the cleansing of the sanctuary.

14. That the true sanctuary, of which the tabernacle on earth was a type, is the temple of God in Heaven, of which Paul speaks in Hebrews 8 and onward, and of which the Lord Jesus, as our great high priest, is minister; and that the priestly work of our Lord is the antitype of the work of the Jewish priests of the former dispensation; that this heavenly sanctuary is the one to be cleansed at the end of the 2300 days of Daniel 8:14: its cleansing being, as in the type, a work of judgment, beginning with the entrance of Christ as the high priest upon the judgment phase of His ministry in the heavenly sanctuary foreshadowed in the earthly service of cleansing the sanctuary on the day of atonement. This work of judgment in the heavenly sanctuary began in 1844. Its completion will close human probation.

15. That God, in the time of the judgment and in accordance with His uniform dealing with the human family in warning them of coming events vitally affecting their destiny (Amos 3:6, 7.), sends forth a proclamation of the approach of the second advent of Christ; that this work is symbolized by the three angels of Revelation 14; and that their threefold message brings to view a work of reform to prepare a people to meet Him at His coming.

16. That the time of the cleansing of the sanctuary, synchronizing with the period of the proclamation of the message of Revelation 14, is a time of investigative judgment, first with reference to the dead, and secondly, with reference to the living. This investigative judgment determines who of the myriads sleeping in the dust of the earth are worthy of a part in the first resurrection, and who of its living multitudes are worthy of translation. 1 Peter 4:17, 18; Dan. 7:9, 10; Rev. 14:6, 7; Luke 20:35.

17. That the followers of Christ should be a godly people, not adopting the unholy maxims nor conforming to the unrighteous ways of the world, not loving its sinful pleasures nor countenancing its follies. That the believer should recognize his body as the temple of the Holy Spirit, and that therefore he should clothe that body in neat, modest, dignified apparel. Further, that in eating and drinking and in his entire course of conduct he should shape his life as becomes a follower of the meek and lowly Master. Thus the believer will be led to abstain from all intoxicating drinks, tobacco, and other narcotics, and the avoidance of every body and soul defiling habit and practice. 1 Cor. 3:16, 17; 9:25; 10:31; 1 Tim. 2:9, 10; 1 John 2:6.

18. That the divine principle of tithes and offerings for the support of the gospel is an acknowledgment of God's ownership in our lives, and that we are stewards who must render account to Him of all that He has committed to our possession. Lev. 27:30; Mal. 3:8-12; Matt. 23:23; 1 Cor. 9:9-14: 2 Cor. 9:6-15.

19. That God has placed in His church the gifts of the Holy Spirit, as enumerated in 1 Corinthians 12 and Ephesians 4. That these gifts operate in harmony with the divine principles of the Bible, and are given for the perfecting of the saints, the work of the ministry, the edifying of the body of Christ. Rev. 12:17; 19:10; 1 Cor. 1:5-7.
20. That the second coming of Christ is the great hope of the church, the grand climax of the gospel and plan of salvation. His coming will be literal, personal, and visible. Many important events will be associated with His return, such as the resurrection of the dead, the destruction of the wicked, the purification of the earth, the reward of the righteous, the establishment of His everlasting kingdom. The almost complete fulfillment of various lines of prophecy, particularly those found in the books of Daniel and the Revelation, with existing conditions in the physical, social, industrial, political, and religious worlds, indicates that Christ's coming "is near, even at the doors." Matt. 24:33. The exact time of that event has not been foretold. Believers are exhorted to be ready, for "in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man" (Matt. 24:44) will be revealed. Luke 21:25-27; 17:26-30; John 14:1-3; Acts 1:9-11; Rev. 1:7; Heb. 9:28; James 5:1-8; Joel 3:14-16; 2 Tim. 3:1-5; Dan. 7:27; Matt. 24:36, 44.

21. That the millennial reign of Christ covers the period between the first and the second resurrections, during which time the saints of all ages will live with their blessed Redeemer in Heaven. At the end of the millennium, the Holy City with all the saints will descend to the earth. The wicked, raised in the second resurrection, will go up on the breadth of the earth with Satan at their head to compass the camp of the saints, when fire will come down from God out of Heaven and devour them. In the conflagration which destroys Satan and his host, the earth itself will be regenerated and cleansed from the effects of the curse. Thus the universe of God will be purified from the foul blot of sin. Revelation 20; Zech. 14:1-4; 2 Peter 3:7-10.

22. That God will make all things new. The earth, restored to its pristine beauty, will become forever the abode of the saints of the Lord. The promise to Abraham, that through Christ he and his seed should possess the earth throughout the endless ages of eternity, will be fulfilled. "The kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him." Dan. 7:27. Christ, the Lord, will reign supreme, and every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, will ascribe "blessing, and honor, and glory, and power," unto "Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb forever and ever." Gen. 13:14-17; Rom. 4:13; Heb. 11:8-16; Matt. 5:5; Isaiah 85; Rev. 21:1-7; 5:13; Dan. 7:27.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

OUTLINE OF COURSES IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

As a result of various actions taken by the Department of Education, it is recommended that the work of our intermediate schools, academies, and colleges be organized upon a semester basis, each semester to be subdivided approximately into three periods of six weeks each. It was also recommended that the credits given in secondary schools be reckoned upon a unit basis, one unit representing a study pursued 36 weeks with five recitations a week, forty-five minutes in length, or its equivalent; that college credits be given on the semester-hour basis, a semester-hour representing a study pursued one sixty-minute hour a week for eighteen weeks. The scope of the work offered in these schools is as follows:

MISSION RECEIPTS AND APPROPRIATIONS

The amounts following have been taken from the annual receipt and disbursement statements of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists for the several years. Prior to 1905 these reports were made up on a somewhat different plan than since that date and are not easily comparable. The amounts here given represent mission contributions and percentages of tithe receipts, and other General Conference income from the entire world field; and General Conference expenditures for foreign mission and home appropriations, and for the General Conference headquarters administration.

A MAGAZINE OF RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

The only journal of its kind in the United States.

- Magazines, newspapers, periodicals of many sorts stress the need of preserving the civil rights of men and women. Usually no more than the most casual reference to religious liberty is made in these journals.

- LIBERTY, recognizing that freedom to worship God according to the dictates of one's conscience is the greatest of all liberties, devotes its pages primarily to the one purpose of seeking to preserve the heritage of religious freedom which Americans received as their greatest legacy from the founders of the nation.

- LIBERTY warns against proposed legislation in either the United States Congress or State legislatures that would deny freedom of conscience to any group of our citizens.

- LIBERTY is unselfish and unafraid.

- The unique work done by LIBERTY places it in a class of its own.

Illustrate BIBLE Lessons

With PICTUROLS and KODACHROMES

The completeness of the S. V. E. Library permits you to illustrate Bible lessons with both black-and-white and full-color pictures. Picturols and Kodachromes can be projected life-size with the efficient S. V. E. Tri-Purpose Projectors and any standard projectors for 35 mm. filmstrips or 2" x 2" slides.

The S. V. E. collection of 2" x 2" Kodachrome slides of religious masterpieces is famous for its beauty and choice of interesting subjects. The collection consists of Kodachrome slides reproduced, by permission, from the original paintings in the National Gallery of Art, Washington, D. C., and from other famous galleries and museums.

Picturols (35 mm. black-and-white filmstrips) are available on hundreds of subjects including a series on the Old and New Testaments; reproductions of Bible illustrations by the old masters, from the book Christ and the Fine Arts; hymns; sermons; religious literature; and many other subjects.

To help you select material for your programs, write to the S. D. A. Purchasing Bureau, Takoma Park, Washington, D. C., for information on special S. D. A. filmstrips and the S. V. E. Catalog of Religious Filmstrips and Kodachromes.

AMERICAN STATE PAPERS

THIS well-known volume has been thoroughly revised for wide general distribution. In the last three decades many developments involving religious rights have occurred. Younger generations of our citizens have forgotten the reasons for the safeguards that the founders of the nation established. "American State Papers" contains significant actions of State legislatures and city councils and some vital decisions of courts. It contains enough material to enable anyone to present a clear and reasonable statement of the basic principles that underlie our form of government, and to support his views with authentic quotations from the writings of the founders of the United States.
