Preface

A directory of the conferences, mission fields and institutions connected with the Seventh-day Adventist denomination is given in the following pages. Administrative and workers' lists have been furnished by the organizations concerned. In cases where current reports were not received, previous official and personnel rolls have been retained or adjusted to the best information available. Below appears data summarized largely from the 1964 Statistical Report, the one last issued at this date.

The number of churches and the church membership in each of the conferences in North America, as well as those outside of North America, are the figures published in the latest available Annual Statistical Report. Populations of conferences in North America are based on latest figures available; and population figures for other fields have been furnished largely from the Divisions covering their particular areas.

Following the classification order of workers in the General Conference Working Policy, those persons who carry Missionary Credentials are placed immediately following the Ordained-Minister groups in the conference and mission sections of the Yearbook. The Directory of Workers lists the names and addresses of ordained and licensed ministers and workers holding Missionary Credentials, and other credentials and licenses authorized by General Conference Policy.

The Seventh-day Adventist denomination was organized May 21, 1863, with a constituency of 125 churches, and 3,500 members. The work was largely confined to North America until the year 1874, when the first missionary, Elder J. N. Andrews, was sent to Switzerland. Gradually other countries were entered. In 1886 a minister went to Russia, the first non-Protestant country in which this work was started. The schooner "Pitcairn" was launched in San Francisco Bay on July 28, 1890, and was soon prepared to carry groups of missionaries to various Pacific islands. In 1894 Seventh-day Adventist workers first entered a heathen land, opening a mission in Matabeleland, South Africa. South America was entered the same year, and Japan in 1896.

Although publishing and the distribution of literature had been a major factor in the development of the Advent cause from its beginning, the first regular publishing house was incorporated in 1861 at Battle Creek, Michigan, under the name of the Seventh-day Adventist Publishing Association. The Advent Review and Sabbath Herald was first published in 1850 at Paris, Maine; the Youth's Instructor at Rochester, New York, in 1852; and the Signs of the Times at Oakland, California in 1874. In 1866 the Health Reform Institute, later the Battle Creek Sanitarium, was established. The first denominational school was opened in 1872. Tract and missionary society work was organized on a state-wide basis in 1870, and state Sabbath school associations in 1877. The name, "Seventh-day Adventist," was chosen in 1860, and in 1903 the denominational headquarters offices were moved from Battle Creek, Michigan, to Washington, D.C.

From 1901 to the close of 1964, 10,198 missionaries were sent out for service in all larger countries of the world and in many islands of the sea. At the close of this period Seventh-day Adventists report 928 languages and dialects in which the gospel message is being or has been proclaimed.

The membership of the 14,316 Seventh-day Adventist churches throughout the world was 14,086,066 at the close of 1964. There were 71 union conferences and missions, 368 local conferences and organized mission fields, and 834 institutions. Evangelistic and institutional workers numbered 59,206; of this number 24,683 were in North America and 34,523 in other countries.

Tithes and offerings contributed in 1964 by Seventh-day Adventists reached the highest total ever raised by the denomination in any one year. This total was $127,620,162.20, or a per capita contribution of $89.35 for the world membership. In North America alone the per capita giving in tithes and offerings was $277.43.
FUNDAMENTAL BELIEFS OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

Seventh-day Adventists hold certain fundamental beliefs, the principal features of which, together with their references upon which they are based, may be summarized as follows:

1. That the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, contain an all-sufficient revelation of His will to men, and are the only unerring rule of faith and practice. 2 Tim. 3:15-17.

2. That the Godhead, or Trinity, consists of the Eternal Father, the Son of the Eternal Father, and the Holy Spirit. 2 Cor. 1:18; 1 John 5:7; Matt. 28:19; Acts 2:36, 38; 1 Thess. 1:1; 1 Pet. 1:2.

3. That Jesus Christ is very God, being of the same nature and essence as the Eternal Father. John 1:1, 2.

4. That every person in order to obtain salvation must experience the new birth, that is, be born again. John 3:16; Matt. 18:3; Acts 2:37-39.

5. That baptism is an ordinance of the Christian church and should follow repentance and forgiveness of sins. By its observance faith and forgiveness of sins. By its observance faith is shown in the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ. That the proper form of baptism is immersion. Matt. 28:19; Acts 2:38; Eph. 4:5; Rom. 6:3-5; 1 Cor. 12:13.

6. That the will of God as it relates to moral conduct is comprehended in ten commandments; that these are great moral, unchangeable precepts, binding upon all men, in every age. Ex. 20:1-17.

7. That the fourth commandment of this unchangeable law requires the observance of the seventh-day Sabbath. This holy institution is at the same time a memorial of creation and a sign of sanctification, a sign of the believer's rest from his own works of sin, and his entrance into the rest of soul which Jesus promises to those who come to Him. Gen. 2:3; Ex. 20:8-11; 31:12-17; Heb. 4:10.

8. That the law of ten commandments points out sin, the penalty of which is death. That the observance of the Sabbath carries with it the new birth, or belief in Christ, a substitute, even Christ the Sin-Bearer, inducting the believer into the new covenant relationship, where the law of God is written on his heart, and through the enabling power of the indwelling Christ, his life is brought into conformity to the divine precepts. The honor and merit of this wonderful transformation belong wholly to Christ. 1 John 2:1, 2; 3:4; Rom. 3:28; 6:6; 7:7; Eph. 2:8-10; 3:7; Gal. 2:20; Heb. 8:8-12.

9. That God's only method of salvation is by faith. Rom. 3:28. "He that hath the Son hath life." 1 John 5:12. Immortality is bestowed upon the righteous at the second coming of Christ, when the righteous dead are raised from the grave and the living righteous translated to meet the Lord. Then it is that those accounted faithful "put on immortality." 1 Cor. 15:53-55.

10. That the condition of man in death is one of unconsciousness. That all men, good and evil alike, remain in the grave from death to the resurrection. Ecc. 9:5, 6; Ps. 148:3, 4; John 5:28, 29.

11. That there shall be a resurrection both of the just and of the unjust. The resurrection of the just will take place at the second coming of Christ; the resurrection of the unjust will take place at the close of the millennium. John 5:28, 29; 1 Thess. 4:13-15; Rev. 20:5-6.

12. That the seventh angel, including Satan, the author of sin, will, by the fires of the last day be reduced to a state of non-existence, becoming as though they had not been, thus purging God's universe of sin and sinners. Rom. 6:23; Mal. 4:1-3; Rev. 20:9, 10; Obadiah 16.

13. That no prophetic period is given in the Bible to reach the second advent, but that the long period of the 2300 days of Daniel 8:14, terminated in 1843, and that is said to be an event called the cleansing of the sanctuary.

14. That the true sanctuary, of which the tabernacle on earth was a type, is the temple of God in heaven, of which Paul speaks in Hebrews 8 and onward, and of which the Lord Jesus, as our great high priest, is minister; and that the priestly work of our Lord is the antitype of the work of the Jewish priests of the former dispensation; that this heavenly sanctuary is the one to be cleansed at the end of the 2300 days of Daniel 8:14; its cleansing being, as in the type, a work of judgment, beginning with the entrance of Christ as the high priest upon the judgment phase of His ministry in the heavenly sanctuary. This work of judgment began in 1844. Its completion will close human probation.

15. That God, in the time of the judgment and in accordance with His uniform dealing with the human family in warning them of coming events vitally affecting their destiny, sends forth a proclamation of judgment. This work of judgment is symbolized by the three angels of Revelation 14; and that their three-fold message brings to view a work of reform to prepare a people to meet Him at His coming.

16. That the time of the cleansing of the sanctuary, synchronizing with the period of the proclamation of the message of Revelation... tion 14, is a time of investigative judgment, first with reference to the dead, and second with reference to the living. This investigative judgment determines who of the myriad sleeping in the earth are worthy of a part in the first resurrection, and who of its living multitudes are worthy of a part in the second. Matt. 24:17, 21; Dan. 7:9, 10; Rev. 14:3, 7; Luke 20:35.

17. That the followers of Christ should be a godly and holy people, not adopting the unholy maxims not conforming to the unrighteous ways of the world, not loving its sinful pleasures nor partaking of its vices. That believers should recognize their bodies as the temple of the Holy Spirit, and that therefore they should clothe that body in neat, modest, dignified apparel. Further, that in eating and drinking and in their entire course of conduct they should shape their lives as becometh followers of the meek and lowly Master. Thus the followers of Christ will be led to abstain from all intoxicating drinks, tobacco, and other narcotics, and to avoid every body and soul defiling habit and practice. 1 Cor. 3:16, 17; 10:29; 1 Tim. 5:23; 1 John 2:5, 6.

18. That the divine principle of tithes and offerings for the support of the gospel is an acknowledgment of God's ownership in our lives, and that we are stewards who must render account to Him of all that He has committed to our possession. Lev. 27:30; Mal. 3:10; Matt. 23:23; 1 Cor. 3:9; 2 Cor. 9:6-15.

19. That God has placed in His church the gifts of the Holy Spirit, as enumerated in 1 Corinthians 12 and Ephesians 4. That these gifts operate in harmony with the divine principles of the Bible, and are given for the perfecting of the saints, the work of the ministry, the edifying of the body of Christ. Rev. 12:17; 18:10; 1 Cor. 13:7; 1 Thess. 2:18. Thus the gifts of the Spirit of Prophecy is the identifying mark of the remnant church. 1 Cor. 15, 17; Eph. 4:1112; 2 Cor. 10:1-13; 2 Thess. 2:13; 1 John 4:2.

20. That God placed in His church the gifts of the Holy Spirit, as enumerated in 1 Corinthians 12 and Ephesians 4. That these gifts operate in harmony with the divine principles of the Bible, and are given for the perfecting of the saints, the work of the ministry, the edifying of the body of Christ. Rev. 12:17; 18:10; 1 Cor. 13:7; 1 Thess. 2:18. Thus the gifts of the Spirit of Prophecy is the identifying mark of the remnant church. 1 Cor. 15, 17; Eph. 4:1112; 2 Cor. 10:1-13; 2 Thess. 2:13; 1 John 4:2.

21. That the followers of Christ should be a godly and holy people, not adopting the unholy maxims not conforming to the unrighteous ways of the world, not loving its sinful pleasures nor partaking of its vices. That believers should recognize their bodies as the temple of the Holy Spirit, and that therefore they should clothe that body in neat, modest, dignified apparel. Further, that in eating and drinking and in their entire course of conduct they should shape their lives as becometh followers of the meek and lowly Master. Thus the followers of Christ will be led to abstain from all intoxicating drinks, tobacco, and other narcotics, and to avoid every body and soul defiling habit and practice. 1 Cor. 3:16, 17; 10:29; 1 Tim. 5:23; 1 John 2:5, 6.

22. That the divine principle of tithes and offerings for the support of the gospel is an acknowledgment of God's ownership in our lives, and that we are stewards who must render account to Him of all that He has committed to our possession. Lev. 27:30; Mal. 3:10; Matt. 23:23; 1 Cor. 3:9; 2 Cor. 9:6-15.

OUR ADVERTISERS

Effective advertising is more than a gesture of goodwill between competent suppliers and their favorite buyers. It is specific information concerning available services rendered by whom, when, and where.

The Yearbook serves thousands of S.D.A. offices throughout the world. While it is designed primarily as a directory and reference book, the advertisements introduce a group of cooperative businessmen and their products to the administrators and institutional purchasing agents of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination.

We highly recommend the organizations advertising in this Yearbook; and when you write to them, kindly mention that you saw their advertisements in the "Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook."

Conditionalist
Faith of our Fathers

by LeRoy Edwin Froom

Eight years of intensive research in the greatest libraries of both the Old and New Worlds has enabled the author to trace the consistent teaching of conditional immortality from Bible times to the present.

Volume 1 (in preparation) covers the subject until about A.D. 600.

Volume 2 (ready now) picks up the story, takes it through the Middle Ages, on to the Reformation, and traces it right to our day.

- Fully documented—impressively illustrated
- Based on unassailable evidence—summed up by tabular and pictorial charts.
- Authoritative—scholarly—convincing

Traces the revival and restoration of trampled conditionalism—A.D. 600 to 1963. Puts Adventism in its rightful place in the witness of the centuries.

A must for preachers, teachers, church officers—a priceless tool for every student of the Bible
