Preface

A directory of the conferences, mission fields and institutions connected with the Seventh-day Adventist denomination is given in the following pages. Administrative and workers' lists have been furnished by the organizations concerned. In cases where current reports were not received, previous official and personnel rolls have been retained or adjusted to the best information available. Below appears data summarized largely from the 1965 Statistical Report, the one last issued at this date.

The number of churches and the church membership in each of the conferences in North America, as well as those outside of North America, are the figures published in the latest available Annual Statistical Report. Populations of conferences in North America are based on latest figures available; and population figures for other fields have been furnished largely from the Divisions covering their particular areas.

Following the classification order of workers in the General Conference Working Policy, those persons who carry Missionary Credentials are placed immediately following the Ordained-Minister groups in the conference and mission sections of the Yearbook. The Directory of Workers lists the names and addresses of ordained and licensed ministers and workers holding Missionary Credentials, and other credentials and licenses authorized by General Conference Policy.

The Seventh-day Adventist denomination was organized May 21, 1863, with a constituency of 125 churches, and 3,500 members. The work was largely confined to North America until the year 1874, when the first missionary, Elder J. N. Andrews, was sent to Switzerland. Gradually other countries were entered. In 1886 a minister went to Russia, the first non-Protestant country in which this work was started. The schooner "Pitcairn" was launched in San Francisco Bay on July 28, 1890, and was soon prepared to carry groups of missionaries to various Pacific islands. In 1894 Seventh-day Adventist workers first entered a heathen land, opening a mission in Matabeleland, South Africa. South America was entered the same year, and Japan in 1896.

Although publishing and the distribution of literature had been a major factor in the development of the Advent cause from its beginning, the first regular publishing house was incorporated in 1861 at Battle Creek, Michigan, under the name of the Seventh-day Adventist Publishing Association. The Advent Review and Sabbath Herald was first published in 1850 at Paris, Maine; the Youth's Instructor at Rochester, New York, in 1852; and the Signs of the Times at Oakland, California, in 1874. In 1866 the Health Reform Institute, later the Battle Creek Sanitarium, was established. The first denominational school was opened in 1872. Tract and missionary society work was organized on a state-wide basis in 1870, and state Sabbath school association in 1877. The name, "Seventh-day Adventist," was chosen in 1860, and in 1903 the denominational headquarters offices were moved from Battle Creek, Michigan, to Washington, D.C.

From 1901 to the close of 1965, 10,485 missionaries were sent out for service in all larger countries of the world and in many islands of the sea. At the close of this period, Seventh-day Adventist report 1,066 languages and dialects in which the gospel message is being or has been proclaimed.

The membership of the 14,651 Seventh-day Adventist churches throughout the world was 1,578,504 at the close of 1965. There were 86 union conferences and missions, 375 local conferences and organized mission fields, and 973 institutions. Evangelistic and institutional workers numbered 62,224; of this number 24,887 were in North America and 37,337 in other countries.

Tithes and offerings contributed in 1965 by Seventh-day Adventists reached the highest total ever raised by the denomination in any one year. This total was $142,894,421.30, or a per capita contribution of $94.75 for the world membership. In North America alone the per capita giving in tithes and offerings was $309.72.
FUNDAMENTAL BELIEFS OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

Seventh-day Adventists hold certain fundamental beliefs, the principal features of which are derived from a portion of the scriptural references upon which they are based, may be summarized as follows:

1. That the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, contain an all-sufficient revelation of His will to men, and are the only unerring rule of faith and practice. 2 Tim. 3:15-17.

2. That the Godhead, or Trinity, consists of the Eternal Father, a personal, spiritual Being, omnipotent, omnipresent, omniscient, infinite in wisdom and love; the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Eternal Father, through whom all things were created and through whom the salvation of the redeemed hosts will be accomplished; the Holy Spirit, the third person of the Godhead, the great Comforter, through whom the salvation of the redeemed is wrought by the divine agency of the Holy Spirit, who convinces of sin and leads to the Spirit-Bearing, inducting the believer into the new covenant relationship, where the law of God is written on his heart, and through the enabling power of the indwelling Christ, his life is brought into conformity to the divine precepts. The honor and merit of this wonderful transformation belong wholly to Christ. 1 John 2:1; 2:3; 3:4; Rom. 3:20; 5:8-10; 7:7; Eph. 2:8-10; 3:17; Gal. 2:20; Heb. 8:8-12.

3. That Jesus Christ is very God, being of the same nature and essence as the Eternal Father. While retaining His divine nature He took upon Himself the nature of the human family, lived on the earth as a man, exemplified in His life as our Example the principles of righteousness, attested His relations to God by many mighty miracles, died for our sins on the cross, was raised from the dead, and ascended to the Father, where He ever lives to make intercession for us. John 1:1, 14; Heb. 2:9-18; 8:1, 2; 4:14-16; 7:25.

4. That every person in order to obtain salvation must experience the new birth; that this comprises an entire transformation of life and character by the recreative power of God through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. John 3:16; Matt. 18:3; Acts 2:37-39.

5. That baptism is an ordinance of the Christian church and should follow repentance and forgiveness of sins. By its observance faith is shown in the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ. That the proper form of administering this ordinance is by immersion. Rom. 6:1-6; Acts 10:47.

6. The will of God as it relates to moral conduct is comprehended in His law of ten commandments; that these are great moral norms by which all men, in every age, are to be judged. Ex. 20:1-17.

7. That the fourth commandment of this unchangeable law requires the observance of the seventh-day Sabbath. This holy institution is at the same time a memorial of creation and a sign of sanctification, a sign of the believer's rest from his own works of sin, and his entrance into the rest of soul which Jesus promises to those who come to Him. Gen. 2:1-3; Ex. 20:8-11; 31:12-17; Heb. 4:1-10.

8. That the law of ten commandments points out sin, the penalty of which is death. The law cannot save the transgressor from his sin, nor impart power to keep him from sinning. In infinite love and mercy, God provides a way whereby this may be done. He furnishes a substitute, even Christ the Righteous One, to die in man's stead, making "Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him." 2 Cor. 5:21. That one is justified, not by obedience to the law, but by acceptance that law as a testimony of God's righteousness. Having accepted Christ, man is reconciled to God, justified by His blood for the sins of the past, and saved from the power of sin by His indwelling life. Thus the gospel becomes "the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth." 1:17; Rom. 1:16; 10:16. Justification is wrought by the divine agency of the Holy Spirit, who convinces of sin and leads to the Spirit-Bearing, inducting the believer into the new covenant relationship, where the law of God is written on his heart, and through the enabling power of the indwelling Christ, his life is brought into conformity to the divine precepts. The honor and merit of this wonderful transformation belong wholly to Christ. 1 John 2:1; 2:3; 3:4; Rom. 3:20; 5:8-10; 7:7; Eph. 2:8-10; 3:17; Gal. 2:20; Heb. 8:8-12.

9. That God "only hath immortality." 1 Tim. 6:16. Mortal man possesses a nature inherently sinful and dying. Eternal life is the gift of God through faith in Christ. Rom. 6:23. He who hath the Son hath life. 1 John 5:12. Immortality is bestowed upon the righteous at the second coming of Christ, when the righteous dead are raised from the grave and the living righteous translated to meet the Lord. Then it is that those accounted faithful "put on immortality." 1 Cor. 15:53-55.

10. That the condition of man in death is one of unconsciousness. That all men, good and evil alike, remain in the grave from death to the resurrection. Eccl. 9:5, 6; Ps. 146:3, 4; John 5:25, 28.

11. That there shall be a resurrection both of the just and of the unjust. The resurrection of the just will take place at the second coming of Christ; the resurrection of the unjust will take place a thousand years later, at the close of the millennium. John 5:28, 29; 1 Thess. 4:13-18; Rev. 20:5-10.

12. That the finally impenitent, including Satan, the author of sin, will, by the fires of the last day, be reduced to a state of non-existence, becoming as though they had not been, thus purging God's universe of sin and sinners. Rom. 6:23; Mal. 4:3-5; Rev. 20:3, 10; Obadiah 16.

13. That no prophetic period is given in the Bible to reach the Second Advent, but that the longest one, the 2300 days of Daniel 8:14, terminated in 1844, and brought us to an event called the cleansing of the sanctuary.

14. That the true sanctuary, of which the tabernacle on earth was a type, is the temple of God in heaven, of which Paul speaks in Hebrews 8 and onward, and of which the Lord Jesus, as our great high priest, is minister; and that the priestly work of our Lord is the antitype of the work of the Jewish priests of the former dispensation; that this heavenly sanctuary is the one to be cleansed at the end of the 2300 days of Daniel 8:14; its cleansing being, as in the type, a work of judgment, beginning with the entrance of Christ as the high priest upon the judgment phase of His ministry in the heavenly sanctuary, foreshadowed in the earthly service of cleansing the sanctuary on the day of atonement. This work of judgment in the heavenly sanctuary began in 1844. Its completion will close human probation.

15. That God, in the time of the judgment and in accordance with His uniform dealing with the human family in warning them of coming events vitally affecting their destiny (Amos 3:6, 7), sends forth a proclamation of the approach of the second advent of Christ; that this work is symbolized by the three angels of Revelation 14; and that their threefold message brings to view a work of reform to prepare a people to meet Him at His coming.

16. That the time of the cleansing of the sanctuary, synchronizing with the period of the proclamation of the message of Revelation 14, is a time of investigative judgment, first with reference to the dead, and second with reference to the living. This investigative judgment determines who of the myriads sleeping in the dust of the earth are worthy of a part in the first resurrection, and who of its living multitudes are worthy of translation. 1 Peter 4:17, 18; Dan. 7:9, 10; Rev. 14:6, 7; Luke 20:35.

17. That the followers of Christ should be a godly people, not adopting the unholy maxims nor conforming to the unrighteous ways of the world, not loving its sinful pleasures nor countenancing its follies. That believers should recognize their bodies as the temple of the Holy Spirit, and that therefore they should clothe that body in neat, modest, dignified apparel. Further, that in eating and drinking and in their entire course of conduct they should shape their lives as becometh followers of the meek and lowly Master. Thus the followers of Christ will be led to abstain from all intoxicating drinks, tobacco, and other narcotics, and to avoid every body- and soul-defiling habit and practice. 1 Cor. 3:16, 17; 9:25, 10:31; 1 Tim. 2:9, 10; 1 John 2:6.

18. That the divine principle of tithes and offerings for the support of the gospel is an acknowledgement of God's ownership in our lives, and that we are stewards who must render account to Him of all that He has committed to our possession. Lev. 27:30; Mal. 3:8-12; Matt. 23:23; 1 Cor. 9:9-14; 2 Cor. 9:6-15.

19. That God has placed in His church the gifts of the Holy Spirit, as enumerated in 1 Corinthians 12 and Ephesians 4. That these gifts operate in harmony with the divine principles of the Bible, and are given for the perfecting of the saints, the work of the ministry, the edifying of the body of Christ. Rev. 12:17; 19:10; 1 Cor. 13:7. That the gift of the Spirit of Prophecy is one of the identifying marks of the remnant church. 1 Cor. 13:7; 12:12; 12:28; Rev. 12:17; 19:10; Amos 3:7; Hosea 12:10. 13. They recognize that this gift was manifested in the life and ministry of Ellen G. White.

20. That the second coming of Christ, the most hope of the church, the grand climax of the gospel and plan of salvation His coming will be literal, personal, and visible. Many important events will be associated with His return, such as the resurrection of the dead, the destruction of the wicked, the purification of the earth, the reward of the righteous, the establishment of His everlasting kingdom. The almost complete fulfillment of various lines of prophecy, particularly those found in the books of Daniel and the Revelation, with existing conditions in the physical, social, industrial, political, and religious world, indicates that Christ's coming "is near, even at the doors." Matt. 24:33. The exact time of that event has not been foretold. Believers are exhorted to be ready, for "in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man" (Matt. 24:44) will be revealed. Luke 17:26-30; 21:25-27; John 14:1-3; Acts 1:9-11; Rev. 1:7; Heb. 5:28; James 5:3-5; Joel 3:9-16; 2 Tim. 3:3-5; Dan. 7:22; Matt. 24:36, 44.

21. That the millennial reign of Christ covers the period between the first and the second resurrections, during which time the saints of all ages will live with their blessed Redeemer in heaven. At the end of the millennium, the Holy City with all the saints will descend to the earth. The wicked, raised in the second resurrection, will go up on the breadth of the earth with Satan at their head to compass the camp of the saints, when fire will come down from God out heaven and devour them. In the conflagration which destroys Satan and his host, the earth itself will be regenerated and cleansed from the effects of the curse. Thus the universe of God will be purified from the foul blot of sin. Rev. 20; Zech. 14:1-4; 2 Peter 3:7-10.

22. That God will make all things new. The earth, restored to its pristine beauty, will become forever the abode of the saints of the Lord. The promise to Abraham, that through Christ the he and his seed should possess the earth throughout the endless ages of eternity, will be fulfilled. "The kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, will be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him." Dan. 7:27. Christ, the Lord, will reign supreme, and every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth, and such as are in the sea will ascribe "blessing, and honour, and glory, and power." unto "Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever." Gen. 13:14-17; Rom. 4:13; Heb. 11:3-16; Matt. 5:5; Isa. 35: 5:1-3; Acts 1:9-11; Rev. 1:7; Heb. 5:28; James 5:3-5; Joel 3:9-16; 2 Tim. 3:3-5; Dan. 7:22; Matt. 24:36, 44.

SERVING INVESTORS

Nation's Capital for 46 Years

Through our nation-wide wire system we execute orders at standard commission rates in listed and unlisted securities on every exchange and in every market in the United States and Canada, and have been an important factor in the Metropolitan Washington, D.C. market for forty-six years. With one of the best equipped trading departments in the south, we have developed a "know-how" in the Over-the-Counter market.

MUTUAL FUNDS: Recognizing the growing trend toward mutual funds by institutions as well as individual investors, we have a separate department specializing in these shares. We are the organizers, sponsors, and business managers of WASHINGTON MUTUAL INVESTORS FUND.

MUNICIPAL BONDS: Our Municipal Bond Department is headed by a seasoned municipal bond specialist. We actively participate in underwriting and trading all types of municipal bond issues.

Effective advertising is more than a gesture of goodwill between competent suppliers and their favorite buyers. It is specific information concerning available services rendered by whom, when, and where.

The Yearbook serves thousands of S.D.A. offices throughout the world. While it is designed primarily as a directory and reference book, the advertisements introduce a group of cooperative businessmen and their products to the administrators and institutional purchasing agents of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination.

We highly recommend the organizations advertising in this Yearbook; and when you write to them, kindly mention that you saw their advertisements in the Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook.

Some people think that just because a magazine has been around for ninety-two years, it interests older people only. But not so with Signs of the Times.

Signs speaks just as personally to young people today as it did to your great-grandmother before the turn of the century. It speaks to all ages. For this magazine pinpoints the significant events of today's world, events that interest all ages. And it interprets them in light of spiritual knowledge.

Listen, on the other hand, is a mere teenager, just eighteen years old. But its message is vital to Christians young or old. Listen talks about smoking, drinking, and narcotics, and it lets America's lively people do the talking—doctors, educators, sports stars, entertainers, and political leaders. Together they build a strong case for healthful, temperate living.

That's why you can feel assured that you and your entire family will enjoy both Signs and Listen. And remember your friends and loved ones with gift subscriptions. You present these gifts with the warm feeling that you're giving something lasting—perhaps for all eternity.

Just contact your church missionary secretary or visit your Book and Bible House. Signs, just $3.00 for twelve monthly issues. Listen, just $1.75 for twelve monthly issues (add 40 cents for Signs subscriptions to foreign countries).

The age-old conflict over man's nature and destiny

Eight years of intensive research in the greatest libraries of both the Old and New Worlds has enabled the author to trace the consistent teaching of conditional immortality from Bible times to the present.

Volume 1—Origin, Development, and Penetration of Innate Immortality (900 B.C. to A.D. 600)

The innate-immortality teaching, springing from Oriental, Egyptian, and Persian origins, brings about the age-old conflict that reaches its peak under pagan Greek Platonism; then penetrates and splits the Jewish faith. Later it penetrates and splits the Christian faith into three conflicting schools—(1) Conditionalism, (2) Eternal Tormentism, and (3) Universal Restorationism. An unparalleled theological trilemma results. The stage is thus set for relentless conflict compassing the Christian Era. Leading lights of history are involved.

(Volume 1 also includes priceless comprehensive presentation of the Bible truth thereon, as the norm for distinguishing between truth and error in the perpetual struggle.)

* Fully documented—impressively illustrated
* Authoritative—scholarly—convincing

Volume 2—Revival and Restoration of Trampled Conditionalism (A.D. 600 to 1963)

From the bleak and silent centuries of the Dark Ages, with the papal position dominant (stressing universal innate immortality and eternal torment of the wicked); through the scattered early Protestant Conditionalist revival; past aspersion, ostracism, and persecution; then to toleration, investigation, and growing acceptance, we are brought to the nineteenth- and twentieth-century restoration and widespread adoption of Conditionalism truth. Every denomination now contributes spokesmen.

Also lays bare the sinister intrusion of modern Spiritulism, with its Eastern occult affiliates, as it penetrates Protestantism and Catholicism, leading to an impending climactic clash.

* Based on unassailable evidence summed up by tabular and pictorial charts

A must for preachers, teachers, church officers—a priceless tool for every student of the Bible.
