A directory of the conferences, mission fields and institutions connected with the Seventh-day Adventist denomination is given in the following pages. Administrative and workers' lists have been furnished by the organizations concerned. In cases where current reports were not received, previous official and personnel rolls have been retained or adjusted to the best information available. Below appears data summarized largely from the 1968 Statistical Report, the one last issued at this date.

In the listing throughout the Yearbook of the number of churches and the church membership of the World Field, the official figures as of the close of the Second Quarter (June 30, 1969) are being used.

Following the classification order of workers in the General Conference Working Policy, those persons who carry Missionary Credentials are placed immediately following the Ordained-Minister groups in the conference and mission sections of the Yearbook. The Directory of Workers lists the names and addresses of ordained and licensed ministers, credentialed missionaries, credentialed Bible instructors and credentialed literature evangelists.

The Seventh-day Adventist denomination was organized May 21, 1863, with a constituency of 126 churches, and 3,500 members. The work was largely confined to North America until the year 1874, when the first missionary, Elder J. N. Andrews, was sent to Switzerland. Gradually other countries were entered. In 1886 a minister went to Russia, the first non-Protestant country in which this work was started. The schooner "Pitcairn" was launched in San Francisco Bay on July 28, 1890, and was soon prepared to carry groups of missionaries to various Pacific islands. In 1894 Seventh-day Adventist workers first entered a heathen land, opening a mission in Matabeleland, South Africa. South America was entered the same year, and Japan in 1896.

Although the publication and the distribution of literature had been a major factor in the development of the Advent cause from its beginning, the first regular publishing house was incorporated in 1861 at Battle Creek, Michigan, under the name of the Seventh-day Adventist Publishing Association. The Advent Review and Sabbath Herald was first published in 1850 at Paris, Maine; the Youth's Instructor at Rochester, New York, in 1852; and the Signs of the Times at Oakland, California, in 1874. In 1866 the Health Reform Institute, later the Battle Creek Sanitarium, was established. The first denominational school was opened in 1872. Tract and missionary society work was organized on a state-wide basis in 1870, and state-wide Sabbath school association in 1877. The name, "Seventh-day Adventist," was chosen in 1860, and in 1903 the denominational headquarters offices were moved from Battle Creek, Michigan, to Washington, D.C.

From 1901 to the close of 1968, 11,634 missionaries were sent out for service in all larger countries of the world and in many islands of the sea. At the close of this period, Seventh-day Adventists reported 1,069 languages and dialects in which the gospel message is being or has been proclaimed.

The membership of the 15,744 Seventh-day Adventist churches throughout the world was 1,845,183 at the close of 1968. There were 76 union conferences and missions, 574 local conferences and organized mission fields, and 876 institutions. Evangelistic and institutional workers numbered 52,273; of this number 26,763 were in North America and 35,516 in other countries.

Tithes and offerings contributed in 1968 by Seventh-day Adventists reached the highest total ever raised by the denomination in any one year. This total was $180,381,956.97 or a per capita contribution of $111.13 for the world membership. In North America alone the per capita giving in tithes and offerings was $309.39.
FUNDAMENTAL BELIEFS OF SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

Seventh-day Adventists hold certain fundamental beliefs, the principal features of which, together with a portion of the scripture references upon which they are based, may be summarized as follows:

1. That the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, contain an all-sufficient revelation of His will to men, and are the only unerring rule of faith and practice. 2 Tim. 3:15-17.

2. That the Godhead, or Trinity, consists of the Eternal Father, the Son of the Eternal Father, and the Holy Spirit, the third person of the Godhead, the great regenerating power in the work of redemption. Matt. 28:19.

3. That Jesus Christ is very God, being of the same nature and essence as the Eternal Father. While retaining His divine nature He took upon Himself the nature of the human family, lived upon this earth as a man, exemplified in His life as our Example the principles of righteousness, attested His relationship to God by many mighty miracles, died for us upon the cross, was raised from the dead, and ascended to the Father, where He ever lives to make intercession for us. John 1:1, 14; Heb. 2:9-18; 8:1, 2; 4:14-16; 7:25.

4. That every person in order to obtain salvation must experience the new birth; that this comprises an entire transformation of life and character by the recreative power of God through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. John 3:16; Matt. 18:3-5; Acts 2:38, 39.

5. That baptism is an ordinance of the Christian church and should follow repentance and faith. By its observance the individual acknowledges, and in the new fulfillment of the covenant relationship, where the law of God is written on his heart, and through whom the salvation of the redeemed hosts will be accomplished; the Holy Spirit, the seventh-day Sabbath. This holy institution is at the same time a memorial of creation and forgiveness of sins. By its observance mortal man possesses a nature inherently sinful and dying. Eternal life is the gift of God through faith in Christ. Rom. 6:23. "He that hath the Son hath life." 1 John 5:12.

6. That there shall be a resurrection both of the just and of the unjust. The resurrection of the righteous at the second coming of Christ; the resurrection of the unjust will take place a thousand years later, at the close of the millennium. John 5:28, 29; 1 Thess. 4:13, 14; Rev. 20:5, 6, 11.

7. That the finally impenitent, including Satan, the author of sin, will, by the fires of the last day, be reduced to a state of non-existence, becoming as though they had not been; that they will be purged from God's universe of sin and sinners. Rom. 6:23; Mal. 4:1-3; Rev. 20:9-10; Obadiah 16.

8. That the condition of man in death is inherently sinful and dying. Eternal life is the gift of God through faith in Christ. Rom. 6:23; Mal. 4:1-3; Rev. 20:9, 10; Obadiah 16.

9. That the law of ten commandments, comprehended in His law of moral, unchangeable precepts, binding upon all men, in every age. Ex. 20:1-17.

10. That the fourth commandment of this unchangeable law requires the observance of the seventh-day Sabbath. This holy institution is at the same time a memorial of creation and sanctification, a sign of sanctification, a sign of the believer's rest from his own works of sin, and his entrance into the rest of soul which Jesus promises to those who come to Him. Gen. 2:1-3; Ex. 20:8-11; 31:12-17; Heb. 4:3-10.

11. That the law of ten commandments points out sin, the penalty of which is death. The law cannot save the transgressor from his sin, nor impart power to keep him from sinning. Confidence in love, and mercy, to save us from the power of sin by His indwelling life. Thus the gospel becomes "the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth." Rom. 1:16. This experience is wrought by the divine agency of the Holy Spirit, through the indwelling life of Christ, the Sin-Bearer, inducing the believer into the new covenant relationship, where the law of God is written on his heart, and through the enabling power of the indwelling Christ, his life is brought into conformity to the divine precepts. The honor and merit of this wonderful transformation belong wholly to Christ. 1 John 2:1, 2; 3:4; Rom. 3:20; 5:8-10; 7:7; Eph. 2:8-10; 2:17; Gal. 2:20; Heb. 8:6-12.

12. That the true sanctuary, of which the heavenly sanctuary is the antitype of the work of the Jewish priests of the former dispensation; that this work is symbolized by the three events vitally affecting their destiny with the human family in warning them of coming events. Matt. 1:23; 5:17; 22:40; Heb. 8:1; 9:1-6, 11, 25; 11:4; 12:27-29; Amos 3:6, 7; John 6:40; Rev. 14:6, 7; 19:10, 11; 22:1-5.

13. That the works of judgment, beginning with the entrance of Christ as the Sin-Bearer at the judgment phase of His ministry in the heavenly sanctuary foreshadowed in the earthly service of the priests of the former dispensation; that this heavenly sanctuary is the one to be cleansed at the end of the 2300 days of Daniel 8:14; its cleansing being, as in the type, a work of judgment, beginning with the entrance of Christ as the Sin-Bearer at the judgment phase of His ministry in the heavenly sanctuary foreshadowed in the earthly service of the priests on the day of atonement. This work of judgment in the heavenly sanctuary began in 1844. Its completion will close human probation. 1 Thess. 4:13-17; Rev. 7:7; 11:7; 14:3; 20:10; 21:22; 22:1-5; Ap. 14:6, 7; 19:10, 11; 22:10; 7:7; Ezek. 44:2; Rev. 14:6, 7; 19:10, 11; 22:1-5.

14. That the true sanctuary, of which the tabernacle on earth was a type, is the temple of God in heaven, of which Paul speaks in Hebrews 8 and onward, and of which the Lord Jesus, as our great high priest, is minister; and that the heavenly sanctuary is the one to be cleansed at the end of the 2300 days of Daniel 8:14; its cleansing being, as in the type, a work of judgment, beginning with the entrance of Christ as the Sin-Bearer at the judgment phase of His ministry in the heavenly sanctuary foreshadowed in the earthly service of the priests of the former dispensation; that this heavenly sanctuary is the one to be cleansed at the end of the 2300 days of Daniel 8:14; its cleansing being, as in the type, a work of judgment, beginning with the entrance of Christ as the Sin-Bearer at the judgment phase of His ministry in the heavenly sanctuary foreshadowed in the earthly service of the priests on the day of atonement. This work of judgment in the heavenly sanctuary began in 1844. Its completion will close human probation. 1 Thess. 4:13-17; Rev. 7:7; 11:7; 14:3; 20:10; 21:22; 22:1-5; Ap. 14:6, 7; 19:10, 11; 22:10; 7:7; Ezek. 44:2; Rev. 14:6, 7; 19:10, 11; 22:1-5.

15. That God, in the time of the judgment and in accordance with His uniform dealing with the human family in warning them of coming events, sends forth a proclamation of the approach of the second advent of Christ; that this work will take place at the earth's angels of Revelation 14; and that their fold message brings to view a work of reform to prepare a people to meet Him at His coming.

16. That the time of the cleansing of the sanctuary, synchronizing with the period of the proclamation of the message of Revelation 14, is a time of investigative judgment, first with reference to the dead, and second with reference to the living. This investigative judgment determines who of the myriad sleeping in the dust of the earth are worthy of a part in the first resurrection, and who of its living multitudes are worthy of translation. 1 Peter 4:17, 18; Dan. 7:9, 10; Rev. 14:9, 7; Luke 20:35.

17. That the followers of Christ should be a godly people, not adopting the unholy maxims nor conforming to the unrighteous ways of the world, not loving its sinful pleasures nor countenancing its follies. That believers should recognize their bodies as the temple of the Holy Spirit, and that therefore they should clothe that body in neat, modest, dignified apparel. Further, that in eating and drinking and in their entire course of conduct they should shape their lives as become the followers of the meek and lowly Master. Thus the followers of Christ will be led to abstain from all intoxicating drinks, tobacco, and other narcotics, and to avoid every body- and soul-defiling habit and practice. 1 Cor. 3:16, 17; 9:25; 10:31; 1 Tim. 2:3, 10; 1 John 2:8.

18. That the divine principle of tithes and offerings for the support of the gospel is an acknowledgement of God's ownership in our lives, and that we are stewards who must render account to Him of all that He has committed to our possession. Lev. 27:30; Mal. 3:8-12; Matt. 23:23; 1 Cor. 9:9-14; 2 Cor. 9:6-15.

19. That God has placed in His church the gifts of the Holy Spirit, as enumerated in 1 Corinthians 12 and Ephesians 4. That these gifts operate in harmony with the divine principles of the Bible, and are given for the perfecting of the saints, the work of the ministry, the edifying of the body of Christ. Rev. 12:17; 19:10; 1 Cor. 1:5-7. That the gift of the Spirit of Prophecy is one of the identifying marks of the remnant church. 1 Cor. 12:17, 28; Rev. 12:17; 19:10; Amas 3:7; Hosena 12:10, 13. The remnant church recognizes that this gift was manifested in the life and ministry of Ellen G. White.

20. That the second coming of Christ is the great hope of the church, the grand climax of the gospel and plan of salvation. His coming will be literal, personal, and visible. Many important events will be associated with His return, such as the resurrection of the dead, the destruction of the wicked, the purification of the earth, the reward of the righteous, the establishment of an everlasting kingdom. The almost complete fulfillment of various lines of prophecy, particularly those found in the books of Daniel and the Revelation, with existing conditions in the physical, social, industrial, political, and religious world, indicates that Christ's coming is "near, even at the doors." Matt. 24:33. The exact time of that event has not been foretold. Believers are exhorted to be ready, for "in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man" (Matt. 24:44) will be revealed. Luke 17:26-30; 21:25-27; John 14:1-3; Acts 1:8-11; Rev. 1:7; Heb. 9:28; James 5:1-5; Joel 3:4-16; 2 Tim. 3:1-3; Dan. 7:27; Matt. 24:36, 44.

21. That the millennial reign of Christ covers the period between the first and the second resurrections, during which time the saints of all ages will live with their blessed Redeemer in heaven. At the end of the millennium, the Holy City with all the saints will descend to the earth. The wicked, raised in the second resurrection, will go up on the breadth of the earth with Satan at their head to compass the camp of the saints, when fire will come down from God out of heaven and devour them. In the configration which destroys Satan and his host, the earth itself will be regenerated and cleansed from the effects of the curse. Thus the universe of God will be purified from the foul blot of sin. Rev. 20; Zech. 14:1-4; 2 Peter 3:7-10.

22. That God will make all things new. The earth, restored to its pristine beauty, will become forever the abode of the saints of the Lord. The promise to Abraham, that through Christ he and his seed should possess the earth throughout the endless ages of eternity, will be fulfilled. "The kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, will be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him." Dan. 7:27. Christ, the Lord, will reign supreme, and every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth, and such as are in the sea will ascribe "blessing, and honour, and glory, and power," unto "Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever." Gen. 13:14-17; Rom. 4:18; Heb. 11:8-16; Matt. 5:5; Isa. 35; Rev. 21:17; 5:14; Dan. 7:27.
THE CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS
of the
General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

(As Revised at the Fiftieth Session held in Detroit, Michigan, June 16-25, 1966.)

Article I—Name
This organization shall be known as General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Article II—Object
The object of this Conference is to teach all nations the everlasting gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ and the commandments of God.

Article III—Membership
Sec. 1. The membership of this Conference shall consist of:
(a) Such conference and union missions either in organized division sections or without divisional affiliation as have been or shall be properly organized and accepted by vote of the General Conference in session.
(b) Such local conferences and properly organized local missions not included in any division, union conference or union mission or such local conferences or local missions directly attached to divisions as have been or shall be properly organized and accepted by vote of the General Conference in session.

Sec. 2. The voters of this Conference shall be designated as follows:
(a) Delegates at large.
(b) Regular delegates.

Sec. 3. Delegates at large shall be:
(a) All members of the General Conference Executive Committee.
(b) Such representatives of missions of the General Conference and of general institutions and departments of work, and such general laborers and field secretaries as shall receive delegate's credentials from the Executive Committee of the General Conference, such credentials to be ratified by the General Conference in session. The number of these shall be fixed by the vote of the General Conference in session, but shall not exceed 25 per cent of the total number of delegates in attendance otherwise provided for.

Sec. 4. Regular delegates shall be appointed in the following manner:
(a) Delegates representing union conferences shall be appointed by the respective unions.
(b) Delegates representing union missions, and local conferences and missions attached to the division but not to any union, shall be appointed by the division committee in consultation with the organization concerned.
(c) Delegates representing union missions, such conferences, and local missions without division affiliation shall be appointed by the General Conference Committee in consultation with the organization concerned.

Sec. 5. Each regular delegate shall be appointed and accredited on the following basis:
(a) Each union conference and each union mission shall be entitled to one delegate in addition to its president, without regard to number, an additional delegate for each 2,000, or major fraction thereof, of the membership of the union conference or mission.
(b) Each local conference or local mission directly attached to divisions or to the General Conference, as have been or shall be properly organized and accepted by vote of the General Conference in session, shall be entitled to one delegate without regard to number, and an additional delegate for each 2,000, or major fraction thereof, of the membership of the conference or mission.
(c) Calculation for delegate allotments shall be based upon the membership as of December 31, of the year preceding the session.

Sec. 6. Credentials to sessions shall be issued by the General Conference to those appointed as provided for in harmony with the provisions of this article.

Article IV—Officers and Their Duties
Sec. 1. The officers of this Conference shall be a President, Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, Associate Secretaries, a Treasurer, an Undertreasurer, and Assistant Treasurers, who shall be elected by the General Conference in session.

Sec. 2. President: The President shall preside at the sessions of the Conference, act as chairman of the Executive Committee, and labor in a way agreeable to the Executive Committee, as the Executive Committee may advise.

Sec. 3. Vice-Presidents: Each Vice-President shall be entitled to vote at any session of this Conference, and shall be assigned to serve as a general administrative assistant to the President or to preside over a division field.

Sec. 4. Secretary and Associate Secretaries: It shall be the duty of the Secretary and the Associate Secretaries to keep the minutes of the proceedings of the General Conference sessions and of the General Conference Committee meetings, to maintain correspondence with the fields, and to perform such other duties as usually pertain to such office.

Sec. 5. Treasurer, Undertreasurer, and Assistant Treasurers: It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive all funds of the General Conference, and disburse them in harmony with the actions of the Executive Committee of the General Conference, and to render such financial statements at regular intervals as may be desired by the Conference or by the Executive Committee. The Undertreasurer and Assistant Treasurers shall assist the Treasurer in his work.

Article V—Election
Sec. 1. The following shall be elected at each regular session of the Conference:
(a) A President, Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, Associate Secretaries, Division Secretaries, a Treasurer, an Undertreasurer, Assistant Treasurers, Division Treasurers, General Field Secretaries, Division Field Secretaries, a Secretary and Associate Secretary of the Ministerial Association, an Auditor and Associate Auditors, Division Auditors, Statistical Secretary, Church Development Service Secretary and Associate Secretaries, a Secretary and Associate Secretaries of the Bureau of Public Relations, a Secretary and Associate Secretaries of each duly organized General Conference Department; namely, Publishing, Medical, Education, Sabbath School, Public Affairs and Religious Liberty, Young People's Missionary Volunteer, Lay Activities, North American Regional, Radio and Television, Temperance, Sunday School, Lay Missionaries (including the Health Food Departmental Secretary of the Australasian Division), Division Secretaries of the Bureau of Public

Relations, and Division Ministerial Association Secretaries.

(b) Other persons, not to exceed 35 in number, to serve as members of the Executive Committee.

Article VI—Executive Committee

Sec. 1. The Executive Committee shall consist of:

(a) Those elected as provided by Article V.

(b) Presidents of union conferences, presidents of union missions, ex-Presidents of the General Conference holding credentials from this Conference, the presidents of the two unincorporated bodies connected with the organization, the editor of the Review and Herald, the general manager of the Review and Herald Publishing Association, the general manager of the Pacific Press Publishing Association, the general manager of the Southern Publishing Association, the president of the Home Study Institute, and the manager of the General Conference Insurance Service.

Article VII—Term of Office

All officers of the Conference and those members of the Executive Committee provided for by Article VI, Sec. 2, shall be elected office from the time of election until the next ensuing regular session or until their successors are elected and appear to enter upon their duties.

Article VIII—Incorporations and Agents

Sec. 1. Such incorporations may be authorized by the General Conference in session, or by the General Conference Executive Committee, as the development of the work may require.

Sec. 2. At each regular session of this Conference, the delegates shall elect such trustee and his alternates, the manager of the General Conference Institute, to act as general manager of the General Conference Insurance Service.

Article IX—Constitution and Bylaws

Sec. 1. The Executive Committee shall hold quadrennial sessions at such time and place as the Executive Committee shall designate and announcement of such meetings shall be published in the Review and Herald in three consecutive issues at least four months before the date of the opening of the session. In case special world conditions seem to make it imperative to postpone the calling of the session, the Executive Committee in regular or special session may by a majority vote approve such postponement not to exceed two years, giving notice to all constituent organizations.

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee may call special sessions of the General Conference at such time and place as it deems proper, by a like notice as of regular sessions, and the transactions of such special sessions shall have the same force as those of the regular sessions.

Sec. 3. The election of officers, and the voting on all matters of business shall be by viva-voce vote or as designated by the chairman, unless otherwise demanded by a majority of the delegates present.

Article X—Bylaws

The voters of this Conference may enact Bylaws and amend or repeal them at any session thereof, and such Bylaws may embrace any provision not inconsistent with the Constitution.

Article XI—Amendments

This Constitution or its Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the voters present and voting at any session; provided that any proposed amendment to the Constitution at a special session, notice of such purpose shall be given in the call for such special session.

BYLAWS

Article I—Division Sections

Sec. 1. The General Conference shall conduct its world-wide work in division sections, each section to operate within a specified territory in harmony with the policy of the General Conference.

Sec. 2. Union Conference and union mission field organizations, together with all other organizations and institutions within the territory, shall be responsible to the respective division committees, or in the case of local union conferences, direct division to be most convenient and efficient, taking into consideration the size of the delegation and other circumstances.

The boundaries of these division sections shall be subject to adjustment only at the General Conference session or an Autumn Conference, provided no division territorial lines shall be changed when such division is not represented at the General Conference or at a General Conference Committee, or when such division has not given consent, except under an emergency such as war. In such case the General Conference Committee shall make such provision as is necessary for the conduct of the work in the territory concerned.

Article II—Standing Committees

Sec. 1. At each regular session of this Conference, such standing committees as may be found necessary, including the following, shall be elected to consider such items of business as may be referred to them and to bring in their reports and recommendations to the session:

(a) Constitution and Bylaws
(b) Credentials and Licenses
(c) Finance
(d) Nominations
(e) Plans
(f) Missions

Sec. 2. (a) The membership of the Nominating Committee shall consist of one member for each 12,000 church members or major fraction thereof, computed by divisions on the basis of the membership at the close of the preceding year; provided, however, that no division have less than two members on the Nominating Committee.

(b) The members of the Nominating Committee shall be chosen as follows:

(1) Each division delegation shall act as a unit in selecting the members to which it is entitled on the basis of church membership.

(2) The election of division representatives on the Nominating Committee shall be by the method of voting considered by the division to be most convenient and efficient, taking into consideration the size of the delegation and other circumstances.

(3) The division delegation in selecting its representatives on the Nominating Committee shall take into account the following points:

(1) The division's representation on the Nominating Committee should, as far as possible, represent the various geographical circumstances.
areas, organizational segments, and types of activity of the division.

(2) Those chosen as members of the Nominating Committee must be duly accredited delegates or associate delegates in attendance at the General Conference.

(3) Members of the General Conference Committee whose terms of service expire at the session and whose reelection shall not be members of the Nominating Committee.

Sec. 3. No delegate shall nominate more than one person for election to the Nominating Committee.

(a) The Nominating Committee shall elect its own chairman and secretary under the temporary chairmanship of the President of the General Conference.

Article III—Vice-Presidents

Sec. 1. Vice-Presidents shall be elected as follows: up to four Vice-Presidents for general administrative work, and one additional Vice-President for each division of the General Conference.

Sec. 2. The General Vice-Presidents shall in the absence of the President serve as chairmen of the Executive Committee and shall assist the President in his administrative work.

Sec. 3. The Vice-President for North America shall work under the direction of the General Conference Committee.

Sec. 4. Vice-Presidents elected for the divisions outside of North America shall act as chairmen of the division committees operating in their respective fields and shall have charge of the work in those fields under the direction of the division committees and shall be designated within their respective fields as the division executive workmen or secretaries as may be elected to associate with the Secretary of any Department, Bureau, or Association in carrying the responsibilities of his office.

Article IV—Associate and General Field Secretaries

Sec. 1. The term "associate secretary" shall be used to designate the secretaries elected to be associated with the Secretary of the General Conference, or such secretary or secretaries as may be elected to associate with the Secretary of any Department, Bureau, or Association, in carrying the responsibilities of his office.

Sec. 2. Associate Secretaries shall be elected to share the work of the General Conference Secretary. Associate Secretaries shall be elected as may be necessary to assist the Secretaries of Departments, Bureaus, or Associations, in the conduct of their work.

Sec. 3. The term "general field secretary" shall be used to designate general field workers elected, in addition to the officers, to serve in carrying the field responsibilities of the General Conference.

Sec. 4. The General Field Secretaries shall work under the direction of the General Conference Committee and be assigned either to field service or to special projects or responsibilities as may be determined by the General Conference Committee.

Sec. 5. Such Division Field Secretaries shall be elected as may be deemed necessary to labor in the divisions under the direction of the division committees.

Article V—Division Secretaries

Sec. 1. A Secretary shall be elected for each division outside of North America to be designated "division secretary."

Sec. 2. The Division Secretaries shall work under the direction of the division committees. It shall be their duty to keep the minutes of the division committee meetings, to collect information and make such reports as may be required, and to do such other work as usually pertains to such office.

Article VI—Assistant and Division Departmental Secretaries

Sec. 1. The term "assistant departmental secretary" shall be used to designate such persons as are appointed to assist the Departmental Secretaries and their Assistant Secretaries in the departmental work of the general office.

Sec. 2. Division Departmental Secretaries shall be elected for the respective field divisions and shall labor under the direction of the division committee.

Sec. 3. Division committees shall appoint such other workers as may be deemed necessary to serve in special capacities, to labor under the direction of the division committee.

Article VII—Statistical Secretary

At each regular session the conference shall elect a statistical secretary, whose duties shall be to compile statistics of the world work and other work in connection with the Nominating Committee.

Article VIII—Undertreasurer and Assistant Treasurers

An Undertreasurer and Assistant Treasurers shall be elected to share with the Treasurer of his own division in performing the duties required of him. They shall perform such duties connected with the Treasurer Department as may be assigned to them by the Treasurer and other officers of the Executive Committee. They may be authorized by the Executive Committee to sign checks under the instruction of the Treasurer.

Article IX—Division Treasurers

Sec. 1. A Treasurer shall be elected for each division outside of North America, to be designated "division treasurer."

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the Division Treasurers to receive and disburse the funds of the General Conference made available for their territory, under the direction of the division committee, and to perform such other duties as usually pertain to such office.

Sec. 3. The Division Committee may appoint such other workers as may be deemed necessary to assist in the work of the Treasurer and assistant auditors as may be required to carry on the work.

Article X—Executive Committee

Sec. 1. (a) During the intervals between the sessions of the General Conference, the Executive Committee shall have power to carry on the administrative power, with authority to grant credentials and licenses, and to fill for the current term any vacancies in the field which shall occur in its offices, boards, committees, or agents, by death, resignation, or otherwise. The Executive Committee shall have power to withdraw credentials or licenses by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at any regular committee meeting.

(b) The Executive Committee shall have power to effect the retirement before the expiration of the term for which they have been elected, of persons elected under Article V, Sec. 1 a, of the Constitution who may develop a health condition which prevents them from properly discharging their duties.

(c) The Executive Committee shall have authority to remove from office by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting at any regular committee meeting, any person elected under Article V, Sec. 1 a, of the Constitution who because of apostasy or misbehavioushall be removed from the office of the Executive Committee.
Article XII—Corporation Boards

At each regular session of the General Conference, the requisite boards of trustees, according to the Constitution and Bylaws, shall be elected for each legal corporation serving and holding properties and endowed for the work and legal institutions of the General Conference unincorporated. The trustees of the General Conference Corporation shall also constitute the Board of Trustees of the General Conference Association.

Article XIII—Departments

Sec. 1. The Departmental Secretaries and Associate Departmental Secretaries elected by the General Conference, shall, under the direction of the Executive Committee of the General Conference, or in the case of departments, the Secretary, and shall have the power to establish such other companies as may be necessary, to deal with the direction of the division committee, and shall occupy an advisory relation to the field.

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee shall appoint such representative organization of counsel for each department. Such committee shall in each case be composed of the associates of the department, the secretaries of departmental work in the divisions, and such other persons as the Executive Committee may deem necessary.

Article XIV—Auditors and Audits

Sec. 1. The Executive Committee shall have the accounts of the General Conference and of its legal corporations audited at least once a calendar year, and the Auditor or one of the associate auditors shall report upon the same to the Executive Committee. The Auditor or an associate auditor, as may be arranged, shall report also, for the quadrennial period, to the General Conference at its regular sessions. The General Conference Auditor and the associate auditors shall also be made available for auditing the accounts of union conferences and other corporations, as well as the accounts of such institutions as the auditor or auditors may be so designated by the General Conference at its regular sessions. The accounts shall be under the general direction of the Executive Committee.

Sec. 2. The division auditor or auditors shall audit the books of such organizations or institutions within their territories as the division committees shall direct.

Article XV—Wages and Expenses

Sec. 1. The Executive Committee shall appoint annually eight persons not in its employ who, with the officers of the General Conference and not less than seven presidents of union conferences, shall constitute a committee to audit the expense accounts of employees and to fix their wages for the succeeding year.

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee shall have power to make such adjustment from time to time in the wages of clerks, stenographers, and other routine workers as may be necessary.

Article XVI—Funds

The funds of the General Conference shall be as follows:

(a) Tithe of the tithe receipts of the union conferences and union missions and of the local conferences and missions not included in local councils and union conferences.

(b) Regular mission offerings.

(c) Special donations.

(d) Such percentage of the tithe of local conferences and missions as may be determined by a committee composed of the conference and mission presidents and the division executive committee, or, in the case of North America, the conference and mission presidents and the General Conference Executive Committee.

(e) Surplus tithes which may be appropriated by local and union conferences for the mission field.

(f) Appropriations from our publishing houses, sanitariums, and other institutions that are under the control of the General Conference which, because of the character of the work, have more than local influence and responsibility as may be arranged by joint counsel of the Executive Committee. of the General Conference with the board of management of each institution.

(g) Such percentage of the funds of union and local conferences and missions, institutions, and Book and Bible Houses in North America as may be arranged by the General Conference Committee in council with conference presidents, the same to be known as the Sustentation Fund for the support of aged and infirm workers and for the dependent widows and orphans of workers.

(h) Divisions outside North America shall adopt a Sustentation Policy which shall be in harmony with the principles set forth in the General Conference Sustentation Plan.

Article XVII—Appropriations

Sec. 1. The Executive Committee shall make its appropriations for home and foreign work at the Autumn Councils, said appropriations to be based on budgets from the fields requiring financial help.

Sec. 2. Appropriations shall be made subject to the receipt of the full amount of funds estimated in the General Conference budget. In case of a shortage the distribution shall be on a pro-rata basis to all the interests represented in the budget.

Sec. 3. Appropriations for major permanent investments shall be held in trust for the purpose for which the appropriation was designated. In case the project is abandoned, the funds shall revert to the General Conference. Other funds appropriated to division fields shall be administered by the division committee.

Sec. 4. All funds raised in division fields, except the regular funds belonging to the General Conference, as indicated under Article XV, may be used for the advancement of the work in the fields in which they were raised.

Sec. 5. General Conference funds in all the world shall be made available to meet the annual appropriations of the General Conference.

Article XVIII—Finance

Sec. 1. To tide over a possible financial depression and to provide a working fund for the regular operations of the General Conference, the Treasurer shall carry in cash and in readily convertible securities a working fund equal to 20 per cent of the regular appropriations voted at the latest Autumn Council, including revertible funds.

Sec. 2. The basis for computing the amount of the working fund on hand shall be the latest available financial statement. The working fund shall not fall below the amount here specified except on authorization of an Autumn Council of the Executive Committee.

Sec. 3. The Executive Committee, acting through its legal agency, the General Conference Corporation, shall have power to make such annuity contracts as may seem desirable, but all moneys obtained in this way shall be invested in securities and not be made available for appropriations until the annuity contracts have matured.

Sec. 4. The tithes and missions offerings received by the General Conference shall be held as a trust for appropriation to the work of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination. It shall not be within the prerogative, therefore, of the General Conference Committee, the Treasury Department, nor of any agent or agency of the denomination, to loan these funds to private individuals, to endorse notes, sign bonds or other securities, or in any other way to divert the funds of the General Conference from their intended purpose. Advances specifically authorized under regular policy, and made in order to enable workers to become located and equipped for service, are not a violation of this provision.

Sec. 5. The basis for computing goals or per capita funds shall be the average of the membership of the four consecutive quarters ending on September 30 of the preceding year as published in the General Conference official statistical reports.
“Adequate” protection consists of:

1. Adequate insurance coverage to rehabilitate or reconstruct damaged or destroyed buildings.
2. Adequate insurance to pay sizable liability verdicts to injured persons or for property damage of others.
3. Adequate insurance to reimburse a substantial burglary or fidelity loss.
4. Adequate insurance to reimburse workers by means of Workmen’s Compensation (or similar) in case of accidental injury or death while in the course of employment.
5. Adequate provision in operating plans for maintaining programs of loss prevention so that needless losses can be eliminated.

OUR ADVERTISERS

Effective advertising is more than a gesture of goodwill between competent suppliers and their favorite buyers. It is specific information concerning available services rendered by whom, when, and where.

The Yearbook serves thousands of S.D.A. offices throughout the world. While it is designed primarily as a directory and reference book, the advertisements introduce a group of cooperative businessmen and their products to the administrators and institutional purchasing agents of the Seventh-day Adventist denomination.

We highly recommend the organizations advertising in this Yearbook; and when you write to them, kindly mention that you saw their advertisements in the Seventh-day Adventist Yearbook.

Our 50th Anniversary of SERVING INVESTORS in the Nation’s Capital

Through our nation-wide wire system, we execute orders at standard commission rates on every exchange and in every market in the United States and Canada, and have been an important factor in the Metropolitan Washington, D.C. market for fifty years.

MUTUAL FUNDS: Recognizing the growing trend toward mutual funds by institutions as well as individual investors, we have a separate department specializing in these shares. We are the organizers, sponsors, and business managers of WASHINGTON MUTUAL INVESTORS FUND.

TAX EXEMPT BONDS: Our Municipal Bond Department is headed by a seasoned municipal bond specialist. We actively participate in underwriting and trading all types of municipal bond issues.

SERVING
SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS

We are a privately owned and operated Seventh-day Adventist concern, in continuous operation for more than 80 years.

We believe that regardless of distance and transportation costs, we can give you reasonable prices with service and quality comparable to what you now have. We would be happy to have you try our service.

Special attention given to the printing needs of Seventh-day Adventist conferences, institutions, and churches. Also to Seventh-day Adventist professional men and private business.

We are in the process of compiling a directory of all Seventh-day Adventist-operated businesses, and all Seventh-day Adventist professional men. If you are in the above category, you are invited to send in your name and pertinent information.

Member of Association of Self-Supporting Institutions.

CONFERENCE PRINTING

Stationery, Office Forms, Evangelistic Circulars and Brochures.
Send for a sample of our Order-of-Service slips for local church programs.

MEDICAL PRINTING FOR

Physicians, Dentists, Optometrists, Hospitals, Sanitariums, Nursing Homes.

SCHOOL PRINTING

Bulletins, Yearbooks, Stationery, Office Records, and Class Forms.

TRAVEL GUIDE

We also publish Roscoe’s SDA TRAVEL GUIDE, listing meal and overnight accommodations that are operated by Seventh-day Adventists for the traveling public. Ideal for our people who travel for business or pleasure and wish to eat according to SDA standards, as well as to patronize fellow believers. Send $1.00 and we will send you one of our TRAVEL GUIDES postpaid. Also, if you operate any such enterprise, send us your name and other information, so that you may be listed in the next edition.

Like two precocious sisters, precious and full of life, Listen magazine and Signs of the Times keep you delighted and informed.

Listen follows the footsteps of older sister Signs with a message vital to Christians young or old. Like Signs, it helps win victories in the Christian life.

Unlike Signs, however, Listen concentrates on just one area—happy, healthful living. Listen talks about smoking, drinking, and narcotics, and through timely interviews lets America's lively people do the talking—doctors, educators, sports stars, entertainers, and political leaders.

Listen is a friendly magazine, never preaching but always teaching. That's why Listen is the perfect gift for young people in the formative years or older people who indulge themselves too often.

Signs of the Times, of course, continues to take on all aspects of Christianity, keeping you informed about current religious events, bringing nature to your living room through stories of outdoor adventure, and helping you better understand the Bible through interpretative articles.

Bring these sister magazines into your family circle or order them as gifts for friends and relatives. Listen, just $3.00 for twelve months; Signs, just $4.00 for twelve months.
