

The African Division OUTLOOK

"Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest."

VOLUME XX

KENILWORTH, CAPE, AUGUST 15, 1922
(Registered at the General Post Office as a Newspaper)

NUMBER 15 a

HARVEST INGATHERING CAMPAIGN DATE EXTENDED

Every loyal Seventh-day Adventist in this country will be stirred by a knowledge of the present status of our Harvest Ingathering Campaign. We are far behind. The situation is serious. Our work is not nearly accomplished. In other parts of the world our people are making very great sacrifice and putting forth untiring labour to supply our mission funds. We cannot afford to fall down entirely in our efforts to secure gifts from our neighbours and others for missions.

Just as this paper was going to press, the following action was taken by the African Division of the General Conference Committee:

"Whereas our goal for Harvest Ingathering funds has not nearly been reached in the allotted time, and, seeing how serious a loss this would be to our mission funds, it was VOTED that the Harvest Ingathering Campaign be continued until September 30, and that we urge our ministers and other workers and church members throughout the field to put forth every effort to reach the Division goal of £2,500.

"Christ died on the cross to save the world from sin. He asks your co-operation in this work. You are to be His helping hand As head of the church, Christ is authoritatively calling upon every one who claims to believe on Him God's people are called to rally without delay. Unceasingly they are to continue their warfare against the enemy, pressing the battle to the gates." - - "Testimonies for the Church," Vol. 7, Chap. "Acceptable Service."

The Second Gospel

"LET the gospel message ring through our churches, summoning them to universal action."

When a man is down in sin, when he tries to break loose from some habit and fails, when he feels his feet slipping, when he is sin-sick and wants to quit but can't, when he finds out he is in the Devil's trap, learns that he is one of Satan's captives and not free himself, and he longs for help, how good the gospel sounds to him! How he loves the man that teaches him of the One who came to "bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captive!" And how he loves the gospel story, and repeats it to others!

Happy the man that never forgets this first love! Prosperous and growing the church, whose members, through love and gratitude, tell the "old, old story!" Would that this was the experience of each, but it is not. Far too many follow the example of the lepers. They show no gratitude to Him who did so much for them. Others, who were one time grateful and active, lose or forget their first love. "Those who have long know the truth need to seek the Lord most earnestly, that their hearts may be filled with a determination to work for their neighbours." Vol. 9, page 34. "If possible, secure an opportunity to teach them the truth." page 35. "If our church members would heed this instruction, hundreds of souls would be won to Jesus." Vol. 9, page 32.

THE MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH.

Because of the coldness of hearts that were once warm, because of the indifference of hearts that once throbbed with the joy of salvation, the knowledge of sin forgiven, its chain broken and stain cleansed; because some have become satisfied with the blessing they have received, and are not progressing and not engaged in the Master's vineyard as they should be, God sends a message to the church. This message is the Gospel of Work. "Let the gospel message ring through our churches, summoning them to universal action." Vol. 7, p. 14.

Satan has many kinds of chains, traps and cords with which he catches and holds people. Some of these traps are so ugly that those who have once escaped from his power will never step into them again. But the enemy of souls has a device with which he catches and enslaves many a church member who does not realise that he is being caught. One may be tied ever so tightly and not know it until he tries to get away. Some who have been loosed are now tied with the "I can't," "I don't know how," "what would people think," "I haven't time," "tomorrow or next week" rope. Dear friends, if you know you have been tied down or hindered in your work by one of these ropes of the Devil, I beseech you tell Him, who alone can set the captive free. Then right now thank the Lord for victory, and start cut in faith. Begin in the Harvest Ingathering Work, and in this late hour, place yourself in the active army of the Lord.

"Prayer is powerless as a substitute for action,"

Experiences Wanted

THE HOME MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT invites all, both young and old, to tell of their experiences in the Harvest Ingathering work. Send them to the Union Home Missionary Secretary, Rosmead Ave., Kenilworth, Cape.

The Union would appreciate it very much if the conference and mission fields would keep it informed as to the following:

Churches that have reached the Harvest Ingathering goal.

Names of those who have reached their individual goal. The names and amounts that should appear on the Honour Roll.

The total amount reported to date.

The number of members taking part.

The report should be sent in weekly.

Honour Roll

ANYONE who secures £5 during the Harvest Ingathering Campaign is entitled to a place on the OUTLOOK Honour Roll. Please report your work to your church treasurer and Home Missionary secretary so they can pass it on to the conference office.

AFRICAN DIVISION CONFERENCE

OFFICE ADDRESS: Rosmead Ave., Kenilworth, C.P.

Welcome Visitors

ELDER G. B. Thompson and Professor W. E. Howell sailed from New York on the 15th of July. They expected to pay a short visit to our work in the British Union Conference, and were booked to sail from Southampton, July 28. This will bring them to Cape Town on the morning of the 14th of August.

These brethren are coming out to this field as representatives from the General Conference, to study with the African Division Committee some of our problems, and to pay our work a visit. After a short stay in the Cape Peninsula they will proceed to Rhodesia, to attend the Constituency Meeting of the Zambesi Union Mission, after which they will assist in the several institutes that are to be held in that part of the field.

Impressions of the General Conference

THE day after my arrival in Cape Town from the States, I was asked what one thing impressed me the most while in America. This was a question that I was unable at the time to answer. However, since then as I have thought over the matter, I have felt that perhaps it might be of interest to the readers of the OUTLOOK to hear of some of the impressions received while attending the General Conference session.

Perhaps the first that might be mentioned is the power that is attending the work of the denomination in giving the last message of warning to the world. As different ones gave their reports, it was wonderful to learn how God is blessing the efforts that are being put forth in every part of the harvest field and the success that is attending this work.

It was a large number of people who gathered at San Francisco, probably the largest meeting of Advent people together at one time. They had come from all parts of the world, and after enjoying the feast of the Conference, these workers have returned to their fields with renewed courage and determination to press the work forward that it may soon be finished and the coming of the Master be hastened.

Another feature of our work that impressed me was the great interest that the believers in North America have in foreign mission work. Arriving in New York on Friday, it was our privilege to attend service at the Temple the next day. The membership of the New York church is close on to 600, and the delegates much enjoyed becoming acquainted with the believers at that centre. The Temple was purchased at a big cost, but the members of the church are taking hold of the burden of meeting current church expenses, and also of reducing the debt on the church each year. Notwithstanding this heavy financial load, the members of the New York church are none the less enthusiastic in contributing towards mission funds.

As we visited different places on the way from New York over to San Francisco, it was remarkable to note how the churches are straining every effort to reach their mission offerings goal so that the work in the foreign field might be strengthened.

A glance at the financial statement of the General Conference treasurer shows that during 1921 the believers in North America paid in tithe $3,222,053, and in mission offerings $3,463,999.

It will be noted that the contributions towards mission offerings are greater than the tithe payments. The same is true of the Far Eastern Division. With tithe receipts to the value of $57,500 its mission offerings totalled $92,004. The Australian Union also gave more towards mission funds than its tithe payments. I wish that the African Division might be listed with those other fields who are so loyally supporting mission work, but our returns show that our mission offerings were less than half of our tithe receipts.

It is a tremendous task that the Mission Board has undertaken to finance the work throughout the great world field, and surely every conference and church, as well as all of us as individual members, should regard it a privilege to do our part in assisting in this great work.

The financial conditions in Russia should serve as a lesson to us as to what may even be the condition in this country before the end comes. The ruble, worth a little over 2/- in pre-war days, has entirely lost its value today, it taking millions of rubles to value a shilling. Those who formerly were considered very wealthy in Russia have found that their money is unable to help them during times of famine and disstress. The German mark has almost lost its value. Should these experiences not inspire us to give for the support of the work of God while the opportunity still offers?

There were some other features of our work with which I became acquainted while in America which impressed me, and of which I shall be glad to report in another issue of our paper. W. B. COMMINS.

ZAMBESI UNION MISSION

P. O. Box 573, Bulawayo, Rhodesia

A Splendid Report

Harvest Ingathering in the Zambesi Union

THE little band of believers in the Zambesi Union are directing their energies this month to the reaching of our Harvest Ingathering goal of £400.

Nearly every member of the Bulawayo church is working in this campaign. In one day one-third of their church goal of £150 was collected.

Sisters Bender and Howard are working Salisbury, Gatooma and Gwelo. In four days at Salisbury they collected £80.

One of our sisters has collected £98-6-9, another £57-11-0. Elder Stockil, in less than one day, collected £25-4-0 in Bulawayo.

Already more than half of our goal is in hand, and we will keep at it until we have at least reached our goal, for we recognise that if the Division goal is to be reached, it will be through not only each union, local conference, field and church raising its goal, but each individual member.

Brethren and sisters, the cause of God needs the money, which is in the hands of the people of the world, now. They will give this money if you will ask for it.

“The restless millions wait that light
Whose coming maketh all men free,
Christ also waits, but men are slow and late.
Have we done all we could?
Have you? Have I?”

E. M. HOWARD.

Attention, Please !

A WORKERS' INSTITUTE will be held in connection with our Union Constituency Meeting, and we expect a large number of our workers to be present. Arrangements have been made to secure the St. Andrew's Hall in Fort Street, situated close to the Memorial Hospital, where our meetings will be held, beginning Thursday, August 24, at 7:30 p. m.

Not only our workers, but our lay members from the different portions of our territory are looking forward to receiving many rich spiritual blessings at this time. Among those who will be present to assist in making the meetings all that they should be to us will be Pastor G. B. Thompson and Professor W. E. Howell from America, and Pastor W. H. Branson. These brethren will surely have some encouraging experiences to relate as well as much spiritual instruction to impart. All who can possibly attend these meetings should do so.

We plan to give all every opportunity for attending these meetings and for this reason are trying to do away with everything calling for unnecessary labour. Many of our workers, who like Martha of old, have to be careful and troubled about many things at conferences, will, we hope, be able to share with others the full blessing of every meeting.

Comfortable quarters will be provided for all who are attending, and no fears need be entertained regarding the inner man. Delegates' concession rates have been granted by the B & M & R Railways. Those wishing to avail themselves of the concession privileges should apply to us early for the necessary concession form, which must be signed by the secretary of the Zambesi Union Mission.

Remember the date of the meeting, August 24 to September 2. Advise us promptly of your plans, letting us know just when you expect to arrive in Bulawayo, and we will arrange to meet you.

The Lord is going to meet with us and you will desire to renew His acquaintanceship, therefore

COME TO THE MEETING.

J. E. SYMONS, Secretary,

Note

A European Bible Conference will be held in Bulawayo in connection with our Constituency Meeting, August 24 to September 2. Most of our workers will be in attendance. Pastors W. H. Branson, G. B. Thompson and Professor W. E. Howell will lead out in this conference.

A Letter

DEAR OUTLOOK READERS,

Thinking you might be interested, I am giving you a little account of how I help put our magazine, the Sentinel, into the hands of the people of this large city, Johannesburg.

During the first few months of this year, we were unable to sell any papers owing to the existing conditions on the Rand. As the result, we had three months' supply on hand. Mother and I then decided to go out and try to sell them. The Lord has blessed us wonderfully. We have been enabled to sell 4,300 during the last four months. I went to the business part of the town, while mother went to the suburbs.

Many people tell me that they enjoy the paper, and are very glad to get it. One gentleman, who is a subscriber, said that he is especially interested in the serial on "Spiritualism." Another man said, "We can buy the paper, but so many others cannot, since they are not Christians." I thought that he certainly spoke the truth, as the majority do not have an inclination for such literature as the Sentinel. On hearing what denomination publishes the Sentinel, a gentleman, who evidently thought that we were a very small body, said in a surprised tone, "They must have some means to publish such a paper!"

All these encouraging experiences do one's heart good; yet some people do not like the paper, and say so, too. I was told by one person that Seventh-day Adventists will have a lot to account for in the day of judgment, because they teach such error through their literature. These people give one no chance to answer, contradict, or ask a question. They give their opinions, and one must calmly listen. I politely tell them that I am in a hurry, and must go. Even then they continue talking!

However, I am not discouraged at these experiences, but am holding on to the promise of our Lord, "Lo, I am with you alway."

My desire is to be faithful till Jesus comes.

Yours very sincerely,

WINIFRED R. TICKTON.

CAPE CONFERENCE

OFFICE ADDRESS: 56 Roeland Street, Cape Town

Visiting Churches and Students

LEAVING Brother Priest at Taungs, the writer proceeded to Vryburg, where he was privileged to meet Sister Canham and family. It is encouraging, as we go to these towns in which there is often but one family representing the truth for this time, to find them alive and active and enjoying a part in the spread of this message. This family is planning on having a very definite part in the Harvest Ingathering Campaign.

At Mafeking, it was my privilege to meet with several members of Brother Buckley's family in the home of Elder W. S. Hyatt. Responding to an invitation from Elder Hyatt, a meeting was held with native workers in the Mafeking church. New recruits are steadily being added to the Bechuana Mission Field membership, and God is richly blessing the efforts being put forward there.

Passing through Johannesburg, where old friends were greeted, the Spion Kop College was next visited. Five very profitable days were spent among the students at our training college. Opportunity was afforded for several public meetings, as well as private interviews especially with students from the Cape Conference. A most encouraging spirit of fellowship and good-will is felt throughout the institution, notwithstanding the fact that influenza has paid its respects very attentively among both students and faculty. However, all are now improving, or well, and the outlook is good for a fine conclusion of the year's activities.

Considerable time was devoted among the students to interesting and encouraging them in the canvassing work, as a means of helping them through school. About ten are planning on entering the canvassing field during the summer holidays, and we believe that, with God's help, they will be successful.

It was the general feeling that a more intimate and constant connection between the conference officers and the students would tend to increase their interest in the work and needs of their conference, as well as assist the conference officers in planning to place students in the ranks of the workers when their training is completed. This close contact would also tend to encourage students to have a definite aim in their preparation, and complete their training. Therefore, all the students from the Cape Conference were organised into a Cape Conference Student's Society. Brother John Raubenheimer was elected president, and Miss Gurney secretary. Regular meetings will be held bi-weekly, and conditions obtaining in the Cape Conference studied and analysed. The need for workers, fully trained, will thus be driven home to the students, and probably some will hear the call of God to prepare for some line of work hitherto unthought of. We want to regard the students in school as conference workers in training, which should be their true position. We trust they will sense this fully. If any class should be borne up to God in our prayers it should be our young people who are preparing for service, and from among whom future leaders are bound to come. And with these we should bear up the Christian teachers who are labouring under a heavy burden. They are now impressing young lives with a mark that soon will be set and irradicable. *May God help them to place the mark of heaven on each student mind.

The influenza epidemic rather disjoined the school work for a time, but teachers and students faithfully performed the services of nurses, and their ministrations were crowned with success.

It was a real pleasure to counsel and co-operate with Brother and Sister Stickle and the faculty regarding the work among the students. May God richly reward their labours of love.

G. R. E. McNAY.

Rustica Church Harvest Ingathering Goal Reached

THE work done by the Rustica church in connection with the Harvest Ingathering closed on July 31.

At a missionary meeting at the chapel on Sunday evening, August 6, the last of the collection boxes was brought in and opened, and the total amount gathered, published.

The number of members on the register being twenty-seven, the goal had been fixed at £3 x 27, or a total of £81. To the delight of every one present, the total amounted to £81-11-2½.

Professor Elffers who, on account of ill health and deafness, had thought himself unfit to go about and collect, had redeemed himself by a personal contribution. However, as he noticed the prevailing discouragement among various collectors, he took some of them out, and collected with them and for them. The result of this effort was a sum of £18-2-0. The amount he distributed among a large number of boxes which were not filling up. It was noticed in this personal work how much depends on representation. Professor Elffers met with a ready response almost everywhere. May his example stir up other leaders to come to the help of the young and the inexperienced.

Notice

WE shall be glad if all members of the Cape Conference, who have raised funds for the Big Week Campaign, and who have not yet remitted to the office, will forward all money in hand to the secretary, at 56 Roeland Street, Cape Town, as soon as possible, as it is desired to ascertain the result of this campaign.

Up the hill, or down the hill,
Wherever the road may take us,
A Friend is walking with us still,
Who never did forsake us.
The fogs shall clear and the shadows flee,
As we go where He doth guide us;
There is hope and help for you and me,
As long as He goes beside us.

Partial Report for Big Week

WE feel to make an apology to the readers of the OUTLOOK for the delay in giving this report for the work that was done during Big Week, May 7-13. Even now this is only a partial report, since only two field missionary secretaries have reported to us thus far. Over a month ago we sent out letters to all the responsible persons in the field for giving these reports, asking that they send in their reports to us as soon as possible, as it was desired to give a full report in the columns of the OUTLOOK for the information of our people throughout South Africa, since we know of their interest in the work that was accomplished during this campaign.

The reports we give below have been in hand since the 20th of June, and we would have printed these long before this, but we were waiting in order to give a complete report from all the fields. Since these reports have been delayed, and we know not how much longer it will be necessary to wait for complete reports, we are giving these two reports that have been received from Brother G. S. Joseph of the Natal-Transvaal Conference and Brother C. E. Sparrow of the South African Union Conference. Brother Sparrow is Field Missionary Secretary for the South African Union Conference Mission Fields, and his report of course covers this territory.

We are anxiously waiting for the remaining fields to report, and as soon as these reports are in, we will gladly publish same, giving only the totals of the above reports when the final report is printed.

We feel indeed thankful for the interest that was manifested in this campaign by our people throughout South Africa, and wish to assure them the time they gave in spreading the printed page, with profits being donated to the Sentinel Publishing Company, has materially relieved the embarrassing position we have been forced to work under for a long time. With the money that was raised in America during their Big Week in 1921, it has made it possible for us to receive a large shipment of machinery, type, etc., to enable us to more efficiently carry on the work of publishing literature for this field. Two shipments have been received during the last few months, having been sent to us by the Review and Herald Publishing Association at Washington, D. C., U. S. A. and their plans are that out of this year's earnings they will supply us with a large cylinder press, which will make it possible for us to print large books. We hope to publish these here in our own publishing house in the near future.

The money that was secured during Big Week, May 7-13, here in Africa, is to be used for an operating fund for the Sentinel Publishing Company, which will enable us to carry in hand sufficient stock and materials to be used to keep this machinery running, which has so kindly been provided for us. We have received suggestions from some of the leading workers that we should plan to inaugurate another Big Week before the year is out. We feel encouraged over the way our people rallied to this last campaign, and believe that many would appreciate another opportunity for further strengthening the work of the Sentinel Publishing Company. Any investment we make, either in time or money, to further the work of the publishing department in Africa, will be of inestimable value at this time, for heavy investments must be made in order to place ourselves in a position to publish large quantities of literature in the various languages spoken in this field. We are planning and looking forward to the day when the message will go out from this place in the printed page, as the spirit of prophecy tells us it will, being scattered throughout all this continent "as the leaves of Autumn."

THE SENTINEL PUBLISHING CO.

What Our Colporteurs Have Accomplished the First Half of 1922

A VERY interesting letter has just come to the Sentinel office from Brother G. S. Joseph, Field Missionary Secretary of the Natal-Transvaal Conference, and accompanying it a chart showing the relation of each month's sales in their territory as compared to the goal of £6,000 that was set at the Bookmen's Convention held here at the Cape during February.

We wish it were possible to reproduce this chart so that our readers might have the privilege of seeing the excellent gains that have been made the last two months. For January and February the sales were far below what they should have been, and then for March and April they were a bit better, but, owing to the unsettled conditions that were existing on the Rand at that time, the report does not reveal what it should have. Then for May and June the sales began climbing up and show an excellent increase over any other period during the first half of this year. The sales up to June 30 amounted to £2,934. Their goal for the entire year is £6,000, which leaves them £3,066 for the remaining six months of this year. We feel encouraged over the prospects of their making this goal since their field is well organised now, and exceptionally good reports are coming in to this office from month to month. 16, he says they have eighteen canvassers on their list, and that they assure him they are going to put in good time after this month.

We have been much interested in making comparisons from the figures that are available from sales reported by the conferences and mission fields, and below we give a report as compiled from their records. This report is for the first six months of the year with the exception of the Orange Free State Conference and the Zambesi Union Mission. The reports have not yet come in from the Orange Free State Conference for the months of May and June, and from the Zambesi Union Mission for the month of June. The goals for the entire field as set by representatives of

General News Notes

PASTOR G. W. SHONE is a guest at the Plumstead Sanitarium.

MRS. BRANSON returned to the Cape with Elder Branson a week ago.

PASTORS E. M. Howard, J. W. MacNeil, J. N. de Beer, W. S. Hyatt, J. R. Campbell, Wm. Hodgson, and Brother G. S. Joseph have recently been at the Cape attending committee meetings.

BROTHER FRED VISSER, our linotype operator at the publishing house, is spending a much needed and well-earned holiday up-country, visiting friends and relatives.

PERMITS have been received at the Division Office for Brethren Biggs, Flaiz, Boger and French and their families. We are looking for Brethren Dick and French to arrive about the middle of October, and the other workers to follow a few weeks later. Brother Dick is coming out to connect with our school, and Brother French to connect with the Division as Educational and Young People's Secretary. Brethren Biggs, Boger and Flaiz, due to arrive about the end of October, will connect with the Zambesi Union.

the various conferences and mission fields at the Bookmen's Convention are also shown in the last column. The goals are for the entire year, while the sales are for the half year just closed.

	SALES	GOALS
Natal-Transvaal Conference	£ 2934- 0- 0	£6,000
Cape Conference	810-13- 9	5,000
O. F. S. Conference (4 months)	64- 9- 0	1,600
Zambesi Union Mission (5 months) ...	119-18- 6	750
Basutoland Mission Field	132-14- 5	400
Transvaal Mission Field	185-15- 5	300
Kafirland Mission Field	144-14- 4	250
Zululand Mission Field	171- 9- 6	200
Bechuanaland Mission Field	37- 6- 7	100

It will be noticed that the Transvaal Mission Field has exceeded one-half of its goal; also the Zulu Mission Field, and the Kafirland Mission Field. The comparisons for the other Union Mission Fields are also very encouraging, and from the reports that are coming to us now we believe they will all reach their goals before the year is out.

Gleanings from the Harvest Ingathering Campaign

WE were very pleased to receive this word the other day: In soliciting funds for the Harvest Ingathering Campaign, Pastor F. B. Armitage has collected £16-1-8, Pastor J. R. Campbell, £24-7-1, and Brother E. Lekoanie, £1-15-9.

Good-Bye, and God Bless You All

WHEN the readers of the OUTLOOK see these lines, we will be away from Africa's shores on our way to the land from which we came. Duty to aged parents, both on my wife's side and my own, calls us to return home.

Six years ago we were invited by the General Conference to come to Africa to engage in evangelistic work. We came, and we are glad we came, and have spent all the time in that line of work. We are glad our "labours have not been in vain in the Lord," and to those whom we have been instrumental, through God, in leading to Him and His truth, we would say, "Be true to the message till Jesus comes. 'Fight the good fight of faith; lay hold on eternal life.'" To those and all our dear people in the Lord we say, "Farewell, and may God richly bless you all and keep you true to the end. We have learned to love you all for the truth's sake, and believe it will be our pleasure and delight to continue the fellowship and acquaintance begun here, through eternity."

We expect to continue in the work in the home field on the same lines as we have been engaged in for the past twenty-two years. All letters received by us from African friends will be answered. Our address will be: Avondale, Cooranbong, New South Wales, Australia.

Obituary

COMMUN.—Jeanette Louisa Knipe was born in St. Helena, May 18, 1843, and died at "Wolvenhoek," Wellington, C. P., August 2, 1922. She was united in marriage to John Henry Commin, November 16, 1871, to which union there were born three sons and four daughters. Five of these survive.

At an early age she accepted Jesus as her Saviour, uniting with the Seventh-day Adventist church at Claremont about 1887, of which church she and her lately deceased companion were charter members. Throughout her Christian experience, our departed sister held close communion with God, and, by her consistent manifestation of the indwelling presence of Christ, and her cheerful, hopeful hospitality, drew many friends into her circle.

Nine months ago the father of this home, our esteemed Brother Commin, was laid to rest, and this separation from her life companion was keenly felt by our sister. Throughout all her sorrow, however, she was upheld by the hope of a sure and eternal reunion in the near future. This hope and stay of the mother must now become the gleam of light amid outer darkness to uphold and comfort her children and friends who so truly mourn their loss. The church, which also feels the loss of a true sister in Christ, looks forward to the glad time of holy reunion.

"Even so, come Lord Jesus."

Words of comfort were spoken from Hebrews 13:14 and 2 Timothy 1:12 by the writer.

GEO. R. E. McNAY.
