

HOME MISSIONARY EXTRA.

BATTLE CREEK, MICH., MARCH, 1892.

Diré channels for the fount of love,
Where its blessed streams may run ;
And know that love has copious streams
To fill them every one.
For only while we share we keep
That blest thing from above ;
Ceasing to give, we cease to have,—
Such is the law of love.

THE annual week of prayer contribution for 1891, as will be seen by the report, is $24,479.37. This is $700.59 more than was reported at this time last year. Doubtless most of our brethren, thinking of the urgent demands of the work, expected a greater increase ; yet all will be thankful that it is possible to report growth.

WE shall have to depend upon the other sources of income during the coming year, to so increase the foreign mission funds that some of the most pressing calls for enlargement may be met without curtailing the work in missions already established. The regular offerings for the quarter ending December 31, are as follows :—

First-day offerings.....	$4,563.11
S. S. " ".....	3,620.00
Miscellaneous contributions.....	1,532.11
Total.....	$9,715.22

THE first-day offerings are the largest ever reported. We trust they will continue to increase. Is there any reason why they cannot be at once doubled ? They surely would be if every one would do what some are doing, who are regularly and systematically laying aside for the work as God prospers them. The needs are so great, it seems as though this increase must be seen. Let us prove the Lord's promise in Mal. 3: 10-12.

THE "TIS BUT" OFFERING.

How the footings of the first-day offering reports would grow if every Seventh-day Adventist, constrained by Christ's love, should consecrate all the "trifles," as in the case noted in the following clipping :—

"A little box was received in a missionary collection inscribed with the singular words: 'Tis But.' It was from a lady who had never felt that she could do much for missions. But she had been accustomed to buy a good many things for herself which she did not absolutely need, saying, 'Tis but a trifle.' This year she determined to put her 'tis buts' into the missionary box, and it surprised her to find that they amounted to $150."
