THE MID-AMERICA ADVENTIST

Outlook

Dear Friends,

Some 417 official delegates to the First Mid-America Union Session met in Kansas City, Missouri, April 12 and 13, to elect officers and departmental staff, and to conduct such business that should be brought before this quinquennial session. After careful consideration, the nominating committee consisting of twenty-five members, brought in the following recommendations which were voted by the constituency:

- President - E. S. Reile
- Secretary - D. E. Holland
- Associate Secretary - H. L. Thompson
- Treasurer - Lee Allen
- Mid-America Association Treasurer - Lee Allen
- Communication, Religious Liberty, P.R.E.A.C.H. Coordinator - Halle G. Crowson
- Education - Randall Fox
- Ministerial & Evangelism Coordinator - Ron Halvorsen
- Personal Ministries & Sabbath School - W. E. Peeke
- Publishing - Hoyet Taylor
- Trust Services - Howard Voss
- Mid-America Association Secretary - Howard Voss
- Youth & Family Life - John Thurber

E. S. Reile

Other departments were left to be filled by the next union executive committee. According to our new constitution and by-laws, the associates and/or assistants are to be chosen by the union executive committee also. The committee has already met, and has chosen the following:

- Assistant Treasurer - Arthur Opp
- Associate Education Director & Curriculum Coordinator - Melvin Northrup
- Associate Publishing Director - Robert Belmont
- Associate Publishing Director - Ron Ihrig

I am very happy to present your new union officers and staff to you. We have a very outstanding group that will serve the field in a most excellent way. In addition there is an executive committee of forty members with lay members and pastors from every conference in the Mid-America Union. Please pray for this committee as they direct the work for the next five years.

A time and place for the next union session was not decided since the hope was expressed that Jesus would soon come. Let us unite in prayer that the work will be completed, and the Lord will return before the time of another union session.

Cordially,

E. S. Reile, President
Mid-America Union President

Camp Meeting — The Great Convocation

By D. E. Holland

Probably the greatest spiritual convocation is when our people all over the world attend the annual camp meetings. This is the time of the year when the opportunity is given for us to have great spiritual fellowship. God knew how important it was for His people to come together, and to see each other and to have the privilege to renew old acquaintances. In Hebrews 10:25 it says, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together . . . and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching". As to the closing events becoming more evident and numerous, our need for fellowship becomes more important. Camp meeting is the opportunity we have to spend extra time in studying and concentrating on God's Word and the Spirit of Prophecy. There are too many voices in the world vying for our attention and time; at camp meeting there is opportunity for quiet contemplation, for reading the Bible in a very deliberate and meaningful way. This will bring about a great compensation in our life.

Camp meeting gives us the privilege of praying together, of petitioning God in our own behalf, and in behalf of those with whom we are praying. Ellen White tells us that when we pray, Christ puts one hand around us and the other around the Father, and he takes us into the very throne room of heaven, and we sit down and talk with Him as we would to a close personal friend. Taking time for personal prayer and devotions will increase our spiritual strength and help prepare us for our daily battle and the activities of life.

Camp meeting makes possible a period of learning that is almost second to none as great speakers from all over the world share with us their knowledge and experience. And as we sit at the feet of these learned men, our mental capacity becomes enlarged, and our appreciation for the finer things of life is enhanced. It is good for us to study again the great prophecies of Daniel and Revelation, and look again at the way-marks that have kept us in the way these many years. These tell us that Jesus is soon to come.

Camp meeting is a time to let the redeemed of the Lord say so by lifting their voices to God in song. Our lives become enriched and our spirits become lifted up. The angels enjoy joining with us as we lift our voices in praise to our Heavenly Father. Miriam, the sweet singer in Israel, brought many blessings to the people who enjoyed her God-given talent. It is the same today. The many singing groups and individual talents that are in the church express in song the inmost desires of our hearts.

Camp meeting is the time for special training so that we can be effective workers in the cause of God. We learn how to give Bible studies, how to hold lay evangelistic crusades, write missionary letters, make personal contacts, share with others the way that God has blessed us in what He has done for us.

Camp meeting is also to be a time when the entire community is invited to come and listen to the great truths of God's Word given by His ministers and leaders. Ellen White tells us that this time should be one of the greatest evangelistic endeavors of the entire year, when these great truths are presented in a very clear and stirring way to the entire community. We thank the Lord for the privilege that He has given us to participate in these annual convocations, and I know that this year will be no exception as we invite His presence to join us as we meet together for this time of fellowship, prayer and study.

Camp Meeting Highlights

By George W. Liscombe

Camp Meeting 1981 will be outstanding. Here are a few of the highlights:

C. E. Bradford, Vice-President of the General Conference for North America, will speak Friday evening and again Sabbath morning.

L. E. Tucker, the speaker of the Quiet Hour, will have a mini-evangelistic series at 7:30 each evening Saturday through Tuesday.

W. R. Leshar, Director of the Biblical Research Institute of the General Conference, will have our 11 o'clock Bible study hour all through the week.

A very special treat will be a seminar by Mrs. Kay Kuzma of Loma Linda University, entitled "Understanding Children".

E. S. Reile, our Mid-America Union Conference President, will have an evening meeting as will Gerald Hardy of Faith For Today.

Our closing weekend will feature James E. Chase of the General Conference and Norman Matiko of the Voice of Prophecy. On Sabbath evening there will a full hour of music - a wonderful way to close the Sabbath and end our 1981 camp meeting.

George W. Liscombe is president of the South Dakota Conference.

There will be a reception to honor George and Ruth Liscombe on the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary, May 31 at 5:30 p.m. in the Women's Building on the State Fairgrounds, Huron, South Dakota.

New Dentist Joins Medical Team

By Elmer Haas

Delvin Hansen is the newest Seventh-day Adventist dentist in North Dakota. He joins a growing family of six other SDA dentists in our conference.

Dr. Hansen is from Nevada, Iowa. He graduated from the Loma Linda School of Dentistry in December of 1978. He began his practice in Detroit Lakes,

Minnesota Girl Heads Staff of New Campus Publication

By Beverly Dickinson

Karin Dougan, a senior religion major at Union College, is editor-in-chief of the new intercollegiate magazine entitled College People, produced by the Campus Ministry Department of Union College.

A Minnesota girl from birth, Karin lives in Wayzata, a suburb of Minneapolis. She attended Minneapolis Junior Academy the first ten years of her education, and Oak Park Academy in Iowa her last two years of academy residence. Summers and vacations were spent working in various secretarial positions in her home area.

Karin has been very active in music — whether in band, choir, piano, or organ. She is completing her education this year at Union after spending last year teaching at an English school in Tokyo as a student missionary.

Despite her heavy college program of study and musical activities, Karin has taken on the responsibility this year of editing College People. This magazine will cover relevant contemporary topics of concern to the average Adventist college student. Included in each 40-page issue will be feature articles, short story/essays, book and record reviews, health columns, a creative Bible study, cartoons, and more. Anyone wishing more information about College People, contact Campus Ministries at Union College or Karin Dougan.

Beverly Dickinson is the secretary in the Minnesota Conference Department of Communication.

International Day at St. Paul First Church

By A. C. Carlson

Tony Fritz, pastor of the St. Paul First Church, invited Everett Cornwall to conduct Sabbath School and the worship service. Everett agreed and invited 35 of his friends from the University. The sermon Everett preached was entitled, "Who is Jesus Christ?" The service was concluded with a baptism conducted by Pastor Fritz.

Everett Cornwall, a native of Trinidad, attends the University of Minnesota where he is working on a Ph. D. in nutrition. He recently left the Catholic Church and is now a member of the First St. Paul Adventist Church. His friends were an ethnically diverse group, coming from Australia, Ethiopia, India, Jamaica, Kenya, Nigeria, Spain, Saudi Arabia, Venezuela, Vietnam, Trinidad and Tobago.

A vegetarian meal was served, and those who were Moslems were delighted to learn that no meat dishes were being served. The guests participated in the afternoon program with stories of the countries they came from, and by sharing their musical talents. Everett and Pastor Fritz are continuing to visit these students and share their faith with them.

A. C. Carlson is the director of the Ministerial Association of the Minnesota Conference.

It Could Be Us

By Ruby Ware

It could be us, when the land gets dry,
And fires start, and children cry,
It could be us when a tornado hits,
Blowing our homes and us to bits.

It could be us when planes fly low,
Drop their bombs and off they go,
It could be us who'll be naked, blind
Need some one to be very kind.

It could be us as refugees,
We'll beg for bread with an earnest plea,
Or lie on our backs in fear and pain,
Knowing we'll never be well again.

Oh, God open our eyes to see
The suffering that ours could be,
Live more simply and much less fuss,
Because the next ones, may be us.

Ruby Palmer Ware is the communication secretary for the Aitkin Church.

Health Emphasis In SW Minnesota

A Five-day Plan to Stop Smoking was held at the Windom church from March 22-26. A doctor and his wife lectured, with Pastor Bahr assisting. Seven people came and all seven graduated.

A stop-smoking clinic was held in Redwood Falls from March 29 - April 2, sponsored by the Morgan SDA Church and the Redwood County American Cancer Society. Nineteen people signed up, with sixteen gaining the victory. Two nurses were in attendance every night and a local doctor came in one night to lecture.

A Better Living Seminar was held in Windom starting April 9.

Agnes Johnson is the communication secretary for the Morgan Church.

Never Underestimate God's Spirit

Eunice Foley had been canvassing a young man who had sent her a request for the Bible Story set. Upon completing her canvass, she was informed that the man was preparing to enter the ministry. From natural instincts, she offered him the opportunity to purchase the Bible Reference set.

The young man became quite embarrassed when Eunice told him he could have the reference set with a ten-dollar down payment. He did not even have $10. But he promised payment on the following Friday. That next Friday, Eunice began making her collections. She had prayed to the Lord but was not meeting any success. Each home presented one disappointment after another. No one had any money.

Suddenly the Holy Spirit brought to her mind the young man who had promised the $10 payment. Ironically, the young man was very happy to see Eunice. He had been waiting for her. To her surprise the young man took out $100 to pay on the books. She was overwhelmed.

"Our heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us of which we know nothing." Colporteur Ministry, p.114. Eunice has been a credentialed literature evangelist for many years. She is truly thankful for this wonderful promise.

DeShays Combine Efforts For Workers' Meeting

By William R. Wright

The 1981 workers' meeting for the Central States Conference was very inspirational, informative, and practical. Doctors Samuel and William DeShay combined their knowledge and experience to present a seminar stressing the importance of the Seventh-day Adventist worker's healthful, evangelistic life style.

William DeShay, administrator for black affairs in the Southern California Conference, lectured in part on Maslow's theory the "hierarchy of needs". "It is important" Dr. DeShay stated, "that the Adventist worker understand the full impact of 'Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love. . . .' Romans 12:10."

Samuel DeShay, director of health services for the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, conveyed stimulating concepts of "managing your diet - the live longer now" theory. There was tremendous interest when Dr. DeShay referred to the Spirit of Prophecy's theory of vital force and the electrical potential of the body.

Left to right: S. Haywood Cox, Samuel DeShay, L. B. Hampton, William DeShay.

According to Gerald Jones, pastor from the Lincoln/Omaha district, the DeShays combined presentations were some of the most practical given workers thus far.

In addition to the seminars conducted by the DeShays, the conference administration received reports from all ministers and department directors. The three-day meeting concluded with the announcement of the 1980 pastor of the year award. R. P.

Stafford was presented the award by president S. Haywood Cox.

Community Guest Day At Palace of Peace

Community Guest Day. Guest Pastor E. Slocumb, Jr. stands at the far left.

By Pansy Blue

The Palace of Peace Church of Colorado Springs, Colorado held its first Community Guest Day. Services were held at the Ivey Chapel on the Fort Carson Army Post just outside Colorado Springs.

Thirty to 55 non-Adventist guests were present to participate in the Sabbath services and the fellowship dinner which followed.

Robert White, area director for Christian Record Braille Foundation, was the guest speaker. His message emphasized "God's standard for the Christian." It was a powerful message and quite informative.

One highlight of the day's program was the dedication to the Lord of little Shezarat Yomee. Shezarat is the daughter of Yolanders McClendon.

Pansy Blue is communication secretary of the Palace of Peace Church.

Kindness Never Goes Out of Style

By Julia Williams

Local elder, Herman Burton, was pleasantly surprised recently when members of the Emmanuel Church in St. Joseph, Missouri expressed their kindness and gratitude. The occasion was a special birthday appreciation social. Members of the church were invited and brought refreshments and gifts. Certainly there is no better feeling than the mutual acceptance of love and kindness.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN

Trinidad Colorado Dedicates Sanctuary

The sixty-member church in Trinidad, Colorado was dedicated to the Lord's service on March 14, 1981. The guest list included a former pastor, R. Chester Barger, who directed the Sabbath School lesson study. The Rocky Mountain Conference president, William C. Hatch, ministered during the worship service. The Mid-America Union president, E. S. Reile, preached the dedicatory message. Harry Haas,

Trinidad, Colorado Church

Mid-America Union treasurer, gave some interesting and appropriate historical information. Margaret Barnes, whose husband was pastor in Trinidad during the building of the church, assisted with the church history. C. M. Christianson, present pastor, served as chairman of the afternoon dedication service. The new church building was begun when a rancher, Glen Watkins, who lived near Model, remembered the church in his will with a sizable sum. Those in attendance at the dedication were invited to the Fellowship Hall for refreshments following the service.

Church Services Available For Park Visitors

Seventh-day Adventist church services will be available to visitors to the two national parks located within the territory of the Rocky Mountain Conference.

Services will be conducted in the Old Faithful Lodge Recreation Center in Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming. Sabbath School begins at 10:00 a.m. with worship services following. A pastor will be provided for each service from June 6 through August 29, 1981.

For visitors to the Rocky Mountain National Park in Colorado, the beautiful new church in Estes Park is only three miles from the eastern entrance on Highway 34. Sabbath School begins at 9:30, with worship services following. Dr. Avery Dick is the pastor.

Worland Church Holds Cooking School

By Bette Curtis

Classes in cooking and nutrition were recently conducted in Worland, Wyoming and received both participation and support from the community. The classes were conducted by Willard and Doris West, with the assistance of Janice Curtis and other members of the church.

The classes were held Sunday through Thursday at 7:30 p.m., featuring slide programs, food demonstrations and samples, guest speakers and delicious recipes.

Kathy Callahan, a guest from the Department of Public Health, presented "We Become What We Eat". "Sugar, Carbohydrates and Protein" was presented by Emloretta Mathews from the nursing department at Bethesda Care Nursing Home. Dr. Ronald McLean, an Adventist physician from Greybull, spoke on "Diet, Nutrition and Cancer." Jackie Harrod, Director of the Home Economics Department of the Worland High School, talked about "Snack and Junk Foods." Willard West, Personal Ministries Director from the Worland Church, spoke on "Why Vegetarianism."

Health Emphasis Seminar At Greeley

By Carolyn Mettler

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph McClure and Sherry Wirsz, from Eden Valley Institute recently spent a weekend with the Greeley, Colorado church, directing a Health Emphasis Seminar. The inspiring meetings began with a talk on Friday night on the prevention of cancer. Among the suggestions Dr. McClure gave were these: get plenty of fiber in your diet, control your weight and get adequate amounts of Vitamins, A, E and C.

The theme of Sabbath morning church service was "Why We Have A Health Message". We have a health message because God cares about us and our bodies. The health message is one of the finest ways of breaking down prejudices. We cannot be of glory to God when our bodies are sick and diseased. Sabbath afternoon brought talks about the heart and weight control. Director of nursing, Sherry Wirsz, talked on weight control and included the following suggestions in her talk: eat simply, regularly, slowly; advance planning controls impulsive buying; surrender your weight problems to Jesus through a daily devotional; watch out for such danger zones as weekends, vacations, watching TV; throw away all junk food in your pantry; have big breakfasts and small suppers; drink lots of water between meals; exercise.

The benefits of simple remedies like great-grandma used were demonstrated by Mrs. Ralph McClure at the Greeley Health Emphasis Seminar.

The Sabbath evening meeting was presented by Mrs. McClure on home remedies, the old-fashioned kind like great-grandma used. While the audience munched on a supper of popcorn and apples, Mrs. McClure gave detailed demonstrations on bringing down a child's fever with contrast baths; cold compresses for sore throats; charcoal poultices for drawing out infections and swellings; and hot fomentations for upper respiratory infections and nervous conditions. An enjoyable, informative weekend was appreciated by the Greeley Church.

Carolyn Mettler is communication secretary of the Greeley Church

Have you given thought to your INVESTMENT project for 1981? These children from the primary and junior departments of the Golden, Colorado church were responsible, along with their leaders, for raising more than $1,200 for INVESTMENT in 1980!

Limon Church Receives New Sign

The Limon, Colorado Adventist Church is again identified in the community! For more than two years this small church family has not had an identifying sign on their building. Everyone knew it was needed to aid guests and visitors in this farming community of nearly 2,000, but, when church members are scattered over vast wheat farms and cattle ranches, it is easy to leave the actual work to someone else.

The Limon, Colorado church family is all smiles at the dedication of their new church sign.

Pastor Ralph Watts III brought the matter to the church board and immediately received approval to have Don Smith, a member of the Colorado Springs Church, build and erect a suitable sign.

Don Smith, a Colorado Springs builder, receives a gift from the church as a token of their appreciation of the new sign he built and gave to the Limon church.

In his sermon on the day of dedication of the new sign, Pastor Watts thanked the congregation for their cooperation in getting the new sign for the church. He stressed in a most forceful way the transcending importance of each member becoming a "sign", testifying to the power of God's Divine Grace.

Koreans Form Church Company

By Violet Archambeau

A new company of believers has been added to the great Rocky Mountain Conference. On March 28, Wm. C. Hatch, president, and Gordon L. Retzer, secretary, organized a Korean language company to be known as the Denver Korean Company.

Elder Hatch greets George Hahn, new Korean Company leader. Pastor David Oh and Dr. Chang Cha are to the right of the conference President, Elder A. G. Ratcliffe, Denver South pastor, and Gordon Retzer, conference secretary, look on.

Pastor David Oh will serve as the pastor for this group that has grown from 25 to 48 persons under his care in the past year. At the present time there are five persons preparing for baptism and more than 65 in attendance each Sabbath. In addition to those attending services, there are about 18 Koreans living in the Denver area who are prospective church members.

Korean members in native costume.

Pastor Oh and the members of this new company have set two goals that they hope to accomplish in 1981:

First they wish to increase Sabbath School attendance to 85.

Secondly they wish to increase church membership from 48 to 65.

George Hahn was chosen as company leader and Dr. Chang Cha was asked to serve as treasurer of the company.

Services are conducted each Sabbath in the auditorium of Porter Memorial Hospital. Sabbath School is at 9:30, and worship services at 11:00 a.m. All services are in the Korean language.

Violet Archambeau is communication secretary of the Denver South Church.

KANSAS-NEBRASKA

Septuagenarians Honored

By Roger Baker

Thirty-eight members of the Piedmont Park Community Seventh-day Adventist Church were honored at services April 11, according to Monte Morris, Sabbath School superintendent for the day.

Ruth Henkelmann receiving a corsage.

They were distinguished in that each has outlived the three score and ten, and several the fourscore years of Psalm 90:10, explained Morris. One will soon celebrate her 98th birthday. They represented nearly every facet of the church organization including foreign missionaries, ministers, Bible instructors, teachers, division leaders, elders, deacons, deaconesses, musicians, a choir director, a church clerk, and a church treasurer. Each of the twenty-three present was given a corsage or a boutonniere.

Honorees included Ainsley Blair, Catherine Blair, Cecil Bridges, Katherine Bridges, Leota Butz, Frank Catlin, Pearl Counsel, Clara Donoho, Bertha Garn, Jessie Haning, Vada Hedges, John Hickman, and Clara Hickman, Ruth Henkelmann, Edith Hild, Harriett Hines, Emmett Hineseley, Flora Jones, Dorothy Kaplar, Viola Macasa, Carl Meyers, Tillie Meyers, Celia Moutray, Maude Nielson, Emily Park, David Schwartz and Ida Schwartz. Vivian Peterson, Edith Robison, Lillian Rohde, Minnie Sothan, Iva Spiedel, Ruth Thomas, Georgia Towle, Paul Versaw, Hazel Walker, Clarence Tribble, and Lois Tribble.

Not only have these individuals served their church in the past but they continue to serve. Several had part in the program of the day. John Hickman led the song service, Clarence Tribble offered prayer, Paul Versaw gave a mission talk, and Lillian Rohde gave a talk on witnessing.

Roger Baker is communication secretary of the Piedmont Park Church.

IOWA-MISSOURI

Gift Annuities

Would you like to give a substantial gift to the work of the Lord and at the same time receive up to 14% on your Iowa-Missouri Gift Annuity?

The Gift Annuity Plan is a wise and sound stewardship program that gives you the spiritual satisfaction of helping others at the same time you are helping yourself.

When you place an amount of $500 or more into this Plan, you receive in return a guaranteed, steady income, paid quarterly, for the rest of your life. Your Annuity payment, which is based on your age at the time your Annuity is written, may be as high as 14%. Upon your death, the funds placed into this agreement will go directly to the Lord's work, without probate costs.

Because your Annuity payments are fully guaranteed, you'll have the peace of mind and security you need. You will enjoy freedom from investment worries, and will receive tax advantages . . . a portion of your money is tax-deductible as a gift immediately, as well as most of the income you receive. You'll also have the great personal satisfaction of knowing that you are giving back to God what He has entrusted to you, by helping the Lord's work in our conference for years to come.

You may fund a Gift Annuity with real estate or other appreciated properties as well as cash. The value of your Annuity will not be taxed in your estate, nor will it be subject to probate proceedings or court costs. It will immediately be released to do a work for the Lord in our field.

It is possible to take out a Gift Annuity for two persons. This is called a joint Annuity. Two names are used in the Annuity agreement, with the payment continuing throughout the life of the survivor.

The rate of return is based on your age at the time the Annuity agreement is written.

For more information contact your Conference Trust Services Department by writing P.O. Box 65665, West Des Moines, Iowa 50265 or by phone, in Iowa 515-223-1197, and in Missouri 816-353-7113.

News From Bedford

By Gordon C. Wallace, D.D.S.

Nutrition Class

A very successful three-night cooking school was held in the Bedford State Savings Bank's Courtesy Room by Mrs. Peter Dible and members of the Bedford Seventh-day Adventist Church.

The excellent attendance showed that the citizens of the staunch meat-and-potato diet community were also interested in improving their diet.

The church women demonstrated the baking of nutritional bread, use of meat substitutes, and offered various foods for sampling each night.

Dr. John Ott, a local physician, stressed the importance of diet in relation to heart and circulatory diseases. Dr. Larry Heater, the city's only dentist and a Seventh-day Adventist, lectured concerning the necessity of reducing the refined carbohydrates for healthy teeth and improved general health.

Those attending expressed a desire for the conducting of future cooking schools in Bedford.

Women Participate In Community Organization

The ladies of the Bedford church have been active in the "Church Womens United" organization. The Bedford church building has been used at times for their regular meetings.

Instead of having the last meeting in one location, it was decided to have Bible study groups in four different homes. The home of Mrs. Gordon Wallace was chosen as one and Pastor Peter Dible of the Bedford SDA church was asked to present the topic.

Twenty one ladies from the community attended and were impressed by the presentation given. Mrs. Wallace received letters of appreciation from several of the ladies. Here are a few of the statements: "Thank you for your love of Christ and eagerness to share it with others." "Pastor Dible had much to share in Christ, and I received so much from his study - hope it can happen again." "The love and time you gave to be a hostess were certainly appreciated. You truly radiate the love of Christ. Blessings upon you."

The ladies of the Bedford church feel that their witnessing with the religious activities of the community are indeed profitable and will help break down false ideas some may have concerning Seventh-day Adventists.

The Church's History

The Bedford Seventh-day Adventist Church is one of the newest churches in Iowa, and the only SDA church in the three southwest counties of the state. The church has made much progress since it was organized in 1973 with 17 members. Today the membership has increased to 58 and meets in a very representative church building. For the last four years it has supported a church school.

As 1980 is reviewed, one finds many activities have taken place throughout the year and we have related only a few of them here.

Gordon C. Wallace, D.D.S., is the communication secretary of the Bedford Church.

Health Fair in Des Moines College

The Iowa-Missouri Temperance/Youth Department, under the leadership of Ron Scott, and his secretary, Trisha England, sponsored a booth at the Polk County Health Education Fair at Drake University here in Des Moines. They were among 35 exhibitors including the American Cancer, Lung, and Heart Associations, all hospitals in the area, and other health related organizations.

There were 2,000 school children who visited the booth and 1,375 Winner magazines were handed out. Many adults visited the booth and picked up various brochures; 15 signed up for the Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking which will be conducted by Gerri Adams, lay worker from the Des Moines First Church. She also assisted in the booth part time. Pastor and Mrs. Hinckley of Marshalltown helped one day, and the Knoxville SDA school students and their teacher, Ron Wood, manned the booth for one-half day. Thus their Junior Temperance Club will gain points from taking part.

Trisha England explains "Sams" contaminated lungs to a group of students.

The booth consisted of signs, posters, drug display, Smoking Sam, and other visual aids such as lung specimens, inflatable cigarette, poison kit, etc. Many favorable comments were made, even by other exhibitors, regarding the attractive and very informative booth.

Participating in such an endeavor is truly an inspirational experience, and one that stimulates a desire for a greater outreach to alleviate some of mankind's problems and alerting them to how God intends us to care for our bodies. The desire of students and youth to see their parents healthy was manifested in the many requests for literature to help parents stop smoking. We would encourage others to try such an exhibit. You might even take Smoking Sam to a shopping mall to advertize a Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking. You will have greater results from your display contacts.

Retired Pastor Does Unique Ingathering

After being a pastor for 40 years on the West Coast, Wm. B. Riffel retired to a rural area in Missouri 18 years ago and is now bringing in thousands of dollars for Ingathering in a unique manner with a person-to-person approach. He waits until all other solicitors have completed their campaign, then he contacts individuals person-to-person. He believes this is the way to do Ingathering, not by personal giving of the church members. Pastor Riffel has gathered at least $10,000 in the last five years. This year he has received $2,300 with a promise of more to come. His smallest donation was 50 cents, his largest $250.

Wm. B. Riffel

His wife says she is an "Ingathering widow" from January until March.

Pastor Riffel says his inspiration came after he read From Vision To Reality which is about Loma Linda from 1905 to 1980. This book tells how our denomination succeeded in the medical world after six other medical schools in Los Angeles failed. He first gave this book to a medical man in our area, and after reading it, the man gave a $200 donation.

The retired Pastor Riffel is 82 years old and raises a big garden which he shares with shut-ins. He goes water skiing and is the first elder in his church. He gives Bible studies to follow up his contacts. He says, "What I'm praying for now is to see one individual baptized because of my Ingathering work."

Members of Pastor Riffel's family were prisoners of war in the Phillipines and were rescued in 1945. He has two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth A. Snider of Massachusetts, and Mrs. Bruce Huff of California, and one son, Dr. G. W. Riffel of Bourbon, Missouri.

Nutrition Class Held In Spencer

By Stanley Teller

Nancy Teller recently conducted nutrition classes in the community room of the Spencer Seventh-day Adventist Church. The instruction covered basic nutrition as expressed in the Bible and the counsel given in Mrs. White's writings. One of the most interesting topics discussed was a "Health Child." The audience participated in decorating the table each evening. Interesting and helpful suggestions were exchanged during the question and answer periods.

Stanley Teller is the pastor of the Spencer Church.

St. Joseph Hosts Van Denburgh Evangelism

By Gary Boydston

St. Joseph, Missouri was the setting for an evangelistic series by Dr. John and Clara Van Denburgh during February and March. Those in attendance were thrilled by the music and inspired as John taught from the Word of God each night.

A special Sabbath celebration was held at the nearby theater when 21 persons were baptized. As a result, the membership of the newly-formed Hillside Seventh-day Adventist Church has nearly doubled.

Gary Boydston is the personal ministries leader of the Hillside Church.

HOSPITALS

Rick Ketchum has been named assistant administrator for personnel at Porter Memorial Hospital. He has more than ten years' experience in the health care industry. He graduated from Union College with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration, and obtained a Master's degree at Xavier University in Cincinnati. He has served as an administrative assistant since joining Porter Hospital last April.

Brighton Community Hospital to Observe National Hospital Week

"Looking Well Into The Future" will be the theme of Brighton Community Hospital's celebration of National Hospital Week May 10-16. Said Harold A. Buck, administrator, "We devote our fullest resources to providing the best health care possible today but we know that we have to look to the future to find even better ways to care as patient and community needs change. That's why Brighton Community Hospital is currently constructing a new health care facility. With the new hospital, we will be able to provide the most modern and complete health care possible to the residents of the Brighton area."

During National Hospital Week the hospital is calling special attention to several of its programs designed to help community residents safeguard and improve their health.

"Our Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking has been tested and proven effective nationwide in helping people kick the cigarette smoking habit. Wa-Rite is our weight loss and management program which lasts several weeks and not only helps participants take off weight, but also healthfully keep it off. And finally, we have begun offering a class on stress management.

National Hospital Week is sponsored each year by the American hospital Association and its approximately 6,000 member hospitals.

PATHOLOGIST JOINS MOBERLY MEDICAL CENTER

Neal E. Wearner, M.D., a pathologist, is the first Seventh-day Adventist physician to join the 61-member staff at Moberly Regional Medical Center, according to Jim Culpepper, administrator. Dr. Wearner, 34, is a 1973 graduate of Loma Linda University. His residency in pathology was taken at West Virginia University. He is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. Dr. Wearner and his wife, Carla, have one son, Todd Dale, age 3.

UNION COLLEGE

Adventist Presence Felt at UNL Campus

"Dayspring, a new campus organization, presents . . ."

The opening words of this advertisement will be seen often on posters and in the newspaper by students and faculty at the University of Nebraska Lincoln campus (UNL). Doug Stuva, Union College theology major, is the moving force behind Dayspring.

"A population of 25,000 people at the university campus. That's an evangelist's dream," says Stuva. "People who hurt and even cry sometimes. People who have grown up listening to stale, lifeless sermons, never realizing that there's more to God than boredom and formality. And people who are hard-core atheists as well. There are over 25,000 of these real-life people within 20 minutes of Union's campus."

"Yet," continues Stuva, "as far as I know, the Adventist church was doing nothing to help them. Apparently the UNL campus has been almost totally ignored."

After receiving a bachelor of arts degree in journalism-education last May from Kearney State College in Nebraska, Stuva enrolled at Union to begin classes in theology the following fall.

"I threw the idea of starting a campus organization at UNL around in my head the whole first semester. I didn't know exactly who to see for a while. When I found out, I wasn't sure anyone would listen."

Doug Stuva, junior theology major at Union College, explains the Dayspring concept to members of the organization at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Marty Reynolds, an Adventist UNL law student who lives on the Union campus during the school year, submitted a constitution to the governmental body at UNL responsible for campus organizations. The constitution was accepted, and "Dayspring" became a recognized student organization, with Dr. Gunther Paulien, a faculty member in the division of continuing studies, as sponsor.

"By becoming recognized as an organization, Dayspring can now use any campus facilities available at the university for Bible studies, cooking schools, or stop-smoking clinics," says Stuva. "And we can also visit students in their dorm rooms with surveys or literature.

"The first priority of the club is to meet the needs of the Adventists that attend UNL. We want to have meetings about practical topics like dating and marriage, and the lessons we can learn from Jesus' life on earth. We want to help the Adventist on campus first, and then branch out to others."

Stuva says Dayspring began by surveying 59 UNL students to find out their interests. Twenty-six of these 59 indicated they would be interested in attending Bible studies on dating relations. "So we decided to squeeze some in before the end of the year," he says. "Of course we realize we may only get 10% of the 26 out to a meeting, but it was a starting point for the short time we had. It will also help us to get to know some people before getting started next year."

Concluding, Stuva adds, "We've already started making arrangements with Sieg Roeske, professor of religion at Union, to hold his public evangelism class's annual Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking at UNL and maybe a cooking school, too. We've also submitted a constitution to the programs office at Kearney State College, and have a person attending the University of Nebraska at Omaha doing the same. We hope to make Dayspring a statewide organization, and then possibly move out from there."
