THE MID-AMERICA ADVENTIST

Outlook

Dear Friends,

Much publicity and promotion have been given to "1,000 Days of Reaping". The time has now arrived to begin this great soul-winning endeavor. Our Union has accepted its fair share of the world objective, and is planning, through organized programs, under the power of the Holy Spirit, to bring to the Lord our portion of the million souls won before the next General Conference session.

This is a great challenge because we will be putting our energies, coupled with faith, to the stretch. The time has come for us to move out in faith to a point that we have never attained before. To reach our objective for the next 1,000 days, we must bring into the faith 13,430 (4,478 for each of the next three years). My prayer and hope is that each church member, individually, will accept the challenge to help in reaching the conference objective listed below:

E. S. Reile

|                 | Total for1,000 Days | Total forYear |
|-----------------|-------------------------|-------------------|
| Central States  | 1,483                   | 495               |
| Dakota          | 1,325                   | 442               |
| Iowa-Missouri   | 2,916                   | 972               |
| Kansas-Nebraska | 2,684                   | 895               |
| Minnesota       | 1,362                   | 454               |
| Rocky Mountain  | 3,660                   | 1,220             |

The first point in a nine-point recommendation from the 1981 General Conference Annual Council is: "To launch an unprecedented worldwide soul-winning thrust, placing unquestioned priority on evangelism in all forms and to all levels. . ." We must take this very seriously. We must do all that we can to do our share in reaching North America's goal of 144,000. I think it is interesting that the North American Division should choose this number.

The One Thousand Days of Reaping is not designed to baptize people who will not stay in the church. The Advisory Committee is strongly urging that we increase our efforts to keep "the back door" closed, and hold these new converts. This means that there must be a close fellowship formed with the new believers. We are told that we must put the new members to work immediately. This will surely help to hold the gains that will be made.

Our world president, Elder Neal C. Wilson, challenged the leadership of the church through the pages of Ministry magazine by saying, "We are often guilty of caring for the urgent, but we fail to give emphasis to the important! The winning of souls in these last days is a challenge that has both qualities. It is the most important function of the church; and the most urgent!" I believe that our world leader has stated it very succinctly and I can heartily concur.

Those who feel inclined to do so should join in a day of fasting and prayer on September 18 for the success of the 1,000 Days. Let us invoke the presence and power of God's Spirit in order that we might see great success in these last days. Let's join hands—church members, church officers, and ministry—in this great outreach for souls. God has a plan for us during this time. We must do nothing to hinder that plan. "To every one work has been allotted, and no one can be a substitute for another. . . There is something for every one to do." Christian Service, page 10.

May God help us to make some great strides in His work in these closing days.

Cordially,

Ellsworth S. Reile, President

“Forward In Faith”—On The Way Toward 1,000 Daily Broadcasts

Presenting daily broadcasts in additional areas where 21 million Americans live is the immediate goal of the Voice of Prophecy. The church's radio ministry is already on the air every day in 68 of the nations' one hundred largest metropolitan areas as well as more than 85 smaller cities.

Fifteen minutes a day on stations in the other 32 top markets will cost $281,580 a year. That is the amount needed in extra gifts before the end of 1982.

January of 1983 will be an ideal time to start airing the Voice of Prophecy on more stations because a new unified 2-year series of programs is set to begin then. These programs—520 in all—will take listeners on a topical tour of the entire Bible from Genesis to Revelation. The series will deal with every major teaching of scripture as understood by the Adventist Church.

Booklets or other free materials will be offered to listeners each day. Bible correspondence courses will be featured several days every month.

The combination of radio programs, Bible courses, and other literature, along with local follow-up by pastors, Bible workers, or laypersons has proven successful over many years in bringing men and women to a decision for Christ.

Cathy Dicky, Kathy Gillum, Bruce Logan, and Randy Reif can testify to that. All were baptized in the Des Moines First Seventh-day Adventist Church last year. Each of them is between 25 and 35 years of age.

Bruce Logan didn't have a strong religious background. He found the Voice of Prophecy while dialing the radio one day and he liked what he heard. When the New Life Course was offered, he enrolled. Although he had to use a Bible from the library until he could save money to buy one, he completed the lessons within a few months. And before anyone from the church visited him, he walked in one Sabbath. Bible worker, Mrs. Alice Peck, helped him with questions on Daniel and Revelation. He was baptized in November.

Cathy Dicky was a Roman Catholic. A literature evangelist visited Cathy and enrolled her in the Focus On Living course. She continued with the New Life course, began attending the Adventist Church, and had home Bible studies from a member. Three years later, when the

As additional funds are received above those budgeted, the Voice of Prophecy Time Buying Committee and media agent Lois Masten (right) will begin looking for available time on stations in the top 32 markets in the United States where the broadcast is not already aired. The goal of the Voice of Prophecy is to be heard daily in the top 100 metropolitan markets by January 1983, with a long-range dream to cover North America on 1,000 stations every day.

Des Moines Church hired Mrs. Peck as a full time Bible worker, Cathy was one of the persons on the list to be contacted. More home Bible studies followed, and Elder Richard Halversen's evangelistic series last November clinched Cathy's decision.

Kathy Gillum, also a Roman Catholic, saw an advertisement for the Bible courses. As she neared the end of the New Life lessons, she inquired about the church. Mrs. Peck began studies with Kathy and her sister Michelle. Both were baptized in September, 1981.

Randy Reif, a member of the Christian Church, listened to many religious programs. While off work one day, he happened to hear the Voice of Prophecy. From then on, he listened regularly by taking his lunch hour while the VOP was on the local station. As she did with Bruce, Cathy, and Kathy, Mrs. Peck studied with Randy for several months.

Just before his baptism in July, 1981, Randy wrote: "I believe with all my heart that the Adventist Church is the one for me. I prayed to God for help in understanding the Bible and Bible prophecy. Now, I have learned so much about the Sabbath and the second coming of Christ, and I believe we are living in the end of time spoken of in the Bible. This would never have happened if I had not written you. I know it is an answer to my prayers. God bless your ministry."

H. M. S. Richards, Jr., says, "When we hear stories like these four from one church, we want to recommit ourselves to the VOP motto of 'Forward In Faith'."

"I hope our members in Mid-America will join in praying that the annual Voice of Prophecy offering will be sufficient to keep the broadcast on every station that now airs it, and to add the 32 major metro markets where the program is not heard."

October will be a busy month at the Voice of Prophecy when the Wide Area Telephone Service (WATS) lines will be operating.

Historic Church Dedication

By Elmer C. Haas

The North Dakota Bowdon Country Seventh-day Adventist Church was dedicated free of debt on the weekend of July 2 and 3, 1982. The new church sanctuary with accompanying spacious classrooms, offices, kitchen and fellowship room is the fifth building constructed by the congregation for its house of worship. The first was a sod church in 1897. A fire destroyed one building back in 1945. At other times the needs of the congregation prompted them to build new facilities.

The present building was begun in 1978 under the leadership of Elder Dennis Kaiser. The church is located one mile south of the junction of Highways 200 and 52. A good blacktop road leads to it.

The dedication service was unique in that there was no burning of the mortgage—there was no mortgage. The church treasurer's book reveals a cost of just over $201,000.00. This does not include the three acres of land donated by a former member, Dana Widicker Farnsworth, nor the table service and dishes for the kitchen donated by former members Kirby and Elaine Bechthold. The cost does not include the piano and organ.

Scott LeMert, now pastor at Davenport, Iowa, conducted the Friday evening service, R. H. Wentland of Tennessee gave the 11 o'clock sermon, and R. R. Bietz of Walla Walla, Washington delivered the dedication message. Stanley Teller is the present pastor and the present membership is 100. Elder Bietz and Elder LeMert grew up in the Bowdon Church.

Forty-Four Baptized

By Lorene Bissenden

Forty-four persons united with God's remnant church in Rapid City after the March-April crusade with Evangelist Lyle Albrecht and Elder Gary Oliver.

The banquet hall of the Hilton Hotel filled to capacity opening night. Adventists discreetly gave up their seats and moved to the rear of the room. There were 60 children upstairs in a nursery.

Despite adverse weather, a basketball tournament, and a concert in town, the crowds kept coming to the Hilton Hotel night after night.

Many came because of the evangelist's brochure received by mail. Many came due to personal contact with Adventist friends. All were there because of the divine appointment set up by the Holy Spirit.

Prior to the crusade, Elder Oliver and Dr. Delford Roth conducted a Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking and a stress clinic. Beth Nystadt and Nancy Rosales held a nutrition class in the public education program to generate interest in the community. As the Revelation lectures progressed, Elder Oliver conducted another Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking as prospective converts desired victory over the tobacco habit.

One young woman had to choose between attending the Bible lectures and her job. She chose the lectures and is already active in the Pathfinder Club. The evangelist cited the privilege of baptizing an entire family of seven who chose to follow Christ together. A 12-year-old boy made his commitment to Christ despite opposition in his home. Every baptism indeed was a miracle. It was an impressive service on the evening of April 17th. After the baptism of the 44, Albrecht gave his favorite sermon entitled, "The Glory of the Cross".

Since the crusade, four more persons have joined the Rapid City Church and many more are studying the Bible in groups. Truly the Holy Spirit blessed His people in a mighty way by calling out 44 precious souls from the Rapid City community.

Sabbath In The Country

By Linda Krause

The Aberdeen and Leola Churches combined their Sabbath School and worship services on 13th Sabbath, June 26. The members drove to Sand Lake Refuge where they held the services out of doors in all the beauty God has created.

Birds sang and the sun shone warmly as guest speaker, Jim Reinking, gave the Sabbath message entitled, "We Shall Be Like Him". Following the worship service was a potluck dinner of healthful food with good Christian fellowship and a walk from the picnic area to Sand Lake lookout tower. Forty-seven members and visitors received this Sabbath Day's blessing. Some came from as far away as California.

Later that afternoon, Jim Reinking concluded his revival series in Aberdeen with the topic, "The Fragrance of the Christian Life". Jim, Donna and baby Michael have been in Aberdeen a week with their revival series. Much spiritual knowledge has been gained, and the church looks forward to their return September 24th with an evangelistic crusade.

Baptism At Minot

By Phyllis Hehn

Two years ago Bible worker Bob Boyd made his first contact with Kirly Simpson who was stationed at the Minot Air Force Base. Later Kirly attended a Bible study series at Dorothy Holland's home on the Base. When he requested additional studies, Mrs. Holland referred him back to Bob Boyd, and he has now accepted the Third Angel's message. He was baptized by Pastor Dennis Kaiser of the Minot Church.

Kirly has recently been discharged from the Minot Air Force Base, and has departed for his new home in Atlanta, Georgia.

Channel 9 Health Fair

By Linda Tatum

On April 18 Eden Valley Health Conditioning Center once again became one of the 150 testing sites for the KBTW-9 Health Fair in Colorado. Tests offered free to participants were: blood pressure, height, weight, anemia, vision glaucoma, hearing, oral cancer, breast exams, and counseling and referral. A blood chemistry analysis was available for a minimal charge. Health education exhibits sponsored by local organizations offered information on epilepsy, smoking, nutrition, preventive medicine, drugs and alcohol. Other organizations, such as the American Red Cross, Hospice, Home Health Care, and the Visiting Nurses Association made material available concerning their community services. At the end of the day 212 people had taken advantage of this health screening program.

More than 120 volunteers from Eden Valley, the Loveland Seventh-day Adventist Church, Loveland Lions Club, Loveland Lioness Club, and the community staffed the different tests and exhibits. A number of physicians and dentists also helped with the tests. Linda Tatum was site coordinator, with Loella Clark, M.D., Ken Miller, Jan Rustad and Sandy Peterson assisting.

Lunch was provided by the Eden Valley dietary department for all volunteers. This was made possible by donations from Eden Valley, Loveland Safeway Stores, King Soopers, Loveland City Dairy, Yancey's Produce and McDonald's Family Restaurants.

For all those who had abnormal results on their tests, there will be a follow-up program encouraging them to see their doctor and to make appropriate lifestyle changes to correct their problems.

It Is Written Returns To Denver

The It Is Written telecast with host George E. Vandeman is back on the air in Denver, Colorado. You may see it by tuning in each Sunday at 7:30 a.m. on KWGN-TV, Channel 2.

It Is Written viewers served previously by KBTW-9 were disappointed earlier this year when the station cancelled the contract and the program failed to appear.

From that time on, every avenue was explored to find an opening for reintroducing the telecast. Finally, the Rocky Mountain Conference and It Is Written were able to secure time on KWGN-TV and service resumed on July 18.

This independent station covers a potential 1,366,800 television homes. Please invite your interested friends, relatives and neighbors to tune in each Sunday at 7:30 a.m. and enjoy the inspiration and revelation of God's message for today's world on It Is Written.

Rocky Mountain Enters "Year Of The Layman"

By Don Shelton

A new day has dawned in evangelism for the Rocky Mountain Conference! Talented laymen are uniting with their pastors and the conference evangelist to work as a team for successful soul winning!

The first of 1982 saw more than 20 precious people unite with the Casper, Wyoming Church. This was the harvest that resulted from the team effort of more than 100 members working with Pastor Joe Watts and Evangelist Don Shelton. The meeting was planned and executed by a steering committee made up of laymen and chaired by a layman. Teams of laymen visited the interests throughout the series, and the laymen also volunteered to become Spiritual Guardians for the newly baptized.

The staff of dedicated workers at BMH share in the success of the recent Revelation Lecture series conducted in the Boulder, Colorado Church. More than 20 were added to the church with Pastors Jim Hoehn and Steve Snow preparing others for baptism. One beautiful German couple was baptized who had their first contact with the church through our fine medical work. Their dentist is a Seventh-day Adventist. It was during the time the husband had some serious medical problems that they came closer to God and His special truth for today. Both husband and wife said that it was the godly life and true Christian concern of Dr. Jerry Smith that drew them to the Adventist church. Laymen visitation teams assisted throughout the series. These were busy laymen—a physician, realtor and a contractor, but they willingly gave their time and talent for God's work of bringing men and women to Christ. It has been laymen who have welcomed people to their homes in follow-up sessions. The Boulder Church, like the Casper Church, is strong due to its lay involvement.

Most recently, 14 individuals were baptized at the conclusion of Don Shelton's Revelation Lectures in Cheyenne, Wyoming. A strong corps of laymen committed their talents and time for six weeks of intensive evangelism. Double sessions were packed the opening weekend, with more than 250 visitors in attendance at the Cheyenne, Wyoming Church. The program went very smoothly for both sessions as various committees, headed and organized by laymen, greeted the people, ushered, and conducted a child evangelism program. Throughout the entire six weeks of meetings, which included double-duty the sixth week, with a Bible Class and Nutrition Class for four nights, the evangelist did not have to worry about dependable help—laymen committed themselves and fulfilled their commitment. Here, as in Casper and Boulder, laymen visitation teams visited the many interests that attended the series. Pastor John Watkins is continuing with the series by conducting a Daniel Seminar on Sunday evenings, a Bible-marking class on Wednesday evenings, and a Sabbath morning Community Bible class, using the "Profiles of Faith" series. Another baptism is scheduled, which should bring the total baptisms to more than 20.

We thank God for the committed laymen in the Rocky Mountain Conference who are doing all they can for evangelism and to hasten their Lord's return.

Signs Digest Month

By Gwen Forrester

May was Signs Digest month for the Leadville and Salida Churches in Colorado. In preparation for the 1,000 Days of Reaping, nine of the Salida members (all that were physically able) spent five Sabbath afternoons distributing 2,000 Signs Digests through their territory.

Meanwhile at Leadville, 22 members and friends distributed 2,500 Signs Digests in Leadville and Lake County on one Sabbath afternoon. At the time of this writing the exact number of responses is not available as requests for studies and subscriptions to the Signs continue to come in.

*As the rain and snow
Come down from heaven,
And do not return to it
Without watering the earth
And making it bud and flourish,
So that it yields seed for the sower
And bread for the eater,
So is my word that goes out from my mouth;
It will not return to me empty, But will accomplish what I desire
And achieve the purpose for which I sent it.*

The Salida and Leadville Churches are looking for a rich harvest of souls as a result of this seed sowing.

Community Guest Day

By Linda Tatum

The Eden Valley Seventh-day Adventist Church held its annual Community Guest Day on June 5. There were about 25 non-Adventist visitors present for the services that day. A special musical with "Christ and the Cross" as its theme was presented during Sabbath school, followed by the lesson study on the Christian Home. Pastor Max Ritchie had the morning church service.

Community service awards were presented to the Loveland Lioness Club and the Loveland Lions Club for their extensive work in the Loveland area. The presidents of both clubs were present to accept the awards. Both were given copies of the book Triumph of God's Love. After the services were completed, everyone was invited to stay for the fellowship dinner.

Health Evangelist Course Offered

By Linda Tatum

Beginning September, 1982 Eden Valley Institute will be offering a two-year course in Health Evangelism. Why is this course being offered? We believe that we have come to a time when every member of the church should take hold of medical missionary work, and that many people do not know where to begin. "Medical missionary work is the pioneer work of the gospel, the door through which the truth for this time is to find entrance to many homes. . . . It is the gospel in practice, the gospel practically carried out." Counsels On Health, pages 497, 532.

You may be asking, "What can I do after completing this course?" Our goal is to train people to follow "Christ's method" of combining teaching, preaching and healing; to train young people to be qualified to carry the gospel message and to minister to the needs of those around them, physically, mentally and spiritually; to prepare health evangelists to work in coordination with the following: institutions, churches, dark counties, evangelistic teams and foreign missions. How is this training to be accomplished? It will be accomplished through classroom instruction integrated with continuous field application.

What does the course entail? Since "The work of the true medical missionary is largely a spiritual work," special emphasis is given in classes to assist the student to acquire, maintain and share his Christian experience. An overview of all the systems of the body will begin in the first quarter with a more thorough study of each system in the second quarter. This will include diseases of the system, proper nutrition, the lifestyle and natural treatments that prevent and aid in treating diseases of the system. Door-to-door work is introduced in the sale of temperance magazines. In conjunction with this program, a progressive plan of health programs will be conducted, such as temperance programs, screening programs, stop smoking programs, cooking schools, nutrition classes and food demonstrations, weight control programs and stress control programs, all leading up to Daniel and Revelation seminars and evangelistic series. Spiritual classes include, but are not limited to the following: Christian Experience, Orientation, Ministry of Healing, Principles of Christian Living, Life and Teachings of Christ, How to Give Bible Studies, Independent Study, Coming Events, How to Give Health Talks, Nutrition, First Aid, CPR, Practical Skills, Christian Administration, General Business, Medical Missionary Ethics, Principles of Mental Development, True Education, Daniel and Revelation, Home Leadership Christian Home, Sanctuary Studies, Guidance to Child Training, Advent Movement Survey, and Principles of Medical Missionary Work.

The basic requirements are a desire to follow in the footsteps of Jesus in a life of service; a desire to be a more effective soul winner; a strong physical constitution, able to fulfill a full load of work and study; a willingness to use your energy to gain this training and experience; a daily work program that pays off the expenses incurred and provides a harmonious development of the physical, the mental, and the spiritual powers.

VBS At Eden Valley

The last of June found 48 children and youth completing a week of Vacation Bible School at Eden Valley, where they learned about building a "high rise" character. There were 27 who received books for perfect attendance. They had eagerly participated in the songs, stories and crafts that are a part of every Bible school, and each day had also included an animal surprise. On Monday, George Probasco, manager of Great Divide Llamas, brought an 8-day-old llama to visit. Animal visitors included a duck with a top-knot, some rabbits, a horse, a poodle, and a bird. Crafts included macrame, plant starters, picture puzzles, clothespin key chains, yarn octopuses, pin cushions, and wood and flower arrangements.

Healthland Valley with the Healthland Flyer entertained and taught health lessons each day, with stops made at Toothbrush Tree, Breakfast Valley, Exercise Woods, Little Supperton and Vegetable Plateau. This is always a highlight of Vacation Bible School and the children enjoy participating as the engineer, Nurse U.R. Well, Dr. I Am Healthy, and Patient I Am Sick.

Three of the children attended Vacation Bible School in the morning at the Loveland Church and then came to Eden Valley in the afternoon. Of the 48 children who came, 21 were visitors.

Linda Tatum and Bonnie Hays were co-directors. Loretta Crow taught the kindergarten, Judy Reeves the primary, and Roger and Bonnie Hays the junior division. Edwina Deschner was in charge of crafts.

Special visitor to Vacation Bible School at Eden Valley was the llama.

Health Seminar At Park Hill

By Ivory Chalmers

George Timpson

Elder George Timpson, Associate Secretary for the Mid-America Union, conducted a seminar at the Adventist Youth Hour on healthful living and temperance. He emphasized that a change of lifestyle is often necessary even among Christians because they overindulge by eating too much, too often, and late in the evening.

If we are to have strong minds and bodies, we are to follow as closely as possible the original plan for living as given by God. We have often heard it said that someone had a nervous breakdown because he or she studied too much. Elder Timpson said that according to Counsels on Diet and Foods, page 395, the main causes of such mental disorders are: (1) improper diet; (2) irregular eating habits and (3) lack of physical exercise.

Elder Timpson used the blackboard to illustrate the information he presented at the seminar. His visit was very informative and enjoyable.

Robinson And Cuaresma, Outstanding Women

By Alma F. York

Mrs. Frances Robinson and Mrs. Ferne Cuaresma were selected as outstanding women of the year by the King's Daughters' Club in Lincoln at the annual Mother/Daughter banquet.

Mrs. Robinson, mother of three sons and a daughter, was cited for her contributions as a woman, wife, and mother and for her work in her church—Quinn Chapel AME.

Mrs. Cuaresma, who is a founding member of the Allon Chapel Church, was honored for her contributions to her church and to all those persons she has "reached out and touched".

A special tribute was paid to Mrs. Leona Herrington of Omaha, who had served until the time of her death, in the presidency of Omaha King's Daughters.

Volunteer Service Earns Award For Brown

By Etta Collins

Drew Siller Brown, a member of the Community Church in Denver, Colorado, was honored recently when State Representative Laura Deherrera presented her with an award in behalf of Mayor William H. McNichols, Jr.

The award was given in recognition for volunteer service to the community. For more than a year, Mrs. Brown has dedicated some of her time to the Human Resource Center, located in northeast Denver.

A native of Emerson, Arkansas, Drew Siller has lived in the Denver area for the past forty-four years. It was here that she accepted the Adventist message some thirty-seven years ago. She has served as a practical nurse for many years, is now employed and does not expect to retire. She remarks, "I enjoy helping people."

Although a senior citizen, Mrs. Brown is very active in church activities. She has served as deaconess, hostess, usher, and is faithful in Sabbath School and Ingathering programs. Last year she turned in three Ingathering goals; the amazing thing is she goes door to door. Drew Siller told me, "Many people I have witnessed to give me money every year."

Her daughter, Vina Cole, following a building fund-raising musical said, "Mother really gets involved."

Brown considers herself as one who doesn't like to be in the public eye, but gets things done behind the scenes.

Etta Collins is the communication secretary for the Community Church.

Pine Forge Grad Follows Tradition

By Mary A. Bland

When Denise Rae Massengale of Denver, Colorado received her diploma at Pine Forge Academy in May, 1982, along with forty-three classmates, she was following a family tradition which dates back to 1950, and includes her mother, her uncle, and her sister. Denise attended Pine Forge for four years. While there, she received a Certificate of Merit for Who's Who Among American High School Students for the year 1980-81. In her senior year, she was the school Year Book editor.

She plans to attend Oakwood College where she will major in biology. Her philosophy of life is from "Le Chatelier", who once said "potential, kinetic and catalytic energy is needed to reach an ideal balance." With potential, motivation and kinetic energy; with Christ as your catalytic energy, nothing will keep you from an ideal achievement.

"Higher than the highest human thought can reach is God's ideal for His children." —Ellen G. White.

Mary A. Bland is a member of the Park Hill Church.

Good Neighbor Center Receives Gift

By John Treolo

In these days of spiraling inflation and a receding economy, organizations like the Lincoln-based Good Neighbor Community Center are finding it difficult to do as much for the disadvantaged as they once did. An appropriation of $8,000 from the Mid-America Union should go a long way in relieving the financial strains plaguing the Center.

Lee Allen, Union Treasurer, presented the $8,000 check to Elmer Hagen, GNC board chairman, during church services at College View Church. The funds are earmarked for providing summer camping for underprivileged children and food for the needy.

Allen commended the Center for its humanitarian outreach. He also praised the six Lincoln-area churches for their continued support to the Center.

Earlier, a four-night "Taste of Nature Cooking School" was conducted at the Center. Some 30 Lincolniters, most of whom were non-Adventists, attended the school which emphasized cooking with grains, without meat or sugar and how to have a balanced protein diet.

Patty Houghtelling, an aerobics teacher at Union College, was one of the leaders. Other leaders included Center Director Susan Moon and her husband, Jerry.

Included in the programs were films, demonstrations, free samples and recipes.

According to Mrs. Moon, the school was very well received by the 30 participants.

Adventists As Civic Leaders

By Vera Parker

The Nelson Adventist Church with 25 active members believe in serving their community as well as their church. Seven of their members are currently or have recently held various civic offices. Clarence Krueger has, until recently, been president of the Hastings Lions Club. His wife, Dorothy, is the club's treasurer. George Nelson has recently been president of the School Board, Lions Club President and chief of the local fire department. His wife, Rayleen, is secretary and pianist for District Five of the Federated Woman's Clubs.

Pearl Dirck is secretary of the Senior Citizens Organization in Superior, Nebraska. Max Lanham of Nore, Nebraska is secretary of the local cemetery board. Vera Parker is secretary-treasurer of the Golden Age Club, and president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union in Nelson, Nebraska.

Holding offices in civic organizations gives Adventists an opportunity to display high Christian standards to the communities.

Summer Activities At Neligh

By Ruth Black

The Neligh Seventh-day Adventist Church conducted a Vacation Bible School attended by 40 children. Parents, friends, and community members attended the closing exercises.

A special musical Sabbath program was presented by Susan and Tom Cowin on June 12. Susan recently left for Southern Thailand where she will be a student missionary representing Union College.

On June 26, an afternoon musical program by Larry and Vicki Fandrich of Ellendale, ND, was presented at the Neligh Church. Vicki is a former member of the Neligh Church.

BAPTISM

Pastor Larry Pitcher baptizes Carl McRoy. This increases the Olathe Church membership to 186.

Piedmont Park Reaches Community

By John Treolo

"People Helping People" is the national theme describing Seventh-day Adventists in a Reader's Digest advertisement. In harmony with this theme, Piedmont Park is also a church where people are indeed helping people.

Recently three community functions were conducted by members of Piedmont Park. Of the 38 persons who enrolled in the Five-day Plan to Stop Smoking, according to Pastor Anthony Wessels, 28 completed the course, with 27 successful in their efforts to kick the nicotine habit.

Another health-related function, blood pressure screening, was also very well received by the Lincoln community. The screening's purpose was to diagnose minor medical symptoms before they turn into major problems.

In conjunction with Lincoln's Red Cross Association, a number of members from Piedmont received instruction in disaster relief preparation. In case of a major catastrophe in Lincoln, Piedmont's members will be well prepared to assist wherever the greatest need may be.

"People Helping People" is at the core of Piedmont Park's community outreach.

Cooking School

By Grayce Tollerton

Four Kansas City area churches pooled resources and conducted a cooking school for their city. Dr. Dave Kimbrough, Ph. D., and public health educator, with his assistant Pat Tipton coordinated the program. Pastors and members of the Central, Chapel Oaks, New Haven, and Olathe Churches assisted with the school.

INVESTMENT DEVICES

By Grayce Tollerton

The Kindergarten Division of the Olathe Church has two unusual devices to help encourage members with investment projects.

Loma Linda and Worthington labels are fed to a label-eating cow which responds with a "Moo" for thanks.

A telephone, complete with sound effects, serves as a depository for money given for investment.

The adult ladies are planning a sale of knitted and crocheted items at a later date. Some members are collecting aluminum cans for recycling, others have various projects.

The Olathe Church is planning to reach their investment goal of $1,000.

Five members qualified for cycling honors, with prizes going to Marty Hrbek and Tiffany Lind. Marty raised $265.00, the most money through sponsorships, and Tiffany received the highest sponsored mileage pledge, $5.07.

All participants will receive a poster displaying the honors available to be earned and a Pathfinder hat.

New Faculty Welcomed

Union College has welcomed several new employees this fall. Dr. Fred L. Harder will be joining the Union College administration as the Vice-President for Financial Affairs. His duties include drafting the budget for the school and managing the financial concerns of the college and its external industries such as Peanut Hill Market, the North American Youth Ministries Distribution Center, the college bookstore and Prairie Valley Distributors. Dr. Harder is taking Seppo Vartija's place. Mr. Vartija has accepted a position with an insurance firm in Minnesota.

Dr. Harder was graduated from Andrews University with a bachelor of science degree in business administration. Later he received a master's degree in educational school administration from Andrews and a second master's degree in economics from UCLA. He also received his doctorate in economics from UCLA and a C. Phil degree.

After graduating from Andrews University, Dr. Harder worked as a business intern with the Lake Union Conference for one year, and then he took a position at San Fernando Valley Academy as the business manager.

He was then invited by the Smithsonian Institute to accompany a mammalogist on an expedition to South America.

After returning to the States, Dr. Harder did graduate work at UCLA and then taught economics at Andrews University. After Dr. Harder spent eight years at Andrews, Union College offered him a position as chairman of the then new Division of Business and as an associate professor of economics. He spent three years at Union and then moved to Walla Walla College as a professor of economics and chairman of the Division of Business until this July when he returned to Union College.

Dr. Harder's wife, Virginia, will be working in Lincoln as a secretary. They have two children, Holly, 13 and Fred, 10.

Kent Campbell, a 1976 graduate of Union College and a 1980 graduate of the University of Nebraska Law School is returning to Union to work as the student accounts officer and to take the prerequisites for medical school under the guaranteed degree program.

As student accounts officer Mr. Campbell will act as an advocate for students before the student finance committee. He will monitor student accounts to make sure that they are complying with the UNITE agreement, and be involved with recruitment and collections. He will also act as special legal counsel to the school.

Before accepting the position at Union, Mr. Campbell worked with Cline, Williams, Wright, Johnson and Oldfather, a law firm in Lincoln. He held the position of an associate attorney.

Mr. Campbell and his wife, Candy, have a one-year-old daughter, Kristin. Candy is trained as a medical technologist.

While attending the University of Nebraska Law School Mr. Campbell was selected to be a member of the Law of Review which is similar to an honor society. He was also on the National Moot Court Team which is involved in debating hypothetical court decisions.

Although Mr. Campbell enjoyed law school and practicing law very much, he said, "I'm more interested in practicing medicine than in practicing law."

Greg and Peggy Wahlen, both Union College graduates will join the Union College faculty this fall. Mr. Wahlen will be an assistant men's dean, spending most of his time in Culver Hall. Mrs. Wahlen will teach English on a contract basis.

Mr. Wahlen was graduated from Union in 1970 with a bachelor's degree in social work and a minor in religion. Mrs. Wahlen graduated from Union in 1969 with a degree in secondary education and home economics. They have worked in several academies and colleges since graduation including Cedar Lake Academy, Loma Linda University, Pacific Union College Preparatory School, and Pacific Union College.

Mr. and Mrs. Wahlen have both received master's degrees. He holds his master's degree in counselor education, and she holds her master's degree in English and library science.

In addition to being assistant dean, Mr. Wahlen is also coming back to Union to study theology under the guaranteed degree program. After finishing his theology degree, Mr. Wahlen hopes to find employment in which he will be able to combine his degree in theology with his counseling degree. His main goal is to work "closely with people in the salvation of souls."

Mr. and Mrs. Wahlen are a study in contrasts. While she is the "studious sort," he is "outgoing and gregarious." She enjoys writing poetry, doing hand work and reading. He enjoys playing ice hockey, tennis, golf and going snow skiing. He also enjoys painting, drawing and woodworking.

Although the Wahlen's interests vary from one another, they have one common goal and that is to reflect Christ's life in their own.

The Wahlen's have two children, Amy, 4, and Brien, 8 months.

In addition to the new faculty joining the Union College ranks, several current faculty members will be moved to new positions within the institution. Dr. LeVerne Bissell, formerly assistant director of the teaching learning center will become the assistant to the president. Ken Downing, formerly assistant director of admissions, will become the director of the teaching learning center. Ruthita Fike, formerly assistant to the president will be director of development and alumni.

Iowa-Missouri Conference . . . Focusing On People

One Thousand Days of Reaping, an unparalleled three-year, people-to-people outreach begins worldwide on September 18. But a "snapshot" of evangelism in progress now will convince you that the One Thousand Days of Reaping has already begun in the Iowa-Missouri Conference.

Nearly 2000 people attended the Kenneth Cox "Dimensions in Prophecy" crusade in St. Louis, Missouri's Powell Symphony Hall, many through the invitation of laymen participating in "Operation Andrew". One layman, Tony Geyer, set a personal goal of inviting 160 people, and achieved 150.

The Mid-America Union's evangelistic staff plays a key role in Iowa-Missouri's plans for the One Thousand Days of Reaping. Dale Brusett's "Revelation Lectures" in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, captivated an enthusiastic crowd of 400 at his unique presentation of Daniel, chapter 2. Interest for the crusade was stimulated by Cedar Rapids Pastor John Morrison's "Message for Today" radio program on KTOI-FM. Recent baptisms in the district are the result of the radio outreach.

Many of Iowa-Missouri's pastors are involved in other, novel approaches to evangelism, and are conducting crusades in their own and neighboring districts.

John and Clara Van Denburgh, Iowa-Missouri's own evangelistic duo, add outstanding musical talent and unique ability to communicate the gospel in a string of successful evangelistic crusades around the conference.

Scores of Iowa-Missouri laymen attended the Maranatha II Lay Evangelism Seminar and committed themselves to specific evangelism projects. Tom Lawrence, Waterloo, Iowa layman, is conducting an old-fashioned tent meeting, with help from his pastor, John Long. This and similar laymen's crusades are winning souls and will continue to bring new people to a knowledge of Bible truth throughout the One Thousand Days of Reaping.

Ignacio Chaviano's congregation is much larger than its membership list. Iowa-Missouri's minister to the Hispanic people of the Kansas City metropolitan area is stirring up considerable interest through preaching, Bible study and personal visitation and a radio outreach.

A "snapshot" of evangelism in progress now indicates that the prospects are bright for the One Thousand Days of Reaping, as the Iowa-Missouri Conference focuses on people!

North Star Camp 1982

By Robin Diétel

Where can a person roll over on the beach sand and stare into the eyes of a large, fat toad as he watches you from a crack in the wall? Where else can a person spend time pulling porcupine quills out of a horse's nose? Where can you find a Sabbath afternoon scavenger hunt that requires you to catch a frog? And where else do you have a scheduled shaving cream battle on the last day of camp, and shaving cream may be bought at the camp store?

Because North Star Camp is surrounded by water on three sides, the water sports are fantastic—swimming, canoeing, sailing, water skiing, and riding the ski sled. No matter how good your group was at balancing that ski sled, the boat driver could find a way to dump you over! A new sight at the camp was a giant beach ball used for field games.

The 14 horses got a real workout this summer as all the campers liked to gallop a lot. Other activities included gymnastics, crafts, archery, nature, and unicycling.

At the end of each week an all-day Olympics was held. There was friendly rivalry between the cabins in many events, which included races over land, in the water, and on the horses. The cabins collecting the most points received wooden medals at the Olympic ceremony with music playing and the Olympic torch burning.

The campers also had a chance to learn more about God. Counselors had devotions with the campers in their cabins each morning, which drew them closer together as well as closer to God. A campfire program was planned each evening, usually including a play with a spiritual message followed by a short talk by the camp pastor and singing. There was a special candle-lighting ceremony on Friday night. It was most exciting at Teen Camp when a group of girls decided to give up some old habits and rededicate their lives to the Lord.

The first four weeks of camp had a total of 181 children, ages 8-12. During Teen Camp week seventy-five rowdy teenagers, ages 13-16, were guaranteed to keep the staff on their toes. The highlight of the week was an elegant banquet with a castle theme and a delicious spaghetti dinner. It was followed by a program of music and skits put on by the staff. Everyone was dressed in their finest and even some of the shiest young men took a date to the banquet. The teens also enjoyed the Saturday night movie and individual cabin parties.

Blind camp was the greatest challenge. There were 19 totally or partially blind campers. Many had other handicaps as well. They had to be guided from one activity to another, but once they got there, they participated wholeheartedly.

Before closing, North Star Camp's wonderful staff should be mentioned. Larry Kromann, the director, carefully selected a staff that would work hard and work well together. The three cooks giggled a lot but did a good job with the food. The assistant director was a young man from Australia, Wayne Krause. The horse wranglers were well-liked but everyone kept their distance because they always smelled like horses or worse. The counselors were very dedicated to their work but very thankful for CIT (Counselors-in-Training). Also we cannot forget the maintenance guys that kept our roofs from leaking and the toilets unplugged.

All in all, we had a great summer. So next time you see a mouse peering at you from a rafter or from under a door, just remember that it is a daily occurrence in the adventures at North Star Camp.

Robin Diétel, wrangler for North Star Camp

North Star Camp counselors, Jerri Butterfield and John Hanson, become "blind" in preparation for Blind Camp.

Fathers Honored At Hutchinson

By Clara Hansen

Fathers were honored in a special Sabbath School program recently in the Hutchinson Church. Each father received a rosebud boutonniere as he entered the church. Sonja Wendroth, superintendent for the day, honored especially the fathers who came from the most generations of Adventists. Ben Christensen and Stemple Johnson are both in the middle of five generations of Seventh-day Adventist families.

"The happiness of families and churches depends upon home influences. The world is not so much in need of great minds as of good men who will be a blessing in their homes."

As School Begins

Ruby Palmer Ware, communication director from the Aitkin SDA Church, wrote the following poem. With school beginning across our nation, surely many parents will miss their children as they begin another year of their education.

God's Gift

I bid farewell to my son today,
My heart was very sad.
For he was going away to school,
Far from his mom and dad.
I thought how God the Father must have felt,
When He gave to the world His Son.
How His baby, His boy, youth and son,
Would live so His work could be done.
Born in a stable with cattle,
No place to lay His head,
Often lonely and friendless
With no place for a bed.
I bid farewell to my son today,
I let him go alone.
But what did it mean to the heart of God,
When He gave to the world His own?

Coming September 3, George Timpson from the Mid-America Union will be giving a special talk on health, Friday night at 7:30 p.m. He will also speak Sabbath morning for the 11:00 a.m. hour. Minneapolis First Church, 2700 Stevens Ave., South.

Baptisms At Dodge Center

By Betty Knudson

Pastor Tim Pierce, Rhonda Gwin, Donna Brekke

The Dodge Center Church family rejoiced with Rhonda Gwin and Donna Brekke as they were baptized on Sabbath, July 24, by Pastor Tim Pierce. Rhonda's grandmother was baptized two years ago and brought Rhonda along to Sabbath services. Soon Rhonda was coming regularly.

Donna's brother was baptized a couple of years ago as a result of John and Clara Van Denburgh's crusade. Donna also attended some of the meetings and came to services sporadically. She finally decided to study with Becky Pierce, the pastor's wife.

Rhonda will attend Alpine Springs Academy in Wisconsin this fall, and Donna will attend Southwestern Adventist College in Keene, Texas. Their church prays for these young ladies as they begin their life anew with Christ.

Northern Europe To Receive Offering

By R. E. Appenzeller

Imagine the challenge of 15,941 persons for every one Seventh-day Adventist. This is the status of Ireland today. Ninety-five percent of these people are Roman Catholics. State-owned radio and television are closed to our church, and public evangelistic meetings are often poorly attended.

These people read our books and papers in the privacy of their homes, away from prying neighbor's eyes and priestly counsel. There the Holy Spirit leads some to truth.

In Poland there is one Seventh-day Adventist for 8,790 persons who are also Roman Catholics. Here again literature is an important factor in evangelism. Literature evangelists and laymen are wanting to distribute much more literature than we are able to produce.

Wesley's England has dozens of Muslim mosques being built as a witness to the lifelessness of modern British Christianity. There are 3,664 persons for each Seventh-day Adventist in Great Britain, and the ratio is increasing.

Similar statistics could be shown for Sweden, Holland, Iceland, and other countries in the Northern European Division. The question is, "How can we reach these lands?" The Northern European Division has embarked on an ambitious program of printing new, simple, well-illustrated literature and books written especially for the modern European mind. Your offering for Missions Extension on September 11 will help this project. Please give a little extra.

New College Begins Operation In Mid-America

The Black Hills Health and Education Center will begin its operation as a junior college on September 27, 1982. The institution is located on 456 acres in the scenic foothills of the majestic Black Hills of South Dakota just minutes west of Hermosa, about half an hour's drive south of Rapid City.

The idea was born many months ago when Dr. Melvin Beltz, Dr. Leon Brodie, Dr. Michael Lastine and Willard Werth pooled ideas and resources, decided on the location and scheduled their first health seminar. The response to this first seminar was so encouraging that the sponsors felt the Lord was leading in the establishment of the present facility.

The Lodge

In harmony with the Spirit of Prophecy counsel that schools should be operated in connection with health care institutions and sanitariums, plans were made to begin a school. Those plans will see some degree of completion when the doors open for college operations this month, and when the year round "live-in" "Better Living" health education program gets under way.

The college curriculum will include "Food Service", "Preventive Health Care" and "Building Trades". BHHEC will run a bakery from which they plan to supply oil-less and sugar-less bread to markets as far away as Denver and Minneapolis. Two produce markets will provide outlets for products provided for public consumption. To be eligible for the "Preventive Health Care" course a student must have a two-year nursing course or another two-year paramedical course. This will actually lead to a four-year degree program. "Building Trades" will focus on designing and building energy efficient homes.

The Educational Advisory Board of BHHEC includes such notable educators as Dr. John Wagner, academic dean and vice-president of Union College; Dr. Kenneth Kennedy, of the Department of Human Development at Union College; Dr. Theresa Kennedy, chairman of the Division of Nursing, Union College; and Elder Randall Fox, director of the Department of Education for Mid-America Union Conference.

The college will offer education and work possibilities for some twenty-two students as well as a sizable elementary church school. Plans include the building of a dormitory next summer which will make room in the lodge for more health care participants. Other future plans include duplex-type dwellings for retirement homes. Several physicians have bought property adjacent to the center.

The official board includes: Dr. Melvin Beltz, chairman, Wahpeton, ND; Dr. Glen Wiltse, Wahpeton, ND; Dr. Michael Lastine, Pipestone, MN; Dr.

SOP Books Donated

A set of Spirit of Prophecy books was donated to Christian Record Braille Foundation's Department of Services for the Deaf recently through a combined effort from Pacific Press and Review and Herald Publishing Associations.

According to CRBF's General Manager, B. E. Jacobs, who made the formal presentation to Thompson Kay, coordinator of services for the deaf, the books will be used for research in supplying reading materials for the deaf.

Included in the set were 27 books from the Christian Home Library, Conflict of the Ages Series, the nine-volume Testimonies to the Church series and the Seventh-day Adventist Bible Commentaries.

"We, of course, deeply appreciate this gesture from Pacific Press and Review and Herald," explains Kay. "These books will readily enable us to paraphrase E. G. White's writings so the deaf can more easily understand her counsel."

Changes In Divinity Curriculum

The Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary at Andrews University has announced a major change in its curriculum for the master of divinity program, according to Dr. Gerhard F. Hasel, seminary dean.

The new curriculum is characterized by a strong emphasis upon a wholistic and integrated understanding of salvation and of Seventh-day Adventist heritage. Also emphasized are a clear commitment to the training of a dynamic, soul-winning ministry and the integration of the entire seminary faculty in training students for pastoral-evangelistic ministry, according to Hasel.

The master of divinity degree program is the primary academic program to provide professional training for ministers in the Seventh-day Adventist Church in North America. The new curriculum will be effective for all incoming students beginning in September.

"One of the innovative elements of the new curriculum is that each student will belong to a small group assigned to a local church. Each group will be led by the church pastor and a seminary professor. It will serve as a pastoral-evangelistic team involved in the local church setting. In addition to allowing for professional growth, these groups will offer the student spiritual support as well," says Hasel.

Besides a realignment of courses and requirements, the seminary will sponsor colloquiums, intensive training in specific skills. It will also hold assemblies designed to address issues not covered in regular classes.

The new curriculum is the result of a three-year process involving several committees composed of representatives from all seminary departments and a student spokesman.

"The need for a change has long been sensed," says Hasel. "The church in North America has raised questions on how future ministers should be trained in order to perform better in pastoral ministry. We tried to listen carefully to what the church was saying."

The Ministerial Training Advisory Committee of the North American Division recently examined the new curriculum, and with minor suggestions, approved it with enthusiasm, according to Hasel.

"As students become involved in the practice of ministry beginning with their first quarter at the seminary, we expect that they will be better able to understand and face the mission of the Adventist Church in all its dimensions," says Hasel.

Don't Ever Give Up

I knew when she walked in that something wonderful had happened. In her hand was a letter.

"Jimmy and May have just been baptized!" she announced, beaming and wiping the tears away at the same time.

"That's wonderful news," I replied, standing up and taking her in my arms.

"We've been praying for them for 51 years!"

My wife's brother and his wife live a continent away from us, but nothing brought greater happiness or was cause for more celebration than their decision to follow Jesus all the way. It was like reliving another unforgettable experience—the day I had the joy of baptizing my youngest sister who had been away from the church for 40 years.

Today as I write, I know there are many of you who are praying for a son, a daughter, a husband or wife, or other family member. Never give up! Keep on praying! Sometimes miracles take 40 or 50 years, but God hears those prayers and uses them to keep love and concern awakened in our hearts toward that struggling one.

Because of Jesus and the abundant salvation which we have found in Him, we can pray always and not faint as He has asked us (Luke 18:1), ever hopeful that others will be drawn to Him through us.

IIW Speaker Goes Back To England

"It was just like the good old days at the London Coliseum," said one of the old members. The event was the 75th Anniversary of the Seventh-day Adventist Headquarters at Stanborough Park, Watford, England.

George E. Vandeman, speaker-director of the It Is Written telecast, presented a week-long revival series April 25-May 5. The "good old days" referred to the huge evangelistic meetings Pastor Vandeman conducted in London some thirty years ago and the subsequent establishing of the New Gallery Evangelistic Center on Regent Street.

While visiting England, Pastor Vandeman also made contact with TV broadcasting authorities to discuss the possibility of airing It Is Written in Britain. Broadcasting of religious programs is minimal in England, but Elder Vandeman feels hopeful that, as God opens the way, IIW could soon be sharing the Adventist message on the new Channel 4 proposed to launch this fall.
