Dear Friends,

Recently the news has been about Dr. Barney Clark and his artificial heart. It was a most interesting experiment, and Dr. Clark was billed as a "Gallant Pioneer".

As Christians we may not want to know the real facts about our heart, but God's people today may have a far greater problem than a physical coronary ailment. You will read about it in Acts 8:21, "Thy heart is not right in the sight of God."

In His sermon on the mount, it says, "If thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, . . . and if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off." Sometimes it is necessary to perform an operation on ourselves to be the kind of Christian that Christ desires.

Does He mean that if your eyes look upon impure or unclean things, the only way to remedy the situation is to pluck them out? Or if your tongue waggles too much in slander and criticism you should cut it out? Or if you become angry and clench your fist to punch another, you should cut off your fist?

If a pipe organ gets out of tune you can't solve it by polishing the pipes. You would have to get at the heart of the pipes where the adjustments need to be made.

If your watch stops you can't solve it by installing a new crystal. The jeweler will have to get inside the watch and fix it.

If your car grinds to a halt and refuses to run, getting out a can of polish and shining the hood and fenders won't make it run. You'll have to lift the hood and get to the heart of it.

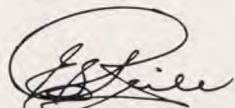

The fault is not with the eye, nor with the hand or tongue, but with the will that makes the hand operate, the heart behind the eyes and the mind that controls the tongue.

Spiritually, God's promise is "A new heart will I give you. . . and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh. . ." Ezekiel 36:26.

What Jesus is saying is, "Get right at the heart of the thing. It is the heart of the man that needs changing; he needs to be born again by the Spirit of God." He is saying, "Sin in man is so weakening that no price is too great to pay to get rid of it."

Christ died in payment for your sins; His blood can make your heart pure and acceptable to God. His Spirit makes it willing to uphold the faith and serve Him. Is it not time to accept the "new heart" to become the remnant we ought to be?

Cordially,

Ellsworth S. Reile, President
Mid-America Union Conference

Let's Go To Camp Meeting

Whether your conference is planning a full-blown camp meeting program or several weekend "mini" programs, camp meeting in any case is always exciting, spiritually uplifting and just plain fun. So, make plans to pack up the family, send the dog to the neighbors, and head for camp meeting. You'll meet many old friends and acquire several new ones.

Camp meeting isn't held under the "big top" anymore, but it's camp meeting just the same. Some people stay in a dorm room, some in a tent, some in a motel, some in a motor home. Some eat in the cafeteria, some cook in the tent. Some stay several days, some just one day. Just thinking about that opening night makes the pulse rate increase, but actually being there is a thrill beyond compare.

Camp meeting is a special time when one can turn his thoughts heavenward and commune with God. It's a time when you read the camp news instead of the daily news. (The camp news gives the good news!) It's a time to become spiritually refreshed. You deserve a break, anyway!

Your conference leaders have gone to great lengths to provide a program that you will long remember. General Conference and Union people will be there to bring uplifting and challenging messages. Mission reports will make you glad that you are a strong supporter of the greatest outreach program in the world. You might even see a real live missionary back from the foreign fields. These missionaries are always glad to talk with you personally about work in the strange land where they labor for souls.

The special youth meetings always attract more than just young people. Many people who have long left the ranks of the youth still find the youth meetings to be a real blessing. Camp meeting has something of interest for all age groups: recreation during the week for the juniors; Sabbath School every day for the primary and kindergarten groups; health talks for adults.

The Adventist Book Centers have leaked out a little news that many new books have just come off the press. These new titles are really fresh and exciting. Incidentally, have you purchased your supply of the new Cosmic Conflict? Don't miss the annual bargain book sale. Almost everyone finds specially priced bargains during this unusual sale. You don't even have to spend your money at the ABC, you can just "charge" it.

The Sabbath services are always the highlight. This is the time for renewed decision, dedication and consecration. This is a time for seeking that experience of drawing closer to what our Lord wants us to be. This is the time for special offerings for evangelism and finishing the task. This is the time to talk with the president, his departmental directors, and all the ministers from the conference.

So, whether camp meeting is a weekend program or a full-blown one, whether it is early summer or in the fall, plan to attend. You might like to attend more than just one—some people do. Camp meeting has something for you. This special program has a real blessing for everyone, so keep the camp meeting blessing and bring it home with you to share with others. be sure to check your camp meeting schedule below and on the cover of this issue of the OUTLOOK. See you at camp meeting!

Pastoral Changes

By Wm. C. Hatch

Recent actions of the conference executive committee have brought a number of changes to the pastoral personnel of our conference family.

The Colorado Springs Church has welcomed Pastor and Mrs. Gunnar Nelson. They have come to us from the Texas Conference where Pastor Nelson was serving as an evangelist. Many friends will want to greet the Nelsons at the coming area meetings since they have served the conference in several capacities in the past.

Pastor and Mrs. John Loor, Jr., and Cynthia, eight years old, have come to us from Covington, Kentucky. The Loors have been welcomed by the Littleton Church.

Pastor and Mrs. John Loor and Cynthia

Mrs. Loor has accepted a position as a secretary in the Department of Education. We are grateful to report that Pastor Loor is well on the road to recovery from open heart surgery for the replacement of a valve. We welcome the Loors to our pastoral ministry, as well as to our conference office family.

The Grand Junction Church family has been blessed by the ministry for several months of Pastor and Mrs. John Goley, who for seven years served the Denver First Church. Pastor and Mrs. Byron Blecha have moved to the Rifle area and are serving the

Gunnar Nelson

Glenwood Springs and Rifle Churches. Pastor and Mrs. Ed Kungel have retired from the pastorate of the Rifle District and live in the Parachute area. Since retirement the Kungels have enjoyed traveling and visiting family and friends.

Byron Blecha

Pastor and Mrs. Henry Barron have been asked to take up the work of public evangelism in the small churches of our great conference. They will be leaving the pastorate of the Idaho Springs and Golden Churches and opening their first evangelistic meeting in the town of Fort Morgan on April 17. Let us ask our God for a special blessing in this evangelistic campaign.

Henry Barron

will be welcomed soon by the Golden District and leaving the Delta District of churches.

Wm. C. Hatch, President, Rocky Mountain Conference.

1000 DAYS OF REAPING

Can You Help Us?

By R. A. McCumber

Can you help us identify the individuals in this picture? This photograph is hanging in the Salida, Colorado Church and was believed to have been taken about the year 1902 at the close of an evangelistic meeting. The picture was provided by Mrs. Ethel Purdom from her mother's collection.

Some interesting facts have come to light since the picture was published in the November 4 issue of the OUTLOOK!!!

The OUTLOOK is distributed to more than 26,000 Seventh-day Adventist families in the 10 states of the Mid-America Union. We are gratified with the many responses that have come to us and the interesting facts that have come to light.

Perhaps the most well-known people we heard from were our friends at the Voice of Prophecy. Harold Richards, son of the dean of religious radio broadcasters, H. M. S. Richards, Sr., took the picture to the bedside of his ailing father and that grand old man identified more than 10 persons in the picture.

First in the back row is Elder G.W. Anglebarger. The second man is H. M. J. Richards, father of H. M. S. Richards, Sr. The seventh man in the back row is J. S. Washburn. The eighth is Meade MacGuire. On the second row, the first man is Elder Horton. The third is John Loughborough. The fourth is a man identified as Hankins, and the sixth is George Watson, Colorado Conference President. On the front row the fifth man (counting the inset as a person) is Elder Farnsworth and the sixth is Elder Spring.

Lenna (Hough Thayer) Dannels of Greysbull, Wyoming, writes to say, "The stout man in the center of the picture is E. T. Russell, who was president of the Central Union Conference at that time. I knew him very well. In fact, his was one of a number of Adventist families who took up homesteads in Western Nebraska and raised up the Minatare, Nebraska, Church. My father also homesteaded in this area. Elder Russell was on his official business much of his time, but his family lived there and we saw him as he came and went and loved him very much. Some of his grandchildren are still members of the Minatare Church."

Marybelle Huffman Owen, of Loveland, Colorado, writes, "I believe the fifth person from the left in the back row is my father Willis Elta Huffman. In 1898 or 1899 he left Kansas and went to Colorado. He worked for a while in

ROCKY MOUNTAIN

Salida for a photographer by the name of Ray and also taught school. A young lady by the name of Estella Mundell, not an Adventist, joined him in teaching school in Villa Grove, Colorado in 1902. He gave her Bible studies for a year and then they were married. Their diaries state that they went to the dedication of the Salida, Colorado, Church on January 24, 1902, with Mr. Hills and Mr. and Mrs. Parsons. Estella was baptized in the Rio Grande River on August 10, 1902 by Brother Swenson."

Another letter came to us from Mercedes Lenz, secretary to Frank Sherrill, President of the Arizona Conference. Mercedes has made western Adventist history a hobby. She identifies Elder G. W. Anglebarger as the first man in the back row. The third man from the left is F. M. Wilcox. In the second row the third man is Elder John Norton Loughborough. The fifth man is Stephen Nelson Haskell. She also mentions that the Salida Church was organized in 1897.

The most commonly identified by many who wrote in was Elder G. W. Anglebarger, first on the left in the back row. Mrs. Robert Rentfro, of Marble Falls, Texas, stated that she was baptized by Elder Anglebarger in 1934 in the Denver First Church on Kalamath Street.

Floretta W. Petrie of Longmont, Colorado, states that the second man in the back row "might be Elder H. M. J. Richards." The last man in that row might be Elder Meade MacGuire, youth worker. The third man from the left in the second row is a man by the name of Moore, from Hygiene, Colorado, who traveled some with Mrs. Ellen G. White. The next man could be H. A. Hufferhar, a German worker, about 6 feet, 2 to 3 inches tall. The fifth man is Elder George O. States. The sixth man is George F. Watson, president of the Colorado Conference. Third from the left in the front row is W. W. Farnsworth. Other names prominent in that era were Alway, Maclintock, Watson, Ziegler and Hill. One of the ladies could have been Stella Parker, Sabbath School secretary, who later became Mrs. Alfred Peterson.

Willard Russell, of Minatare, Nebraska, identifies the fourth man in the middle row as his grandfather, Edgar Tory Russell, who was president of the Texas Conference at the time of the picture. He further identifies the third man in the front row (counting the inset as #2) as Kit Carson Russell, who in 1898 became the President of the Vermont Conference, then the Chesapeake Conference, and in 1904 to 1912, secretary of the Religious Liberty Department of the General Conference. The two above-mentioned men were half brothers.

Isn't it interesting that we have so many different identifications of the same people? Perhaps these "divergent views" of the same photographs should help us to realize that not everyone is going to see things just as we see them. There may be some persons who feel that the publishing of this photograph has been a waste of space. I personally don't feel that this true. The memories of many people have been stirred and opportunity has been presented to recall the blessings and hardships of the early days of the Seventh-day Adventist church in our area. If some particular occasion of God's leading and blessing has been brought to mind and you feel that it would be edifying to our readers, please share it with us and perhaps we can share it with the OUTLOOK family in the future.

"We have nothing to fear for the future, except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us, and His teaching in our past history."

Some interesting facts have come to light since this picture was published in the November 4, 1982 issue of the OUTLOOK.

Lay Evangelists Trained

By Jerry Page

One hundred and fifteen delegates attended the Lay Evangelists' Training Seminar, known as Maranatha I. More than 90 of the participants turned in specific written commitments to form a prayer-action team in their homes, meeting once a week, and leading to a small-scale series of evangelistic meetings conducted in their home or a small hall. Almost all of the delegates recommitted their lives and abilities to Christ and promised to return next year to the follow-up seminar at Glacier View, February 10-18, 1984, and to bring another friend or family member with them.

The Lay Evangelists Seminar was begun several years ago in North America by Samuel Monnier, Associate Director of the General Conference Personal Ministries Department. The Seminar has produced many lay evangelistic meetings in Inter-America and other areas of the world field and has greatly increased lay evangelism.

George Knowles, Director of Lay Activities for the General Conference and his wife Lillian, were guest instructors. David Wolkwitz, Chaplain of the Moberly Medical Center in Missouri, was the chaplain for the week and presented an inspirational and moving series on the Holy Spirit. Bill Peeke, Mid-America Union Personal Ministries Director, and Jerry Page, Personal Ministries Director for our local conference, were also instructors. Peeke gave excellent special instructions on the vital work for "missing members" in our communities. The lay evangelism pilot church pastors of our conference were also present and helped with the visitation program.

All the delegates spent two full afternoons in teams of three in Boulder, Longmont, or Louisville, visiting media interests or going door-to-door with surveys. Many It Is Written interests were contacted and invited to the seminar in Boettcher Concert Hall for the following weekend.

We believe the Lord can work through His lay church members in the Rocky Mountain area just as He is in Inter-America as we surrender our lives and abilities to Him. Already nine churches in the last two years have held lay evangelistic meetings. With 90 more lay evangelists trained and committed, 15 additional meetings will cause an explosion of Pentecostal evangelism!

Let us pray together that God may do "exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think!"

Highlight of Campaign "Everyone Win 2 in '82"

By Sharon Tate

The Philadelphia Church has been blessed by having Pastor Edwin Hyatt as the minister. He began the year 1982 by introducing Campaign "Everyone Win 2 in '82," and initiating Bible study classes for those who wanted to go out and help win souls.

Pastor Hyatt promoted the campaign by inviting speakers from Central States Conference. Among them was H. L. Thompson whose evangelistic crusade very successfully won many souls to the church. His 29 dynamic subjects brought many people out nightly.

Also during the campaign, our newly-elected director of the Youth Department of Central States Conference, Dr. Nathaniel Miller, on our Youth Day, delivered a heart-warming message based on the story of the Good Samaritan.

The Sabbath School, Personal Ministries and Stewardship director of Central States Conference, F. Carter was also on hand at Philadelphia. He delivered a delightful message on the Spirit of Prophecy to erase many doubts of the authenticity of Ellen G. White. Shortly after this visit, Carter and his lovely wife returned to Philadelphia on his stewardship campaign.

George Timpson's speech was another remarkable addition to Philadelphia during the campaign '82 season. Timpson is the associate secretary of the Mid-America Union Conference, from Lincoln, Nebraska. He also presented a very thorough workshop on health and foods using the word death to prove how we are eating ourselves to death.

During Timpson's visit, the church welcomed the Turner family, recently baptized into the church. The ordination of Hugh Boston as local elder was held during the morning services.

Since Elder Thompson's Crusade, Elder Hyatt has kept the church busy doing our Lord's work, even in the social department. There was a "Tract Hike" in which many pieces of literature were given out, also refreshments were served. This event followed the painting of the church building by many of the members.

Finally, Daniel Stewart and his wonderful family paid Philadelphia a visit with an elegant speech about Jesus and the disciples, telling how Jesus helped many people. Among the texts he used was Matthew 14:13-21.

Sharon Tate is the communication secretary for the Philadelphia Church.

Pastor Of The Year

By Mazie Mitchell

Elder James White, Jr.'s heart was filled with happiness as his peers voted him the "pastor of the year" award the second time in three years. Pastor White is a native of Bessemer, Alabama, and a former member of the First Seventh-day Adventist Church of Bessemer. Prior to entering Oakwood College, he married the lovely Barbara A. Hawkins who was his high school sweetheart.

James White, Jr.

Upon finishing college in the spring of 1972, he was called to the Central States Conference then under the leadership of D. L. Crowder and S. T. Lewis. His first assignment was the Kinlock-Kirkwood District of St. Louis, Missouri. A year later he moved to Andrews University Theological Seminary where he continued his ministerial training. Since that time, he has pastored in various districts throughout the Mid-America region, such as Pueblo, Colorado; Wichita, Kansas; and presently, the Bethel Church of Kansas City, Kansas. The Lord has tremendously blessed his ministry and has given the Whites two wonderful children, La-Vita Jamelle and James, III.

Pastor White attributes his blessings to God, to his dedicated wife, and to a host of wonderful cooperative members he has pastored. One of the highlights in 1982 was a three-week church meeting, where 50 precious souls were baptized. Pastor White's prayer and ambition in life is to become a great soul winner for Jesus Christ.

Mazie Mitchell is the communication secretary for the Bethel Church.

H. L. Thompson Speaks At Des Moines Church

By Sharon Tate

H. L. Thompson, Mid-America Union Evangelist, determined to keep an engagement to speak at Des Moines Philadelphia Church, drove through a snow storm, and on February 5, delivered another of his dynamic sermons to an anxious waiting congregation. Thompson, who presented a successful Crusade in July of 1982, returned to Philadelphia to find that most of the new converts were still there and are getting involved in the church activities.

His sermon, entitled "No Oil At Midnight", was built around the story of the five wise and five foolish virgins. We all know that the five wise virgins had oil in their lamps and were ready when the bridegroom arrived for the wedding ceremony as described in Matthew 25:1-6.

Thompson, in his speech told of how necessary oil is (a lamp cannot shine unless it has oil). He took the oil of the olive and pointed out how man should not live by food alone but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. God has given us spiritual food which was prepared by the Holy Ghost. He also pointed out that oil is used for healing which represents the spiritual healing of the Holy Spirit. Later that afternoon, Pastor Thompson returned and addressed the church on various ways to witness.

God's Gift Received

By Mazie Mitchell

The Holy Bible points out that children are special gifts sent from heaven and should be received with much thanksgiving. Leroy Hampton, conference treasurer, and wife, Genoice, had their son Justin Eric dedicated to the Lord. The Hamptons have two other lovely children, Jayneen and Darryl, who were a part of the dedication. This special service was conducted by S. Haywood Cox, conference president, and J. W. White, Jr., pastor of Bethel. Hilliard Pettway and his wife, Myrtle, are the proud grandparents. Also on this special day, Elder Cox baptized his twin sons, Shawn and Shane.

Justin Eric Hampton is dedicated.

BAPTISM AT BOONE

The Boone, Iowa Church rejoiced in the baptism by Pastor Lester Jones of Mike Matney (left) and Jason Godfrey (right). These young men have been studying with Pastor Jones for about a year.

Cedarvale School News

Cedarvale Junior Academy in Kansas City, Missouri is bulging at the seams with enrollment up to 143 students this school year, the highest in three years.

Many improvements have been made at the academy. Five classrooms, the bathrooms and the kitchen were brightened up with new coats of paint. The kindergarten room has been enlarged and new carpeting called "Games People Play" has been installed. New carpeting was also put in the fifth and sixth grade rooms. The school has just purchased two new computers for the third and fourth grades, to which grades seven through ten will also have access. Cedarvale students have been hard at work on fund raising for the purpose of fixing up their school's gymnasium.

There are two new teachers, Catherine Mercer and Robert Fox. Catherine comes from Loma Linda, California and teaches English and typing. Robert comes from Tennessee and teaches history to grades seven through ten, and music and band. Freda Wallace is teaching kindergarten and seventh-grade math. Martha Rixin is the new school secretary and comes from St. Joseph. Janet Pickering is giving piano lessons to students who want to be more involved in the field of music.

Moberly Building Progress

A mild Missouri winter has permitted significant progress toward completion of the new multipurpose building for the Moberly Church, a congregation of about 140 members in this community of 15,000 in north central Missouri.

A ground-breaking ceremony was held last summer for the 10,000-square-foot structure which will provide an auditorium, Sabbath School and general purpose meeting room, and two classrooms for an eight-grade school.

Plans for the building construction began four years ago when members purchased the 10-acre site on East McKinsey Avenue in the southeast section of town. A master plan for the site calls for construction of a church within the next few years.

The Moberly-Macon District pastor during this phase of the building effort has been Harry C. Reile, EdD., now serving as a field representative for Union College. He has been succeeded by Norman Bassett, formerly pastor of the Indianapolis, Indiana, Southside Church. The Moberly building committee is headed by Jim Culpepper, administrator of Moberly Regional Medical Center.

Something New

An Elder's Worship has been established for the purpose of meeting every month to pray for the needs of individual members and the church at large. This worship service is a place where elders can share experiences and strengthen one another. The main theme this year is to "put the church on a high spiritual plane".

Seminar

A recent seminar was given on two of the Bible's most intriguing prophetic books—Daniel and Revelation. Pastors Armado Camacho and Randall Murphy conducted the classes at the Christian Church in Lee's Summit, Missouri. The sessions were held every night except Sundays and Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m.

Five-day Plans

At Sioux City

By June Camarigg

Twenty-eight persons were enrolled at the beginning of the Five-day Plan to Stop Smoking conducted at St. Luke's Medical Center in Sioux City. Two were there at the instruction of their physicians, according to Dr. Earl Augspurger, coordinator for the clinic which is held in Sioux City about six times a year.

Maynard Petersen, a counsellor, reported that after the first day a two-to-three pack-a-day smoker had reduced his intake to none! Other statistics showed that 1186 cigarettes smoked the first day (before the Plan began) was down to 116 the second day. Twenty to thirty cups of coffee drunk the first day was down to two cups on the second.

Others who assist with the Five-day Plans are Barry Schwab, Richard Bailey, Dr. Dick Engroff, Viola Bailey and Marilyn Miller. The next clinic is scheduled to be held in May. Average attendance at the clinics has been between twenty and thirty persons.

At St. Louis

By Shirley Pester

St. Louis Central and Northwest Churches have jointly sponsored Five-day Plans to Stop Smoking at Hillcrest School for the past several months. The coordinator, Bill Stokes from Central Church, and his assistant, Pam Yates representing the Northwest congregation, direct the program.

Since eliminating the fee for the clinics, local news media have been willing to provide free advertising which has yielded increased attendance. An opportunity to give a donation is provided with excellent results. One group gave $160 in appreciation. The funds will be used in providing future clinics.

The services of a number of physicians are used. In March Dan Dorrington, a junior dental student, Alex Duarte, M.D., and Leo Van Dolson, Jr., M.D., provided the medical leadership, and Pastor Jack Pester served in giving the psychological and spiritual aspect of the program.

Pathfinder Campout

By Mary Jones

The Kansas City Standing Rock Pathfinders were surprised on a recent weekend campout when the staff removed all pots, pans, silverware and mess kits from the campsite and locked them up for the duration of the weekend. They had been told to bring a sharp knife, but they were not told what they were going to do with it.

As it turned out, the Pathfinders had to carve their utensils from blocks of wood and form their pots, pans, dishes and cups from aluminum foil and coat hangers, which had been provided by the staff. This was the only type of cookware they were allowed to use all weekend. Those who were able to cook and eat their food all weekend with these homemade utensils were given a special honor bead to wear with their uniform.

Sabbath began early as many of the Pathfinders awoke at 6:00 a.m. and warmed themselves by their fires after spending a night with temperatures well below zero. They toured a nearby dairy, watched the operation of the dairy and were even allowed to feed several of the calves. After they returned to the campsite to cook breakfast, Sabbath worship service and afternoon activities followed.

Federation Meetings

By Bette Lint

The spring Iowa-Missouri Community Services Federation Meetings were held during March of 1983.

Lee Grady from SAWS-West Coast presented slides updating SAWS' far-reaching work in the nine big disasters of 1982. He requested that the churches support our missionaries with prayers, money, letters, supplies and literature so they can continue their work and help finish the gospel commission.

Missouri Federation President, Martha Wilson presented a "Twenty Point Program" covering the many ways societies may help people and work with other organizations in areas where the greatest needs are. She showed that there is a project for everyone, and that no one is to be left out of service work.

Fall Federation meetings are scheduled for September 25-October 3.

Sweetheart Banquet

Students of the Sioux City, Iowa School entertained forty parents and friends at a Sweetheart Banquet in the church fellowship hall on Saturday night, February 19. The hall was decorated in Valentine motif by the students, who served as chef, hostess, maitre d', waiters and waitresses under the tutelage of Peggy Engroff and Carol Sullivan, Home and School leaders. The restaurant-style setting featured candle-light and soft background music. As a reward for their hard work and excellent performance the students themselves were guests at a formal luncheon served by their teachers, Denzil and Lilly Hart.

Church School Courtesy Week

January 24 through 28 was Courtesy Week at the Sioux City Seventh-day Adventist Church School. Students were judged on courtesy in behavior and speech to one another as well as to visitors. At the end of the week a Courtesy King and Queen were elected by the student body. Winners were: Grade 1-4, Jon and Christina Schwab and Matthew Fiedler; Grades 5-8, Renae Krueger and Bill Carey.

Minneapolis First Church Ministries

By Nellie Harris

The Minneapolis First Church has begun a number of ministries to its members and to other Seventh-day Adventists wanting to come and learn.

Spiritual Gifts

Pastor Sulen teaches Spiritual Gifts Class

First and biggest are the Spiritual Gifts classes being held regularly. Pastor Michael Sulen has been asked to direct the Spiritual Gifts concepts for the Minnesota Conference. Minnetonka, Maple Plain, Anoka, Sharon, Northbrook, and Rochester members have attended classes so far.

Leadership Classes

Charles Wiener is leading the EDD (Elders, Deacons, and Deaconesses) classes. Pastor Sulen believes in following the Biblical directives which give definite responsibilities and qualifications for these church officers in ministering to the church and visiting members regularly.

Just beginning are LOA (Leadership, Organization, and Administration) classes taught by Don Keith. Anyone in the following leadership positions is encouraged to attend: elders, head deacon, and assistant head deacon, head deaconess and assistant head deaconess, Sabbath School superintendent and assistant superintendent, children's department leader and assistant, Community Services leader and assistant.

Bible Studies

Also just beginning are classes on giving Bible studies led by Neil Wallace, one of Minneapolis First's four literature evangelists. Neil has promised that this class will include actual practice in real studies, not just theory.

Pastor Sulen would like to see his church be a model church in the center of this Twin Cities area and this conference. (A model church does not mean a perfect church but one that serves the people in every possible way.) Pastor Sulen believes in thorough training of members and leaders for a more active ministry. Also planned for the future are several health classes.

Before beginning these Spiritual Gifts and other training classes, Pastor Sulen was active in Daniel and Revelation classes in the community. He saw two baptisms as a result of this ministry.

Intercessory Prayer

Intercessory prayer has been introduced and dedicated. Members who have discovered in the Spiritual Gifts classes that their spiritual gifts cluster includes intercessory prayer are participating in this ministry.

Their immediate objective is to pray for non-member spouses, for non-active members and other special prayer requests. Another objective is to take this ministry to two non-Adventist and two Adventist churches and to pray for the speaker during the worship service. A long term objective is to write their own syllabus/manual for intercessory prayer. Each person in the group is to pray for one hour daily at a certain time.

March 5 saw the beginning of a prayer ministry. One person will be available after each Sabbath service to pray with anyone who has a special burden. A prayer request box is planned for the front foyer. Bea Broucker is to be the leader, Bette Kline is to be the administrator, and Josephine Gibson and Warren Rogers are to be the teachers.

Members of the Prayer Group include: Bette Kline, Al Wollersheim,

Distinctive Worship Service

An added feature in the church service each week is called the Celebration Period. A movable microphone is made available, and people are encouraged to share experiences and praise the Lord for special blessings.

Then there is a Prayer Request period when opportunity is given for people to request prayer for a crisis in their lives. The question is then asked, "Who will pray for this person's request?" and a volunteer kneels and prays aloud beside that person. These special prayers are followed by the regular pastoral prayer from the platform.

After the pastoral prayer, children are called to gather up front in the center aisle for a children's story. A Scripture reading then introduces the sermon. The offering is part of the dedication period after the sermon. Each week a call is made during the final hymn of dedication for those who would like to accept Christ as their personal Saviour; prepare for baptism and become a part of our church fellowship.

Christian Home and Education Weekend

By Betty Knudson

Dr. Ward Hill, head of the humanities division at Union College, was the featured speaker at the Christian

Dr. Ward Hill

Home and Education weekend sponsored by the Greene Valley Seventh-day Adventist Home and School Association. Greene Valley School is a cooperative endeavor of the Dodge Center and Rochester Churches. It was a very inspiring and rewarding weekend as Dr. Hill shared with them on Sabbath morning the role John the Baptist played in the life of Jesus: how John the Baptist had to decrease and Jesus increase. This is easy to say but very hard to do humanly. Under severe tests, as when John was in prison, it is easy for faith to slip. He reminded the church members to take daily communion with God to receive the refreshing of the spirit of which we are all in such need.

Dr. Hill also shared some very interesting facts of Christian education, especially concerning Union College, known as the "Computer College" around the nation. By next fall each dormitory room will contain a terminal.

Grand Rapids Launches Literature Campaign

By E. Jean Ostlund

Following the monthly fellowship dinner, Wilbur K. Chapman presented These Times' innovative and intensive evangelistic outreach whereby 200 members of the community will receive These Times followed by systematic personal contact. This service is part of the Grand Rapids Church's bold thrust into the unentered secular community as its involvement in the pilot church program of the Mid-America Union. The church board designated Steve Reiners who has had past experience in metro evangelism in New York City to administer this project. Names of persons to receive this unique offer will be gleaned from the hundreds of inquiries which have come to the church through various seed-sowing efforts of the past year and a half since the church's inception.

Family Life Seminar

By Berniece Lunday

John Thurber from Lincoln, Nebraska, who conducted a Family Life Seminar at the Bismarck Seventh-day Adventist Church admonished believers to "Flee also youthful lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart." 2 Timothy 2:22.

He indicated we have arrived at a point in time when "There is a generation that curse their father, and doth not bless their mother. There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness." Proverbs 30:11, 12. He stressed the importance of showing respect.

He warned of the unseemly things done in the name of sex and quoted Leviticus 20:13: "If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them."

He said in dealing with homosexuals, Christians can point them to Jesus as Paul did the effeminate and fornicators of his day, saying they also can be washed, sanctified, justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God. 1 Corinthians 6:11.

Thurber spoke of the importance of the mother's position in the home, stating next to God a mother's love is the greatest power on earth. Mothers are God's agents to Christianize the family he said. He warned of the various organizations which are dedicated to destroy family life showing quotes from Declarations of Feminism which state the institution of marriage is bad. Humanist Manifesto II is against unduly repressing sexual conduct and advises "Pursue as you desire!" Some organizations advocate that divorce makes for better family life and the child should be raised communally, not in the family.

National Organization for Woman would have all abortion laws repealed and state, "We must destroy love! Women must direct their energies outward, away from the home."

Thurber closed admonishing Christian women to be faithful in praying, and reading to their children on a daily basis. He stressed that the tenderest tie is that of a mother and child. He said women are "To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, . . . that the word of God be not blasphemed." Titus 2:5.

Thurber is from the Mid-America Union of Seventh-day Adventists, conducting seminars with his wife, Patsy, who assists with visual aids. The Thurbers state they will be back to North Dakota in April to speak at Dakota Adventist Academy, Bismarck, regarding the influence of music.

The Family Life Seminar was attended by people from Dickinson and Goodrich as well as Bismarck-Mandan area.

Student Missionary From Redfield.

Reggie Anderson is a graduate of Dakota Adventist Academy and was chosen by Union College to serve as a student missionary. He is a teacher at Nile Union Academy, P.O. Box 12, Heliopolis, Egypt. He enjoys his work and has been able to travel quite extensively in the area. One of the highlights was his trip to Palestine for Christmas where he visited many of the places where Jesus walked nearly 2,000 years ago. He spent a good share of Christmas Day on the Mt. of Olives and visiting Bethlehem and other historic places in the area. Reggie's parents are Russell and Cleo Anderson, ranchers near Tulare.

Worker Changes

By Ben J. Liebelt

Two of our faithful worker families have moved to other areas.

The Lynn Schlisner family have accepted a call to the Claremore, Oklahoma, area. We of the Conference, and the believers of the Pierre district, will miss them greatly and pray for them the Lord's richest blessings in their new field of labor.

The Charles Williams family, who served Bismarck and Mandan in this Conference, have moved to the Bowling Green district in Kentucky. Again we wish for them God's blessings in their new field of labor. We express sincere appreciation for the labors of these workers here in Dakota Conference.

We are pleased that Lowell and JoAnn Rideout of the Wahpeton district have accepted the Conference Committee's invitation to come to Bismarck-Mandan. And we are grateful that George Liscombe has responded to the Committee's invitation to pastor in Pierre on a temporary basis. Let us pray that God's work might go steadily forward in spite of changes that come from time to time.

New Activities Building At Pierre

By Gail Szana

For a number of years the members of the Pierre Seventh-day Adventist Church talked about a building to use for recreation and outreach but had not been able to make it a reality for lack of funds. During the summer of 1979 the church was notified that funds from the General Conference could be made available on a matching-fund basis. A church business meeting was held to study the feasibility of a project such as this. The committee had some plans drawn up and received two bids. Members of the committee then visited the members of the church to see how much money they could expect to raise. The survey was successful and the church voted to go ahead with the project.

The total cost of the structure was about $80,000 which was paid for in less than one year from the start of the construction. Many of the local members donated their skills toward the early completion of the project. On February 26, 1983, the members of the Pierre Church dedicated this 50' X 80' multipurpose building. The afternoon service was planned and directed by Elder George Liscombe.

The highlight of the service came just before the dedicatory prayer when Elder Lynn Schlisner read a plaque telling of the church's desire to name the building the GEORGE W. LISCOMBE ACTIVITY CENTER in honor of Elder Liscombe's years of service to the community and conference and for his managerial abilities which made the building possible. The presentation of the plaque was one of the church's best kept secrets—Elder Liscombe was completely surprised.

The building has been used so far for recreation, cooking classes, Pathfinder Fairs, workers' meetings, fellowship dinners, a voting place, a Pathfinder meeting place, family gatherings, funeral dinners and birthday parties.

Dakota Camp Meetings

By Ben J. Liebelt

There will again be two camp meetings in our Conference. The first one is at Huron College, Huron, South-Dakota, starting on the evening of June 7, going through Sabbath, June 11. The second one is at Dakota Adventist Academy starting the evening of June 14, going through Sabbath, June 18.

We are grateful for some very fine speakers for each of our camp meetings: Kenneth H. Livesay will have the morning devotionals; Betty and Delmer Holbrook will conduct six morning and afternoon family life seminars in each camp meeting; R. R. Bietz will be our 11:00 a.m. speaker; Floyd Bresee will be the evening speaker.

Floyd Bresee

All of these guests are General Conference personnel. We are fortunate indeed to have them at our camp meetings. In addition to these, Union and institutional guests will be on the grounds, and also our own ministry.

Ben Parrish, a much-appreciated soloist from Nashville, Tennessee, will be featured. Local talent, including singing groups are being planned for.

Betty and Delmer Holbrook

We want our camp meeting to be special convocations of a large ministry striving to minister for the spiritual growth and inspiration of all who attend. Please pray for an outpouring of God's Spirit at these camp meetings. And please come and be with us.

New Church Planned For Huron

The Harvey, North Dakota church members are excited about the new church to be built there. Land has been obtained on the corner of Judy Blvd. and Highway 52. July 6-22, Maranatha Flights International will oversee the construction of the new church, working with the members and volunteers.

Former members, SRA alumni and friends are invited to join the group. Some are planning vacations so they can be a part of this project. This will be a good time to renew old acquaintances and make some new ones. Meals and a place to lodge will be furnished. Bring your own bedding and plan to help as many days as possible.

Baptisms At Aurora

The Aurora Church rejoices with the addition of souls being baptized for the kingdom.

After eight months of Bible study with Scot and Karen Butcher, and consistent church attendance, along with a week long seminar by Pastor Gary Parker of the Iowa-Missouri Conference, three members of the Bill Barrett family joined God's remnant people.

The first contact with the Barrett family was made by Karen Butcher nearly three years ago while canvassing door-to-door. Later Karen's husband Scot, also a literature evangelist called on this family and began Bible studies which ultimately led to the baptism.

Another literature evangelist, Fumi Masuda, and her district leader, Dick Bullock, contacted Betty Krejci and family in door-to-door canvassing. Fumi followed this interest with Bible studies and brought Betty to church for almost six months prior to Pastor Parker's meetings. Betty committed her life to Christ and was baptized.

As literature evangelists, church members, pastors, and evangelists work together, souls will be won to the kingdom.

Visiting Pastor Gary Parker and Aurora Pastor Norman Haas stand behind those baptized.

Lay Advisory Report

The Spring Lay Advisory met at Topeka and McCook to discuss the business affairs of the conference.

Lilya Wagner, from Union College was the devotional speaker for both the Lay Advisory and the Community Service Federation meetings.

Dr. Lilya Wagner

Don Bradley of Osborne served as chairman of the session. Business items discussed were: conference finances, academies, and general administrative items. Laymen making recommendations for the operation of the conference is a method of directing the work of the Lord and keeping the constituents informed of the business of the Adventist Church in Kansas-Nebraska.

During the time the Lay Advisory was meeting, the Community Service folks were being instructed by Dr. Wagner. She recounted her experience as a refugee and showed slides of her trips to Southeast Asia. The stories of poverty and hunger were abundant and one could not help but be moved.

Assembled delegates at the combined Lay Advisory and Community Service Federation meeting.

Deaf Camp

The Kansas-Nebraska Conference will host the first denominational deaf camp at Broken Arrow Ranch, June 19-26. A qualified staff trained in sign language will be available and present at this camp. Any hearing impaired young person aged 7-18 may attend. For further information, contact Mike Ortel, Kansas-Nebraska Conference, 3440 Urish Road, Topeka, Kansas 66604

Grade eight posters

The annual elementary school music festivals were held at Enterprise Academy and Platte Valley Academy. Nearly every school within the Kansas-Nebraska Conference participated.

The mass choir sang Friday evening, the individual schools performed Sabbath afternoon and Saturday night the mass choir gave the final concert with narration by an academy staff member.

In addition to the musical program, each grade entered a poster contest. The first-place winners in each grade were given a $50 savings certificate from a leading financial institution; second-place winners each received a $35 scholarship to either E.A. or P.V.A.; and third-place winners each received a quartz digital watch.

These 5th, 6th, 7th, and 8th-grade students were further exposed to academy life for a brief period during the music festival.

GREENHOUSE OPERATION AT ENTERPRISE ACADEMY

The greenhouse operation at Enterprise Academy has been leased to Delbert Conrad. Currently he has tomato, cabbage, broccoli, pepper, sweet potato, and a host of other garden plants for sale and for use at his leased garden acreage. In addition to garden plants and produce, Delbert also has a large variety of house plants available. As this greenhouse operation continues to expand under his direction, it will ultimately provide labor for about a dozen academy students. Now operated as a private industry, the Academy greenhouse and garden project has a tremendous future.

Revelation Seminar

By Ella Thompson

The basic Revelation Seminar presented January 21-March 4, by Burton and Pat Maxwell in the Scottsbluff Inn at Scottsbluff, was attended by 120 individuals. Meetings were held Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday nights. During the last weeks of the Seminar, an Inquirer's class was taught by Pastor Bob Ochoa. This class was for those individuals who wished to learn more about the distinctive doctrines of the Adventist church.

A banquet was served by the church ladies to all those who had been attending the seminar. Seventy-five persons registered for an Advanced Revelation Seminar which will be taught by Pastor Ochoa.

$1,000 RECEIVED

On behalf of the March of Dimes, Mrs. Charles Wheeler presented a $1,000 check to Dr. Pat Leathers, chairman of the Greater Kansas City Mothers Milk Bank board. The milk bank, which is sponsored by Shawnee Mission Medical Center and Zarda Dairy, provides mothers milk to babies who are allergic to formula and whose own mothers cannot nurse.

Latchkey Program For Before And After School

Shawnee Mission Medical Center's After School and Before School Program is especially designed to care for the children of SMMC employees and active medical staff members after school. It is run by Shawnee Mission Medical Center's child care center located on the hospital grounds. The program was started soon after the child care center opened in 1979. Currently, 50 children are enrolled in the After School program.

Because some people begin work at 6:30 a.m. and have no one to watch their children until school starts, a before school option is offered. Parents can drop their children off at the center on their way to work, if they make arrangements for the child to get to school.

Volunteers Of The Year

Senior Volunteer

Several days after being notified he had been chosen Shawnee Mission Medical Center's volunteer of the year, Hilbert Kraft passed away.

The 75-year-old volunteer's award will be presented to his wife Thelma, also an SMMC volunteer.

Kraft was SMMC's first male volunteer, joining in April, 1976. He donated more than 1,400 hours of service while helping in the central distribution department and at the flower delivery desk.

Before retiring, Kraft worked for Kansas City Power and Light for 37 years. He was a member of the Hillcrest Covenant Church and the Serotoma Club.

He and his wife moved to Johnson County in 1924. They have two children and four grandchildren.

Junior Volunteer

Teri Burns assists emergency department nurse Stephanie Cochran bandage John Nachbar's broken finger.

SMMC's junior volunteer of the year is Teri Burns. Miss Burns has been a junior volunteer for 2 1/2 years. She is vice president in charge of programs for the junior volunteers and volunteers in the emergency department once a week.

During the past year, she donated 494 hours of volunteer time, for a total of 719 hours since she began. If Miss Burns were earning minimum wage for her work, she would have been paid almost $2,500.

The Aquinas High School sophomore maintained a 3.7 grade point average last semester while taking honors in algebra and English classes. During her freshman year, she was class president and captain of the cheerleading squad. This year, she plays on the basketball team and is manager of the volleyball team, which placed fourth in state competition. She is an Explorer with the Shawnee Rescue Squad, and swam and dived competitively for the City of Shawnee for the past 10 years.

After graduating from high school, Miss Burns plans to become an emergency medical technologist, then study to become an orthopedic surgeon.

Cardiac Rehab, Walking Club and Health Facility At Ward Parkway Mall

A cardiac rehabilitation program and a walking club were included in the new medical facility opened by Shawnee Mission Medical Center March 22 in Ward Parkway Shopping Center.

The cardiac rehabilitation program at Ward Parkway Health Services is believed to be the only such program in the United States located in a shopping center. The program offers progressive exercise, training, and health education for people with cardiovascular disease.

Ward Parkway Health Services will also sponsor a walking club in the shopping center. The free program has been specially designed for senior citizens and others who enjoy walking for exercise.

In the evenings, the medical facility will offer health education classes such as stress management, prenatal care, smoking cessation, and weight control.

In about two months, a bakery will be opened next to the Health Services facility. The bakery will specialize in wholesome, whole grain, and natural products. Of course, there will also be tempting delicacies.

The primary function of the Ward Parkway Health Services is its convenient medical care treating needs ranging from sore throats to minor emergencies. Lab and X-ray facilities are located on the premises.

The patient can take a small, lightweight pager with him as he roams the mall freely. The pager beeps to notify him to return 10 minutes before the doctor is ready.

Shawnee Mission Medical Center also operates a Health Services facility at Oak Park Mall. That site offers dentistry and baby-sitting for patients' and shoppers' children in addition to medical care.

Scholarships, Honors Awarded Students At April 8 Ceremony

Nineteen Union College students were honored for their academic achievements and some received scholarship awards at the Honors Convocation held Friday, April 8, in the College View Church. The honors ceremony was an opening event of Alumni Homecoming Weekend, April 7-9.

Those receiving scholarships include: Vernon Fisk and Kerry Knickerbocker, both of Lincoln, NE, who will each receive a $650 Ak-Sar-Ben award; Robert Clayton, of Bolivar, MO, and Rebecca Dunnigan, Longmont, CO., each awarded the $500 Max and Elsie Christianson Award; Tony Guthmiller and Donna Mohl, of Lincoln, who are independently awarded the $500 Ella Johnson Crandall scholarship; Kevin Ellis, of Lincoln, who receives the First Federal of Lincoln scholarship in the amount of $500; Frostina Kolb, of North Platte, NE, who is awarded the $900 Fonner Park Scholarship; Susan LaFever of Keokuk, IA, has received the Barbara Ehlert Mossman Award of $1,000; Connie Engel, of Lincoln, is the recipient of the $500 Mutual of Omaha scholarship; Becky Dunnigan, Longmont, CO, will receive the Presser Foundation Award and the Quivey Bay State Scholarship of $500 will be awarded to Elmar Foos, Mitchell, NE.

Academic achievement awards were also presented. Tamera Kreiter-Flemmer, of Lehr, ND, was selected as the Outstanding Senior Nurse of the Year. Division of Nursing Faculty Honors were awarded to Carol Reckling and Janet Ellis, both of Lincoln, and to Beverly Harris, Sedona, AZ. Steven Sprengel, of Lincoln, Reginald Burton, of Manhattan, KS, and Patricia George, Eagle Bend, MN, were honored by the Division of Science and Math.

Seven Union College faculty members were also honored for various scholarly activities. Honored faculty members included James Hayward, James McClelland, Gilbert McMillen, Beatrice Neall, Ralph Neall, Lilya Wagner and Lenore McEndree.

Three Receive National Merit Scholarships

Three freshmen at Union College—Shaun Saint Claire, Sonya Selivanoff and Linda Sprengel—received National Merit Scholarships. Finalists receive complete tuition for one year and may qualify for other money. Finalist standing may be withdrawn if certain academic requirements are not met.

All recipients have achieved scores above the 95th percentile on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) and National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMQST). Reasoning abilities rather than factual recall are the criteria for both exams, the scholarship foundation says.

Mr. Saint Claire, from Grand Terrace, CA, majors in physics and minors in computer science. Ms. Selivanoff of Lincoln, NE, majors in biology and Ms. Sprengel, also of Lincoln, majors in elementary education.

Director of Admissions, Leona Murray, explains that, "our Merit Scholars on campus are an elite group. There are more freshman finalists on our campus now than we've ever had."

Phonathon Nets Over $36,000

The first Union College Alumni Phonathon was an unqualified success, according to Alumni and Development Director Ruthita Fike. The 10-night affair raised pledges of $36,584 and scored up 647 total pledges, including 540 new donors, to the annual fund.

"We were flying blind, since the college had never telephoned alumni before," Mrs. Fike said. "Our goal was $25,000, which we thought was realistic, and 500 new donors, which many people told us was highly unrealistic. We're pleased and thankful that the numbers were so high on both counts."

More than 80 volunteer alumni spent their evenings calling from 15 specially installed phones in the Christianson Board Room. They ate a boxed meal at 6 p.m. and got right to work in the festive atmosphere of balloons and helpful coaching/cheerleading by Bob Eiserman, associate director of development. The callers renewed old acquaintances and made new friends. They started with East Coast names in the early evening so as to catch them before the one-hour time difference made calling for money an indelicate affair after bedtime. As the night wore on, they switched to the Central, Mountain and Pacific zones.

The volunteers made 1,587 calls. One Union graduate had just sold some property and decided to pledge $1,000. Another said he was so grateful for a $50 scholarship he received as a poor student that he wanted to "pay it back". According to Mrs. Fike, several are sending larger donations than they originally pledged. The phonathon will become an annual February event at Union College.

"Summer Options" Used To Catch Up, Accelerate

While the end of the school term means full-time employment or simply a break from restive winter captivity for some, summer for many college students is a chance to catch up on needed course credits or accelerate the race for a diploma. Union College has announced that it will again offer a full summer program, titled "Summer Options," scheduled to run from May 2 to July 1.

Required freshman courses like College Writing and Freshman Algebra will be available for high school grads seeking early entry, as well as middle and upper division work in nearly every discipline. About 70 undergraduate and non-credit courses will be offered.

The May-July calendar includes four sessions, May 2-13 and 16-27, June 6-17 and June 20-July 1. Students can preregister for the sessions through the mail, according to Ben Bandiola, Summer School Coordinator, but registration will not be complete until students obtain clearance from the finance office.

Graduate level courses in education will again be part of the summer fare under the Loma Linda (California) University Extended Campus Program. Also from May 22-27, Union will host its second Elderhostel, non-credit sessions for senior citizens.

Disaster And Famine Relief Offering May 14, 1983

There is plenty of irrigation and clean drinking water for 10,000 people in this Peruvian girl's community because SAWS Food for Work program helped them dig an eleven-mile ditch to bring water.

In many Haitian communities 80% or more suffer from some form of malnutrition. Milk and other food supplements will give them a good chance to grow strong and bright.

Dr. Canabal working with the SAWS-sponsored mobile clinic in Lima, Peru helps poor people with their health problems. Clinics on family planning, prenatal control and nutrition have helped to reduce disease and infant mortality. During 1982 SAWS assisted medical care institutions with equipment valued at $1,839,627.00.

A desperate mother has come to the home of the SAWS Director in Haiti. She is carrying Cleo, her little two-year-old girl, in her arms. Cleo is suffering from severe diarrhea and is completely dehydrated and almost dead.

The SAWS worker sees her as a child Jesus would have stayed up nights to save from death. After days of anxious care in the struggle for life or death, a new life emerges. A happy girl runs and plays again. Another successful case, similar to thousands in the SAWS record.

The Mother and Child Health Care programs of SAWS have helped families in Chile, Bolivia, Peru, Haiti, Rwanda. Several other countries have been requesting SAWS relief programs but have been turned down due to lack of funds to operate.

Plans are being finalized to start child feeding programs in Chad, Sudan, Madagascar and Tanzania. $150 will help to support 10 children in Central America. $1,000 will help to rebuild 50 houses in disaster stricken areas. $10,000 will finance health care programs in war ridden Lebanon. $60,000 will finance the food distribution program in Bolivia for one year. Would you like to have a part in the SAWS ministries? If you are interested in participating in any of these projects, send your contributions and preferences to: SAWS, P.O. Box 60808, Washington, D.C. 20039.

Hunger, disease, promiscuity, death are common in villages like this one in Port Au-Prince, Haiti. SAWS $958,993. matching grants in 1982 helped thousands of poor people improve their living conditions.

North American Missions Offering Helps Provide Food For La Vida Mission

By Elmer Duncan

It was just too much! The food and supplies being given to La Vida Mission were just more than the pickup could pull. Some of the donations had to be left behind. The fine people of the area near Armona Academy in central California decided to do something about it and very quickly raised $2,000 to help provide a bigger vehicle to pull a bigger load on the gooseneck trailer. An appropriation from the offering for North American Missions provided the remaining $2,500 needed to purchase a used but good GMC Crewcab pickup equipped for pulling heavy loads.

We wish to thank each one who had a part in making this possible. The pickup has already been used to bring a load of food and supplies (about eight tons) from central California. It is also used to transport people to church services here at the Mission, as well as for other Mission uses.

Elder Duncan is the director of La Vida Mission.

Adventist Singles Ministry

Being single has become a crucial area of concern not only in society, but also in the church. For persons going through a traumatic time, they need support emotionally as well as spiritually. Adventist Singles Ministries of Lincoln have combined talents in order to offer a specialized seminar for singles. This is the first time such a seminar series has been offered.

This series will begin Friday, May 13, at 7:30 p.m. and run through Sunday, May 15. Each session will be held at Culver Hall worship room on the Union College campus, 3800 South 48th Street, Lincoln, Nebraska. For further information contact Cookie Hubbard, Regional Director for Nebraska, 4600 Briarpark Drive, No. 313, Lincoln, Nebraska 68516 (402) 421-1347 after 6:30 or Donita Phillips (402) 483-7233 after 6:00 p.m.

For Your Schools

Computer literacy has become a focus in curriculum development recently. The presence of the computer is expected to make as much information change for our time as the Gutenberg Press did some centuries ago. Major companies producing typewriters have begun to phase out some of their models with the acceptance of computerized word processing equipment. The Mid-America Curriculum committee is moving on three fronts to lay ground work for meeting the related academic needs.

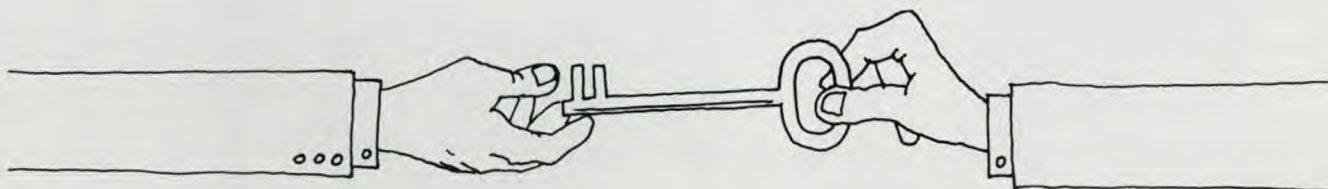

A software evaluation and exchange committee is initiating a process whereby teachers on the various levels who are using computers in their classrooms can pool their evaluation efforts and thus eliminate a great deal of duplicated effort in selecting the adequate computer programs in the schools. Software must meet criteria related to the following three points:

1. Support the Seventh-day Adventist philosophy of education.
2. Support good didactic procedures.
3. Be technically sound.

Academies are being urged to find individuals who might help them to finance replacing some of their typewriter equipment with word processing facilities.

The K-12 convention to be held at Union College, August 7-11, 1983, will have a number of sections dedicated to the selection of software and the use of the computer in classrooms.

If you don't give to your alma mater, why should anybody else?

Stated bluntly, it takes a great deal of money beyond what tuition brings in to guarantee the future of a private school. This is as true for Seventh-day Adventist colleges as it's true for most other private institutions.

Money for these schools comes from a wide variety of sources. Some of the money, for example, comes from large corporations and foundations. Some from gifts made by wealthy individuals. Some of these funds come from alumni contributions.

In fact, as an alumnus of Union College, you should know that it's your contribution that provides the key to most of the other funds your school receives.

You see, if other potential donors aren't convinced that the alumni of Union College believe in and support their own alma mater, then they probably won't feel very generous either.

Now the BECA Fund—Business Executives' Challenge to Alumni—makes it particularly attractive for you to be an important part of this process. If you make an unrestricted contribution before June 30, 1983 Union College will benefit in a number of ways. First, Union will benefit from your gift as well as from matching contributions from the BECA Fund.

Also, combined with gifts from other alumni, your contribution will help in attracting financial support from other sources.

Look at it this way: When you support your alma mater today, your gift rallies a lot of other people to support Union tomorrow.

Basketball Camp

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes basketball camp is scheduled for May 29 to June 4 at Campion Academy. The purpose of the camp is to develop the total person—physically, mentally, socially and spiritually—a concept which will permeate all the activities. The idea that Christ-centeredness is not self-centeredness is the theme. If you would like to attend the basketball camp address your communication to Tim Windemuth, Campion Academy, Southwest 42 and Academy Drive, Loveland, CO 80537.

Retirees To Assemble At La Sierra

All retired denominational workers are invited to the annual convention. This year the meetings, approved by the officers of the North American Division, will be conducted at the La Sierra Collegiate Church in Riverside, California, June 24-27. Speakers will include Neal C. Wilson, president of the General Conference and Robert H. Pierson, former president, now retired.

Guest speakers include Dr. Harold Lindsell, editor emeritus of Christianity Today, now retired in a little community not far from La Sierra.

A Prayer Breakfast and a Banquet will be provided plus a trip by motor bus to visit the San Diego Wild Animal Farm as a recreational feature. A Music Festival on Saturday night will be directed by John Hancock, long time Youth Leader of the denomination.

Retired workers who plan to attend should check the January letter from the General Conference which was mailed to them, fill out the registration form, detach and mail to:
