

Missionary Worker.

VOL. 8.

LONDON, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 6, 1904.

No. 1.

LORD, speak to me, that I may speak
 In living echoes of Thy tone;
 As Thou hast sought, so let me seek
 Thy erring children, lost and lone.
 Oh, lead me, Lord, that I may lead
 The wandering and the wavering feet;
 Oh, feed me, Lord, that I may feed
 Thy hungry ones with manna sweet.

The Week of Prayer.

IF there ever was an occasion when there was a special need for the blessing of the Lord, it is now. We are living on the very verge of eternity.

As we look about us, from every phase of the world's situation, the evidences of the Lord's soon coming, are so decidedly plain that we cannot mistake their meaning.

The world is enveloped in darkness, but the commandment to the church at this time is, "Arise and shine, for thy light is come." Will the church appreciate its privilege? Will she be thoroughly awakened and aroused? And will each individual brother and sister take the matter to heart in earnest?

The Laodicean message belongs to this time, and should come home with full force to every believer. Is there not a danger of our being in that lukewarm state, feeling ourselves to be rich, and increased with goods, having need of nothing, and not able to see that we are poor, and miserable, and blind and naked? We are altogether too easily satisfied. We settle down, contented with a form of religion. As we look to the world about us, we see much that professes to be Christianity, much of the form of religion, but where is the power? We are in danger of being affected by the same spirit, but God save us for His name's sake.

There is a great work to be done, but the church is hindered in its work by sin. Let diligent and earnest heart-searching go on; let sin be put away; let every wrong that has been cherished be eradicated; let there be a complete yielding of self and selfish interests to the Lord, and let the liberality of your gift for the forwarding of the work in the earth be the evidence of your complete consecration to the Lord. If all take hold as with one heart, and seek the Lord with that earnestness that the solemnity of the situation calls for, a rich outpouring of the Spirit of God will fit us all for greater usefulness in His cause.

In your heart searching look over the past. Where have you neglected duty? Where have you been careless? Where have you partaken of the spirit of worldliness? Where have you robbed God in tithes and offerings? Where have you been negligent with reference to the keeping of the Sabbath, or careless and indifferent in your life? Where have you neglected secret prayer and the study of the Word of the Lord? The promise is, "Ye shall seek Me and find Me, if ye search for Me with all your heart, and I will be found of you, saith the Lord, and I will turn away your captivity."

We are so desirous that the year upon which we are just entering may be one of rapid advancement in the work of the Lord all along the line, and this will be so if we give ourselves wholly and unreservedly to the Lord and to His work. Let no one hold back, but let each one consecrate himself anew to the work, accepting with faith and confidence the promise, "Ask, and ye shall receive, seek, and ye shall find." The Lord is more willing to give His Spirit to those that ask Him, than parents are to give good gifts to their children. Again:—

"Thus saith the Lord that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, My servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen: For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground. . . . One shall say, I am the Lord's, and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the Lord, and surname himself by the name of Israel. Thus saith the Lord, the King of Israel, and His Redeemer, the Lord of hosts; I am the first and I am the last; and beside Me there is no God. . . . Fear ye not, neither be afraid; have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? Ye are even My witnesses. Is there a God beside Me? Yea, there is no God. I know not any." Isa. xlv. 2-8.

If any would feel it a privilege to make this season a time of fasting and special prayer let everyone feel free to do so. We leave it with each individual and each company to act as the Spirit of God may direct. May the special blessing of the Lord be with you, and precious victories will be gained, both for yourselves individually, and to the work as a whole.

O. A. OLSEN.

Our Training College.

OUR half year closed December 23rd, and many of our students who live away from London have gone home for a ten days' holiday. This has been well earned, for the results of the examination show that faithful work has been done by all. Several who came for the first time at the beginning of the year, and who were backward because they had been so long out of school, have expressed themselves as being greatly encouraged when they look back and see the real progress which they have made.

On Wednesday evening before Christmas, which marked the end of our half year, a very pleasant gathering of teachers and students was held in Holloway Hall. All the members of the Board who were in London were present, together with a number of old students, some of whom had come from a distance. An enjoyable programme was given by the students.

The half year has slipped quickly away, and we look forward with hope and courage to the work of the remaining months. We are cheered by the spirit of consecration and sacrifice shown by the students, and are encouraged by the determined efforts which they have put forth to prepare themselves for thorough and acceptable work in the great field.

Someone has written to me, asking if the money which we are now using for the running expenses of the College is from the sale of "Christ's Object Lessons," or donations which have been made for the establishment of a permanent school in Great Britain. I am glad to say that not one penny of this money has been used, but is being kept for the purchase of a permanent institution. We hope the day is not far distant when enough will have been received.

H. R. SALISBURY.

OUR school work in Brazil now numbers twelve schools and sixteen teachers. German is the principal language taught, although Portuguese is also used.

The Missionary Worker.

WE are receiving encouraging responses with reference to the interest manifested in the WORKER, and all are unanimous in expressing their pleasure over the change that has taken place in the subject matter. During the past few weeks, every number of the WORKER has seemed to be of special interest. The reports that come from the labourers in the field, and the little notes of testimony that come from various brethren and sisters relative to the work and their interest in it, are of special interest to every lover of the truth.

We want the paper to be a medium of communication, so that through it our brethren and sisters may have a knowledge of the work that is being done in every part of our field, and also that they may become acquainted with each other. Now that the WORKER may accomplish its mission, we want it to have a place in every family where there is a soul interested in the truth, and we again ask the leaders of our churches and all our brethren to especially interest themselves in this matter.

No one can afford to be without the knowledge, the encouragement, and the information that it contains from time to time. The list is increasing, and we ask you to make renewed efforts to place the paper in every family where there is a Sabbath-keeper. If there should be any who are too poor to pay for the paper, let them write to me at once, giving their names and addresses, and we shall make provision so that such ones can have the blessings of the paper.

O. A. OLSEN.

FROM time to time specially interesting faces are to be seen at the counter of the General Office. This week a tall Indian Sikh paid us a visit, wishing to buy Dr. Kellogg's book, "The Stomach," which he had read and re-read in the British Museum. He is making quite an extended tour round the world, and hopes to visit Battle Creek shortly.

STAFF-CAPTAIN E. C. WIDGERY and wife, who for twelve years had charge of the Salvation Army work in the Carribean Islands, went to our Battle Creek Sanitarium last summer as patients. While there, they heard and accepted the Third Angel's Message. Their son, also an Army officer, joined them later, and now all three are engaged in active work.

TIDINGS from the BATTLE

ITEMS FROM NORTH ENGLAND.

THE address of Elder Andross is 173 Harrow Road, Narborough Road, Leicester.

BROTHER ANDROSS visited the Birmingham Church on December 19th, and found the work in a very encouraging condition indeed.

BROTHER BRANDT writes that the work in Leeds is onward and that he feels of good courage. The Lord is working for this church in a wonderful manner.

BROTHER WALKER, one of our canvassers who went North from Leicester, at the close of the tent meetings, has returned home on account of poor health.

BROTHER GILLATT spent the holidays with his family in London. From letters received from canvassers, we get very encouraging words, and all seem to be in good spirits.

BROTHER MARCHUS writes that the work in Nottingham and Derby promises very encouraging results. Brother Marchus has charge of the work in these places since Brother Altman's departure for Africa.

WE are receiving many orders for the Review and Herald, which speaks well for the efforts put forth for the circulation of this good paper. We hope to have many more subscriptions to begin early in the year.

ONE dear isolated sister writes that she has begun working with the tracts among her neighbours and hopes that the Lord will bless the efforts. God will not lightly regard any effort that is made in behalf of our fellow men and in His name.

PLEASE note that the address of the office of the North-England Conference and Tract Society is 8 Fairfield Street, Mere Road, Leicester. All communications intended for the secretary and treasurer should be sent to this address. Also all orders for periodicals, and remittances for all purposes.

A GENTLEMAN writes from Manchester: "I have seen to-day, for the first time a copy of your most interesting paper Present Truth, and should like to continue reading it." When we think of the multitudes who have yet to see the paper for the first time, shall we not be inspired to make haste with the message?

East Dulwich.

THE Lord is blessing His work in East Dulwich. The little company of Sabbath-keepers are all of good courage, and are united in their efforts to hold up the banner of "the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus." Nearly all are actively engaged in placing our literature in the homes of the people.

We have been holding Sunday-night meetings in a public hall for about two months. While the attendance has not been as large at any time as we desire to see it, yet it has been regular. Those who do attend are much interested. One person has begun the observance of the Sabbath, and we hope that others will soon follow. Pray for the work at this place. W. A. SHAFER.

Croydon Good Health League.

READERS of the WORKER will be glad to know that the inaugural meeting of the Croydon Good Health League was held on Tuesday, Dec. 8th, and was a success. The chair was occupied by E. C. Clifford, Esq., who, besides being a strict vegetarian, is a total abstainer and a non-smoker. He is also an active member of the local Vegetarian Society and a fluent speaker. Hand-bills announcing that Dr. A. B. Olsen would deliver an address on, "The Object of the Good Health League," had been distributed, with the result that a satisfactory attendance was secured. In addition to the chairman's remarks, Dr. Olsen delivered an excellent address, at the close of which several questions were asked and answered.

A committee was elected, composed of the following persons: Messrs. J. Shepherd, F. C. Freeman, S. L. Aris, J. A. Pratt, L. P. Rayner, W. T. Miles, Miss Ryalla, and Miss Symons, the latter being the vegetarian lady cyclist champion, who has been attracting so much attention of late as a record breaker of long distances. She proposed that a children's branch of the League be formed, and that the member's subscription be sixpence per year inclusive of badge, which was seconded by Dr. Olsen. W. T. Miles was elected secretary and Brother S. L. Aris treasurer. The collection, after paying expenses, left a small balance to go on with.

We thank God for the success of this first meeting, which has already made a good impression upon those who attended it, and pray that this league will redound to the praise and glory of God.

W. TALBOT MILES.

He Hath Done All Things Well.Dundee.

DEAR BRETHREN AND SISTERS:—

I send these lines with "joy and singing" in my heart; the dear Lord is so good. In His own good time and way He opened the way for me to find a home with His saints. Brother Nicholson kindly invited me to share his home with him, but not until November 16th was the way cleared for me to be with him. I now know what it is to be with those who keep the commandments of God.

When I first came to Brother Nicholson's farm, we all thought I could best serve the Lord in farm work, and go out with papers on Sundays; but when we saw how the Lord used me in the work it seemed clear, after prayer, that I was to give myself entirely to the work which I shall enter after the New Year. I have been out four times with the holiday number, and put out seventy each time. My deafness, far from being a hindrance, is a help. People are more patient. I use a card and sell to a class of people difficult to reach,—solicitors, auctioneers, etc. You see how, in my case, the dear Lord "hath done all things well."

Before I left Blyth I found an honest soul, who is now very near the light. She is a servant, but she bought "Bible Readings," "Bible Text Book," and some pamphlets from me. I am praying and trusting that she will soon be led to obey, which she writes that she will do when the Lord makes known His will to her. I ask you to pray for this humble soul, and that the Lord may bless and use me in His work.

Wigan. Your brother, GEO. GOLDER.

THE special number of The Signs of the Times is now to hand. Capital and Labour in the light of prophecy is a theme compelling the attention of everyone. Probably never before have the views of both parties been presented side by side in the same paper in so fair a manner. The thought-producing picture on the front cover is a study in itself. The Office does not have a great stock, and every part of the field should have a portion. Please send your order early. Price, 2½d., five or more copies, 2d.

THE company of six medical missionaries who recently went to China, report from Shanghai a safe and pleasant voyage. They are all of good courage.

DEAR BRETHREN AND SISTERS:—

Business is bad in Dundee at present. Nevertheless, the Lord is blessing us. I have had a very satisfactory delivery, in spite of the fact that so many people are out of work. Masons, painters, plasterers and tradesmen are practically idle, and the mills are all on short time, so that altogether the town is in a dull state. But God is at work, and this is sufficient to give us courage to go on.

Formerly, I canvassed because it was the only job I could get and keep the Sabbath. But now I realise the great privilege it is to carry the Third Angel's Message to this world in my own little way.

Brother Scott has some grand meetings here, and many are becoming interested. Pray for us.

Your Brother in Jesus,

GEORGE HAINING.

—o—

SPECIALLY needed at the present moment are the three newly printed tracts, "Perpetuity of the Law," "A Sign For Ever," "Not Under Law, but Under Grace." Everyone who would confirm his belief, should take time to read carefully these clear statements of truth. The price for the set is only 2d, post paid.

Plymouth.

OUR brethren and sisters in Plymouth are rejoicing in the victories of the truth in that place. Our work has been bitterly attacked from every side, but two persons, a young brother of eighteen years, and a sergeant in the Engineer Corps, have taken their stand for the truth. Of seven young men who have been attending Bible readings regularly, several are convinced, and we hope will soon make a definite stand. Sister Borrowdale, in speaking of the stirring meetings they have been having, says: "You would like to hear some of the splendid testimonies given by members that scarcely ever have courage enough to stand up to speak."

What a Tract Did.

IN 1785 Dr. Coke gave a tract to a family in Virginia. The family numbered fourteen, and that tract was the instrumentality used in the conversion of the whole family.

A tract distributor, passing through a sparsely settled country district in Canada, gave away many tracts. One of them, entitled "Repent or Perish," was found floating in the Frazer River. A man saw it, took it out, dried it, read it, and by it was converted to God.

A preacher invited a man to attend a meeting. The man refused, but he consented to take a tract. A few weeks afterwards, that same man stood up in meeting and confessed that that tract had led him to Jesus.—Selected.

—o—

THE eyes of the world are now centred on Panama, Central America, because of the revolution that has just taken place. But we can see events of far deeper importance quietly transpiring there, for the Third Angel's Message is being given. In Colon, we have a company of twenty members, while in Port Limon, Costa Rica, a neighbouring government, we have a church of twenty-six.

—o—

IT is gratifying to know that the little Sunset Calendar is much appreciated. There are about forty left, which the Office will be glad to have orders for soon. Please tell the Sabbath-keepers in your district who do not read the WORKER. They are 5d. each, post paid.

—o—

BROTHER J. GREER HANNA reports encouragingly of the work in Prince Edward Island. They meet great opposition, but two persons have just taken their stand for the truth, and many others are interested. Their regular Monday evening health meetings have proved a valuable means of reaching the people.

—o—

A BROTHER in America met some neighbours on the highway. He stopped them, and after talking to them of the love and power of God, took two orders for "Prophecies of Jesus," three for "Paradise Lost," one for "Glorious Appearing," and one for "Best Stories." They promised to attend our meetings, and The Wisconsin Reporter rightly concludes that a little more labour will bring them into the truth. We all have neighbours, and all these need to know our truth.

Our Work.

OUR canvassing work should not pattern after the world or its policy. So many orders, so many visits, so many pounds and shillings, the worldly policy says is success, hence anything short of that is a decided failure. But it is different with our work. Ours is evangelistic canvassing. Its success does not depend upon how many orders are taken, how many visits made, and how many pounds received, but how much of the gentleness of Christ is manifested to the world in our work. And as the manifestation of gentleness in the earthly life of Christ made Him great, so it will make the evangelistic canvasser great in His work.

Our Tracts and Their Use.

WE are most grateful for the interest manifested in the sale and distribution of our good papers Good Health and Present Truth, and we hope that their sales will be increased during the year 1904.

There is also another important part of our literature that ought to receive more attention, and be much more widely circulated, this is our tracts. We have a large quantity on a variety of important subjects, a list of which we give herewith. These ought now to be scattered like leaves of autumn. Error of all kind is abroad in the land. While many are careless and utterly indifferent to their soul's salvation, and many others may be biased by prejudice, there are still many honest souls that are sincerely hungering and thirsting after righteousness.

Here is a line of work in which we can all take part. We repeat the request to look over the list, and if you have a Tract Society at your place, make a selection at once, and begin active operations. If there is no Tract Society, or if you are alone, send your orders direct to the International Tract Society, 451 Holloway Road, London, N.

Among the many tracts whose subjects deal with important subjects of the day, I would mention one, "The Perpetuity of the Law of God," by C. H. Spurgeon. This tract treats a subject of much importance, and one that is but little understood at the present time. But this is only one of the many that might be mentioned. Let the New Year witness a revival of activity in the Lord's work in every department. We shall be glad to hear from you, and to receive your order.

I shall be much pleased to hear from all our workers and learn of their experiences in connection with the circulation of our paper. As far as possible, these experiences should be written on separate slips of paper, apart from the orders. In order to transact the business most promptly, it is best to send all orders, and money to pay for the same, to the International Tract Society. Anything in the way of personal experiences, suggestions in reference to the paper and its circulation, etc., may be enclosed on a separate slip, which will be delivered promptly. Workers may also send in questions asked of them by their customers in reference to matters of health, and these will be answered as promptly as possible.

M. E. OLSEN.

WE have much pleasure in inserting the following letter just received from a couple of our junior Good Health workers, the two little daughters of Brother C. Davies, of Manchester. It is only right to say that the sale of our Christmas number was due in no small part to the co-operation of our young people and children. We should be glad to hear from other of our young people in regard to this work:—

DEAR MR. OLSEN:—

As I have seen sometimes in the WORKER little letters from other young workers, I thought I would like to write one too. I have been for sending one many a time, but it has always been too late, so I have waited till now. Of the Christmas number of Good Health I have sold 385 copies in four week ends. Also my sister, who is eleven years old, two years younger than I, has sold 362 in about the same time. We go out together with father, and like the canvassing very much, we feel that all our success comes from the Lord, and we trust that He will continue to use us in His service.

We send this as an encouragement to other young beginners. We remain, Your little fellow-workers,
GLADYS AND GERTRUDE DAVIES.

“All our success comes from the Lord.” This is indeed true. Would that every worker fully realised it. So to do the best work, one must go out in the true missionary spirit, with a love for souls, and trusting in God to open the hearts of the people.

—3—

BROTHER and Sister MacGregor write that they had excellent success in selling their 1,000 Christmas Good Health, and have been able to awaken quite an interest. Among the interested persons is a solicitor, who is acting as the secretary of the Exeter Health Reform Club. He has been a reader of Good Health for some time.

O. A. OLSEN.

Our Health Work.

AT the opening of the New Year I wish to thank you all for your kind and hearty co-operation during the past year. In this time about 565,000 copies of Good Health have been placed in the homes of the people, and many letters have come in expressing gratitude for the benefit received. Moreover, nearly all the patients who have come to our sanitariums have done so as the result of reading the papers, which our workers have been taking from house to house. May the Lord richly bless you all during the coming year, and give you strength for still greater efforts and a larger activity.

The Missionary Worker.

The Worker, 451 Holloway Road, London, N.

BROTHER W. R. SHORT, of Grimsby, spent Christmas with friends in London.

BROTHER ALFRED BACON, of Southsea, and Sister Jessie Bacon, of Manchester, spent Christmas and New Year in London, at the home of their parents.

BROTHER H. A. SHORLEY, who is located at Bedford, has had some very good shipments of "Christ Our Saviour" lately. He seems much encouraged, and is getting our books into the hands of the local preachers.

THE Hackney brethren and sisters enjoyed a visit from Brother and Sister Robinson, of Newport, Mon., Tuesday evening, Dec. 29th. Brother Robinson gave a very interesting account of the progress of the work in Wales.

REGARDING the Sunset Calendar, Brother E. McCulla, of Belfast, says: "I cannot express my appreciation of the Sunset Calendar. It is something I have long desired to have. I have tried in the shops to get something like it, but could not."

OUR Bible school is fortunate in securing the services of Elder Wm. Hutchinson, of Belfast, as teacher of Scripture, which work Elder Corliss was obliged to give up because of ill health. Elder Hutchinson has laboured successfully in Ireland for many years, and his knowledge of field work will be of great value to the students.

AS this number of the WORKER, the first of the New Year, is sent out, it carries with it our greetings and best wishes to every reader for a year full of rich blessings and experiences in the things of God. Remembering the mercies of the past, and forgetting our own failures, let us go forward with a new determination to make God's service the one business of our lives, and to be stirred as never before by the increasing signs of the end.

WE now have in Brazil, South America, a membership of about nine hundred.

BRETHREN B. L. MORSE and E. H. Brown, of New Brompton, Kent, spent the holidays with friends in London.

THE report of book sales for the past two weeks is omitted in this issue, but will be included in the next report.

WE would call special attention to Elder Olsen's article regarding the WORKER. We hope soon to see our paper in every Adventist home in the kingdom, and those who do not feel able to subscribe, should write to Elder Olsen, as he has suggested.

WE were glad recently to receive calls from Brother H. W. Johnson, who is travelling in the interests of our Health Food Company of Birmingham. He reports excellent success in his work, and has been able to sell many of our publications, both large and small to his customers.

WE desire to publish in an early number of the WORKER a directory of the time and place of service of our different companies throughout the kingdom. A large number have not been received, and we would ask that those companies who have not yet done so to send to the WORKER the desired items.

BROTHER E. HORSPOOL, of Leicester, in a Christmas greeting, says: "I am so pleased to know that so many have come out on the Lord's side the past year, and that I am one of that number. The few months since I gave myself afresh to the dear Lord and His service have been the happiest of my life."

WE were much cheered by the following words of greeting from Sister C. Sanders, of Birmingham:—

"Thanks for the kind letter received, also for The Signs of the Times. I will, as you request, remember your branch of the work in prayer, and am grateful that you are bearing before the throne of grace the labourers who are out in the field, and I assure you we feel the benefit of the same by a conscious influence of divine grace morning by morning."
