Nearing Home

It is becoming intensely interesting now! We can see the runners coming in. They have turned the last corner and are now in full view of the last stretch and of the home line.

It is not a question of four or five running, but of 12,000 believers actually on the track, each having his part in the final dash. That is why we are so interested. We have something at stake, and must not fail. Not one or two, but every one of us may gain a prize in his own way and according to God's plan. We will be eternally compensated for doing our part in a great work such as this.

"Like a mighty army,

Moves the church of God.

Brethren we are treading

Where the saints have trod.

We are not divided,

All one body we.

One in hope and doctrine,

One in charity."

It makes me feel a bit homesick. Soon the faithful host will march in. "What a gathering of the faithful that will be"! But we must first carry the good news out, and that not only to our neighbors and friends, but to the distant shores and outposts of this lost world. Doing our work well now, in this campaign, is a part of God's great program to evangelize the world. Our task now is to make a success of the work committed to our hands. Let us do it well.

Week Of Sacrifice

Notes to Church Officers

You will remember that the Week of Sacrifice offering is to be taken in all of our churches October 16.

The tremendous needs of the mission fields call loudly for a real sacrifice offering from every Seventh-day Adventist.

A dollar today is worth more than ten dollars at a future time.

May the Lord help us make this the largest Week of Sacrifice offering in our experience.

Overwhelming Appeals

The following word has just been received from Brother W. H. Williams, the Undertreasurer of the General Conference.

"Eagerly the secretaries of the Treasury Department scan the weekly "Tribune" from the Harvest Ingathering fields. Then we turn to the budgets under preparation for the Autumn Council. What do we find?—Urgent appeals, memorials and pleadings for additional funds, coming from the men we have sent "out there on the border," which almost overwhelm us. Never before have appeals come from mission lands. During the years of depression our missionaries have been conservative in pressing their needs. They have been holding back the calls. But now there is, as it were, an avalanche let loose. God's providences are beckoning us to press on, and our brethren on the border are looking straight to us as they call. Even in old India, where it has been so difficult to break through the wall of superstition and ignorance, our brethren tell us that the Spirit of God is turning the hearts of those benighted people to this message in a wonderful manner.

"Yes, brethren, we must send them help. We hope to grant an advance over that of the last Council. Much depends on our autumn campaigns for funds, and particularly the Harvest Ingathering, for from this source comes nearly one-fourth of our mission budget. We are profoundly grateful to God for the splendid reports rolling in from every local and union field, and the loyalty expressed these substantial reports. May God bless and inspire us too hold on until we have all reached our objective in this the most important campaign in the history of this people."

The world is in a terrible situation. The calls from the mission fields abroad are very urgent. What we do must be done quickly. In order that the General Conference may be able to intelligently fix the budget of the mission fields at the time of the Autumn Council, October 20 to 27, they should know what the amount of Harvest Ingathering is going to be.

Brethren and Sisters of the Minnesota churches, we earnestly appeal to each of you to plan definitely to reach your goal during the next two weeks. United prayer and whole-hearted, united action will do it. It can be done. Shall we do it? May God help us to do our duty and do it now.

V. E. Peugh

Maplewood Notes

"Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord." This week of prayer conducted by Elder Gant, has been characterized in a special way by the marked working of the Spirit of God. It has worked quietly, yet persistently through the school family, and brought great changes in the hearts and lives of all who have listened and heeded the whispered entreaties of the voice of God. We are very grateful to the Lord for these showers of blessings, and solicit your prayers that those who have now consecrated their lives to God may never falter, but go on faithfully until Jesus comes. A baptismal class of twenty-one members has been organized.

Last spring when the Maplewood Booster Club set its goal for 150 students for the year 1937-38, there were some who doubted that such a goal could be reached.—but here we are in the first month of the new school term, with 152 young people registered as students of this school. And now, in the very near future, comes the banquet, and then will be revealed which class shall be the honor guests, for being instrumental in bringing the most young people to Maplewood, to share in a year of study, fun, and spiritual blessings. The Maplewood Booster Club has proved itself an organization full of life and with the ability to accomplish its purpose.

Forging Ahead

Minnesota's district men are forging ahead to a new record. Already 45 churches have reached their goal and six districts are over the top. $11,270 had been raised by October 4. All are of good courage and are working toward their super goal of a gain of 10% in each district. Elders Hutches, Anderson, Gulbrandson, and Edwardson have every church in their districts over the top, and Brother Douglas, who has but one church, joins this group by reaching the super goal of his church.

The conference church members are urged to do their Harvest Ingathering as soon as possible and to turn the money in to Brother Marshall so that the conference church can make its goal by October 23. Please try to make your individual minute men goal of $11.49. God's work is greatly in need of every dollar that you can send in.

J. C. Christenson.

Colporteur Training School

The annual colporteur training school will be held at the Park Avenue church, corner of Park and Franklin in South Minneapolis, October 29 to November 7. Very partial instruction, designed to bring success, will be given. The time to work for souls becomes shorter each day "The lost sheep of God's fold are scattered in every place, and the work that should be done for them is being neglected. From the light being given me I know that where there is one canvasser in the field, there should be one hundred." Colporteur Evangelist, p.7. Let us rally to the call! Write now to—

C. G. Cross, Field Secretary.

News Items

Brother Cross, our field missionary secretary, informs us that more than a dozen fine men and women are definitely planning to go into the field as regular colporteur evangelists, immediately following the colporteur institute, to be held October 29 to November 7. Others who are interested should write immediately to C. G. Cross 1854 Roblyn Avenue, St. Paul, Minn.

A telegram from Elder Hutches states that every church in his district is over the top in Harvest Ingathering. That is very good indeed.

Elder David Gulbrandson reports that his last church is over in Harvest Ingathering, and that his district is $17.00 over the super goal.

Brother A. L. Bietz writes from Mankato as follows.— "Last night we started our fourth week with the largest crowd thus far. People were packed in from the street to my speaking platform and all around it. We opened fire on them last night on the 'Anti-Christ.' There must have been five hundred people present. The church people are praying earnestly."

Church Dedication

On Sabbath, October 2, the Valley City church was dedicated. The Lord had graciously given us very favorable weather, and the believers from nearby churches, also a few from distant churches, had come so that the new church building was well filled. I am sure the day will be long remembered by all.

Elder E. H. Oswald, president of the Northern Union Conference, preached a very appropriate and stirring dedicatory sermon. The special music that was rendered was fitting for the solemn occasion, and helped to make the service one that was greatly enjoyed by all.

There was a balance of $106.00 that was still due on the church. A collection was taken to reduce this indebtedness, and the amount received totaled $34.87. In the afternoon Elder Wm. Mueller from the General Conference spoke. The many experiences which he related from Europe and from mission lands, gripped every heart and brought encouragement to those present to be loyal and true to God, and to faithfully support His cause while it is still possible for us to do so. Elder Mueller spoke of some sections of the world where conditions have changed, so this cannot be done now as it could formerly, because of certain barriers.

Several of the local workers shared in the day's program, and when the meeting was over it was expressed by many that we had truly had a wonderful day, which had brought new faith and courage to our hearts.

Transfer of Workers

Elder J. H. Rhoads has received and accepted a call from South Dakota to connect with that conference. He has been asked to take up departmental work. Our conference committee was loath to release Elder Rhoads, who was one of our strongest evangelists. You have all been choered, I am sure, by reading in the "Outlook", reports about the effort which was conducted by Elder Rhoads and Brother T. R. Torkelson in Kathryn. The Lord has crowned the efforts of these, His servants, with real success.

Last Sabbath, October 2, there was held a baptismal service at Lisbon, where five souls were buried in baptism. There are others to follow and Brother Torkelson will continue to carry forward the work. Brother Frank Grau takes charge of the district and will lead out.

Elder Rhoads has worked in our conference for several years and has been on the most friendly terms with every laborer, so he will be long and favorably remembered.

Elder M. N. Skadsheim, who is working under the direction of the Bureau of Home Missions, has done a good work in and around Grand Forks. The Lord has blessed the labors of Elder Skadsheim and Brother Rustad. Several souls have been baptized and we firmly believe there is more fruitage to be gathered in. Our believers in Grand Forks are buying a suitable church building in which Brother Rustad is planning to conduct an evangelistic effort.

Elder Skadsheim has been invited by the South Dakota Conference to conduct an effort in Sioux Falls. We greatly appreciate the labors of Elder Skadsheim in our conference and we pray that the Lord will bless his labors in South Dakota.

We bid these faithful laborers, Elders J. H. Rhoads and M. N. Skadsheim, godspeed as they take up their appointed work in our sister conference. Our loss is South Dakota's gain. We are good neighbors and through these laborers we will be still more closely bound together.

God Answers Prayer

The Bible teaches it; experience proves it. When laboring in northern Europe I had an experience which I shall never forget.

Early one morning I arrived in Riga, Latvia, where before the Bolshevik Revolution our headquarters for all Russia had been located, and where now the headquarters of the Baltic Union was located. I had traveled all night and felt tired. As soon as I stepped off the train the secretary-treasurer of the union met me at the depot and, after greeting me, reminded me that we had a financial obligation to meet the following day. The amount which was due totaled several hundred dollars. I inquired how much cash there was on hand and he told me that we did not have a dollar with which to meet this obligation. The union was newly organized and our funds were very low.

The following night I woke and could not sleep from two until four o'clock, and I pleaded for God to help. I told the Lord that we needed it at once. Next morning when I went to the union office and sat down at my desk to look through my mail, I found a check of $545 in the first letter which I opened. This money was sent by a sister in California, and it was stated in the letter that I should feel free to use the money where it was most needed.

I know that God heard my prayer. I knelt down immediately in that office beside my desk, to thank the Lord for His goodness and mercy and His watch care over His cause. That experience has given me great confidence in God's care over His work in the earth.

Time and space make no difference in God's attitude toward His children and His work. North Dakota has been hard hit and we have all felt it. In spite of a shortage of funds we have tried to carry on in a strong, aggressive way and the Lord has blessed our endeavors. We rejoice over the success of our evangelistic but there has been a loss in our operating of $2,000 for the first eight months of this year. This has caused us great concern. We have prayed most earnestly over this matter. Last Friday, October 1, I received a letter from a brother containing a check of $1,000 tithe. I read the letter and the check several times to make sure that I was not dreaming. But sure enough, there was the amount, $1,000. When I gave the check to the treasurer he exclaimed "God bless the man who has sent this money at this time." The treasurer, knowing our situation as he does, could not help but feel that God had come to our help. Just a little later on that same Friday forenoon the treasurer came to me and said, "We have a surprise." I thought it strange that he should tell me about the surprise when I had known about it before he did, but he assured me that it was another surprise, and he soon convinced me that another person, a sister in Fargo, had turned in $1,025 tithe.

The Lord does hear prayer. He knows the needs of His cause and we praise His name for His goodness.

Yesterday a check of $150 was received from two sisters. This was also tithe, one sister paying $100 and the other $50.

What the Lord looks upon in the matter of tithing is faithfulness. We read in I Corinthians 4:2, "Moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." We should be faithful not only in large amounts but in the small amounts. The tithe is the Lord's whether it is large or small.

People are never too poor to pay tithe. Jacob possessed nothing of this world's goods when he vowed to pay a tenth unto the Lord. He said he would surely pay a tenth unto the Lord if the Lord would give him "bread to eat and raiment to put on." Gen. 28:20-22. The Lord blessed the faithfulness of Jacob and He will do the same thing today.

If all who are members of the great Advent movement were faithful in the matter of bringing a full tithe into the Lord's storehouse, there would be no shortage of means and we would be able to meet all existing needs of the work.

"If professing Christians would faithfully bring to God their tithes and offerings, His treasury would be full." "Acts of the Apostles," page 338.

"Should means flow into the treasury exactly according to God's plan, a tenth of all the increase, there would be abundance to carry forward His work."—"Testimonies," Vol. V. page 150.

God does hear prayer. We can fully trust Him, and we are definitely planning to carry on strong, aggressive evangelistic work. Brethren and sisters, let us be faithful in bringing in a full tithe. God will not forsake us; if we move forward in faith He will add His blessing.

D. N. Wall.

The Effort At Kathryn

On Sabbath, October 2, baptism was conducted at Lisbon. Four candidates were immersed, and one was received into fellowship on profession of faith. These five new members will unite with the Kathryn company and are the first-fruits of the public meetings held in that village this summer.

Kathryn is a solid Norwegian—Northern community. The Advent Message has never before been proclaimed there. Our work in the town was much opposed. A petition requesting our immediate departure was circulated and received sixty-six signatures. Prejudice seemed to arise particularly against the Sabbath truth and with regard to our position on liquor. Mob violence was threatened, and many talked of putting us in jail.

The Lord has overruled the forces that would thwart our work. Besides these new members, several others are considering seriously their relationship to the message. One lady who has been in the beer business is making arrangements which will enable her to become a member of the church.

With continued work in the vicinity we are confident that several others will unite with us, and that ultimately it will be possible to organize a church there.

Our three families within attending distance of the meetings, have given us their most loyal and consecrated cooperation. It has been a real inspiration to work with them. Others of our people from adjacent towns have given us freely of their services and prayers. Again it is demonstrated that the consistent Christian lives of our people are the mightiest argument for the truth.

Brother T. R. Torkelson, recently from Union College, has given himself unsparingly to the work. He has the confidence of the people and will continue to foster the interest in Kathryn throughout the winter. We are also indebted to Miss Olivia Harder and Sister A. H. Denning for their faithful services in making the musical aspect of the meetings a winning factor.

For the last part of the effort, at a time when we most needed help, Elder Wall and Brother Grau came to our assistance and presented some strong lectures which contributed materially to the success of the work.

We regret at this time that it becomes necessary for us to say goodbye to our many friends in North Dakota. We shall not soon forget the faithful cooperation and sincere helpfulness of many whom we have learned to know and love during the years of our sojourn in the state. We shall welcome all letters and personal visits from our North Dakota friends at our new location in South Dakota.

Welcome

In this world wide movement workers come and go. We form acquaintances and still more acquaintances with still more workers.

This time South Dakota is on the receiving end of the line. Elder J. H. Rhoads and family have just located in Watertown. Elder Rhoads is taking charge of the Missionary Volunteer and educational work of the conference. We welcome Elder and Mrs. Rhoads and the three boys to South Dakota.

Elder M. N. Skadsheim and family also came to South Dakota, and he is kept busy with pastoral work and Harvest Ingathering in Sioux Falls. He is looking for a suitable place on the East side for an effort.

The South Dakota Conference and the Sioux Falls District welcome Elder and Mrs. Skadsheim and the children to the South Dakota Conference.

News Items

Elder J. H. Roth met with the Swan Lake church Sabbath, October 2.

Professor A. L. Watt passed through Watertown one day last week with a load of three hundred bushels of potatoes for Plainview Academy.

Elder W. H. Hanhardt is at this writing assisting the members at Pierre in the Ingathering.

Brother Robert Brown, our Field Missionary Secretary, expects at least twelve or fifteen colporteurs in attendance at the institute at Aberdeen.

Will the church treasurers be so kind as to give any information promptly that clerks may call for, and thus make it possible for them to send their reports to the office promptly for the third quarter?

As you read these lines, the North and South Dakota colporteurs are in the midst of their institute. We trust that you will share the burden of these self-sacrificing workers and strengthen their hands by remembering them constantly in your prayers. The faithful colporteurs are doing a mighty work in fulfilling our Lord's commission, and in fitting themselves for the coming time of affliction and for heaven beyond. We do well in encouraging them in every way.

We are happy to report that the Watertown church is over the top on its Harvest Ingathering goal. The full amount is in the treasury but some of the members expect to continue to help make up the shortage on the district goal. Sister W. H. Hanhardt, the home missionary leader of the church, who led out in most of the Ingathering, deserves praise for the faithful work she has done. She had the cooperation of the church, which made it possible to reach the goal so soon.

“Harvest Ingathering over the top before Autumn Council” is the new slogan adopted by the conference workers. Last year we trailed until the last month, and then surprised every one by coming up from the rear to snatch the victory. This year we have a good start. At this writing, there is $7,100 reported. If everyone will call upon his nerve reserve, and put himself to the stretch, we are sure that Iowa can surprise the other conferences in the Northern Union by going over the top before the Autumn Council. It would bring joy to our hearts, and surely be a blessing to the work. Brethren, we are depending upon every member of every church, and that includes the isolated members of the conference church, to do his full share toward reaching the victory.

Temperance Signs: As you all know, the Signs of the Times have put out a special number know as the Temperance Edition. In comparison with the other conferences, Iowa wishes to stand with the leaders in promoting the sale of this splendid issue. Such articles as “John Barley-corn Comes Back,” “Shall I Drink?” “When you Drive, Don’t Drink,” “Slaves of the Cup,” and others that are at once informative and interesting, are included in this issue. They may be had for two cents each. Churches ought to order them by the hundred at least.

Union College: At the recent Union College board meeting it was voted to call for bids at once with the expectation of beginning work on the new Union College library building as soon as sufficient funds are in hand. This means that all who have made pledges to the Union College Library Fund should pay them soon. Many have intimated that when building operations commenced they would be happy to contribute liberally. We are depending upon these also to come forward with their contributions. The pledges and donations are to go through the local church treasurers’ hands, being marked “Union College Library Fund.”

Des Moines Philadelphia: Our believers, near and far, are invited to attend the dedication of the Des Moines Philadelphia church building, which is to take place Sabbath, October 9. The ceremonies begin on Thursday, October 7, with meetings each evening through the 10th. The church is to be dedicated free from debt.

Oak Park Academy: It was a real pleasure recently to speak to the young people at their Friday night worship hour. We believe that this year’s group is a superior gathering of fine young people. The academy is a bee-hive of activity. The farm, the print shop, and the broom factory are all busily occupied. Everybody is happy, and things are running smoothly.

No. 44 The Holy Spirit and Pentecostalism, The Work of the Holy Spirit, Tongues, Must We Have Them? Pentecostalism and the Gift of Tongues, Bible Study.

We are nearing the end of the excellent Series of Present Truth for 1937. The selection of topics is fortunate. There has been emphasis on the signs of the times, and the second coming of Christ, the Sabbath, and the nature of man.

Why not send this good series to some of your friends? Subscriptions entered now will begin with the first issue of the year, and the papers will be mailed semi-monthly for the next twelve months. The entire series of 24 numbers is only 35 cents, three subscriptions for $1. (In the District of Columbia, Canada and foreign, 60 cents each). Send orders to Book and Bible House.

November Life And Health

For your protection know the answers to these ten questions:

1. What is the best method of controlling fevers?
2. Are a few minutes of beauty sleep a safe substitute for breakfast for those who wish to reduce?
3. How do you get a sore throat, and what should you do for it?
4. What are the common causes and rational means of reducing high blood pressure?
5. How was the American public recently relieved of approximately a million dollars by eyesight swindlers?
6. Is "athlete's foot confined to the feet, and what are some simple preventive measures?"
7. What is "the human mill," and what keeps it running smoothly?
8. What is "malocclusion" and what should be done about it?
9. Is protracted fasting beneficial?
10. Why are soups so important a part of the diet?

Life and Health for November now ready for mailing, answers the above questions. Single copies are 10 cents, yearly subscriptions $1. Special to Seventh-day Adventists only 60 cents. (Add 35 cents for each yearly subscription in countries requiring extra postage.) There is a liberal commission for those who are accepted as Life and Health agents. Order for yourself and friends from your Book and Bible House.

Now Ready

A new number of the "Health Builder Series". It discusses in simple, plain language, the painful maladies, Rheumatism and Arthritis; and that is the title.

The doctor tells you the causes of these maladies, advises regarding the treatments which should be given, and outlines a diet which has helped many in their struggle to regain health. Remember: the majority of such cases can be cured.

The price of this booklet is only ten cents postpaid. Order from your Book and Bible house.

Obituary

Hutchecraft.— Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchecraft was born October 21, 1844, at Galena, Illinois, and died August 19, 1937, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Her husband preceded her in death in 1918. Mrs. Hutchecraft was for many years active in church work in the Cedar Rapids church, until ill health forced her to become a member of the home department. Her hope in the resurrection was steadfast until death.

She was buried in Oak Hill Cemetery in Cedar Rapids.
