An Important Notice

In the Northern Union Outlook issue February 8, 1938, a request was made by the writer for all who can attribute their contact with the message to the colporteur work, either in person or through books sold, to please mail a card to the undersigned at the office of the Northern Union Conference, 2718 Third Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minnesota. Thus far a number of names have come in, but there must be many more. If you know yourself to be in the class, I will greatly appreciate it if you will drop me a card today. Thank you.

Union College News Items

Elder K. L. Gant, educational secretary of the Northern Union Conference, visited at the college, February 7 and 8.

In honor of Mrs. M. L. Andreasen, open house was held from two to four o'clock Sunday afternoon, February 13.

Elder J. A. Tucker, educational superintendent of the Iowa Conference, recently interviewed prospective school teachers at the college.

G. D. Hagstotz has accepted an invitation to contribute to the Dictionary of American History to be published by Charles Scribners Sons.

H. K. Schilling returned February 7 from Walla Walla, Washington, where he had gone on a business trip. While there he visited with his brother, Fredrick Schilling, dean of the school of theology at Walla Walla College.

The freshman class elected Ross Rice from Iowa as its president to take Edward Gammon's place. Mr. Gammon is now the field representative of the Capital City Book Bindery.

President M. L. Andreasen returned from Washington, D. C., February 7. He has been conducting a series of lectures on theology at the theological seminary located there. Elder E. L. Pingnot, Pastor of the College View church, also returned after having attended the seminary for a nine weeks' period of study.

Dr. W. H. Emery, director of the college health service, visited Enterprise Academy, Enterprise, Kansas February 6 to 8 to conduct a health clinic for the 175 students enrolled in the school. The following nurses accompanied and assisted him: Mrs. Peter Jarnes, Miss Alma Binder, and Mrs. W. H. Emery.

In the reorganization of the senior class for the second semester the following students were elected officers: Cree Sandefur from Texas, president; Lucille Roderick from Iowa, vice-president; Margaret Johnson from Pennsylvania, secretary; Kurt Kurz from Stuttgart, Germany, treasurer; Otto Christensen from Mongolia, class pastor; Lucille Sherrig from Nebraska committee member. Mr. Frank L. Marsh, assistant professor of biology, remains the class sponsor.

The King's Daughters' League and Kappa Theta, two of the girls' clubs of Union College, reorganized recently and elected officers for the second semester. The former, an organization of junior and senior girls, elected Mildred Priest, president; Jane Wensel, vice-president; and Lucille Rodrick, secretary. The latter, an organization of all the girls of North Hall, elected Ruth Nelson, president; Esther Kunau, vice-president; Lillian Lane, secretary; and June Kindgren, critic. Those on the program committee are Helen Mattson, Madge Davis, and Louella Walker.

Cedar Rapids Convention

We should like to notify the churches, companies, and isolated believers, in the vicinity of Cedar Rapids, that the conference is planning a church officers' convention at that place, Sabbath, February 26. Sabbath school will start at 9:30 A.M. and meetings will continue throughout the day.

bring your lunch and plan to stay all day.

We would especially invite, Waterloo, Hawkeye, Dubuque, Iowa City, Vinton, Davenport, Muscatine, Belle Plaine, Marshalltown, Urbana, Waukon, Village Creek, Wellman and Clinton.

The conference workers will be present and we plan for a good meeting with all of our believers of this section.

Institutional Relief Symposium

"God has favored Iowa in giving us the blessing of three fine institutions, to serve us. The sanitarium, and the academy, at Nevada, and the college, at Lincoln, have all had their part in building the work in our field. They are still at the job.

"Now, these institutions which are ours, do not come to us and make an earnest appeal for something they do not need, but, rather, they appeal to us for assistance in providing essentials. The dates, February 19 to April 2 will provide a real opportunity to say 'Thank you', with dollars. Will you respond, and do your part?"

A. J. Gordon.

"This people has always been noted for its faithfulness. From the time of the inception of this message, every forward step in the steady progress of this movement has been at the expense of faithful Seventh-day Adventist sacrifice. It requires no special study of denominational history to know the lowly beginnings of every department of our work. And now, we must not suffer this tradition, inspired by God as it has been, to be broken.

"At this time the call for special help for our institutions is given. We must needs maintain the spirit enunciated in Psalms 89:33 where, in speaking of God's care for the church, we read, 'Nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.' I believe this people will respond to this call in the same way our early pioneers responded. I realize, too, that it will mean very definite sacrifice on the part of many. It did in the days gone by, yet God blessed that sacrifice. If we go to Him in prayer, and lay before Him our problems of financing a contribution to the Institutional Relief fund, I know He will not suffer our faithfulness to fail." W. A. Howe.

"Only Eternity can tell the good that is being accomplished by our institutions. Our schools are not only doing a great work in saving the young people, but they are turning out men and women who are prepared to join the Lord's army and to help in carrying the third angel's message to all the world in this generation. Furthermore, the work that is being done by the sanitarium is certainly a credit to the Iowa conference.

"Now that we have a financial crisis in these institutions, we must all get under the load and do our part to raise the amount which is so much needed at present. I have been in District No. 2 long enough to know that the people here will respond and do their share in whatever is to be done. By everyone helping, this money can soon be raised."

Glenn Fillman.

"DIVINE ADMONITION. In our program of Institutional Relief we can do no better than to follow the directions of the servant of God to His people. The Lord wants His people in these days to BELIEVE that HE will do AS GREAT THINGS for them as He did for the children of Israel in their journey from Egypt to Canaan. We are to have an educated faith that will NOT hesitate to follow His instructions in the most difficult experiences. 'GO FORWARD' is the command of God to His people, in the Testimonies, Vol. IX p 271."

G. H. Boehrig.

"By the sale of the books, 'Christ's Object Lessons' and 'Ministry of Healing' everyone may have a part in helping our schools and sanitarium. Here is an opportunity for our sisters, busy as they may be. It takes but a few minutes to show the book to a neighbor in her home, or when she happens to step into your home. Perhaps you could get the meter-reader or the groceryman to stop and look at it and give you an order. Dorcas societies could have copies for sale in connection with their bake or rummage sales. Thus, we may be a blessing and, in turn, be blessed ourselves."

Ruby L. McSparran.

"Believing that it is in the providence of God that schools and sanitariums have been established among us, I am glad to join with our leaders and co-laborers in promoting the principles and welfare of these institutions, by giving a part of my time and means that they may accomplish the object for which they were erected.

"It was a real inspiration for me to meet with so many of our Iowa young people at an academy Friday evening service, during the recent Iowa workers' meeting. Many more ought to be there that they might be sheltered from the sophistries and allurements so prevalent in worldly schools.

"Likewise, it was a pleasure to meet with the sanitarium family and to learn more of the work they are doing in caring for the sick, as well as becoming acquainted with their needs.

"Both of these institutions are working earnestly to uphold the principles of this denomination. Our constituency in Iowa should take a special interest in these institutions and work for their advancement. They need our support. Improvements and repairs are needed in both places. All the sanitariums I have seen in China are in better condition than the Iowa Sanitarium. We must not permit the home base to run down. And, just now, there is a need for God's people in Iowa to come to the support of these institutions, that they may rightly represent the cause. Let us all do our part and carry out the plan outlined by the leaders." Bernhard Petersen.

"Once upon a time there was a very prosperous state called Iowa. Mother nature was very kind to this State in that she provided an abundance of all that makes for the happiness of its citizens. Sharing in this abundance was a group of people called Seventh-day Adventists. These people were loyal to their God in Christian service and the financial support of God's program, at home and abroad. The spirit of sacrifice enabled these people to build and maintain for years an academy where their sons and daughters might receive a Christian education.

"When the roll is finally called by God, many of Iowa's sons and daughters will respond 'Present'. This same splendid spirit of sacrifice built and equipped a sanitarium where sick folks could come for physical restoration. The godly lives of the medical staff have introduced many a sin-sick soul to the great Physician, where the cancer of sin can be cured.

"Now, after many years of splendid service, these institutions are in financial need, that they may continue to fulfil their divinely intended service for God and man. Equipment does wear out and must be replaced by new. Buildings in constant service for years, need repairs.

"The SOS Call Is Sounding."

C. H. Miller.

"The words, Institutional Relief, definitely indicate need. The need in this particular case is one in which each of God's people in Iowa, can materially assist in relieving. In order that we might aid in this cause, we will have to do some planning or changing of some personal plans. I am convinced that everyone in District No. 3 can be counted on to do his share.

"The amount is not so much per person. Let us determine, by the Lord's help, to render a true service of love for the institutions of the Lord at this time."—R. T. Minesinger.

"An enthusiastic meeting was held, during the recent workers' convention, the topic discussed was Institutional Relief. Institutional Relief is a plan set forth to meet our obligation in the new library building at Union College, and to relieve some of the burdens of the Iowa Sanitarium and Oak Park Academy.

"The workers, in a tangible way, expressed their enthusiasm, by raising a goodly sum toward the campaign, to be launched February 19. We believe the conference constituency will be just as enthusiastic when the relief plan is explained to you, and that you will do your part."—A. L. Miller.

Oak Park Academy News Items

James Carter, who has been working in the print shop, has gone to Lincoln, to work at the Union College Press. We wish him success.

Elder Gant, union Conference educational secretary, visited the academy on Wednesday, February 9. He spoke to the students during the chapel period. We hope he will come again.

Devotional services are held every Friday evening. The sophmores are now furnishing the special music for these meetings. At these services all of the students unite in a deeper consecration to God. We feel this is an important part of a Christian education.

Spring is in the air, and with it comes baseball and other outdoor activities. A committee is in action to see that the recreational periods are organized. On the committee are Mr. Bieber, chairman, Mr. Robertson, Miss Bartel, Bob Westerbeck, Ingrid Anderson, Lotus Perkins, and Bob Kingland.

Saturday night was entertainment evening. An interesting and very profitable evening was spent with Brayton Eddy from Detroit, Michigan. His lecture was about insects, snakes, and mammals, and was accompanied by moving pictures. His experiences in operating an insect zoo were very unusual. Though the girls shivered and the boys laughed, the lecture of the "bug-man" was a delight.

School Library.—The library is very important to students in preparing lessons; therefore, it is essential that it should make progress. We are proud of the library and glad to report the arrival of some new books.

New books that are especially interesting are,—"North to the Orient," by Anne Morrow, Lindberg; Emily Post's "Etiquette"; and "How to Win and Influence People," by Dale Carnegie. Besides other new books, we have a new unabridged Webster's dictionary.

The library is a living center of the school. Figures show that 5,863 books and 1,230 magazines were in circulation during the first semester.

On the average, forty-five books and ten magazines were at least partly read by each student in four and one-half months. While this is fairly good, we are waiting for a better report next semester.

The seniors are busy with their plans for graduation. Though they have not done anything special recently, they have some definite plans in preparation.

Mr. O. Huston of Hampton, Iowa, is at the academy while doing some painting for the school.

Iowa Sanitarium News Items

Academy students submitting to tonsillectomies last week were, Carollene Hobein, of St. Louis, Missouri; Robert and Louise Westerbeck of Burlington, Iowa; Harold Wernick of Lake City, Iowa; and Violet Hansen of Sioux Rapids, Iowa.

Recent registrants at the sanitarium are Mrs. Andrew Sesker, Cambridge, Iowa; William Hunt, Nevada, Iowa; Richard Stork, Cambridge, Iowa; and Mrs. Oren Thompson, Jefferson, Iowa.

Miss Ruby Barnett, R. N. and Mrs. Mayme Mahl have been spending considerable time with the McCallsburg public schools in the interest of health.

Another Church Building

McLaughlin, South Dakota, is in the very heart of the drouth district in the Dakotas, yet our brethren there felt the need for their own house of worship. After consulting with officers of the conference, they purchased a building and converted it into a neat little church which will soon be dedicated, free from debt. Brother Carl Braun is starting an effort, February 20. We hope that new additions will be made to the church there through this effort.

A Christian Temperance Program

The Aberdeen church and church school united in giving a temperance program in the Y.M.C.A. auditorium, Saturday evening, February 12. Mrs.

E. P. Kemper, and Miss Florence Unterseher, the church school teacher, led out in the program. The hall was nicely filled by our own people and other interested listeners. The program impressed the audience with the disastrous influences of alcohol upon society. An appeal for abstinence from alcoholic drink was made by songs, readings, dialogues, and temperance talks. Several times the audience was deeply moved as scenes were enacted to represent the drunkard's home; then again as the scenes changed to a pleasant Christian home, one could see the audience react against King Alcohol. The program was a great success and Mrs. Kemper and Miss Unterseher are to be congratulated on this noble work in behalf of Christian temperance. Our young people's societies and our churches everywhere would do well to emulate the young people and the church of Aberdeen in this work in behalf of Christian temperance.

The Public Reads

The Moberge church supplies the public library with a subscription each of the Signs of the Times, Liberty, and the Watchman Magazine. The library also has on its shelves a "Daniel and Revelation" and a "Bible Readings for the Home Circle." Our magazines and books are in such demand that the librarian, in speaking to one of our brethren, asked to purchase the "Conflict Series", trade edition, for that library. The elder of the church, upon consulting with his board, offered to pay for the "Conflict Series" for the public library, but the librarian declined this offer and purchased the entire set of Sister White's books.

The literature of this people is in demand. Everywhere it finds interested and ready readers, no matter where we place it. Would it not be a good plan for all of our churches to approach their public libraries in the effort to not only place such magazines as the SIGNS OF THE TIMES, WATCHMAN, and the LIBERTY, in them, but also some of our larger books?

Delpha Hagele is recovering nicely from an operation for appendicitis which she underwent, February 2.

The village folk presented an interesting program in the dining room, Saturday night, February 12. Delicious refreshments were served after the program.

Evelyn and Herbert Hohensee, Janette and Paul Kemper, Clarice Wills, Leone Duffloth, and Walter Stotz spent a pleasant week-end at their respective homes, February 11-13.

We are always glad to have conference workers stop at the school whenever they have the opportunity. Elder Roth stopped at the academy between trains, February 13, enroute to Lincoln.

Mr. I. E. Smith and son, Oris, of Madison, South Dakota, spent a few hours at the school, February 14. Mr. Smith brought his daughter, Emogene, back to school after she had spent a week at home.

The Lord is blessing in the operation of our dairy. Our cows are doing very well in milk production, and our milk sales for the last month have probably been the highest in the history of the dairy.

The January Tithe

The tithe for the month of January has come in very encouragingly, which leads us to believe that the work of God need not stop on account of drouth or other perplexing conditions. As long as we are faithful to our Lord in giving Him His own, He will see to it that the work need not languish through lack of funds.

The Waterville Effort

Several months ago the members of the Faribault church faithfully visited with literature the homes of people living in and around Waterville, Minnesota. Brother B. O. Engen also sold books in that neighborhood and quite an interest was created. The brethren then began calling for help. They appealed to the conference to send them a minister to hold an evangelistic effort in Waterville.

Brother H. V. Reed and wife were asked by the conference to move to Waterville and foster the interest in that locality. They rented rooms there and have moved in. They were fortunate in being able to secure a hall in which to hold an evangelistic effort, for which they are now preparing and getting out their advertising matter, expecting to begin the effort on Sunday evening, February 27. We earnestly solicit your prayers in behalf of the Waterville effort.

Union College. The Minnesota Conference has a fine group of students in the college this year. We have more students in Union College than any other conference in either the Northern or Central Union Conferences. Our churches in the conference are rallying to aid the new library. Has your church reached its Library Fund goal?

The Colporteur Work. We can rightly look with pride on the work of our noble colporteurs. They are a fine group of workers. Eight of them are on the honor roll this week. Minnesota is a good field in which to canvass. If you do not believe it, just try it.

The SIGNS campaign is getting an early start and reports are coming in finely. Elder Hiatt reports that Princeton and Brooklyn Center have gone considerably beyond their goal. He plans to soon have a 1938 club at Bethel also.

Elder J. W. Christian writes, "I love this kind of work. Stewartville has doubled last year's club and we also have our goal at Rochester. We hope to send in cheering reports from all our churches in the district."

A card from Elder Guldbrandson reads "Dear Friends: Glad to report that Detroit Lakes took a club of 37 Signs, Middle River 12, and Thief River Falls 30. If it had not been for this terrible storm blocking all the roads we could have continued, but we will have to wait a while before finishing up."

Mankato reports a club of 60 Signs and Austin will renew their club of Signs Sabbath, February 19, so the Signs is a gain making an early and successful start. Please report Signs news to us and we'll pass it along.

Brother J. H. Hill who is using the projector with the film sermons writes: "I am getting along fine with my picture sermons. One night we showed the pictures in Kerrick and there were about 24 present. They let us have the school house and furnished the lights. One night in our church there were over thirty at the meeting and one man brought a pencil and paper to take down all the texts."

Mankato Convention

The churches of District No. 7, including the following churches: Austin, Albert Lea, Wells, Sherburne, Morgan, Pipestone, Fairmont, Mankato, Bath, and Good Thunder, met in a most profitable convention from February 11 to 13. The Mankato church was host to the delegates from these other churches, and the district was well represented in spite of the icy roads.

Elder V. E. Peugh acted as Chairman of the convention. The excellent help from Elders Oswald and Gerrard of the Northern Union conference, was greatly appreciated. The following conference officials were present: C. H. Lauda, B. S. Marshall, J. C. Christenson, C. G. Cross. It was a real blessing to receive the counsel from these men.

The first meeting of the convention was devoted to the local talent in the regular meeting of the Bible class and seminar. Fred Hanson of Austin, and Herman Thompson from Albert Lea were the seminar speakers. Both of these men have just recently accepted the truth, and their messages were greatly appreciated. After the Bible class and seminar, the time was devoted to the discussion of lay evangelism. As Sabbath school began Sabbath morning, the church was filled. Delegates had come from as far as eighty and ninety miles. The eleven o'clock hour was one of the highlights of the convention. Elder Oswald spoke on the subject of "Christian Service". All hearts were touched and the Spirit of God was very near. Sabbath afternoon the convention hour was 2:30 and it continued until 4:30. Practical church questions and problems of Christian living were discussed. Sabbath evening the church was filled again, as Brother Lauda led out in a discussion of the young people's work. The convention was continued Sunday morning at 10:00. A radio was installed in the church through the courtesy of one of the radio shops in the city, and from 10:00 to 10:30 the convention in session listened to "The Voice of Prophecy" broadcast conducted by the writer who is also leader of the district. The church was well filled on Sunday morning, and also in the afternoon session from 2:30 to 5:00. The final meeting was held on Sunday evening, when the church was filled to its capacity, as people listened eagerly to the missionary experiences of Elder V. E. Peugh. He told of his personal experiences among the savages of the Amazon region.

Brother Marshall had a display of literature, and the people appreciated having this opportunity to look over some of the wonderful literature that we have. They showed their appreciation in a very definite way by purchasing $92.00 worth.

The Fargo District

The "Visit-One Movement" is being observed by various Fargo members, who are receiving a blessing as they try to visit a sick or confined member each week. The Fargo Dorcas Society continues to lead out in this district in its excellent work, which made it possible for the Fargo church to order 48 subscriptions to the Liberty magazine.

Valley City is going forward in its plans to have a church school next fall, the Lord willing. A new choir, composed mainly of students who are attending the local State Teachers College, is giving real pleasure in enhancing our church services. The baptismal class is attended also by older members in the truth. Elder Wall's presence here recently to conduct the Lord's ordinances was greatly appreciated.

In Lisbon, the faithful members are already distributing the new "Voice of Prophecy" tracts, which they hope and pray will aid in bringing souls to God's cause. A new Junior M. V. Society was also organized there.

At Kathryn, Brother Torkelson had the great joy of seeing a new family keep its first Sabbath. A new Dorcas Society was organized in Kathryn on February 2, which will be a great help in that community.

The weather has been quite cold during the last few days, but the new stoker has kept us comfortably warm. Already sixteen carloads of coal have been bought by the academy this year.

The senior class, consisting of twenty-six members, has been organized. Four more members will qualify in the near future. The officers of the class are as follows: president, Gideon Haas; vice-president, Eileen Engeborg; treasurer, Ernest Herr, secretary, Anna Litvin.

A very profitable home missionary convention was conducted here by Elders Reiner and Loewen, February 11-14. The student body and teachers enjoyed the wonderful counsel given by these brethren with reference to soul-winning work. We can expect great things from the results of this convention. A Bible training class has been organized for the whole school and other missionary bands will be put into action as soon as the roads open up. The Dorcas society is very active. During the convention eight meetings were held, all of which were faithfully attended by students and teachers. Also a number of Bibles and books were sold.

Dorcas At Kathryn

The latest addition to the conference home missionary department is the newly-organized Dorcas society at Kathryn. Wednesday, February 2, to meeting was called for the ladies of the church, and plans were laid for an aggressive welfare program. Sister Grau, from Valley City, met with the group and assisted them in their organization, giving helpful suggestions for future work.

In numbers the society is not strong, but in spirit it is. There are only six charter members, including three junior girls; but there is promise for improvement and growth. Under the leadership of Sister C. H. Knutson, the society is starting out on a program of helpfulness that is sure to be a source of inspiration and encouragement; not only for needy ones, but also for the church.

Something New

One of the most beautifully illustrated books that I have seen in many a day has just come from the press. To slowly turn the pages and study the pictures of this new book, entitled "Our Wonderful Bible," impresses the mind with the grandeur and power of God.

I believe "Our Wonderful Bible" is a book we should sell to the general public. There is a definite need for it. Too many people neglect their Bibles today. They need something which will receive their interest in the work of God. This book is written for that purpose. Many, after reading it, will feel to say, "Truly the Bible is a most wonderful book, I must read it more."

The manner in which doctrinal subjects are presented, strongly appeals to me. Fundamental teachings of the Bible are woven into various chapters in a way that should not arouse prejudice. Such subjects as the "Law of God", the "State of the Dead", the "Resurrection," "Second Coming of Christ," "The 2300 Days," etc., are presented with simplicity, and the texts of scripture supporting the conclusion are always cited. So I am confident that as you place this inspiring volume in the homes of many people, you will arouse their interest in the Book of books, increase their confidence and trust in God, and create a desire in many hearts to know more about the truth found in "Our Wonderful Bible."

This is a subscription book and very moderately priced at $1.90 in the linen binding and $2.90 in a most attractive pebbled Keratol, with the usual colporteur discount.

OBITUARIES

Hill.—Mrs. Rose Hill was born at Cambria, Wisconsin, July 14, 1866, and died at her home at Redfield, South Dakota, September 18, 1937, age seventy-one years. Her girlhood years were spent at Battle Creek, Michigan, where she attended Battle Creek College, after which she served as Bible worker in the Wisconsin Conference. March 29, 1891, she was united in marriage to Mr. S. A. Hill of Boscobel, Wisconsin. Sister Hill was a sincere Christian, and was a devoted Seventh-day Adventist since ten years of age, when she was baptized and united with the Adventist church. She leaves to mourn, her husband, and four children: Almon Hill of Kimball, South Dakota; Mrs. Idoan Pierstine and O. F. Hill of Redfield, South Dakota; and C. N. Hill of Rapid City, South Dakota. The funeral service was conducted from the Plainview Academy chapel and interment was made in the Redfield cemetery.

Zytkoskee.—Adrian Edmund Zytkoskee was born near Genor, Wisconsin, June 17, 1870, and died at his home near Homer, Minnesota, February 9, 1938, following a heart attack. From earliest childhood his thoughts went out after God and things spiritual, and he early identified himself with the Seventh-day Adventist church, of which he was a constant and consistent member. He was firm in his convictions regarding matters of principle, desiring rather to be true than popular. This trait was ever in evidence and endeared him to those who looked to him for precept and example. Brother Zytkoskee spent several years in the colporteur work and later, by request, went to Washington, D. C. to work on the General Conference buildings when our General offices were located there. He greatly enjoyed his personal acquaintance with our leaders. He had words of commendation from Elders A. G. Daniels and W. T. Knox, for his faithful work. While in Washington, he married Miss Laura B. Tate, who preceded him in death. To this union were born three sons, Salisbury, who is teaching our church school at Red Wing and serving as local elder in that church; Tate, who was with his father when he passed away; while Gordon is attending Union College. These, with his five sisters and their families, were present for the services held in the little church so dear to him. Brother Zytkoskee was serving as elder, having been elected last December. A large number of other relatives and friends filled the church to near capacity. We commend our brother to the loving care of heaven's ministry, and we who are living rededicate our lives anew to service. We shall greatly miss our brother, but we could not wish him back in these days of trouble and perplexities. He rests in hope, and we shall carry on till our task is finished.

Townsend.—William Henry Townsend was born May 11, 1887 at LeSueur, Minnesota, and passed away to his rest at the Park View Hospital, Minneapolis, Minnesota, February 4, 1938. He was married to Lottie Eva LeBard on March 18, 1911. He is survived by his wife and son, William; three brothers, and many other relatives. Brother Townsend accepted present truth about a year ago, and remained faithful to the decision he made at that time. He rests in the blessed hope of meeting his loved ones again when Christ comes. May the Lord comfort his wife and son in their bereavement. Funeral services were conducted by the writer at Minneapolis, and interment took place at Anoka, Minnesota.

Livingston.—Raymond S. Livingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Livingston, was born near Park Rapids, Minnesota, March 3, 1914. He died in the Park Hospital at Mason City, Iowa, February 5, 1938. His death came as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident. This accident was unavoidable due to a heavy fog and icy roads. Raymond spent his boyhood in St. River Township, Hubbard County. He attended the country grade school and later Park Rapids High School and Maplewood Academy. At the time of his death he was employed at the Streverling Farms in Austin, Minnesota. He leaves to mourn, his mother and father; one sister, Mrs. Jake Terhark; and one foster brother, Willard; also his promised wife whom he was to have married on April 17. Numerous relatives also mourn his passing. Funeral services were conducted by the writer from the Frazee Funeral Home and also from the First Baptist Church, of Park Rapids, Minnesota. A large congregation of friends gathered at the funeral services. Burial was at Greenwood Cemetery in Park Rapids.

Petersen.—Henry R. Petersen was born November 29, 1871, in Green Bay, Wisconsin, and died December 26, 1937, at his farm home near Foley, Minnesota. He is survived by his wife, three sons, and one daughter. Two of the children are attending Christian schools. Brother Peterson was a member of the St. Cloud Seventh-day Adventist church at the time of his death.
