Missions Extension Fund

In approaching railroad crossings we notice the sign, "Stop, Look, Listen." The signal indicates danger. It serves as a warning against injury and death, but only those that pay attention and watch the sign carefully will be benefited by the warning. Others may see the signal, but fail to heed the warning. They rush on in their indifference and suffer the consequences.

The Lord has placed definite responsibility upon His people. They are watchmen on the walls of Zion. They must give the warning and leave it with the listener to either accept or reject. Thousands are rushing down the stream of time to destruction. Their attention may never have been called to the danger signal, and therefore God's people must endeavor to contact these dear souls before they suffer ruin.

We are rapidly approaching the time designated when special efforts are to be made in behalf of those not of our faith. The Missions Extension week is before us. Great opportunities are placed within our reach, and while it is true that means are being asked for, it is also true that literature has been provided which brings the danger signal to those who are not acquainted with God's word.

At the recent Fall Council the following action was taken, which we hope you will study prayerfully and do your best in providing means for the mission field:

"Whereas, The Missions Extension plan has now been in successful operation for the last seventeen years and has been the means of building, equipping, and assisting over 400 different projects, such as printing plants, dispensaries, and schools, which are now carrying on extensive work in the mission fields, many having become practically self-supporting; therefore,

We recommend, 1. That the Missions Extension Fund plan be continued in 1938 as an important feature of our world missions program.

2. That in North America the goal for the Missions Extension Fund Offering be $80,000, the offering to be taken on Sabbath, April 23, and that the church goals be based upon the average of $2.00 a member.

3. That the funds received from this offering be devoted to medical, educational, and publishing projects in foreign divisions, to be divided equally between maintenance and extension of work."

It was also voted that, "Conference and institutional workers and all lay members be asked to dedicate a day's income to the Missions Extension Fund Offering.

The official date for the offering to be received is April 23. Let us make this a subject of prayer, asking God to help us in determining what we should do to help finish His work in the earth.

E. H. Oswald.

Another Sermon Spoiled

A minister was speaking on the doctrine of world-wide evangelism. In conclusion he spoke of the duty of all to give for the spread of the gospel. A prominent and influential deacon said to him at the close of his discourse, "My brother, you gave us a good sermon today, but you spoiled the sermon by preaching about money."

If talking about money or giving spoils a sermon, then many a good sermon has been spoiled—yes, many a book in the Bible too. Moses talked about money so the books of Moses are spoiled. Nehemiah also talks about money, so does David in the Psalms, Isaiah, Malachi, Jesus, and all the apostles. What shall we do then with all of these spoiled sermons and books in the Bible? If we had such a narrowed-down vision in the world, most of the good sermons we will hear during the Missions Extension campaign would be spoiled for us. But we don't belong to such a group.

To a true child of God, the calls from world leaders, from our brethren in mission lands, and the calls from a lost world are the calls of God. Eagerly and gladly does he listen to the sermons which climax in an appeal. Joyfully does he give of his means that these many calls may be answered. Who would want a religion without a cross or a message without an appeal for sacrifice? The advent message calls for men, means, and sacrifice. Others paid the price. We must also.

Let us read every article in the OUTLOOK and pray God to give us anew the spirit of the Master as we launch out in another effort to extend the message a little farther.

The 1938 Missions Extension campaign will be a success again. Let us pray for it and support it again as we have every year since it was first started.

D. E. Reiner.

The Reaper Return

Can you see them coming?—a long unbroken line of Christians extending to the farthest outpost of a lost world, marching toward home, our Father's home. What a gathering that will be! We must see ourselves in that line. Provision has been made for us and the promise is sure.

Jesus saw them coming. "And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God." That's the picture we should ever keep before our mind's eye, when the way seems long and the work hard. Who will regret then that he sacrificed and toiled along faithfully. Heaven is cheap enough at any cost. Our faces are set that way. We must not grow weary.

On April 23 we will again give an expression of our hope, and demonstrate very materially that our hearts are still warm toward those who are yet looking for the light but have not found it. On this day we—yes, every Christian—will place into God's treasury a small mite to build up and maintain the institutions which have so signally blessed in every land in the salvation of men.

No one need hurt himself—no one is forced to it, but we are all asked and urged to do our little part. If everyone will share a little of that which he has or can earn, or even save, our Missions Extension goals will be reached and we can go about our other work.

We need to keep our vision clear and our hearts firmly set or else we will find our feet slipping back. "Onward still onward is our watchword."

Are You "Missing?"

Every battle has casualties, dead, wounded, and "missing." The dead are buried, the wounded tenderly cared for, but the "MISSING"——. They may be dead; they may be prisoners; and they may be deserters,—traitors.

In the North American Division there are more than forty-five thousand church members "MISSING" from Sabbath school membership, and each of the 2,486 churches contributes a part of this army of Sabbath school absentees. Incalculable loss is being suffered by each of these forty-five thousand church members "MISSING" away from the Sabbath school's sheltering fold, endangered by wolves and spiritual cold, they wander and stumble on into the night, blind to their peril and shorn of their might.

God's plan includes every believer and the children in the Sabbath school. "Gather the infants with lisping lips, the youth and the aged, and set them to the task of solving mysteries which have not been comprehended by the wise men of earth, although possessed of giant minds. The weighty truth of God's word are for those who are humble and willing to learn at the feet of the Divine Teacher. Jesus rejoiced in spirit because of this fact, and said, 'I thank Thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because Thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Even so, Father; for so it seemed good in Thy sight.'"—Testimonies on Sabbath School Work." p. 31. "The Sabbath school work is important, and all who are interested in the truth should endeavor to make it prosperous."—"Testimonies," Vol. V, p. 127.

The Sabbath school saves the children, grounds the youth in the truth, and confirms old and young in the "blessed hope." To be absent continuously from this vitally important weekly Bible study service, is to invite spiritual ruin, spiritual darkness, and spiritual coldness. These dangers threaten the "MISSING" of the Sabbath school fold.

Celebrating the Sixtieth Anniversary of the organization of the General Conference Sabbath School Department, an endeavor to enroll all "MISSING" members was launched, Sabbath, March 5.

Brother, sister, become a member of the Sabbath school, and prepare for the Sabbath school in the earth made new.

J. A. Stevens, Sec.
Gen. Con. Sab. School Dept.

Watchman Appreciated

Librarians everywhere speak very highly of the WATCHMAN. They tell us that business men, lecturers, ministers, and high school students use it more freely than any other religious magazine on the shelves with the exception of the SIGNS.

Our magazines carry the news of the day and give their meaning and import in the light of prophecy. Who, today, is not thinking about the future? Who is not anxious to know the meaning of great world events? Men can't even wait for the daily newspapers to give the news. They tune in every hour to hear the latest thing over the radio. Newspaper reporters call up men over the telephone to get their views on the world events and print them in the dailies.

Surely our literature contains the message for such a time as this. Let us give the WATCHMAN the largest circulation it has ever enjoyed.

Missions Extension Fund

Upon my return from the promotion meeting in Minneapolis, I am impressed to write a few lines concerning a very important matter that was given much thought and consideration at this meeting.

We have again arrived at the time of the year when the Missions Extension or Big Week plan demands our undivided attention. Our leading brethren feel that we have come to a very crucial hour in the advent movement and we must make advance steps in the onward progress of the third angel's message. The times in which we live are very strenuous and serious. Just a few days ago we were informed by the General Conference of the urgent needs for larger appropriations to the world field. This is almost an emergency situation and we must not fail in our part to continue to supply the mission treasury with needed funds to maintain the world-wide missionary program. Great changes of far-reaching consequence are taking place almost overnight. New demands are constantly being made on our General Conference funds which must be met with larger plans, calling for more earnest effort on the part of God's people for greater sacrifice.

This is the situation that the mission board is facing as we launch the 1938 Missions Extension effort. It is again suggested that our individual goal be set at $2.00 per member. This has been the goal for a number of years and we are always making plans to reach that amount. Surely no one will say that this is too much to expect. Our people always respond to any suggestion that has to do with the finishing of the work of God in all the world.

There are some who have asked how they can earn their $2.00 offering for Missions Extension this year. We would answer, "By selling our literature." We find there is a general sentiment in the field for a return to the Big Week in large literature sales, and believe we have approached nearer that objective this year than we have for several years. Our Pacific Press Publishing house has prepared another set of two books for this occasion, and we hope our people in South Dakota will come right forward and order their supply of these books through the church missionary secretary in time so you can have your offering ready on Victory Day, April 23. The books suggested are entitled, "Feet of Clay" by Gwynne Dalrymple, and "Health at Home" by Arthur N. Donaldson, M. D.

Let us make this a real literature week. In this way we will multiply our contacts with neighbors and friends, informing them of the events that are being fulfilled according to prophetic utterance. These books are filled with up-to-date information and explain the time in which we live. This Big Week effort demands our best.

Elders J. H. Roth, A. V. Rhoads, and J. H. Rhoads, met in Redfield with Professor Watt Sunday and Monday, April 10 and 11, to consider various matters concerning the academy.

Elder and Mrs. Calvin D. Smith report that another Indian family has accepted the Sabbath truth. Our great need among the Indian people at this time is a few church buildings. The work is growing fast, and we hope that ways and means can be found by which places of worship for these people may be provided.

Elder E. R. Lauda and family are conducting an effort at Chamberlain, South Dakota, in the Methodist church. The opening night was Saturday, April 16. We invite all of our people in the vicinity of Chamberlain to visit this effort occasionally, and pray for its success. Elder W. H. Handardt is spending some time with Elder Lauda in connection with this effort.

Our isolated people are sending in their faithful tithe. One sister asked the question recently as to whether it is Biblical to pay tithe on income other than cash. Perhaps there are others who have a question on this point. In olden times Israel paid tithe in kind only. They probably never had cash, and the instructions in the book of Leviticus are that all the tithe belongs unto the Lord, whether of the seed of the land or of the herd or of the flock. So it appears clear that tithe should be paid in kind where necessary as well as in cash.

The Redfield Academy church ordered approximately one hundred sets of BIG WEEK books. The Huron church came in with the next largest order. Others are coming in fast.

As you know, the two books being used for BIG WEEK this year are: "Feet of Clay", a book which pictures with startling reality the present international situation, pointing so surely to the prophetic fulfillment that will usher in the coming of Christ; and "Health at Home and How to Obtain It".

Elder J. H. Rhoads was in Sioux Falls Thursday, April 8, in the interest of the church school. He remained with the church over the Sabbath, conducting the ordinances at the morning service.

Elder J. H. Rhoads was with the Sioux Falls church Thursday evening, April 7, in the interest of church school plans. He remained with the church over the Sabbath and conducted the ordinances with them.

Brother Carl Braun's effort is being well attended. On Thursday night it was very cold, yet there were seventy-two people in the little church building.

Sabbath, April 9, a baptismal service was conducted at Plainview Academy. Elder J. H. Rhoads spent Sunday in Redfield in the interest of the academy and church school. We are sure our brethren are turning toward our school with their thoughts and prayers.

Missions Extension

Every wage earner should be so thankful that he would willingly consecrate a day's earnings to the Missions Extension fund. How sorely is it needed? But a moments reflection will convince you that it is indeed high time we all made larger sacrifices that the work might hasten. The new books, "Feet of Clay" and "Health at Home" are especially timely. The set sells for only 50 cents. By selling eight sets the individual goal of $2.00 may be raised. Every Seventh-day Adventist home ought to have these books—yes, they ought to have such an interest in their neighbors that they will want them to have a set also. The date, April 23, is when the pledges and offering will be received. This year the General Conference hopes to raise at least $80,000. The Northern Union goal has been raised 50 per cent. That means Iowa's goal has been raised that much. We trust that everyone will not only be liberal on April 23, but, if they do not happen to have the amount of their goal, they will seriously consider the appeal and provide for it later.

DeWitt S. Osgood.

Iowa's Big Week Goal

2890	—	$5780.00	—	$2.00
2890	—	2890.00	—	1.00
2890	—	1445.00	—	.50
2890	—	723.00	—	.25
2890	—	000.00	—	.00

The Iowa Conference membership is 2890. The General Conference Big Week Missions Extension goal is $2.00 per member. If everyone were faithful and could give $2.00 we would have $5780.00. One dollar each would net $2890.00. And, if we could only realize 50 cents each, $1445.00 would be the result. If every member gave only 25 cents we would still have $723.00. But, if everyone gave nothing, the grand total would be nothing. I read a statement one time which said, "All that a man has to do to be lost, is nothing".

Here is a good way to get your Missions Extension offering. Eight books will cost $2.00 and $1.00 goes to the Missions Extension fund. Why not order at once and sell them to your neighbors and friends?

FEET OF CLAY.—In view of present world conditions, this is a most timely study of the prophecy of Daniel 2. Very interestingly written, it gives the answer to the thousands of inquiries as to what the future has in store. Men's hearts are truly failing them for looking after the things which are happening in the world. Here, from the word of God, is given the only true solution. 96 pages, paper covers, printed in two colors.

HEALTH AT HOME AND HOW TO OBTAIN IT.—This covers, in detail, the field of water treatments, also the use of heat lamps and direct sunshine, in the treatment of common diseases. It is one of the finest books on the use of hydrotherapy in the home, ever published. Every procedure is fully described. Specially posed illustrations make plain every step in the giving of home treatments. 96 pages, paper covers, printed in two colors.

Appointments

We are giving notice to our people that Elder D. E. Reiner, Home Missionary Secretary of the Northern Union Conference, will meet with the following churches on the dates given:

Davenport, Friday evening, April 22.

Cedar Rapids, Sabbath morning, April 23.

Iowa City, Sabbath afternoon, April 23.

Marshalltown, Sunday evening, April 24.

We trust that Elder Reiner will find a good attendance in each place as he meets with these people.

Special Notice

The Oak Park Academy Chorus will give programs at the following churches the week end of April 22-24:

Algona, 8:00 P. M. April 22

Terril, 10:00 A. M. April 23

Sioux City, 3:30 P. M. April 23

Ute, 8:00 P. M. April 23

Onawa, 10:30 A. M. April 24

Lake City 3:00 P. M. April 24

Exira, 7:30 P. M. April 24

All who are able to attend these programs are cordially invited by the school, for it may be that your son or daughter will be on the program; and, also, we know you are interested in Oak Park Academy.

Oak Park Academy News

Pastor D. S. Osgood spoke at vesper services Friday evening, April 8. His subject was "The Promise of God".

Mrs. L. C. Pennington and daughter, also Mrs. P. B. Leitner, were recent visitors at the academy.

Students of Oak Park raised thirty-seven dollars for the Institutional Relief Fund. We are proud to be able to have a part in this good work.

Recent visitors included Floyd Scott of Hinsdale, Illinois, and Robert Mason of Waterloo, Iowa, both former students of Oak Park; also

Mrs. Sam Hoyt and daughter, Ellen, of Sioux Rapids, Iowa.

A bit of news from our broom shop is that a gain of $150 was made last month. Student labor amounting to $200, was also put in during the last month. The average number of brooms made now is twenty dozen a day.

The M. V. work is active, especially the Master Comrade's class. They presented some of their accomplishments at the weekly M. V. meeting, Sabbath, April 9. The method of applying artificial respiration, and the different uses of the neckerchief, were shown us.

Pastor J. M. Kennedy and family, of the Presbyterian church of Nevada, were our guests at chapel exercises, Tuesday, April 5. He told us of the work his church is doing in the hills of North and South Carolina. We appreciated his visit.

Some new improvements have been made. A new gravel walk has been laid through the campus to the road and the boys' basement has been replastered. Also, lawns have been raked and windows washed, as part of our school spring housecleaning.

The junior and senior classes were entertained by their sponsors Thursday evening, March 31. Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Bieber entertained the seniors, and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Parker did likewise for the junior class. Games and refreshments together resulted in a very good time for everyone.

G. H. Boehrig of the Iowa Conference spoke at vesper service Friday evening, April 1. Sunday evening joint worship was held in the chapel, and J. M. Rowse, of the Pacific Press Publishing Association, spoke. He also spoke to us during chapel period on Monday, April 4.

The Literature Band is doing fine work. Colo, Iowa, has received much of their attention. One hundred eighty tracts have been distributed there. Results are good. Many have written their appreciation of literature sent and given. Last month's total number of papers was 1125. In addition the band takes care of the literature sent to those of the Radio Bible School who desire it. Lively interest is shown in this work.

Iowa Sanitarium News Items

A greater number of Seventh-day Adventists have availed themselves of the services of the sanitarium during the first quarter of 1938, than during the same period of 1937. The sanitarium greatly needs both the patronage and the prayers of our people.

Those submitting to major surgery this week were Mrs. M. N. Skadsheim; Mr. Lawrence Johnson of Story City; and Mr. Chas. Springer, Jr., of McCallsburg. Those having minor surgery were Martha Hlad and Willard Register of Nevada.

Mrs. Lawrence Reed of Redwood Falls, Minnesota, spent last week-end and several days this week looking after business matters in Nevada, also visiting with friends. Mrs. Reed will be remembered by her large circle of acquaintances, as Miss Esther Larsen who was connected with the sanitarium for many years.

Other recent registrants are Mrs. Anna B. Morphy, Grundy Center; Mr. Amos Allen, Maxwell; Mr. Paul M. Lindfelt, Des Moines; Mrs. Robert J. Campbell, Mrs. C. E. Ostrich, and Mrs. John D. Williams, all of Nevada. Miss Ruby McSparran, our Bible worker at Des Moines, brought her mother, Mrs. Arcey Nichols, to the sanitarium last Thursday for some special bone work. She has gotten along very well and was able to return to Des Moines today.

Next week-end another group of our people expect to take advantage of the special tonsil clinic rates.

We are Able

"Come over and help us," is the call that comes from China, India, Africa, and other parts of the world; to help them rebuild publishing houses, provide new nursing homes, build training schools in five other continents, and help to maintain sixteen institutions previously established through the Missions Extension Fund.

The 1938 budget set by the General Conference is $80,000. That sum appears large when we first look at it, but if each conference and church takes its part, it will not be difficult. Our goal is only $500 for North Dakota. Are we able to raise that much? Surely, we are able!

Every church member has a two-fold privilege this year in the Big Week. First, working for the salvation of others around about him with two new books just off the press, "Health at Home," and "Feet of Clay". Secondly, by selling eight sets or sixteen books, he will be able to make a profit of $2.00 and thus make his individual goal for the Missions Extension Fund. Eighty sets have already gone out from the office, and the secretary-treasurer sent a telegram the other day for another shipment. If you want to sell these two books to make your $2.00 send in your order now.

Brethren and sisters of North Dakota, let us take hold of this opportunity. Just think of it! Sixteen truth-filled books in the homes of the people and $2.00 for the mission fields. There is no one who cannot do that. More literature going out means more souls coming in.

George Loewen.

Baptism at Lisbon

Two more souls were buried in baptism Sabbath, March 26, as a result of the work at Kathryn, bringing the total additions to the membership there since the effort began, up to seven. This time it was two young men who took their stand for the truth. They, along with a young lady from Jamestown, were the three participants in a beautiful service held at Lisbon in the Baptist church Sabbath afternoon. Very appropriately, Elder Loewen, our young people's leader, officiated at the baptism.

This service was part of a two-day meeting and Sabbath School convention, a meeting which was jointly attended by the Kathryn and Lisbon companies. Sister Wall, our conference Sabbath school secretary, was chairman of the convention sessions; and all appreciated the helpful instruction given. Other workers present, besides the writer, were Elder Wall, Brother and Sister M. F. Grau, and Brother F. L. Burkhardt. Elder Wall preached the Sabbath morning sermon and also led out in the celebration of the ordinances in the afternoon. It was a time of spiritual refreshing for all who attended.

News Items

The Sabbath school convention held in Dickinson over the week end of April 8-10 was well attended. Our believers in Dickinson, a few years ago built a neat and representative church building. This church was filled on the Sabbath and we had a feast of good things. The messages brought to us by Elder E. H. Oswald on Friday evening and the Sabbath, were very timely and stirred the hearts of all present.

The meetings which have been conducted by Elder I. C. Schmidt in the new court house have been well attended and several interested people came to the evening service in the church.

On Monday, April 11, Elder and Mrs. Wall and Elder and Mrs. Schmidt visited Beach. They were very happy to meet Dr. Virgil Parrett and the nurses in the new hospital. They found Dr. Parrett and the nurses very busy. A large number of cars were parked in front and many people were in the waiting room. The hospital seems to be the center of activity in the town, and Elder Wall was glad to learn that Dr. Parrett is fast winning the confidence of the people and is building up a substantial practice. It is felt that the doctor's work, together with that of the nurses, will prove a great asset to the North Dakota Conference.

Missions Extension Success

A number of our workers are already sending in good reports of the success of the Missions Extension work in their part of the conference. For instance, I have an inspiring letter from Elder J. W. Christian, from which I will quote, as its inspiration is too good to keep to myself. He writes as follows:

"Dear Brother: We are glad to be in the Big Week or Missions Extension work again. I think there will be little doubt about reaching and going beyond the goal you have given us for this district. Of all years in our short life and service, this present year holds out to us greater assurance that the battle will not be long and that final deliverance from earth's turmoil will soon come. We should indeed be glad to exert ourselves greatly for the kingdom.

"You will be glad to know that Dodge Center has assumed its full quota by individual goals. It is interesting as we list the workers in the churches, to see their names go down as individually responsible. Our believers at Rochester already, yesterday (April 9), had handed in personal goals totaling $25.00. It takes only ten minutes to present the matter to the church, but when handled in this way there is no doubt about the outcome. I wish you could have seen the list of names on the blackboard here, for it represents 38 of our 46 members taking an active part, and they are so happy to have a part. The Stewartville believers have assumed a goal that will average about $1.00 per member, which is already in the hands of the church treasurer.

"Next will be Winona and Red Wing—These churches never fail us. We are planning to use considerable literature. The books for this year are fine."

There is nothing I can say that would improve on this letter of courage, but I hope that it will help you to make and reach your individual goal of $2.00 through the Mission Extension. If you cannot have it all ready by April 23 or 30, drop in a pledge covering the remainder, and redeem it before campmeeting time.

Let us cheer the hearts of our missionaries by a sacrificial offering.

J. C. Christenson.

Pacific Press Rally

The Twin Cities were greatly favored in having the Pacific Press rally in their midst, from March 29-31. Union and local conference presidents, Book and Bible House secretaries, and secretaries of the different departments, were invited in. Some of the district leaders from Iowa and our pastors from the Twin Cities were in attendance also. The devotional hours were conducted by Elders Oswald, Schierman and Wiest.

The following representatives from the Pacific Press were present: J. H. Cochran, J. M. Rowse, J. R. Ferren, A. L. Baker, R. E. Bowles, and B. L. Grundset.

Careful study was given to all lines of the literature ministry as well as other lines of missionary endeavor. Elder A. L. Baker spoke at a mass meeting in Minneapolis on Wednesday evening, and to the young people on Friday evening. On Sabbath morning Elder Ferren spoke in the First Minneapolis English church and Elder Baker spoke in the St. Paul church. On Sabbath afternoon all of our churches in the Twin Cities united in a large mass meeting at the Park Avenue church in Minneapolis. Elder Baker spoke to us on that occasion. About 1400 people were present.

All were very much pleased with the help given us by the Pacific Press. We extend to them a very hearty invitation to hold other rallies here in the future.

“Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God.”

OBITUARIES

Brodersen.—Mrs. Rasmus Brodersen was born in Denmark, February 5, 1861, and died at Exira, Iowa, March 5, 1938, at the age of 77 years. When four years old she emigrated with her parents to America and located in Davenport, Iowa. November 18, 1875 she was united in marriage to Rasmus Brodersen. To this union were born four children, all of whom preceded her in death. The last son that passed away was Peter E. Brodersen, who for many years was engaged in gospel ministry. During the ministry of Elder J. G. Mattesen, she and her husband accepted the truth, and since 1903 they have been faithful members of the Jacksonville church. For many years she served the church as deaconess. Their home was always open to visitors, and to these she showed the kindest hospitality. She was of a kind and sympathetic disposition and delighted to help anyone in need. She leaves to mourn, her husband, Rasmus Brodersen, who has reached the ripe age of 91 years, and is today the oldest man in Shelby County; two grandchildren, Raymond and Harold Brodersen of California; and two sisters, Mrs. Louis Hansen, at whose home she died; and Mrs. John Gulberg, also of Exira.

The writer spoke words of comfort to the mourners and to the very large number of members and friends in the community who had come to pay their last respects. Interment took place at the Jacksonville Cemetery.

Bernhard Petersen.

Terry.—Ira Terry, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Terry, was born in Oronoco Township, Minnesota, February 17, 1863, and passed away at his home east of Oronoco on March 28, 1938, at the age of seventy-five years. The immediate cause of his death was a stroke and a heart attack. In 1890, Mr. Terry located at Pine Island, where he engaged in bridge building and general construction work. Here, on June 19, 1892, he was united in marriage to Marion Farham. To this union were born three daughters, Mrs. Alta Laurence of Rochester, Mrs. Maude Mertz of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Joyce Tewes of Oronoco, all of whom with their mother survive the husband and father.

While Mr. Terry never identified himself with the advent cause, his wife has been an earnest believer for many years, and the children were early taught the principles of truth. He did not oppose religious activities, but like many others, he delayed his own eternal welfare until his illness. It is appointed unto man once to die; beyond that we must leave the veiled future to a compassionate God, knowing He judgeth righteously and with great mercy.

A large congregation of relatives and friends gathered in the M. E. church at Pine Island, where services were conducted by the writer, assisted by the resident pastor, and he rests in the little cemetery near Douglas.

Ells.—Lena Mae Ells was born July 25, 1876 at Medford, Minnesota, and died March 24, 1938, at Faribault, Minnesota. Sister Ells was the daughter of Henry and Mary Ells. Her father, Elder Henry Ells was one of the early ministers of the third angel's message, laboring in Wisconsin, Minnesota, and the Dakotas, until ill health made it necessary for him to lay down the burdens of travels and hardships incidental to those earlier days. Our sister was born and reared, and spent her entire life in the Seventh-day Adventist church, of which she was an honored member at her death. Sister Ells was preceded in death by her husband and only child, since which time she had made her home with her husband's mother, aged Sister Ells—now in her ninety-fifth year. They were very devoted to each other, and at the last services for our departed sister, this aged mother in Israel was present. Sister Ells has gone to her rest. She sleeps in hope, and we believe confidently she will be called when the Life-giver comes to gather the saints to himself. Services were held in the Faribault Seventh-day Adventist church, and she was laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery overlooking the river at Kenyon, Minnesota. We shall miss our sister in the church work and Christian fellowship. Words of comfort were spoken by the writer, assisted by Brother H. V. Reed.

Gurban.—John Gurban was born August 6, 1883, in Semlock, Rumania, and passed away at his home in Minneapolis, Minnesota, June 25, 1936. On January 18, 1902, he was united in marriage to Mary Pask. This home was blessed with eight children, four of whom preceded their father in death. In 1914 the Gurban family came to America and settled in Minneapolis. It was there that Brother Gurban heard and accepted present truth in 1920. He was a faithful member of the Minneapolis Northside S. D. A. Church, where his funeral was conducted by Elder A. J. Haysmer. Besides his dear companion, Brother Gurban leaves to mourn their loss three sons: Ted, Raymond, and Joseph; and one daughter, Ann. His aged parents also survive him and live in Rumania. Our brother sleeps in Jesus and the blessed hope. At the time of the resurrection he will be looking for his family to accompany him to heaven.
